Que. Police and Fire Chiefs Welcomed Here

Luncheon Held at Golf Club Chalet, Visit to Ayers Limited Textile Plant

Justice Barrette Addresses Association

Police and Fire officials were portrayed in a worthy and commendable role as custodians of the public welfare — by His Honor Judge Herman Barrette, principal speaker at the Quebec Police and Fire Chiefs' luncheon meeting held yesterday at the Lachute Golf and Country Club. The attendance of Chiefs and prominent citizens, with their wives and lady guests numbering a total of 150, voted this function a pleasurable event and a complete success.

The role of the law authority is to serve the public, said Justice Barrette — but to do so with consideration and diplomacy, engendering confidence — employing all other means before the exertion of force, to ensure the public peace and protection. He stressed the importance to curb juvenile delinquency in its earliest stages, with kindly understanding rather than by force, much as a father smoothing the family troubles which beset the day's routine.

The luncheon was under chairmanship of the Association's president, Chief Raoul Latour, of St. Jerome, while Me. Fernand Legault served with his usual wit and ability as master of ceremonies. The chief speaker was welcomed and introduced by Mr. W. M. Cottingham, M.L.A., and thanked by the federal deputy for this constituency, Mr. Philippe Valois, M.P.

Police Chief D. Villeneuve of Lachute introduced the French-speaking guests, while Fire Chief Geo. Y. Deacon introduced the English guests; and Mayor Leopold Carrière voiced a very genial welcome to all comers, in the name of Lachute Town.

Besides these gentlemen, mostly accompanied by their wives, others seated at the head table were — F. X. Hearne, Assistant Provincial Fire Commissioner; R. S. Price, Inspector of the Canadian Fire Underwriters Association; Horace Lamarche, president of the Lachute Lions Club; Alderman Stanley Holt, chairman of Lachute's fire and police committee; Dr. Jules Lafleur, joint district coroner. . . Among the attendance were also citizens representing all local

Regular Council At Brownsburg

Brownsburg — At the monthly meeting of the Municipal Council a large delegation led by Xavier Dicaire attended to protest the increased cost of laying sidewalks. As this matter has been debated over and over again, it only remains to report that the increased cost of cement is responsible for the extra charge per foot of sidewalk construction. The delegation felt that it is not fair to them to increase the cost beyond that paid by their neighbor who was fortunate enough to have had his sidewalk laid when the cost was lower. On the other hand, the Council could not spread the increase over the general tax, especially when these people did not avail themselves of the lower cost by laying the sidewalk prior to the Council appointing a contractor to do the work.

Jos. Malacket asked the Council to lay a sidewalk across his laneway to block surface-water from the streets. He was assured by Mayor Donaldson this work would be completed as soon as cement was available.

Mr. Malacket also asked for the erection of a "Welcome" sign at the approach to the village. He pointed out this matter had been agreed to six months ago, and nothing had been done. For $15 a frame and lettered sign could be erected at the hill.

The Mayor said there were many more necessary things to be done than erecting a "Welcome to Brownsburg" sign at the present time. The people would welcome a better water-head by repairs to the supply line, and better fire protection by repairs to the reservoir — both of which were receiving attention at the moment. When the time comes to put up a "Welcome" sign the Council or club responsible would put up a memorial worthy of the position Brownsburg occupies as the Gateway to the Laurentians, erected in enduring granite, artistic and beautifying — and not $15 worth of wood and galvanized iron.

Aimé Parisien asked to have the time for barber shops remaining open extended to 7 p.m., after the time changes October 29. . . It was pointed out that the present closing hour was 7 p.m. and would continue so.

Fire Chief A. Robbins' report covered details of five fires which occurred since last meeting, including —

P. Gagné, chimney fire, no damage.

C. Low, chimney fire, no damage.

M. Farmer, chimney fire resulting from owner not cleaning pipes after his chimney had been cleaned.

D. St. Jean, ignition of a box of kindling beside the stove; damage $25 to floor and paint work.

Later, a further call to the same house for a fire between the walls far removed from first fire. . . Chief Robbins said he could not understand how a fire broke out at this point, but the estimated damage was $350.

The most serious fire occurred at 9.25 Sunday evening at Lafleur's. Thousands of gallons of water had to be poured on a fuel-shed containing a truck, which was not insured. He estimated the damage at $3,500. In connection with this fire, Chief Robbins pointed out he had heard considerable criticism of the delay in bringing a line of water to the blaze. It must be understood, he said, that there is no water in reserve for fire-fighting at the present time, owing to the reservoir being under repairs. It is therefore necessary to notify C-I-L after a call is received, and have the engineer in charge set the pumps in motion and start water under pressure circulating through the town lines. This operation takes time, perhaps 15 to 20 minutes at least. Later, when the reservoir is in operation, it will be possible to start fire-fighting within five minutes of receiving the call, as has been the custom in the past.

Mayor Donaldson said he had promised the amount set in the budget for chimney cleaning be paid over to the fire brigade, who were doing the work. There was

Historical Soc'y Annual Event

The Historical Society of Argenteuil has announced its 16th annual meeting for October 14, to be held at the Carillon Museum. At this time the celebrated and popular Mrs. Phoebe Erskine MacKellar will present "Canada in Lore and Legend". The program will be a most interesting one, as all Mrs. MacKellar's presentations of the past have been, and the beautifully situated Museum will afford a fitting background for her traditional themes.

It is interesting to note in the guest book at the Museum, the names of visitors from six provinces of Canada, ten states of the U.S.A., from England, Scotland, Turkey, China, Luxembourg and Singapore. Among the more notable visitors have been—Major General R. O. G. Morton (G.O.C. Quebec Command) with staff; the well-known authors, John and Margaret MacKenzie, of Toronto; Lady Ampthill, of London, England; and Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Carter, of Montreal.

Many of the exhibits in this Museum are of great value, but a visiting artist has commented on "the priceless paintings" donated by Mrs. Seipp. These remarkable displays are sometimes not fully appreciated; such treasures should not be taken for granted.

It is hoped that all members and friends of the Society will attend the annual meeting October 14, and enjoy the superb program offered by that outstanding elocutionist, Phoebe Erskine MacKellar.

Forum Activities Open With Rally

A successful rally was held Monday evening in the hall of St. Simeon's Church, to start the ball rolling for another season of Farm Forum activities.

Films were shown indicating the importance of experimental farms across Canada, and a very interesting talk was given by Mr. Keith Russel, Agriculture teacher at the Lachute High School. Mr. Russel told of the action of different plant foods in the soil, and how the various limes and fertilizers work in feeding plants and building up the nutritive properties of the soil. From this point he stressed the importance of working together in farm enterprise, and the advantages of a community co-operative. A newcomer to these parts, the speaker had been wondering why there is not a co-op venture operating in a farming centre of this size. Mr. Russel made his talk very informal as well as technical, and had many humorous illustrations which made a hit with the audience.

The speaker was thanked by the chairman, Mr. Heber Boyd. Mr. Jim Davidson was then introduced, and gave some facts concerning Farm Forum work, and the importance of having such a group in the community. The Rev. C. R. Lang voiced a few words of welcome.

The evening concluded with a singsong and refreshments.

1950-51 Program for Community Concerts

The Lachute Community Concerts Association has now had the dates confirmed for its concerts in the coming season. There will be four recitals, the first of which will take place November 29, when the famous mezzo-soprano singer, Miss Jane Hobson, will appear. The second concert will be on January 9 and the guest artist will be the violinist Ricardo Odnoposoff. On March 1, the 37-piece Longines Symphonette will appear in Lachute. The last concert will take place April 23 with the appearance of that great pianist Gyorgy Sandor. All concerts will be held in the new auditorium at Lachute High School.

Letters announcing these concerts, together with the membership tickets, will be mailed to all members within the next few days.

Fire Prevention Week October 8th - 14th

Last year, in the Province of Quebec, 93 persons were killed by fire, and property worth more than 22 million dollars was destroyed; the average loss for each man, woman and child of the population reached the unprecedented figure of $6.16.

Fire Prevention Week, for many years, has been the means of bringing to the public a realization of the tremendous toll in lives and property taken by fire; and, this year, after the disasters at Rimouski, Cabano and Ste. Ursule, it is of the utmost importance that every citizen put forth his best efforts to promote and stimulate a greater fire prevention consciousness.

Turning First Sod for Brownsburg Community Rink

The construction of a covered skating rink at Brownsburg officially got under way Thursday, September 28, with a ceremony during which Mayor Jas. Donaldson turned the first sod on the MacVicar field, adjacent to Longtin's Hotel. Since then a bulldozer has been busy levelling the ground, and this work is now practically finished. The next step will be digging and making the cement pillars for the steel framework, which is now on order. Volunteer labor will perform this task, and it is expected that the response will be encouraging.

Canvassing for funds is still continuing and, in view of work on the rink having started, those who have made pledges and have not yet paid anything on them, are earnestly asked to commence now, in order that the Committee may have sufficient funds on hand when steel erection work commences. The names of further subscribers to the rink project are listed on page 10.

Lachute Badminton Club Election of Officers

Lachute Badminton Club held a general meeting and election of officers last Tuesday evening, October 3, in the Lachute Auditorium, when Robert (Sonny) Ogilvie was elected to the office of president.

Jas. Pillage, as outgoing president, was in the chair, and among other business which was discussed it was decided to use the Lachute Auditorium as the regular meeting place this year — the meetings to take place every Tuesday and every second Thursday during the season. It was also decided that a monthly meeting would be held on the first Tuesday of each month.

A match committee was elected and plans augur well for an interesting season of badminton.

Runaway Taxi Enters Storefront

Around one o'clock last Saturday morning, a car unattended at the Veteran Taxi stand, between Dominion and A & P Stores rolled into motion across Main Street. The considerable width and steep decline of the street gave the car such momentum that it mounted the sidewalk opposite, and plunged into the show-window of S. Greenspon & Son. The impact broke two panels of plate glass and vitrolite facing, and the taxi halted with its nose actually in the show window, where some damage was done also to clothing merchandise and fixtures.

Cst. O. Sabourin investigated the crash. He was informed by the chauffeur, Gaetan Larocque, that he had left the vehicle momentarily, with gear disengaged and no brake applied, while he answered a call on the company telephone.

Late A. Elkington Served With Imperials in India

The death of Arthur H. Elkington, 66 years of age, occurred last Thursday at his son's residence in Lachute, after a long illness.

Born in Simla, Punjab, India, he was the son of the late Major and Mrs. H. Elkington. He served in the British army in India and later came to Canada in the year 1907.

He married Matilda Ellen Syers, of Bansville, Ont., and later they moved to Lachute, where they have lived for 36 years.

He was formerly employed by Wilson Paper Co. and also on government work.

The late Mr. Elkington leaves to mourn his wife and four children—Mrs. F. Scahill (Florence), of Montreal, Mrs. George Graham (Olive), of Cornwall, Maurice, also of Cornwall, and Roland, of Lachute.

The funeral was held Saturday at Lachute Baptist Church, the Rev. W. H. Britton officiating. He was laid to rest in Lachute Protestant Cemetery.

Pall-bearers were his sons, Roland and Maurice, Frank Scahill, Allan Trickey, John Cruise and Edgar Cruise.

$5,000 Jewel Theft Near St. Andrews

A summer property at La Baie, St. Andrews, was burglarized last week, and it is reported jewelry to the value of $5,000 was taken from valises in the garage of the cottage.

Provincial police, notified of the robbery, found that thieves had broken into the garage, pierced the top of a small English car and removed two large valises containing jewelry samples, besides other baggage in the trunk of the auto, also containing jewelry.

Victim of the robbery, which occurred during the night of September 26-27, was Laurier Lebrun, Montreal jewelry salesman, who had the car and contents garaged at his summer cottage that night.

Det. Maurice Lamoureux, on temporary duty in this district, is conducting the investigation.

Canada's population increased most rapidly at the times of the American Revolution, the Irish famine, the building of the Canadian railways and the opening of the Canadian west.

In connection with the Legion (Branch 70) "bingo", advertised elsewhere in this issue, prizes for this event will be on display for a week at the Hervé Filfe tailor shop on Main Street — Mr. Filfe having graciously given space in his show-window for this purpose.

Prov. Director of Junior Red Cross Tells Story of Group's Achievements

Miss E. Lorraine How Is Speaker at Lachute Branch of Women's Institute

The regular monthly meeting of the Lachute Women's Institute was held in the Legion Hall Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. F. A. Brennian, president, in the chair. Conveners' reports and regular business were dealt with, and final arrangements made for the "John Fisher Reports" lecture, which will be presented tonight in Lachute High School. The president announced that the semi-annual county convention of the W.I. would be held October 21 at 2 p.m. in the music room of the High School. Miss May McGibbon, convener of Health and Welfare, announced that at next regular meeting of the Institute, November 7 in Lachute High School, a special film describing the diagnosis and treatment of cancer would be shown.

Mrs. George Muir, convener of Education, then took over the proceedings, and Mrs. Gordon Dobbie introduced the guest speaker, Miss E. Lorraine How, of Montreal, Director of the Junior Red Cross for Quebec. Miss How gave an inspiring address on Junior Red Cross work in this province. She spoke chiefly of the various ways in which the 63,000 Junior Red Cross members in Quebec carry out their program of — (1) health first, for all children; (2) service to others; and (3) friendship among the children of the world. Miss How's address was illustrated throughout by case histories of children who had once been ill, perhaps with polio, or who had suffered some serious handicap and had been restored to health and normal living again, thanks to Junior Red Cross financial aid in providing hospital care and treatment. In this connection Miss How described her trip to Labrador, where she visited the schools. The Labrador school children were enthusiastic Red Cross workers and were eager to hear stories of other girls and boys in Canada. They themselves had never seen a cow, train, electric light, an automobile or a paved highway.

A very important project which the Junior Red Cross has undertaken during the last two or three years, is good nutrition for all school children. Miss How (who had previously visited Lachute High School, where she was received by the principal, Mr. F. H. J. Royal) praised the new, well-equipped, spacious cafeteria with its two beautiful new stainless steel steam-tables installed in the kitchen. The Junior Red Cross had made a donation of $1,500 to Lachute High School to help in providing a hot meal for out-of-town pupils at noon time, and this donation aided very substantially in purchasing and installing these steam-tables. A child who has the proper "refueling" at noon time, said Miss How, is more mentally as well as physically alert for the remainder of the school day, and she urged all W.I. members to take an active part in this important work of providing a wholesome meal at noon. Altogether $17,000 has been expended on this project in Quebec Province, having been donated to ten different centres to help equip their lunch-rooms.

Miss How also described the work done in the 20 dental clinics in the Montreal schools and those in three rural centres. Each spring the children of Quebec Province make and send complete outfits of clothes to a blind children's nursery in England. Medical and school supplies, clothes, also food, soap and cod-liver oil are sent to the children of Italy, Greece, India and Pakistan, and until lately to Korea. The Junior Red Cross children of Canada are exchanging portfolios (examples of which were shown to the ladies) with other groups of children all over the world. It is these children who know what friendship really means, and who are the world citizens of today.

It was her friendly personality, her deep interest in her work, as well as her poise and ability as a speaker, which made Miss How so pleasant to listen to — and the appreciation of all the members present was expressed to her by Mrs. George McGibbon.

Tea was served by Mrs. W. Watson and Mrs. M. Tillotson, social conveners.

Leg Broken in Fall from Trailer

Jean Labonté, riding on a trailer loaded with wood last Saturday evening on the Brownsburg Road, was pitched from the load near the foot of Allan Hay's hill, and suffered an open fracture of the leg.

It is reported that the trailer was being towed behind a jeep, coming towards Lachute from the vicinity of the Franciscan orchard. The vehicle started to sway while descending the hill, and Labonté was hurled from the load. Dr. R. Lavigne, of Lachute Mills, was summoned to attend the victim, who was then taken by ambulance to the physician's office for first-aid treatment, and was later removed to the Sacred Heart Hospital at Cartierville.

113 Blood Donors, Red Cross Clinic

The response at last Thursday's blood donor clinic in Lachute, totalling 113 donors, was considered gratifying to the organizing committee of Lachute Red Cross. The result was specially satisfying in view of two similar ventures, under other auspices, held around this same time.

Convener and enrolment officer on behalf of the local Red Cross were Mrs. Geo. McGibbon and Miss Janet McOuat. These ladies, and their committee, take occasion to thank all the donors who "so willingly gave their blood that they might help save a life". They extend appreciation also to the Lions and Rotary Clubs, and Col. L. M. Hooker, who provided transportation; J. P. MacKimmie & Sons, who donated soft drinks; and the conveners, canteen workers, nurses, registrars and all others who helped to make this clinic so successful.

Many voluntary donors expressed their admiration of the manner in which technicians and officials conducted this clinic. In turn, the staff from Red Cross headquarters were also warm in their praise for the facilities and arrangements provided for their visit here. A letter to the local chairman from Mrs. M. Mitchell, director of the Blood Donor Panel, quotes Nurse MacIlinan, who had charge of the mobile clinic staff, as follows:

"She said to tell you that everything was perfect, and that you were so kind to them all that the staff had their pleasantest day for months. She tells me that the room was perfect, the volunteers were grand, the supper delicious, the lunch at the hotel was very good, and the men who helped were splendid; and I think she lost her heart to the Scouts!

"It all adds up to most efficient planning on the part of the Blood Donor Committee in Lachute, and I congratulate you and your helpers on all you were able to do in such a short time.

"General Renaud and the Blood Donor Panel wish to send their warmest thanks to all the volunteers who helped."

Golden Anniversary Celebrated at St. Amedée

Mr. and Mrs. James Curren celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, September 23, at their home in St. Amedée. An enjoyable evening was spent among a large number of relatives and friends, from Ottawa, Lachute, Montreal, Vermont, Boston, Vancouver and New Brunswick.

The honored couple received many beautiful gifts from their family and friends. Mrs. Curren's little granddaughters, Isabel Barfoot and Mary Jackson, presented her with a bouquet of red roses, singing "On Your Golden Wedding Day".

Refreshments were served, including a decorated three-tier wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Curren expressed heartfelt appreciation for the gifts, the pleasant evening, and the real friendship shown them by their many friends over the past 50 years.

Former Resident Feted On Her 80th Birthday

One of Lachute's former residents, Mrs. John Boyd (now of Montreal), was feted on the occasion of her 80th birthday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith, Beech Ridge. Present on this occasion were her 10 children and their respective husbands and wives, 19 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. Mrs. Boyd is still very active, and takes a keen interest in her church and other local activities; she is also enjoying the best of health.

Gatineau LINES

Raw Materials for Electricity

In any manufacturing process, the first job is to collect the raw materials necessary and get them to the factory where the finished article is to be produced. In the manufacture of hydro electricity there is only one raw material — water — but the job of collecting this raw material and getting it to the electricity "factory" is just as complicated as in any other case.

The water which is the raw material from which Gatineau Power manufactures the electricity used by 60,000 customers is found high up in the Gatineau hills and in the upper reaches of the Ottawa River. From there, it must be directed down to the power plants — or "factories" — far down the Gatineau and Ottawa Rivers.

Furthermore, because electricity is a produce which is needed 24 hours a day, day in and day out, the flow of raw material to the electricity factory must be steady. Electricity cannot be manufactured and then "stock-piled" until it is needed. It must be used as soon as it is made. But if the electricity itself cannot be "stock-piled", the water which makes it can be. The power plants operate constantly, but the amount of electricity they make can be controlled by the amount of water which passes through them — as long as there is enough water available to control.

Water is collected and controlled by giant dams — some of them hundreds of miles away from the power plants and some right next door to the plants. These dams store water in lakes many miles long behind them, and the water is released in such a way that there is always exactly the right amount of water available at the power plant to produce the amount of electricity needed at any particular time.

Control dams are expensive, but without them there could be little or no electricity. The water which the power plant uses for a second and then releases unchanged costs millions of dollars to gather and store. Electric power is a natural resource which becomes useful ONLY after man has harnessed it and put it to work — just as all other natural resources are useful ONLY when they are put to man's use.

Slow-Motion X-Ray Of Body in Action

London — Among the advanced types of X-ray apparatus seen at the technical exhibition held in London recently in conjunction with the International Congress of Radiology, with the cine-radiography apparatus shown by a United Kingdom manufacturer.

With the aid of this appartus, X-ray cinematograph films, in slow motion or at normal speed, can be made of all parts of the body. The films thus made will prove invaluable to the doctor because he will be able to follow the movement of joints, watch the action of the heart or the processes of digestion and repeat them over and over again.

The idea of cine-radiography is not new, but only now has it been possible, by using new developments in both X-ray and optical technology, to produce moving X-ray pictures of a sufficiently high standard to satisfy the exacting demands and, at the same time, to eliminate all risk of injury to the patient.

New Jersey Farm Example of New Techniques

By Gus Winkler

Seabrook, N.J. (AP) — Laboratories, electric eyes, a "sun doctor" and assembly line methods have replaced the hit-or-miss, hope-the-weather-is-right and plant-with-the-moon farming in the expanding "frozen food" industry.

A leading example of the new techniques is Seabrook Farms. It is a 40,000-acre project and the world's largest garden, operated by 70-year-old Charles F. Seabrook and his three sons.

This giant farm extending over an 80-mile area, is linked with two-way radio which keeps nine field managers moving hundreds of vehicles to best advantage during harvests. The farm has eight airplanes dusting crops, its own fire and police departments, sewerage and water plants, and homes for its 3,000 employees.

One of the most interesting of the systematic operations is packing peas and lima beans. Seabrook processes more than half the frozen baby lima beans in the nation.

First, under direction of Dr. Frank App, agricultural research division, the soil is laboratory analyzed and is kept two years ahead of the crops. Dr. C. W. Thornthwaite, called the "sun doctor" but whose title is climatologist, keeps a growth index on which he records earth temperature, sun and moisture. He can tell to within 12 hours when a crop will be ready to harvest. He hopes to mprove this time to a six-hour prediction.

A mobile irrigation system is used when the growth index shows moisture is failing. If crops arrive at their peak at night, there are great banks of mobile lights so harvest will be on schedule. Eight varieties of peas are planted in thousands of acres at one time.

When Dr. Thornthwaite's growth index shows the peas are ripe, big tractor-drawn cutters move into the fields, lifting the vines and sliding them off at the ground. The vines are trucked to viners — giant revolving drums which beat the peas out of pods. The peas drop into boxes and are rushed to the plant.

The plant laboratory determines sugar and starch content and gives the density formula for a brine solution through which the peas pass. Sweet peas float — overripe, or starchy peas sink. There follow washings and screenings to grade the peas for size.

The peas pass through electric eyes which select them for color. These devices are two wheels revolving rapidly at right angles. Peas drop on a horizontal wheel and rise to a single row on the rim. The other wheel studded with vacuum cups, picks up each pea and puts it through the electric eye. Off-color peas are kicked off the cup by a little hammer.

These identical premium peas, blanched and cooled, go to the packaging section. At the final line, an air blast separates any hulls or splits. Periodic checks of the product are made in the third laboratory before freezing. Packages are check-weighed. Automatic box openers, fillers and closers continue the assembly line technique. The wax-wrapped boxes are put in trays and sent to the quick freezers. Then with an hour or little more of freezing, the brick-hard packages go to the warehouse where the temperature is maintained at least 10 degrees below zero.

INDIANA FARMERS STUDY CANADIAN METHODS

Montreal, October 2 — Visits to Macdonald College at Ste. Anne de Bellevue and the agricultural school at Oka were made recently by 250 farmers from the State of Indiana, following their arrival in Montreal aboard a C.N.R. special train from Ottawa. The farmers, who were on a tour of Ontario and Quebec to acquaint themselves with Canadian farming techniques, were accompanied to the schools by P. E. Boutet, C.N.R. agricultural agent. The group went as far as Quebec City before returning to the United States.

ARTIFICIAL BREEDING INCREASING

An increase in artificial breeding is reported from two areas in British Columbia's Fraser Valley, one centre reporting breeding 8,300 cows from January to June this year compared to 6,700 for a similar period last year, according to Production Service, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Federal-Provincial Agriculture Conf'ce

Ottawa — The annual Federal-Provincial Agricultural Conference in Ottawa, December 4, 5 and 6, will be held in Ottawa under the chairmanship of A. M. Shaw, Chairman, Agricultural Prices Support Board.

As in other years, representatives of the Federal and Provincial Departments of Agriculture and of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture will get together to review the past year and to size up the possibilities for the coming year.

Initiated at the beginning of the war to encourage free and frank exchange of agricultural opinion from one end of Canada to the other, such a conference has since been continued at the request of provinces and organized farm groups.

Immediately following the conference the National Advisory Committee on Agricultural Services will meet. This committee brings together the deans of Agricultural Colleges, provincial Deputy Ministers of Agriculture, and federal officials.

Canadian Cattle Win in Argentina

Rockwood T. E. Rocket, an imported Canadian Holstein-Friesian bull, won the grand championship at the Palermo Show in Buenos Aires, Argentina. The four senior classes were won by Canadian stock, two of the animals having been imported and the other two born in Argentina from imported dams and sires. The reserve grand championship was won by Highcrest Pippin Rag Apple, an imported cow.

NEW ZEALAND TO IMPORT CANADIAN EQUIPMENT

The New Zealand Government has issued licenses for the importation of $12.8 million worth of tractors and other specialized farm equipment from Canada and the United States during 1950.

POTATO PRODUCTION

Potatoes in some instances are replacing summerfallow in preparation for the sugar beet crop, according to officials in the Economics Division of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, who are making a study of potato production practices in the irrigated areas of southern Alberta. In some cases it was found that potatoes followed summerfallow or a legume crop plowed down.

NEW TIMOTHY VARIETY

Some 3,200 pounds of foundation stock of Climax, a new variety of Timothy originated in the Forage Crops Division, will be available for distribution to selected growers in 1951, it is announced by the Experimental Farms Service of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Tested at various experimental stations under varying soil and climatic conditions, this new variety has been found to be a high yielding hay and seed producer and to ripen uniformly under most conditions. Being a week later than most varieties of Timothy, Climax is said to be particularly well suited for fitting in with legumes for hay mixtures.

EXPORT BACON PRICES

Ottawa — Effective Monday, October 2, the Meat Board has increased the paying price for bacon purchased under the U.K. Canada Agreement by $1.25 per hundredweight. This increased price will apply on all grades, weights and selections of Wiltshire sides, and will mean a general A-grade price of $33.75 per hundredweight, compared to the previous $32.50 per hundredweight delivered at seaboard.

A Real Home
A real home is made by the home-loving spirit of those it shelters — otherwise it's just a house. But, it is essential that the house be well planned and well built, of the best materials. It assures comfort, and comfort makes the house home-like.
Many of the best homes in this town and county have been built of materials from our yards. Their owners have profited by trading with us — and so may you.

When Rev. Lorne Sutherland, of Sudbury, Ont., took a Sunday pulpit in the Anglican Church at Cadillac, Sask., while on a visit, it was the same church where he had been baptized and had been organist; half of those in the audience had been present at his baptism. . . J. A. Wesley really had his "ears pinned back" at Qu'Appelle, Sask., during a building bee at the rink; he asked volunteers to push two large basement wall forms together; they did, but he forgot to pull his head out of the way, reports The Progress. . . What would you say? When Mrs. C. Cotie won a $1,000 cash prize at a Lions' bingo at Renfrew, she was asked how she felt, answered "wonderful". . . Two men working for brothers whose sawmills were miles apart, suffered broken legs by falling trees the same day; both brought into Prince George, B.C., hospital at the same time. . . The Melfort Journal had an oddity brought in by Tom Anderson — a horseshoe with potatoes growing around it.

The man who bought the Smiths Falls, Ont., half-ton fire bell 56 years ago, a member of the town council, is putting on a one-man fight to keep it instead of selling it to a scrap dealer; wants it kept as a memento. The Canadian Legion at Grenfell, Sask., last spring sowed wheat on a former golf course property at the edge of town; garnered 1,000 bushels first day, with eight acres still to be cut. . . The Smithers, B.C., fire department bought a truck under the 1,000-mile free check-up guarantee; reached that mileage and then were refused a check-up. Reason, truck was purchased in 1923 and original vendor now defunct.

Henry Nyholt, of North Battleford, Sask., caught up with a trusting coyote on the road, chased it, caught it by the tail, then killed it, reports The Optimist of that city. . At Cowichan, B.C., Sigurd Voltsness had a row of beautiful sweet peas; the vines were 11-feet high.

A Pause for Thanks

THANKSGIVING, the North American fall festival, comes just in the breathing space between harvest time and winter. If nature is kind, the day itself has a touch of Indian Summer. But no matter what the weather, Canadians who live and work on the land, pause for a moment to look around, backward to the crops safely stored, and forward to the farm's less arduous winter season.

Perhaps some of the fall plowing has still to be done, a few root crops remain to be dug. And such farm tasks as looking after the livestock go on all year 'round.

But just now with Thanksgiving dinners and family reunions taking precedence over all other activities, the farmer can take things easy. If he lives in this vicinity, he will find time to take in the county plowing match, where he will meet friends of kindred interests.

Almost everywhere in Canada, the farmer this year can find much for which to be thankful. The fat turkey on his Thanksgiving Day dinner table is one of the signs of a bountiful year. He can reflect with satisfaction that the granary is filled, the silo is bulging, the haymow piled high and the cellar shelves lined with jars of pickles, jams and jellies.

This is a time for rejoicing, for social evenings with the neighbors, for comparing crop yields and for talking over plans for next year. Freed from the cares of crop production, the farmer can spare some time for other matters — maybe there's a less fortunate neighbor who needs a helping hand, or a community project requiring volunteers.

The farmer knows that, in some respects, his work is never finished. But there is no better chance for him to enjoy a breather than right now, at this season of Thanksgiving.

Long Record

A "GOLDEN JUBILEE" dinner for Winston Churchill this week, celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Opposition leader's first election to the British House of Commons. Churchill was first elected October 1, 1900, from the Oldham district. Since then, he has sought re-election 16 times and suffered defeat four times. He has served in the Commons continuously since 1924.

A Creditable Chapter in Canadian History

NAVY WEEK — from October 2 to 8 — is officially proclaimed with the idea of re-emphasizing Canada's great naval record in the last war, to pay tribute to those who made the supreme sacrifice, and to feature Canada's destiny as a sea power and world trade nation. The Royal Canadian Navy and the Navy League of Canada have joined forces to accomplish these purposes. . .

In 2,060 days of war, under Canadian escort, 25,343 merchant ships carried 181 million tons of cargo from North American ports to the United Kingdom. Over this bridge 90,000 tons of war supplies passed daily to the battlefields of Europe. Over 90 per cent of the men who manned our fighting ships were citizen sailors who had joined only "for the duration". Many had never seen the sea before.

Backed by enormous production from Canadian farms, factories and shipyards our combined naval operation helped win the Battle of the Atlantic, repeating in history what Napoleon's Admiral Mahon said of Nelson's ships: "Those far distant, storm-beaten ships, upon which the Grand Army never looked, stood between it and the dominion of the world".

From a few ships at the war's outbreak, by February 1942 the ships of the Royal Canadian Navy formed the main strength of the Western Atlantic escort forces. By midsummer of that year, 40 per cent of escort duty with trade convoy in the North Atlantic was carried out by them. By March 1943, the actual division of escort duty in the North Atlantic was 50 per cent Royal Navy, 48 per cent Royal Canadian Navy, and two per cent United States Navy.

"Navy Week", says Lt.Cdr. Wm. Sclater, author of 'Haida', "is to remind us of how a young nation, drawn from every section of this far-flung land, ventured forth on the face of the great waters and wrote, for all the world to see, one of the most glorious chapters in our history."

THE ROUYN-Noranda Press is "inclined to ignore" any news releases coming to its desk which forecast higher prices or less quantity of, say, pickled tongues or bobby pins — because to print them (says our exchange) almost guarantees that people who would never use either will fill their basements with pickled tongues and bobby pins.

Ministerial Ass'n Protests Situation at Val d'Or

The regular meeting of the Argenteuil Protestant Ministerial Association was held in Lachute Baptist Church last week. Guest speaker was the Rev. Wm. Dynes, who took as his subject the need of the Church to lead in Revival. Men are "called of God" to reveal Jesus Christ; the world is hungry for God, who is the only solution of world problems; Jesus Christ is the message of the Church of God.

The business of the Association covered a large range of matters. The Rev. S. J. Pike was elected president, and the Rev. G. T. Spriggs secretary-treasurer. The Rev. W. H. Britton was appointed to represent this locality in the Quebec Temperance League.

Sincere regret was expressed on the departure of the Rev. A. G. Moore from Cushing to Granby, Que. Mr. Moore during his pastorate in this county has ever been faithful in attendance and co-operation with the A.P.M.A. in all its activities and business.

A protest is being forwarded to the authorities regarding the continued persecution of Protestant ministers and lay evangelists in this province. Following is the text of the Association's resolution:

To the Mayor and Council of Val d'Or, Quebec.

Be It Resolved

That Whereas in the Province of Quebec there is an Act (Chapter 307 Revised Statutes of Quebec 1941) on our Statute Books providing free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession to His Majesty's subjects living within the same.

And Whereas for the past eleven years this freedom has been enjoyed by members of the Baptist Communion in the City of Val d'Or.

And Whereas since June 1949 the Police of Val d'Or have persecuted and imprisoned on several occasions members of the Baptist Communion.

And Whereas the new law recently enacted by the Council of Val d'Or amending Article 28 of By-law No. 45 is in contradiction to the Provincial Act above mentioned in section one.

We, on behalf of the members of the County of Argenteuil Protestant Ministerial Association assembled in regular session on the 25th day of September 1950,

Do Hereby register our strong protest with the Mayor and Council of the City of Val d'Or on account of the unprovoked persecution of members of the Baptist Communion.

And Do Hereby make request that all those imprisoned in Val d'Or jail on account of this persecution be released at once.

And Do Hereby make request that the new law recently enacted be at once removed from the laws of the City of Val d'Or.

And Do Hereby make further request that all religious bodies be granted the freedom provided in Chapter 307 Revised Statutes of the Province of Quebec 1941 to promulgate and witness their Faith according to individual conscience in the City of Val d'Or, Quebec.

Until fifty years ago, surgery on the human heart had not been attempted successfully. The first successful operation on the heart was the result of a heroic attempt to save the life of a person with a deadly heart wound.

Scout Leaders' Conference This Week-End, N. Hatley

Scouters, leaders of Cubs, Scouts and Rovers, from many parts of he province, as well as lay supporters, are expected to attend in substantial numbers the 15th Provincial Scouters' Conference, being held at North Hatley over Thanksgiving week-end. Registrations indicate the attendance will exceed that of last year, which numbered about 130 members and friends of the Boy Scouts Association in Quebec.

The guest of honor will be Major-General F. F. Worthington, C.B., M.C., co-ordinator of civil defence, Department of National Defence, Ottawa, who will speak Sunday afternoon on Civil Defence in Canada — a statement of the problem. B. H. Mortlock, executive commissioner for publications at Canadian Scout headquarters, Ottawa, will give the opening address, on the object of Scouting. Two other addresses will be given by Elwood Wilson, district forester attached to the provincial department of land and forests, and E. Russell Paterson, former provincial executive commissioner of the Boy Scouts Association, now lecturing in natural sciences at Sir George Williams College, Montreal. Mr. Wilson will speak on our part in reforestation, and Mr. Paterson on questions which boys ask about the stars.

Registration for the conference will precede the opening dinner on Saturday evening, to be followed by a formal welcome by C. G. Blake, commissioner for the Sherbrooke district. G. Robley Mackay, provincial commissioner, will state the purpose of the conference, and Mayor Reed of North Hatley will officially open the proceedings. The program will include a dance on Saturday evening, divine services on Sunday morning, special sessions for Cub, Scout and Rover leaders, practical sessions for all, exhibits, outdoor activities, a special session for district commissioners present, final summing up by a panel of experts and closing remarks after lunch on Monday on conference impressions.

The theme of the discussions in the Cub, Scout and Rover leaders' sessions will be Plan Achievement, a scheme put forward by Canadian Scout headquarters for study and application with targets of achievement set for 1951, 1952 and 1953. The Plan follows on Plan Opportunity which was laid down two years ago with the object of taking Scouting and the opportunity to become Cubs and Scouts to more and more boys. The fact that the Plan succeeded is illustrated by the fact that the Association's membership in Canada is at its highest point since the Movement was started a little more than 40 years ago. At the last census there were 104,000 Cubs, Scouts and Rovers and 10,000 leaders. Plan Achievement will take the Association's program through till just prior to the next Canadian jamboree, to be held in the summer of 1953.

Jersey Sends Thanks Plaque

Lt.-Gen. Sir Edward Grasett, Governor of the Island of Jersey, personally presented a memorial plaque to Scouts of the 10th Toronto Troop recently in appreciation of the troop's gift of $1,300, sent to aid in the re-establishment of Scouting in Jersey after the German occupation. The plaque was accepted by Lee Campbell, who was Scoutmaster of the Troop during the war years.

We must remember always that it is the money obtained from us, the citizens of Canada, through our taxes, that pays the salaries of members of parliament. A Dunlop Street business man has referred to the parking meters along the main street as drunken sailors. It is not uncommon to see strong-armed young men demonstrate their muscular prowess by twisting these metal standards off balance. Perhaps barbells and cable stretchers should be placed at convenient locations along the street.

DESERVING OF SUPPORT

A local organization which spends many hundreds of dollars in the community on good works each year is deserving of support. For the most part, it finds ways and means of accomplishing the projects undertaken, but the fullness of accomplishment would not be possible but for wholehearted public backing.

an advantage in having the brigade do this work in that they become acquainted with the structure and position of all the chimneys, and they were sure they were cleaned. He was grateful to the members of the brigade for undertaking this work. The amount budgeted was $630, and he would suggest to the brigade that if any householder wanted his inside pipes cleaned also, that they do this at a reasonable additional charge, collected direct.

The erection of a siren, recently obtained by the Council, was discussed as a means of calling the fire brigade. Chief Robbins was not in favor of the siren displacing the present system of phones, but saw some merit in its use as a secondary means of warning.

Councillor N. Somers agreed, and added that he understood the siren to be for curfew or other uses, but as a means of calling for fire, it could not send a code message and was only useful for a continuous blast.

The matter is to be studied.

Councillor Somers proposed, seconded by Councillor Denault, that the tender of Laveille and Larose be accepted for painting fire tower and erecting siren — at $125.

Councillor Somers called attention to the possible damage from blasting within the limits of the municipality. A blast set off at the skating rink project had thrown debris on the main street and on roofs in the vicinity. It was "only by the grace of God" that someone had not been hurt.

The Mayor remarked that the man had a permit, but got fooled by the condition of the big tree which he was blasting. The Secretary added that the village by-law only covers the hours of blasting.

A sum of $25 was appropriated to purchase a ladder for the reservoir.

Police Chief H. Foucreau reported on the number of police calls, 78; arrests, 2; fires, 5; children lost, 3; and inspection of amusement tax collection at the houses of amusement.

Mr. W. M. Cottingham, M.L.A., wrote on the matter of fire prevention grant for new lining in the reservoir, that he was taking this up with the minister.

Some water users on Maple Avenue South were to be notified to sink their water lines below frost level, or the Council will be obliged to cut off the supply during winter to avoid wastage.

Life in the R.C.N.

It's anchors away at break of day,
They're bound for a distant land;
Though storm and strife may be their life,
On many a foreign strand.

The slash and dip of a mighty ship
On the broad Atlantic's breast,
The walls of spray at break of day,
On the surging billow's crest.

With hatches tight, on an ink-black night,
When the thundering waters roar.
A piercing gale, the foghorn's wail,
Wild storm on a rockbound shore.

Then peaceful days, when a purple haze
The setting sun enfolds.
A long voyage o'er, they're safe ashore
With cargo-laden holds.

A brief short stay and they've slipped away
Through the mist and gathering foam,
For the call of the sea will ever be
Beyond the ties of home!

Urges Independence For Young Couples

Oakville, Ont. (CP) — A formula for a long and happy marriage was given by a couple who have just celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary.

"Marry young and live alone, even if it's only one room", said Christopher Leamen, who, with his wife, held a big family reunion to celebrate the event. In attendance were seven children, 25 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Mr. Leamen met his wife when she was 16 and married her when she reached 18. At that time they were able to rent a flat for $4 a month. His salary was $7 a week, but 25 cents bought a three-pound sirloin steak and chickens sold for 20 cents, he recalled.

Overcrowded living conditions and the high cost of living are the reasons for the high divorce rate today, Mr. Leamen believes.

Manners Do Count

— By NANCY CLEAVER —

Good manners have always been important and they still matter in modern life even as they did in the Age of Chivalry. Rules of etiquette change and are discarded with the passing of time. There are different codes of behaviour among different classes of society and in different countries. But the qualities of mind and heart from which courtesy arises remain unaltered. Parents who are eager that their children should grow into well mannered people do well to consider not only rules of conduct and polite phrases, but the traits of character which are the foundation of etiquette.

An excellent definition for good manners is that they are "the happy way of doing things." A person who is kind and considerate by nature will not find it difficult to practice "the happy way of doing things." Sincerity and fairness are two other essential qualities in satisfactory contact with others. Self-control and respect both for others and for oneself, also contribute to pleasant behaviour. A sense of humor is the thing which saves the situation many times. Last, but not least, common sense often dictates what is the right thing to do.

A little child in the home copies the manners whether they be good or bad, of those around him. Courtesy, like measles, is "catching". Formal teaching of rules is never a substitute for observation and experience in living. This does not mean that a child of courteous parents may not sometimes act in a rude fashion. A child who is ill, or frightened or exhausted, may be discourteous and uncooperative. Sometimes a child acts in a boorish fashion in imitation of the actions of a chum. Once in a while a child may do an unexpectedly rude thing as a bid for attention. Sometimes the best way to deal with rudeness is to isolate the child. At other times, it is wise to ignore some small discourtesy in front of a visitor, but discuss the child's behaviour later with him.

"Good manners" has a rather vague impersonal sound to a youngster. But "being friendly" has a very definite meaning. A little child is often naturally shy in the presence of strangers and may feel no necessity for showing friendliness. The attitude of kindness to others is one which is gradually learned. Mothers cannot expect too much of a little child, but they can encourage a son or daughter to be friendly and suggest definite ways to show friendliness. Sometimes it is a good plan to make a little game of using courteous phrases such as "please" and "thank you".

As boys and girls enter adolescence they usually become more conscious of their own need for knowledge and practice in the correct way to behave in different social situations. The lonely, anti-social "teen ager" is often acutely aware of his lack of training in social amenities. Teen agers need to have their own friends and be accepted by their own group of chums. A boy or girl hates to make a social blunder in the presence of the opposite sex.

A great help to feeling at ease in the presence of others is for boys and girls to have the chance to welcome friends in their own homes. Another real need is for a Youth Centre under satisfactory supervision where boys and girls in their teens can meet together for parties, discussions and sharing of hobbies and athletic interests. Manners (and morals too!) take care of themselves when adolescents have the chance to work and play together in the right atmosphere in a place of their own.

MORE AND MORE WIVES OPEN SAVINGS ACCOUNTS FOR BETTER HOME BUDGETING

Managers of the Bank of Montreal all over Canada are finding housewives strongly in favor of Household Savings Accounts. This is how one customer put it: "Every week my husband gives me so much for the household expenses, and that makes budgeting easier. Yet there's always that new hat or summer dress I need, and what's left over from the allowance isn't enough by itself. With a savings account of my own I can build up a fund each week to buy these 'extras'."

Such a Household Savings Account is a real help to many family budgets. If deposits are made regularly, it's remarkable how quickly it will grow into a sizeable sum.

If you feel that you would like to try out your own Household Savings Account, drop into the Bank of Montreal branch in Lachute. Mr. J. L. A. Brouillette, the accountant, or any member of the staff will be very happy to help you open it. Your initial deposit need be no more than one dollar.

Vets Take A Hand in Dawson City

— John Simon Pendent, of the Dawson Branch, Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L. (written for "The Legionary")

The municipal affairs of Dawson City, in the Yukon Territory, have for many years been handled by the Territorial Administration. It was in 1915 that local government folded. The golden days of '98 were gone, and the Commissioner of the Yukon Territory became ex officio Mayor of Dawson, and despatched its business as a not too important part of his duties.

Now in 1950, Dawson's residents are to take the City's government back into their own hands. The Commissioner, with the consent of the Yukon Territorial Council, proclaimed the date for the nomination of Mayor and Aldermen and the date for the opening of the polls for their election. A Voting List was compiled and a Returning Officer appointed, and all the legal trappings of local government were dusted off and put in order. All that was lacking four days before Nomination Day, was anyone willing to run for office!

It certainly looked as if the sense of civic responsibility had atrophied from thirty-five years' disuse. It seemed that the majority of citizens would have been quite happy to let the City's affairs ride along at the benevolent dictation of the Territorial Commissioner. In ten days, exactly four people had made enquiries to find out whether their names were on the Voters' List.

The Executive of the Dawson Branch of the Legion considered this state of affairs at one of its meetings, and, finding it unsatisfactory, instructed the President to get busy forthwith and arouse public interest in the matter of local government. He was instructed to make it clear that the Legion was not interested in the election of any special person, nor in any party, nor even in any special program or platform, but that it was interested in the success of the proposal to re-establish local government in Dawson.

The ways and means of the campaign were decided when an Executive member volunteered the use of his wire-recorder. The Legion would arrange round-table discussions in the homes of six or seven citizens, record them on the wire-recorder, and then broadcast them over Dawson's radio station. If the broadcasts aroused sufficient interest, a Town Meeting was to be arranged.

So for four nights discussions were held and broadcast. One was held and recorded early in the morning for broadcast at night. This brought in three men who were on night shift. The broadcasts themselves got a top entertainment rating as local people argued with each other for the benefit of the radio audience, and by far the most popular was a housewives' session that held listener interest for a straight forty-five minutes.

As the Legion men had foreseen, there was no lack of response from people once the issues were placed before them. Even after the first broadcast it became obvious that the previous lack of interest had been due to lack of information. By the time the women had finished their discussion, the whole town was buzzing with pros and cons, ideas, plans and projects, and there was no longer any lack of candidates for municipal office.

Two days before Nomination Day, Dawson's first Town Meeting was held, and on the day after, no less than eighty people made enquiries to ensure that their names were on the Voters' List. There has been a steady stream ever since, and it looked as if there would be a one hundred per cent turn-out to vote on Polling Day.

The minutes of the last Membership Meeting of the Dawson Legion, contain this motion: "That the action taken by the Executive Committee in sponsoring a publicity campaign on the issue of local government in Dawson is ratified and approved by this Branch."

First Pure Water Supply

When two carts first trundled round the streets of Paisley 145 years ago selling water from barrels at ½d a gallon, they brought local housewives the first filtrated water supply in the world.

And the strange thing is — Paisley itself was unaware of this until recently, when an American publication called "Quest for Pure Water" told the story.

Originator of the scheme, it seems, was a Linwood bleach manufacturer, who, after introducing filtered water for his works, decided in 1804 to make it available for the whole town. Accordingly, he loaded his two carts with barrels and charging ½d., later ¾d. a gallon — delivered pure water from door to door. Paisley consumed 6,700 gallons of it in one year.

Paris was first to follow Paisley's lead, then Glasgow.

German Children of Negro Fathers, Problem

Claim Red Tape Holds Up Adoption of Youngsters By U.S. Negro Couples

Frankfurt, Germany (Reuters) — Red tape is thwarting childless United States Negro couples wishing to adopt children born in Germany to Negro soldiers and German girls.

Mrs. Ethel Louis Butler, Negro school teacher from Chicago, said hundreds of American Negro couples are eager to adopt the children. But army and state department red tape prevented them, she said.

Mrs. Butler came here to arrange for the adoption of such children by families in the United States. She was interested in adopting two of the children herself.

After conferring with American high commission and army authorities, Mrs. Butler said she would return to Chicago to raise funds for her scheme.

She discussed the problem with Lt.-Col. Marcus H. Ray, army adviser on Negro affairs in Germany, consul officials at Stuttgart and Frankfurt, and high commission resident officers at Heidelberg and Stuttgart.

Discussed With Germans

She visited Negro children in German orphanages and discussed the scheme with German officials. Army officials discouraged the idea, Mrs. Butler reported, saying it would be objected to by the Germans. German officials, however, promised their co-operation, she said.

German sources estimated there were about 2,000 children in the American zone with Negro fathers, including 175 in Heidelberg and Mannheim areas where several Negro units are stationed.

Mrs. Butler said she would seek to have the children classed as displaced persons.

The army prohibits marriage between troops below the grade of sergeant and German nationals. German officials said some Negro fathers attempted to remain in Germany after being ordered back to the United States on rotation.

MAY SOLVE VETERANS' HOME BUILDING

—Central Press Canadian

Success of a co-operative house-building plan in Ottawa may make it possible for half-a-million war veterans to build their own homes with little or no down payment. The plan in Ottawa, has 29 veterans building 29 houses under V.L.A. and National Housing help and direction. Here, V.L.A. construction superintendent Morris Goodwin, right, uses a house model to demonstrate the fine points of building to his "students" who expect to move into homes they have built themselves by next spring.

spheres of activity — the Town Council, businesses and professions, clubs and organizations. Det. M. Lamoureux was present representing the Provincial Police, and Lt. Col. E. Emmett representing the Corps of Imperial Frontiersmen — two affiliated units of public service. The representation from this town numbered around 50 persons, the remainder being visiting members of the Association and their guests.

Fernand Legault, in his capacity as M.C., proposed the toast to the King. Alderman Stanley Holt toasted the local police and fire departments, with a heartfelt tribute to their service; he also acknowledged the fine co-operation of Lachute Lions Club in purchasing a new radio-telephone communication system for the use of these two local departments. Mr. Jean Belanger, chief investigator of the C.F.R., sponsored a toast to the provincial organization, and Chief R. Latour cordially thanked the Lachute officials for their hospitality.

The gathering later adjourned to make an inspection tour of the Ayers Limited Mills, being conducted in groups of 15 through the various departments of the local textile plant.

At an executive meeting of the Association, held at the Golf Club before conclusion of the day's proceedings, it was decided to hold the Quebec Police and Fire Chiefs' next annual conference in the City of Val d'Or, Que.

"Evolution versus The New World." This 64-page, colored-cover booklet tests the evidence for evolution and weighs the case for the Bible's new world. The one is a bubble, the other a hope with sure foundation. Prove these facts for yourself. Only 5c a copy.

"Defending and Legally Establishing the Good News." The features of this 96-page booklet include a memorandum of law relative to the work of Jehovah's witnesses. It is of value to witnesses, judges, lawyers and all others interested in the guarantees of freedom. 10c per copy.

All three booklets will be sent postpaid for only 20c. — Write: The Watch-Tower, 40 Irwin Ave., Toronto.

"Let God Be True"

— Romans 3: 3-4

We, according to His promise, look for a new heaven and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. — II Peter, 3: 13.

For Christ must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that he shall destroy is death. — I Corinthians, 15: 25-26.

Of what will the new earch consist? The Bible shows that the present wicked rulers and their organizations will be replaced by an organisation of princes who will rule the earth in justice. These princes will include men who proved their faithfulness to God from Abel to John the Baptist. All such received a good report because of their faith, but have not as yet received their reward. (Hebrews 11; Acts 2:29, 34). Their resurrection will be to life on earth, not heaven. (Matthew 8:11, 11:11; Daniel 12:13). Among such will be fleshly ancestors of Christ Jesus whom he will make princes in all the earth. — Psalm 45:16.

Under the rule of these princes the original purpose of God in creating the earth will be realized: all the earsh will become a paradise filled with righteous creatures who will exercise loving dominion over the lower animals and will serve God in spirit and truth. Peace, health and life will replace war, disease and death.
— Psalm 72; Isaiah 33:24; 9:7, I Corinthians 15:25, 26.

Townsboy Takes Bride In Suburban N.D.G.

Riddell - Ritchie

The marriage of Shirley Mae, daughter of Mr. T. W. Ritchie and of the late Mrs. Ritchie, of Notre Dame de Grace, to Mr. Basil Amos Riddell, son of the late H. E. Riddell and of Mrs. Riddell, of Lachute, took place on Saturday afternoon at half-past two o'clock in Madison Baptist Church, the Rev. Stanley S. Stock officiating. Dr. M. Mallison played the wedding music and Mr. Rex Wilson sang during the signing of the register. Standards of multi-colored gladioli were used to decorate.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was in a gown of ivory satin, with a fitted bodice having a high neckline with a stand-up collar and sleeves ending in points over her hands, and a full skirt falling into a slight train. Her fingertip-length veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of satin, and she carried a semi-cascade bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Mrs. R. G. Sinclair, as matron of honor for her sister, was in a frock of embossed daffodil organza, with a fitted bodice having a Peter Pan collar, and a skirt gathered at the waistline. She wore a matching headdress and carried a semi-cascade bouquet of yellow and maroon gladioli blossoms.

Mr. Grant Riddell acted as best man for his brother, and the ushers were Mr. Clayton Riddell and Mr. Owen Riddell, also brothers of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Riddell, mother of the bridegroom, wore a cocoa brown suit with a brown hat and accessories and a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums.

The reception was held at the Berkeley Hotel, where yellow and white chrysanthemums were used as decorations. Later Mr. and Mrs. Riddell left by motor for the United States and Southern Ontario, the bride travelling in a suit of trapper green gabardine, under a beige topcoat, and wearing dark brown accessories and a corsage bouquet of yellow carnations.

"Walk in the Advancing Light"

The light of understanding of God's Word does not stand still. God is continually causing the prophecies to come to pass, and then He reveals the meaning to His servants. Today this light is increasing at unprecedented speed. The invitation, "Come ye, and let us walk in the light of Jehovah", has therefore never presented a stronger appeal at any previous time. (Isaiah 2:5, Am. Stan. Ver.).

"Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for the upright in heart." (Psalm 97:11).

George Little Heard In Organ Recital

There was a discouraging attendance at the organ recital held last Thursday evening, when Mr. George Little, distinguished young Canadian artist, played in Lachute United Church. Mr. Little had returned the previous evening from a tour of the Maritimes, where he had given several recitals, and his visit to Lachute was one of the last of the season before this artist returns to France to complete his organ studies. The guest was introduced by Mr. C. L. Duncan.

The great organ composer Bach was featured frequently during the evening's recital, Mr. Little giving interesting historical data with the various compositions. Other French scores by Grigny, Clerambault and Dupré added contrast to the music, and the finale featured a prelude and chorale by Franck.

There was no doubt in the minds of those present that Mr. Little has a great future in the realm of music, and the Rev. W. B. Rosborough, minister of the church, expressed appreciation of the fine renditions given by the visiting organist.

Something for Supper

With the first cool breeze of autumn the family demands something more substantial than the light meals they enjoyed in hot weather. Once again the homemaker is faced with the problem of what to have for supper.

Cereals such as macaroni, spaghetti, rice and bread blend with eggs, vegetables, milk and cheese to make a great variety of appetizing things for supper. The addition of cheese and eggs makes such dishes quite substantial enough for any meal, but particularly for supper.

Cheese is another form of milk. Four ounces of cheese equals about 1 quart of milk in total caloric value, so both children and adults will be sure to get a good share of this daily quota when cheese is used with milk, eggs and cereal to make the supper dish.

In Canada we are accustomed to colored cheese and many people are under the impression that the white Canadian Cheddar cheese is something quite different from the colored. It is exactly the same except that the yellow cheese has a little harmless coloring added to it in the cheese vat. The white cheese is the kind they prefer in Britain where so much Canadian cheese is sold. The white cheese is sold as "medium" or "old" according to the length of time it has been cured and either white or colored will give that delicious cheesy flavor to many dishes. Apple pie made from fresh fall apples and served with a generous slice of cheese will always be first choice with the men of the family.

Here are several recipes for supper dishes for September evenings which will be appreciated in later months also. They come from the home economists of the Consumer Section, at Ottawa. All are easy to prepare and very good.

Creole Macaroni

1 8-oz. Package elbow macaroni, 3 large ripe tomatoes, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ¼ cup chopped onion, 1 10-oz. can celery soup, 3 tablespoons butter, ¼ cup chopped green pepper, 1 large ripe tomato, sliced, ⅓ cup grated medium Cheddar cheese.

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and rinse with cold water. Peel the 3 tomatoes and cut in large pieces. Cook with brown sugar, salt, pepper and onion for five minutes. Add celery soup and butter, heat through and stir in green pepper. Place macaroni and sauce in alternate layers in a greased 2-quart baking dish. Place tomato slices on top and sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375°F., for 30 minutes. Yield: eight servings.

September Casserole

5 Large tomatoes (or 2 cups canned tomatoes), 1 tablespoon flour, 1 teaspoon sugar, ⅓ cup chopped onion, ⅛ teaspoon marjoram, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1½ cups cooked fresh corn or canned whole kernel corn, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, 4 tablespoons grated cheese, 2 cups hot mashed potatoes.

Peel and slice tomatoes. Place in a casserole and sprinkle with flour, sugar, onion, marjoram and parsley. Over this place a layer of the corn and season with salt and pepper. Combine 2 tablespoons of the grated cheese with the hot mashed potatoes and place in a ring on top of corn layer. Sprinkle remaining two tablespoons of cheese over the potatoes. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375°F., until a golden brown, about 20 minutes. Yield: six servings.

Mushroom - Cheese Rarebit

1 10-oz. Can condensed mushroom soup, 2 cups grated medium Cheddar cheese, ¼ cup chopped sweet pickles, ¼ cup chopped celery.

Combine soup and cheese and heat in top of double boiler until cheese is melted, stirring occasionally. Add sweet pickles and celery. Serve on hot toast, French fried noodles or rye bread. Yield: four servings.

CHILDREN'S CURFEW

Welland Ont. (CP) — Curfew rings these nights for children under 14, in nearby Crowland township. Until October 1 curfew was 10 p.m., and now nine o'clock. The curfew was established by a municipal by-law.

Salads with Color And Flavor Appeal

There's nothing like a salad to whet jaded appetites. Color and flavor appeal as well as nutrition are to be found in these two tested recipes suggested by Mrs. Iris Grigg Gillespie, home economist of the Canadian Division, American Can Company.

Tomato Aspic

1 Tablespoon plain gelatine, 3 tablespoons cold water, No. 2 can (20-oz.) vegetable juice cocktail or tomato juice, 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

Soak gelatine in cold water for 5 minutes. Heat 1 cup of vegetable juice cocktail to boiling. Pour over soaked gelatine. Stir until dissolved; add remaining cocktail and lemon juices. Pour into individual or large mould, that has been dipped in cold water. Chill until firm. To unmould easily let mould stand in warm water for a few minutes, then turn out on chilled plate. Serve on salad greens with French dressing or mayonnaise as desired. Six servings.

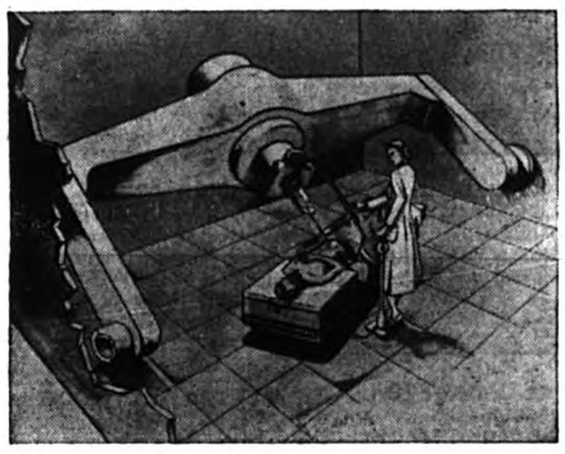
Indian Cole Slaw

Small head of cabbage, 1 cup drained whole-kernel corn, ½ cup chopped green pepper or celery, 1 medium-sized onion (finely chopped), ½ teaspoon salt, ¾ cup salad dressing.

Remove outer leaves and core from cabbage; wash thoroughly and chill to make crisp. Shred and measure 4 cups; place in salad bowl with corn, green pepper and onion. Add salt and dressing; toss lightly with fork until well mixed. Serve thoroughly chilled. Eight servings.

Note: Chopped pimento may be substituted for half of the green pepper.

Super X-Ray for Health Service



Resources under the National Health Service for the treatment of cancer and other diseases, will be considerably strengthened when five super-voltage X-ray therapy machines of new design become available for use in the United Kingdom. The machines will be capable of producing the effects of four-million-volt X-rays — they are known as Linear Accelerators. One of these machines will be based in London, one in Scotland, and the other three in the Provinces. . . Above is a sketch of what one of the new X-ray machines will look like when fully installed.

Wed Recently in Hamilton, Ontario

Gowman - MacVicar

Mount Hamilton United Church (Hamilton, Ontario) was the scene of a very pretty wedding recently when Norma Eleanor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacVicar, was united in marriage to Mr. Leslie Arthur Gowman, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Gowman.

The Rev. John Witzel officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The church was tastefully decorated with standards of white gladioli and asters. Mr. J. Floyd McAsh, the church organist, provided the wedding music, while Mr. Jack Hamilton, soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white Chantilly lace over satin, with a net yoke trimmed with oyster pearls and bugle-beads. The skirt was styled with a bustle, falling into a long train. Her veil, of Swiss nylon net with appliqués of satin at the hemline, extended the full length of her train, and was held in place by a coronet of oyster pearls and bugle beads matching the yoke of the dress. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of white gardenias, stephanotis and green ivy.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Stuart Allan, her sister, as matron-of-honor, Audrey MacVicar (another sister) and Joan Gowman, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids — all dressed alike in gowns of orchid Venetian lace over taffeta, styled with little jackets, and mittens to match. They carried crescent-shaped bouquets of orchid gladioli and Lestra Hibbard roses, and wore headdresses of the same.

Mr. George Hooker was best man, while Mr. Jack Stewart and Mr. Frank Spring ushered.

A reception for 60 guests was held in the Cecil Room of Roberts' Restaurant, the decorations being carried out with pink and white asters. The bride's table was centred with a four-tier wedding cake made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. John Bigelow, of Calumet, Que.

Mrs. MacVicar, the bride's mother, received, wearing steel-grey triple faille with dark green accessories, and a corsage of Orange Delight roses. Mrs. Gowman, the groom's mother, was dressed in beige lace over taffeta with Noisette brown accessories and a corsage of Lestra Hibbard roses.

For going away, the bride was attired in a two-tone grey dressmaker suit with green accessories, and a corsage of Pinocchio roses. After a wedding trip to Washington, D.C., Atlantic City and other points, the happy couple will reside in Westdale, Hamilton.

47-POUND PUMPKIN

Ryley, Alta. (CP) — They grow big pumpkins in this district. One brought to town recently weighed 47 pounds, was five feet six inches in circumference and 14 inches high.

Grenville Couple Pledge Vows at St. Matthew's

Matthew - Welden

The marriage of Eunice Lorraine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Welden, to Mr. Ronald M. Matthew, both of Grenville, took place Saturday afternoon, September 16, at three o'clock in St. Matthew's Anglican Church — the Rev. P. R. Stote officiating, assisted by the Rev. A. E. Hawes, of Valois. Mrs. R. Owens played the wedding music and Mr. Garth Dawson sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the signing of the register. The church was suitably decorated with gladioli and other autumn flowers. The wedding was a double-ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with a nylon yoke neckline and long sleeves tapering down to the wrists and ending in points over the hands. Her fingertip-length veil of tulle illusion was held by a satin headdress. She carried a full cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses and white gladioli.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. C. Brazeau, as matron of honor, Miss Eva Welden and Miss May Matthew as bridesmaids, and little Miss Gloria Welden as flower girl. The attendants were gowned alike in pink, blue and yellow taffeta, with matching headdresses, and they carried semi-cascade bouquets of asters. The flower girl was dressed in pale green organdy and carried a nosegay of yellow peonies.

The bride's mother wore a dress of grey crepe, satin trimmed, with black accessories and a corsage of deep pink gladioli. The groom's mother wore a dress of wine faille with black accessories, and a corsage of white gladioli.

Mr. Victor Gauley was the groom's attendant and the ushers were Mr. Melvin Matthew, brother of the groom, and Mr. Clarence Brazeau.

A reception followed the ceremony, at the bride's home, the bridal couple leaving later to motor to Toronto, Kitchener and the Muskoka district.

The bride wore for travelling a navy crepe dress with navy and white accessories, and a white topcoat. She wore a corsage of red roses.

Out-of-town guests were from Ottawa, Thurso, Huntingdon, Montreal and Valois.

Father (to young son sucking his thumb): "Hey, don't bite that thumb off! You may need it when you're old enough to travel".

Aluminum wrappers keep food fresh!
An "Inside Story" about Butter

Butter goes stale quickly when air and light get in. That's why better-wrapped butter tastes better. Buy one of the many brands that are flavour-sealed in aluminum foil.
The next time you buy
Butter, Cheese, Candy, Chocolate, Tea,
look for the brands in clean, hygienic aluminum foil. Whenever you see aluminum on the outside of any packaged food, there's an "inside story" of purity well-protected.
No other material is more "food-friendly" than aluminum. So save the protective foil. Use it to rewrap the butter when you put it away, and protect that "farm-fresh" flavour.
Hints to the Housewife
Wrap food leftovers in aluminum foil. Keep them fresh for another meal.
Perishable fruits and vegetables stay fresh and crisp in aluminum foil.

Brownsb'g Legion Hall, Statement on Progress And Campaign Needs

Brownsburg — At last, the citizens of Brownsburg are starting to see the materialization of their gifts and donations, in the form of the Legion Memorial Hall. A large number of them are no doubt wondering how so much has been achieved with such a limited amount of capital, notwithstanding the high cost of materials and labor. A lot of obstacles have been overcome with the help of many private citizens, not forgetting the Fire Brigade under Chief A. Robbins, who appeared in a body on one occasion with picks and shovels, and levelled some of the rough spots in the basement (most of them being well aware before they finished, that Brownsburg is underlaid with hardpan and rock!)

The Legion are grateful to C-I-L for their generous support, both financially and for the use of equipment. This equipment reduced labor expenses considerably, allowing this saving to be devoted to the completion of a worthy project — keeping in mind that this building is not just another construction job, but a memorial to those who are apt to be forgotten. The Ladies' Auxiliary of Branch 71 deserve special mention for their financial support of this project, using every means in their power to build up the substantial amount which they pledged to the cause. To raise this sum, much effort was expended in organizing raffles, card parties, suppers, special shows, etc. The Senior Branch appreciates, and has the greatest respect for their ability to raise funds at a time when the needs are greatest. The Legion wishes to thank the citizens who have fulfilled their pledges; their money is in capable hands and being put to the fullest possible use. Citizens who have not completed their pledges, will be contacted in the near future, and it is confidently hoped that all pledges will be redeemed (not forgetting that all pledges are still deductible from income tax). The Lions Club and Rotary Club are to be commended for their generous contributions, showing their willingness to help any worthwhile community effort in a manner that will do the most good. Thanks are due also to the storekeepers, who have donated numerous items which go towards the building of a venture of this size.

While so much has been accomplished, there is still a lot to do before the job is finished; and there can be no relaxation until such expensive items as plumbing, wiring and heating are taken care of. So the committee are still asking for support to help fulfill these obligations. . . Donations should be addressed to: J. H. Morgan, Treasurer, Memorial Campaign Fund, Brownsburg, Que.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES DURING 'FIRE PREVENTION WEEK'

Lions Club Gift of Radio-Telephone for Fire And Police, Proves Well Timed Presentation

Fire Prevention Week was initiated with a parade of fire equipment and personnel on Monday evening — joined by civic officers, official cars, an ambulance and other vehicles. A loudspeaker car was used to voice the theme of fire prevention, and carried an effective message in French and English all over town as the parade proceeded.

Fire inspection and drill is being held in the local schools — this exercise continuing into next week. Posters are displayed at vantage points around town, and fire prevention talks have been featured at several gatherings.

Lions Club Presentation For Public Protection

A well-timed gesture this week has been the official presentation, from the Lions Club to the civic authority, of a new radio-telephone system for use of the local Police and Fire Departments. This equipment is now in effective use. (In fact, during the Fire Prevention parade it was employed for communication between the Police Chief's and the Fire Chief's cars, regulating the route of the procession).

The regular Lions Club meeting Tuesday evening at Joly's Hotel was the scene and occasion of this presentation, when President Horace Lamarche tendered a cheque of $3,500 to Mayor Léopold Carrière. Mayor Carrière voiced appropriate thanks to the club on behalf of the municipality and the citizens.

Guests of the Lions at this meeting were the personnel of the fire brigade, and Chief Geo. Y. Deacon was "Lion of the day", receiving special tribute in a biographical sketch given by Lion Philippe Roy. Chief Deacon took advantage of the occasion to give a brief talk on fire prevention, stressing that the only way to keep the town's losses at a minimum was for the citizens to prevent outbreaks of fire at the source.

Montreal (CP) — The cost of living seems to be hitting Montrealers hard. This is reflected in the amount of property to be sold by the sheriff's office this year because of tax arrears. Arrears total $230,832, a big jump from $130,293 last year.

Eastern Arctic Patrol Ends 28th Expedition

Sailing in the Transport Department vessel "C. D. Howe", the Eastern Arctic Patrol have just completed a 10,000 mile expedition to the Canadian North.

This was the 28th expedition of the Eastern Arctic Patrol, now a combined effort of six government departments pooling equipment and such northern services as administration, medical, postal, hydrographic survey and welfare aids. The officer in charge of the Patrol was Alex Stevenson, (Verdun, P.Q.) Arctic Division, Department of Resources and Development. He was assisted by G. Johnston (Ottawa) of the same department.

Members of the expedition visited fifteen settlements. The Patrol handled a huge volume of mail, started the 1951 census rolling in the Arctic and sailed as far as Dundas Harbour, 2,500 miles north of Ottawa. The Patrol sailed from Montreal July 17th and returned to base September 25th.

Many passengers were picked up or dropped along the way, among them the Right Reverend D. B. Marsh, Bishop of the Arctic, Oblate Missionaries, Hudson's Bay Company officials and Eskimos moving from camp to camp. At River Clyde fifteen members of the Arctic Institute Expedition were taken on board. This party had spent the spring and summer of this year on a Baffin Island glacier collecting scientific data.

Success of the patrol this year was darkened by the loss of one of its members, the interpreter, S. G. Ford, of St. John's, Newfoundland. Mr. Ford lost his life in the crash of a helicopter, part of the equipment aboard the "C. D. Howe". He was a valued member of the Arctic Division, a popular figure throughout the northern lands and a thoroughly accomplished Eskimo linguist. His loss has been keenly felt by many Canadians.

When the Patrol visits a settlement in the Arctic, Eskimos congregate from miles around.

At each port the doctor, J. E. Osborne (Edmonton), S.M.O. on the Patrol, examined the Eskimos. Dr. R. S. Robertson, a Cobourg, Ont., dentist, was kept busy checking, extracting and filling teeth for Canada's northern citizens, whites and Eskimos. This year, with modern equipment, more than a thousand Eskimos were checked by X-ray. The general standard of health was good and there was a remarkable improvement in the children. This was felt to be the effect of nutritious foods given in payment of family allowances which are intended to supplement, not supplant, the regular Eskimo diet of flesh, fowl and fish.

Members of the Patrol, this season, organized plans for taking the 1951 census in the Arctic. This will be carried out under the immediate direction of the R.C.M.P. and must be completed by shiptime next summer. Meanwhile R.C.M.P. constables throughout the north are busy pondering one of the toughest census assignments of the lot; that of tabulating some 8,000 nomadic Eskimos scattered over thousands of square miles in the Arctic.

Members of the party declared that the polar weather had been wonderful: "Sunny skies, light winds and calm seas were the order of the day". They were amazed to learn that southern Canada had experienced such a cold summer.

Town Council at Morin Heights

Morin Heights — The regular monthly meeting of the Morin Heights Council took place Monday, October 2, with Mayor C. Campbell in the chair.

A progress report was presented on the new Municipal Building, and everything is proceeding satisfactorily and on schedule.

The Police and Fire Chief's reports were presented, and found in good order. In view of speeding on the part of the motorists in the vicinity of the school, it was decided to have the Police Director on this point for two week-ends to regulate this practice.

Councillor Max Baumel, Finance Commissioner, then presented the budget for the forthcoming year. Not only did this budget show considerable progress being made in the municipality, but it revealed that old bank loans were being discharged at a satisfactory rate, and that the finances were in better shape than they had been for many a year. Owing to the progress made, it was possible for the Council to give the people the new Municipal Building without any further increase in their taxes, and a reduction of 1½ mills was made in the Special Tax covering installation of the waterworks system. The tax rate for the coming year, 1951, was then passed, as follows — 6 mills for General Purposes, 1 mill for the Municipal Building, and 4½ mills instead of 6 for Waterworks installation as covered by By-laws 42 and 51.

Victor Jekyll, an old resident and property holder who is back in Canada for a short visit, was present at the meeting and before leaving he asked permission to make an observation. He then congratulated the Council upon the manner in which they had given such serious consideration to each item for discussion, also upon the state of the finances of the corporation, and the progress being made in all parts of the municipality. . . The Mayor then thanked Dr. Jekyll for these remarks and stated that they were an encouragement to the members of the Council in their deliberations.

Around the Country

— Jim Greenblat —

"Carry-on" is the motto of Frank Hibbert of Wildwood district in Alberta, who celebrated his 101st birthday by supervising seeding winter wheat, a project he has become greatly interested in. . When the ladies of Gilbert Plains, Man., hospital aid needed new linens they had a tag day and got it — just like that. . A. A. McDougall, implement dealer of Neepawa, Man., wouldn't let his farmer customer down even for a railway strike — sent a mechanic to Winnipeg and trundled an 8-foot self-propelled combine at 10 m.p.h. all the 118 miles, but got it there in time. . Harassed by complaints about the high price of meat, butcher Jack Campbell, at Mission, B.C., offered a $10 prize for the best written "beef" on "What I like about the price of meat"; expected to be swamped with ideas. . Harold Ellis, 13, and his chum Roger Francis, went by bike from North Battleford to Lloydminster, 100 miles, for a visit, carrying tent and blankets with them; took only 13 hours for the trip.

Did you know that, from ladies' high-style full-fashioned hosiery to heavy woollen work socks for lumberjacks, Canada's knit goods industry manufactures every type of hosiery used in Canada; production last year totalled 100,000,000 pair, 11 per cent less than the all-time peak production of 1948. .

Dr. Rosai Ftigon, aged 73, of Shawinigan Falls, Que., has delivered 10,500 babies into the world in his 48 years of practice; he graduated from the University of Montreal in 1902. . By collecting rags, the Fort William, Ont., Boy Scouts raised $400 for the Manitoba flood fund. They washed the rags and sold them to garages and various industrial plants.

At Testimonial Dinner For Walter S. Thompson

Mr. R. A. Giles was in Montreal last Saturday attending a testimonial dinner to Mr. Walter S. Thompson, retiring C.N.R. Public Relations Director.

Some 500 guests were present to pay tribute to Mr. Thompson, who has served with the railway company for 35 years.

Speakers were confined to five — Hervé Major, of La Presse, representing the daily newspapers; R. A. Giles, the weeklies; Napier Moore, the magazines; John Fisher, the radio; and Leo Dolan, transportation. All paid high tribute to Mr. Thompson for the remarkable job he has done.

In token of appreciation a life membership in the Montreal Press Club (Viscount Alexander being the only other person to hold such honor) was presented to Mr. Thompson, together with a 1951 car.

Mr. Thompson replied fittingly and stated in closing that he "would try to find something to do to be helpful to Canadians".

Local Race Horse Brings Good Price

"Grattan B.", a pacer owned for the past year by Léon St. Jacques, Lachute Mills, was sold the other day for the fairish price of $2,500, to a sportsman at Hull, Que.

"Grattan B". was bought by St. Jacques last fall for $600. Mr. St. Jacques is an employee of Ayers Limited; he devotes his spare time to horses and enters the races on week-ends. With "Grattan B." in training last winter and spring (and so well behaved that its owner's 10-year-old daughter could exercise it around the local track), St. Jacques drove him in 18 races this summer against quality competition, and he lost only one; out of 36 heats he came first in 28 and second in six — netting his owner $1,000 in prize money this past season.

Death Removes Pioneer Merchant of Weir and Lifelong County Resident

The Late Antoine Larose

Weir—After a lengthy illness, the death of Antoine Larose occurred at his home in Weir early Friday morning, October 6.

Mr. Larose was born in Grenville and moved to this place some 50 years ago, residing here until the time of his death. A pioneer merchant of this village, he served on the council for a number of years, and was also mayor for several terms. He still held the office of Justice of Peace until the time of his death.

Left to mourn his loss, besides his wife (the former Annie Morrison), are his son, Everett, of Hamilton, and two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Cowan (May), of Montreal, and Mrs. H. A. Glassford (Millie), of California; two grandchildren, Mildred Cowan, of Montreal, and Beverley Glassford, of California. He is survived also by four sisters, Mrs. Morinville (Maude), of Three Rivers, Mrs. F. Meille (Elezama), of St. Hippolyte, Mrs. Arthur Lanthier (Anna), of Pittsburg, Mass., and Amy, of Montreal, and five brothers, Philibert, of Weir, Alex, of Gatineau Mills, Herbert, of Lachute, Ferdinand and Walter, of Three Rivers.

The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon in the Church of the Redeemer, Weir, with the Rev. C. W. P. Baugh officiating. The many floral tributes bore silent testimony of the esteem in which he was held.

The pall-bearers were his six nephews, Clifford, Lyall and Elmer Larose, Bradley and Glen Morrison, and Melvin Loughren. Interment was made in the cemetery at Arundel.

Levelling Site for B'burg Community Rink

The above scene depicts Tom Hall with his bulldozer levelling the site for the projected community rink at Brownsburg. This work has since been completed, and volunteer labor has been busy digging holes in preparation for pouring the cement bases for the steel framework. Lights have now been installed on the grounds to permit the voluntary phases of the work to be continued during the evenings.

The campaign is proceeding with renewed vigor, and to date donations pledged and being paid exceed $21,000.

Rev. C. W. P. Baugh, 15 Years in Lakefield, Returns to Arundel

The Rev. C. W. P. Baugh, rector of Lakefield for the past 15 years, has accepted the incumbency of the Parish of Arundel. The Rev. Mr. Baugh, who served in Arundel over 30 years ago, will preach his farewell sermons in Dunany, Louisa, Shrewsbury and Lakefield on Sunday, October 29.

During the vacancy in Lakefield, that parish will temporarily be under the supervision of Rev. H. G. Baugh, rector of Morin Heights.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. W. P. Baugh will be greatly missed in the community work of the Lakefield district.

Keen Enthusiasm In Plowing Match

Holiday weather favored a fine turnout for the annual plowing match, held Thanksgiving Day at the farm of Stanley McKiddie, Vide Sac. The event was considered one of the best yet, in point of attendance and enthusiasm, and its success is a credit to the committee of the Argenteuil Plowmen's Association in charge of arrangements.

Judging the merits of performance were — Bruce Ness, of Howick, Que., Robt. Morrison, of Lachute, Cecil Elder, of Shawbridge, and R. McTavish, of Harrington. Announcements were made over a public address system provided by courtesy of Marcel Lanctot as distributor for Black Horse. There were good entry lists for most of the classes, and a high standard of plowing. The best ridge in the junior classes was plowed by G. Charbonneau, and in the senior classes by Allan Hammond. These high-merit winners will receive the Rotary and Lions Club trophies, awarded annually. (A complete list of standings is published on page 2.) It is hoped to arrange a dance and social evening for presentation of the day's awards; this will be duly announced.

The horse pulling contest again attracted keen interest. This event was won by Wm. Brass with his fine team of Clydes, pulling almost four tons dead weight.

Fine collaboration has been shown by merchants and businessmen in donating prizes for this event. The secretary, Ernest Emmett, who made a personal canvass, reports a very generous response, and public acknowledgment is given to the following list of prize donors:

Dr. G. R. McCall, Wilson & Gordon, Mac Walker, Ernest Gordon, E. Kilgour Wilson, Geo. Y. Deacon, T. McOuat & Son Ltd., R. H. Hadley, E. Albright & Sons, Champlain Service Station, Pollock & Graves Motors, Lachute Motor Sales, Ogilvie Flour Mills, Farmers Supply Co., T. Eaton Company, Muir Bros.

Contrary to common belief, natural gas pipelines seldom help develop new industries in the districts through which they run. But they greatly aid the expansion of existing industries.

Big Rail Project Commenced to Iron Deposits, Northern Quebec

"This Week at Quebec"

By William Stewart

Quebec, Oct. 10 (CP) — Quebec's first autumn legislature session since 1936 will open November 8. Premier Duplessis gave out the news of the early session-opening while the provincial cabinet met last week. At his weekly press conference, the Premier said it would not be a special session of the legislature but merely an early start at work by the two houses, which usually meet in January.

Legislation to help the fire-swept towns of Rimouski and Cabano with their re-building is expected to come before the legislative assembly immediately. This will authorize the lower St. Lawrence towns to make loans on which the provincial government will guarantee re-payment. Private home-builders will finance their reconstruction through funds which the loans will make available to their municipal authorities.

Premier Duplessis said that after the November session was announced rumors had risen in Montreal and Quebec that the legislature planned to change the dates of forthcoming municipal elections in the two cities. The government leader said these rumors are untrue. He said the government has the power to call the legislature into session at any time events require.

The legislature will meet next month, deal with the Rimouski and Cabano bills, adjourn for the period of the Federal-Provincial conferences early in December, and the meet again in January.

Railroad to Ungava

During his press conference, Premier Duplessis announced that work started October 4 on the 360-mile rail line from Sept Iles, St. Lawrence north shore port, to the iron ore deposits in Ungava. Construction gangs are reported to be laying out materials and establishing camp-sites for early work next spring. Premier Duplessis said that, along one-third of its length, the $100,000,000 railway project will "involve work of gigantic proportions, comparable to certain phases of the work done in the Rockies when a rail line was built there."

London's motto, translated from Latin, means, "O, Lord! direct us".

John Fisher, Reporter, Proves Person With A Purpose, Man With A Mission

Thought-Provoking Address by Radio News-Man

Dubs Lachute "Key to the Bonne Entente"

"A man with a mission in life", might be the impression left by John Fisher on his visit to this town, and by his talk at the High School auditorium last Thursday under auspices of the Women's Institute. This much-travelled commentator whose voice is familiar to all CBC radio listeners, attuned his evening travelogue to the theme of Canada's Great Opportunity — and spoke not too kindly of the lack of vision, courage and speculation which impedes the march of progress and too often bequeathes Canada's riches to more venturesome capital outside this country.

Mr. Fisher had inspected Lachute's unexcelled Golf and Country Club; he had viewed some of the major industries; he was impressed by the new school and its fine auditorium — and he paid tribute to the initiative behind these ventures. But more important than material assets, he said, was the soul and spirit of a community. From what he had learned hereabouts, he could describe Lachute as the "key to the bonne entente" . . . it was a simile which pleased his audience immensely; and no doubt there were many who hoped to hear this happy description of their town in John Fisher's future talks and memoirs.

Mr. Fisher's story — too comprehensive to be recounted in detail — gave brief but graphic impressions from coast to coast, all the way from Newfoundland, Canada's newest province, to the far Pacific shores. But his narrative of descriptions and characterizations was no mere travelogue, for through it ran that vein of optimism which sometimes confused his very words — uttered in a high torrent of enthusiasm; and that sense of desperation, that things should move so slowly before a prize and promise of unbounded natural wealth.

It was a provocative address — this new and defiant angle on a Canada's great resources, which in themselves might be a time-worn topic. But John Fisher proved himself well ballasted with late statistics, and well advised on the appraisal of Canada's potentialities, both in Canadian commerce and American finance. It was a discourse which set people thinking, and sent them home talking — some questioning the speaker's facts or figures, some doubting whether his inferences were wholly justified, in view of past initiative which has put Canada on the commercial map as prominently as she appears today. Routine Matters at October Council

The regular Council session for October was presided over by Mayor Léopold Carrière, with seven aldermen in attendance. Those absent were Aldermen S. Holt and E. Provost.

It was moved and carried that the mayor and the secretary-treasurer be authorized to sign a deed with Gordon P. Cruise for donation of a certain part of land to be used as thoroughfare, and to be called Gordon Boulevard and Ray Street.

It was resolved that Eastern Standard Time be officially readopted in this municipality at 12.01 a.m. October 29 next.

Permission was granted to the C.P.R. for a sewer connection on Chatham Street, and the Council expressed its wish that the railway boarding car be left at its present location.

It was moved and carried that the valuation roll be homologated without any change.

The mayor and secretary-treasurer were authorized to sign a contract with the Bell Telephone Co. for installation of a phone line to be used for the new civic radio-telephone system.

It was moved that a no-parking zone be established on the north side of Court Street between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Three tenders were received to supply an oil furnace, as follows: J. W. Lefèbvre Ltée $149.50; Roger Lamarche $125.00, and a "demonstrator" for $100; Ken McAllister $127.50. . . It was moved and carried that the demonstrator model for the price of $100, be bought from Roger Lamarche.

To enquire into the costs of buying land for the prolongation of Foundry Street, a committee was formed comprising Aldermen W. S. MacKimmie, Donald G. MacRae and Omer Laurin.

The meeting was then adjourned.

"IN BROWNSBURG"

Specially Contributed

"The family that prays together stays together". . . Every Catholic family in the parish has been contacted this week for the purpose of securing pledges to partake in the Family Rosary Crusade. Large demonstrations have been held in Ottawa and Montreal, where the originator of the crusade addressed the multitudes on the theme of the movement, "The family that prays together stays together". The Rev. Father Peyton, leader of the movement (on whose life and work The Watchman carried an exhaustive article some time ago), has been active in this area in spreading devotion to the Rosary and the Virgin Mary. The morality of our families must become more deeply Christian; the daily recitation of the Rosary (or whatever prayer fills the heart of the family) will bring back all the home virtues — obedience, respect, charity and mutual good example. Catholics are not alone in sharing the trials and tribulations of this uncertain world, and are certainly not alone in offering prayers for the intercession of God to obtain for us peace and protect us against the wickedness and snares of our enemies.

The Province of Quebec is the scene of the largest Family Rosary Crusade ever undertaken; over 3,500,000 persons make up the organization which manifests in actuality the precept: "The family that prays together stays together".

English Retreat

An English Retreat will be held at the St. Louis de France Church, Brownsburg, for one week starting October 22, with instruction and meditation morning and night. Interested Catholics in Lachute are asked to note the date.

Skating Rink

The work on the rink is proceeding apace. Not very much can be accomplished this year, but a start has been made; and with the augmented fund, over the winter months everything should be in readiness to proceed at a fast clip next year.

At the last meeting of the Corporation, a communication from the Minister informed the council that under Article 410 of the Municipal Code which reads "Every local corporation may make, amend, or repeal by-laws to open, enclose, embellish, improve and maintain at its expense, squares, parks or public places, of a nature to conduce to the health and well-being of the inhabitants of the municipality" — the corporation is thus empowered to underwrite the cost of erection of the rink.

50th Wedding Day Celebrated at Morin Hts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Seale Greeted by Many Friends

Morin Heights — In an atmosphere of homeliness and comfort, and amongst their many friends and relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Seale celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, October 10, at their residence in Morin Heights.

The large house which has seen so many events, was crowded to capacity, as friends gathered to wish them the very best for many more years to come.

One would hardly credit the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Seale had reached their 50th milestone of married life, for in greeting their guests as they arrived, they had the appearance of newly-weds; age had not laid its hands very heavily upon them —or so it would seem to those present, witnessing their genial activity.

Of gifts there were many — as would be the natural thing, for they are both well liked for their hospitality and for the interest they have taken in all activities for the welfare of the town and its people during their lifetime. This occasion in their life shows how much their good efforts have meant to those who have known them so long. It is the wish of all in this community that they both be spared for many more years.

Gatineau LINES

Electricity Factories

In last week's column we talked about the way in which the raw material for electricity — water — has to be gathered and stored before it can become useful in creating electricity. This week we would like to discuss the "factories" where Gatineau Power produces the electricity which is distributed to 60,000 customers in widely-separated parts of Quebec.

Gatineau has six main "factories" in the Province of Quebec — the power houses at Paugan, Chelsea and Farmers on the Gatineau River and the Bryson and the two Chaudière plants on the Ottawa River. In addition it has some eight small local plants which help out in their own area but which by themselves would be completely unable to meet present-day demands for power.

In each plant, the method of manufacturing the electricity is the same. From man-made lakes above the plant, water is released from control dams. It is carried through costly tunnels — or "penstocks" as they are called — to fall with tremendous pressure against the blades of giant turbines. The water spins the blades of the turbines, and the turbines in turn spin the great generators which produce the electricity.

Despite their great size, the maze of turbine blades are delicately adjusted. Demand for electricity varies from day to day, from hour to hour, and even from minute to minute. As the demand grows, the gates open wider admitting more water to the turbines. As the demand decreases, the gates gradually close again, and the output of the turbine drops — so that less electricity is made, and less water is used.

Thus the raw material of electricity — falling water — passes through a factory "assembly line" to produce something completely different from itself — something which is then carried to points hundreds of miles away where it can be put to work to make life easier and better for mankind. Once produced from water, electricity accomplishes a limitless number of tasks which the water itself could never do.

Co-op Organizer Now Heads Forums Executive

Toronto — Leonard Harman, organization manager of the United Co-operatives of Ontario, has been elected chairman of National Farm Radio Forum's executive committee. Mr. Harman replaces O. J. W. Sh·gg, who resigned to devote full time to his duties as Director of Publicity for the Dairy Farmers of Canada.

Mr. Harman was one of the founders of Farm Radio Forum. He took part in the early planning of the project; was the first provincial Farm Forum secretary for Ontario; and was national secretary in the 1942-43 season.

The executive committee of which Leonard Harman is now chairman, is a committee of three appointed by the National Farm Forum Board to act for it between meetings. Dr. H. H. Hannam, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, is chairman of the National Board.

The Board consists of ten members representing Farm Forum's three national sponsors (Canadian Federation of Agriculture, Canadian Association for Adult Education and Canadian Broadcasting Corporation) and the Farm Forum groups. Board members come from widely separated parts of Canada and consequently the Board usually meets only twice a year. The executive committee, with headquarters in Toronto, meets once a month to consider administrative matters that arise. The three executive members are: A. R. Kemp, supervisor of Farm Broadcasts, CBC; Dr. E. A. Corbett, director, Canadian Association for Adult Education; and Leonard Harman, chairman, representing the Federation of Agriculture.

Last season 27,000 farm people (1,600 groups) participated in the National Farm Radio Forum program. The 1950-51 season opens on October 30 with a discussion on "Can We Farm on Shorter Hours?"

Farm Labor to West Extended to October 15

Hon. Milton F. Gregg, Minister of Labor, announced the fact that arrangements for the organized movement of farm labor for the Western Canadian harvest had been extended to October 15, due to increased demands for Eastern farm help, especially in Manitoba.

Reduced railway fares available to Eastern workers going West are being extended until the middle of October, and recruiting and movement of farm labor by the National Employment Service offices will continue during this period.

Up to now, 2,100 workers have been moved West under the program, which is carried out annually. This number compares with previous years, but Mr. Gregg explained that the late season in Manitoba this year, further aggravated by recent heavy rains, had retarded the Manitoba harvest which is normally earlier than the harvest in the other two Prairie Provinces. The effect of this was to swell the demand in Manitoba, making the extension of the movement necessary.

Under special arrangements between the railways and the Dominion-Provincial Farm Labor Program, transportation is provided at the low rate of $15 for the journey West and $11.50 for the return trip.

Proves Fruit Farms Possible on Prairie

M.P. Is Successful Orchardist in Southwestern Saskatchewan

Lac Pelletier, Sask (CP) — A Saskatchewan member of parliament is demonstrating that orcharding is a practical proposition on the prairies. In the dry southwestern corner of Saskatchewan, Irwin W. Studer (L. Maple Creek) this year expected to harvest at least 300 boxes of standard-size apples from a 20-acre orchard laid out eight years ago.

The Studer fruit farm is considered an outstanding example of what can be done on dry land, where there is not an irrigation project within miles.

Mr. Studer is known as a pioneer in contour farming, terracing his land in accordance with the natural slopes of the earth's surface.

The apple trees on the farm are not tall, but they are covered with apples. In all, Mr. Studer has 3,000 fruit trees, including numerous varieties of plum and cherry.

He also grows pears and apricots, but because of a tendency toward early blossoming the apricot yield has not been good. To offset this, the University of Saskatchewan now is working on a cross between apricot and late-blossoming sand cherry.

Mr. Studer sells his fruit to district residents who pick it themselves. This year people came from all parts of southwestern Saskatchewan.

HUNTING TROPHIES

Portage La Prairie, Man. (CP) — Game-bird hunters will have added incentive this year. The local fish and game association has announced that trophies will be given to the hunters bagging the largest duck and the largest goose.

First Seasonal Meeting, Morin Heights Legion

Morin Heights — The first winter meeting of Branch 171, Canadian Legion, was held September 26 with Comrade E. W. Kneeland in the chair. A good attendance was present, and many matters of importance to the branch were discussed and settled.

All members were pleased to hear of the progress being made by their secretary, Comrade Fred Muncey, who recently underwent a serious operation. Several of the members had been to the Queen Mary Hospital to visit him, and it is reported that he is now able to be in a wheel chair. Comrade Cooper is also progressing favorably, at the same hospital.

The Branch welcomed two new members — Comrade Dewar and Comrade Roy Campbell.

Arrangements were made for the dedication and the presentation of the branch colors, later this month, and Major General C. B. Price, C.B., D.S.O., D.C.M., V.D., has consented to be on hand to present the colors, and a very old friend of the branch, in the person of Hon. Captain Dave Anderson, is to be present to dedicate the colors for the branch.

Arrangements were made to start a small-bore rifle team, under chairmanship of Comrade Paul Baumel.

Other Activities

The annual masquerade Hallowe'en dance is to be held in the Bellevue Hotel on Saturday, October 28.

The Rink Committee is also preparing for its winter activities.

Why "Fire Prevention Week"?

NO DOUBT some people wonder why each year a week is set aside as Fire Prevention Week. It is designated to the week in which October 9 falls, and is the anniversary of the great Chicago Fire in 1871, a fire which was one of the most destructive and costly in all history.

Sometimes one may be cynical and just regard it as another promotional stunt, the idea of an advertising man, as there are many "special days" or "weeks" devoted to stimulating the sale and use of some commercial products.

It is far from a commercial stunt, and is observed with the aim of endeavoring to overcome the apathetic view that is generally taken.

First, let us turn to statistics. Figures are cold and impersonal until we translate them into the human and economic values. On an average, between 300 and 400 Canadians lose their lives through fire every year; as a matter of fact in 1948, the last year for which figures are available, 493 Canadians lost their lives, and many times that number suffered incapacitating or painful burns and injuries. Of the number of deaths, 335 lost their lives in dwellings, and 30 in apartments, hotels, and other such habitations; and the victims were largely women and children. To think such a preponderance of fatalities happen in our homes, gives great cause for dismantling the apathetic manner and to realize the pathetic situation.

It was an act of Providence that the Rimouski and Cabano disasters were not attended with great loss of life.

In 1948 in Canada there were 53,048 fires with property loss of $67,144,473.00. In other words, we wasted this accumulation of buildings and goods at a time when the nation's productive plant was working at full capacity to supply our own needs, and to help supply our exports to other nations devastated by war.

The figures surely indicate the magnitude of the problem which fires represent. They measure its destructive force in lives and dollars, and supply the answer to the question as to why we should have a "Fire Prevention Week". . . This observance, however, does not mean that we should confine our efforts to the one week; the perils of fire are ever present, 365 days of the year; and holding a campaign for one week, is to signalize the importance of this serious problem to every man, woman and child in the country.

When faced with figures so staggering in their proportion, we are prone to wonder what we can do about the situation. Spectacular fires like Rimouski and Cabano attract wide attention and sympathy because of their unusual size; yet day after day, hundreds of small fires occur through the carelessness of the individual.

During Fire Prevention Week, we should not just think of these problems, but take active steps to eliminate the hazards which may exist in our own homes, in our places of employment, and see to it that fire prevention is a "must" for 365 days of the year.

Walter S. Thompson Retires

ONE OF Canada's best known and highly respected Public Relations men lays down his reins of office this month, after 35 years of service which started with the Grand Trunk Railway. Early training in newspaper work in England, Australasia, South Africa and the islands of the Southern Pacific gave Mr. Thompson a solid grounding for the position he took in 1914 as Press Agent of the G.T., and his connection with our Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association during these years has been a very happy one on all sides.

A man of keen vision Mr. Thompson has in his quiet, unassuming way, done a great deal for newspaperdom, the building up of Canada and the creation of international friendship.

Holder of the C.B.E., Mr. Thompson has been honored in many other ways by Royalty, whose Canadian tours have always been under his guidance, and in his travels of over 50,000 miles a year he has made countless friends. They, with members of our fraternity, will join in wishing him a happy retirement and congratulations on "a job well done".

We can't help the past. But we don't have to repeat it.

A temper is an asset — so long as we lose it only intentionally.

Our Debt in Korea

THE TURN of the tide against Communist superiority in Korea gave many a feeling of history repeating itself in miniature.

It halted a little war that was far off and affected few Canadian families directly. But it dispelled the beginnings of the same gnawing fear that attended similar remote news items in the 30's — the fear that grew with the onset of the Second World War and ended only five years ago when Germany and Japan capitulated.

In between, there were a number of occasions when we felt ourselves indebted to a relatively small number of men who kept the war at a safe distance from our own homes.

There was the nondescript fleet of tugboats, pleasure boats and fishing craft that snatched an army from its doom at Dunkerque. The historic "few" of the Royal Air Force, Canadians among them, beat off the Luftwaffe's efforts to overwhelm Britain a few months later.

We remember the 8th Army, small in comparison to the massive formations of the later Battle of Europe, who turned back the Germans and Italians in Libya when victory seemed remote.

An American formation that refused to surrender at Bastogne provided the rallying point that transformed the Battle of the Bulge from a German victory into a German defeat. The alert platoon that captured a bridge at Remagen saved thousands of Allied lives and made the crossing of the Rhine virtually bloodless.

Three British warships in the River Plate, guerrilla bands of Asiatics in southeast Asia and Europeans in the mountains of Greece and Yugoslavia made their contributions to our survival. And on each occasion we felt a glow of gratitude.

Today, the same gratitude goes to the men of many lands who have quelled what might have been the prelude to another world conflict. They were chiefly Americans and South Koreans, but they included Britons, Australians, Canadians and others. The nationality isn't important.

Once again, men have shed blood to win a reprieve from a far greater calamity. Beyond our sympathy and thanks, we owe them our best endeavors to make their achievement worth while.

Familiar But Tragic Tale

THESE two news items came from an Ontario town the other day. . . .

A lad of 14 was using a loaded rifle to push over a dead tree. The gun discharged and the boy was killed.

A boy of six years was allowed to play with an unloaded shotgun. In the room was a box of shells. The youngster succeeded in loading the weapon, and discharged it, wounding his older sister — the innocent bystander.

This is the hunting season (remarks The Ottawa Farm Journal in an editorial quoting these incidents), and guns are more in evidence around many homes than at other times of the year. And we must expect the usual crop of needless tragedies from the mishandling of shotguns and rifles. Hunters will shoot themselves, hunters will shoot other hunters, "unloaded" guns will discharge themselves with deadly effects.

Like traffic accidents, firearms accidents do not just happen — they are caused, caused by carelessness and stupidity, or, in the case of children, by sheer ignorance of the dangers involved — concludes the editorial.

"DR. BRENT, call surgery. Dr. Brent, call surgery". This soap opera alone gave the medical profession better public relations than any other group — Phillip Galbraith, publisher of the Red Deer Advocate, claimed when he addressed the Alberta division of the Canadian Medical Association recently.

ONE OF the greatest enemies to our forest is sheer neglect. Neglect either on the part of ruthless lumber operators or by the careless smoker, can cause drastic harm to one of our chief sources of income. Let us one and all resolve we shall not be guilty of this serious offence—says the Fredericton Capital Free Press.

Don't take that crossing Blindfolded!

Impaired visibility, due to clouded or frosted windshields and side windows, is blamed for a considerable number of the 443 railway crossing accidents reported to the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada for the 12-month period ended June 30. These accidents took 140 lives and brought injuries to 549 others. A railway crossing, whether protected by special signals or otherwise, is an admitted hazard to the motorists, and under the best of conditions — full daylight and clear vision — the operator of a motor vehicle should approach every crossing with proper caution. Keeping windshield and front side windows clean and free of frost or mist is one thing the motorist can do to reduce the toll of crossing accidents. Other safe practices: Don't race the train . . it is probably moving faster than you think. If you have to take the crossing slowly, change into second gear to prevent stalling. Make sure when you see one train clearing a crossing that there is not another train behind it moving in the opposite direction.

Canada Lacks Defence at Home

(Calgary Herald)

Winston Churchill has set Canada all a-dither with his suggestion that this country should send two or three divisions to Europe. Should we? Shouldn't we? The questions are academic, because we haven't got three divisions to send. We haven't got two. We haven't even got one. We are not in a position, right now, to send a platoon to Europe — or anywhere else.

This is the root of the matter. As George Drew said in the House of Commons: "The question is not so much how many men are going to Korea. It is not how many men may ever be sent to Europe. The question is: How many men are we going to train for active service as our joint responsibility for the collective preservation of peace?"

It would seem that Canada is not only unable, but unwilling to defend herself. If even a small hostile force landed on our shores tomorrow, we should have to ask the Americans to come and remove them. This is a contemptible situation for a country which likes to describe itself as a "middle power", and whose leaders take credit for the North Atlantic Treaty.

But we think Canada should have troops, and we think they should be ready to fight whenever and wherever there is fighting to be done. Until we have a strong well-trained force — two divisions, at the very least — we have no right to call ourselves a middle power, nor even a small power. We are not a power at all because to be a power, you must have power.

PROVING A POINT

Charges that potato chips are fattening have been worrying the manufacturers. Certain that the charges are baseless, they have got together through their trade association to stage a demonstration that will last one year. A comely and comfortably curved lady has been engaged for the next twelve months. During that time she will eat her weight in potato chips, to see if her curves become more pronounced. If not, the potato manufacturers will have scored a point. — Canadian Advertising

Choral Recital

A real treat was given to music-lovers of Arundel recently, when the choir of Westmount Park Emmanuel Church gave a very fine program of sacred and secular music. This concert took place in the school auditorium, where the excellent acoustics of the hall brought out the singing to the best advantage. The choir was under the direction of Mr. J. C. Alfred Scott, who also sang the bass solos during the program. The soloists were Mr. Alfred Wellans, tenor; Mr. J. C. Scott, bass; Mrs. Lillian Kirk, contralto; Mrs. J. C. Scott, soprano; Messrs. Terry Seaman and Anthony Lambic, baritone. The accompanist was Mr. Glidden, organist of the Westmount church.

A Weekly Feature of Helpful Hints for Child Training, etc,

Guest or Pest?

— By NANCY CLEAVER —

"I want my child to be a guest, not a pest!" one poor mother exclaimed.

"But I've decided that visiting with a pre-school youngster is too much of a trial on my relatives, my child and on me too. I think I'll wait for him to go visiting until he is older!"

If relatives are understanding, if they like children, it is possible to have a happy visit, but it should be of a definite duration, and perferably a short one. It is always wise to leave when one's host and hostess are sorry to say "good-bye!"

A child's schedule should be observed as far as eating, sleeping and play go, but details can be a bit flexible while visiting. If an aunt or uncle or older friend offer to take a child for a walk, or to visit a park or playground, do accept the offer. A child and an adult who are attracted to each other can have a grand time on "a spree". Don't worry about your child's actions — he will likely be on his best behaviour when your watchful eyes are no longer observing his conduct!

It is a real adventure when a boy or girl is old enough to go on a visit all alone. An older child may be a bit homesick. But learning to be happy away from home is a valuable experience in the long slow process of growing up — of learning to stand on one's own feet.

One small girl, who for her age was a particularly nice guest, when visiting her aunt was asked if she missed her parents. She replied, "I think about them, but I don't fuss about them. Mother doesn't want me to be a 'fusser'!"

A child on a visit should be encouraged to be a considerate and appreciative guest, fitting in with the family's plans and causing as little trouble as possible. Visitors should be on time for meals and should eat what they are served. They should be thoughtful in using the bathroom, the phone and the radio. Their host and hostess will look to them to join in the conversation without arguing too much or talking all the time.

A boy or girl learns the art of being a good guest — one who is asked back—by having the chance to put into practice his mother's and dad's good advise.

The writing of a little "thank you note" or "bread and butter letter" by a visitor as soon as he has returned home, expressing appreciation to those who have entertained him, is very important. It is something every visitor who can write should do — no matter how young or old. This little courteous letter gives real pleasure to those who have gone to the trouble and expense of having a visitor in their home.

How to Prevent Fires in the Home

More than half the fires and most deaths from fire occur in homes. Practically all can be prevented by heeding these simple rules issued by the Fire Commissioner's Office, Province of Quebec.

Smoking. — Do not smoke in bed, in the attic, closets and garage.

Matches. — Keep out of children's hands. Place used matches in incombustible trays. Keep "strike anywhere" matches in closed metal boxes. "Safety" matches are safest.

Extinguish smokes and matches before discarding. Be sure they are cold.

Trash and Rubbish. — Keep cleaned out, especially in basement, attic and closets. Burn safely and never on windy days. Use rubbish burners in built-up areas. Watch fires till they are out.

Flues and Heating Plants. — Have them cleaned, examined and repaired if necessary once a year. Protect exposed woodwork and incombustible shields or mats. Do not pass stovepipes through ceilings, roofs or wooden partitions. Never overheat.

Flue-Stops. — Use metal kind. Do not paper over flue holes or stuff with rags.

Ashes — Use only metal receptacles. Do not dump hot ashes against anything which can burn.

Gasoline, Benzine, Naphtha. — Do not store or use on home premises. It's dynamite.

Kerosene. — Do not use to start a fire. Flash-backs and explosions kill and maim scores yearly.

Electricity. — Have an expert do all electrical work and repairs. Do not use lamp cord for circuit extensions or hang it over nails.

Electric Fuses.—Use 15-ampere fuses for ordinary circuits. Never plug blown fuses with pennies nor replace with oversize fuses.

Electric Irons. — Always disconnect current before leaving them.

Open Lights, Lamps. — Do not have near curtains or combustible material.

Decorations. — Do not place flimsy or combustible decorations over electric light globes or near open lights or heaters.

Oil Mops, Oily Rags. — Keep mop in closed metal can. Destroy rags. They ignite spontaneously.

Remember.— A careful person seldom has a fire; a clean, orderly place seldom burns.

Water Diviner Mystifies Self

Owen Sound, Ont. (CP) — David Porter, 66, of nearby Wiarton, says he has found upwards of 75 district wells by his strange gift of water-witching.

He discovered accidentally, at 16, that he possessed the power of detecting underground water sources. He picked up a forked branch that another water-diviner had dropped and found that it twisted in his hands over a hidden water supply.

Until he retired recently, he ran a general store in the district community of Oxenham. At his home there, he had a well reputed one of the best in the region and it was found through his water-divining skill.

He says he can not only find water but also is able to estimate how far it is below the earth's surface and whether it is flowing or standing. He also says that in place of the traditional forked twig, he can use a bent wire or two sticks pointed downward so that their ends meet.

"What causes the downward pull on the twig is as much a mystery to me as to anyone else", he told an interviewer. "The youngest and the eldest of my four sons also have the gift but the other two boys and my three daughters show no signs of it at all."

CHICKEN HUNT

Vancouver (CP) — A 20-man posse, armed with flashlights, staged a chicken hunt here. Four hundred chickens were freed when fire threatened a big hen house at the midnight hour. All but a handful were rounded up by the chicken posse.

Royal Highland Gathering

The Braemar Highland Gathering, held September 7, is one of the major events in the Scottish social and sporting calendar, attracting visitors from far afield. The event has been under Royal patronage for over 100 years.

Tossing the caber, throwing the hammer and Highland dancing are special features at Highland gatherings. Here is J. McLellen, of Kildery, Ross-Shire, making a striking picture as he wins the Hammer Competition with a throw of 94 feet in the 22-lb. hammer class during the 1948 games.

How A Film Is Made

FROM A TO Z — The complete story of how a film is made, is told in a CBC series which started October 10 and continues for seven weeks. The series was specially prepared for Canadian listeners by the BBC. In the centre of this group is producer Derek Holroyde of the BBC. With him as he looks through the scripts are (left) Dr. Roger Manvell, director of the British Film Academy, and (right) Thorold Dickinson, one of Britain's outstanding film directors, both of whom co-operated to make the program possible. The show is heard at 10.15 p.m. E.S.T. Tuesdays on the CBC.

SMALL TOWN SCHOOL HAS SMART SCHOLARS

Stonewall, Man. (CP) — Pupils of Stonewall Collegiate, a school 20 miles north of Winnipeg with a total enrolment of 65, this year have won two major scholarships.

Anne Elizabeth Irwin won a $3,000 McConnell scholarship to McGill University, Montreal. Another Stonewall student, Robin Kathleen Howland, was Manitoba winner of a Queen's scholarship worth from $900 to $1,244.

It was the second McConnell scholarship, of which six are awarded annually, so come to Stonewall since 1945. In that time pupils of the school also have won the Queen's scholarship twice and taken a number of scholarships to the University of Manitoba.

VICAR WOULD BAN WEDDING CONFETTI

Weston Green, Eng. (CP) — Confetti is not conducive to the dignity of marriage — especially when thrown on the groom. So says Rev. Paul Gliddon, vicar of the parish church.

"This is one day in a man's life when he ought to be encouraged to attain a certain dignity", the vicar wrote in his parish magazine.

FRIENDLINESS AN ASSET

Most industrial heads move their plants to new communities because they fall in love with the way of life in those communities, not because of economic factors. A friendly welcome and a friendly face is often a greater asset to a community than a strategic location.

CANADA - U.S. AMITY

Canadians and Americans get along well mainly because they settle disputes that in other parts of the world would certainly lead to the gravest consequences. Visiting back and forth is an important factor in this continued friendliness, and it helps trade too.

CEMENT SHORTAGE

Fort Frances, like many another community, has had many nip-and-tuck races with suppliers of cement this summer in order to try to keep many building projects on schedule. For that reason the recent ban on the importation of white Portland cement should cause some concern.

British Marine Commando Unit

Within 24 hours of a British Admiralty announcement that a small unit of Royal Marine Commandos was being formed to serve with United Nations forces in Korea, the force was prepared and ready to leave. The unit proceeded to Korea by air. . . Landing operations and coastal assaults are the Commandos' specialty. Here they are in training on the Cornish coast, doing a practice landing, wading ashore knee-deep in spray.

Roadside Bakeshop Pays Big Profits

Cedar Springs, Ont. (CP) — Culinary ability has paid off for Mrs. Garnet Tracy, wife of the school master in this Kent County town.

Just a year after Mr. and Mrs. Tracy and their two sons moved here from Fredericton, N.B., products from Mrs. Tracy's kitchen started to make their appearance on a roadside stand. From this small beginning she worked up a booming musiness with tourists and customers from the surrounding district.

It was with a great deal of scepticism that Mrs. Tracy carried a small batch of home-made bread to the stand early in July. Before it had time to cool it was snatched up by passing motorists.

The venture went ahead by leaps and bounds and on Labor Day, 80 loaves were sold, together with buns, cookies, tarts and pies which had been added to the list of goodies for sale. Much of the cooking went to cottagers at a nearby lake.

Cost of the venture isn't too great. Fuel for cooking and heating comes from a natural gas well in the backyard of the Tracy home.

When the summer tourist season ended Mrs. Tracy closed her roadside shop but she plans to keep her steady customers supplied.

FLYING BLIND

Nipawin, Sask. (CP) — A large hole in a railway coach window had passengers puzzled for a while. The conductor appeared with the remains of a Hungarian partridge he found inside the coach. The bird apparently hit the window at high speed, going right through.

Prehistoric Bones Museum Highlight

Eastend, Sask. (CP) — This village's museum has the skeleton of an animal which is believed to have roamed the North American continent 60,000,000 years ago.

George Green, president of the Vancouver branch of the British Columbia Historical Association, says the skeleton was found four miles east of here in the Cypress Hills.

Scientists call it the "triceratops", because of the three prongs which jut from its forehead and snout. The skeleton of the head measures six feet from snout to back. The heavy body was similar to that of a hippopotamus.

When the triceratops wandered about the flat lands here the Rocky Mountains had not risen above the inland sea which then hemmed in the islands known as the Cypress Hills.

A 1923 expedition to Mongolia by the American Museum of Natural History, headed by Roy Chapman Andrews, found in the Gobi desert of Siberia remains of ancient dinosaurs which closely parallel the body framework of the Eastend creature.

Canada Savings Bonds -- Buy Them the Easy Way

Use the B of M Monthly Instalment Plan — Five Per Cent Down-payment — $2.50 for $50. Bond, $5. for $100. Bond Balance in Easy Monthly Instalments Over Year

These are times when it is especially valuable to have a reserve fund. This is something only steady saving will give you. Besides, with the high cost of living, it is wise not to spend more than you have to, because cautious spending is the best way of keeping prices under control. It's both far-sighted and patriotic to put away as much money as you can.

That's where the Bank of Montreal's instalment plan for buying Canada Savings Bonds comes in. Canada Savings Bonds pay 2¾ per cent interest every year, and are backed by the resources and the good name of this country. They're certainly a first-class buy.

What's more, you can buy your bond even though you haven't the ready cash . . a down-payment of just five per cent is all that is needed — $2.50 for a $50-bond, $5 for a $100-bond. The B of M will provide the balance of the money to purchase the bond immediately, and deduct each month from your account a portion of the cost. Thus, at the end of the year you will have an investment of lasting value, bought in a way that suits your budget.

Call in at your local B of M branch tomorrow, and have a word with Donald Hay, the manager. He, or any member of his staff, will be very happy to help you arrange the purchase of your Canada Savings Bond.

CHEVROLET
the Leader
GIVES YOU MORE AND COSTS YOU LESS

LOW FIRST COST

Hard facts, not fancy phrases, determine any car's value. Study the market carefully, feature by feature and value by value. Then compare the Chevrolet price tag with that of any comparable car. You'll find beyond doubt that this impressive, powerful, six-passenger automobile is the value-leader by far!

CHEVROLET

ECONOMICAL OPERATION

For all the power you want when you want it, with consistently economical fuel consumption, there's no better engine than the highly-improved Chevrolet valve-in-head, with its ultra-efficient new carburetor. And that's not all! Many thousands of enthusiastic owners will testify that Chevrolet needs less maintenance, less servicing than any comparable car.

COMPLETE DEPENDABILITY

Built for Canadian driving requirements, reflecting its superior craftsmanship in every detail, Chevrolet is further backed by a nationwide organization of skilled service and maintenance specialists. No wonder it is renowned for delivering dependable, trouble-free performance under all conditions!

BRILLIANT PERFORMANCE

Just get behind the wheel of a Chevrolet, and you'll soon know the meaning of brilliant performance. In city traffic, on busy highways, on rough back roads, Chevrolet has the edge on all its rivals. And it stays at the peak of its performance,—mile after mile, month after month.

GREATER ROOMINESS

There's hip-room, head-room, leg-room and room to spare for six adult passengers in a Chevrolet. The big doors swing wide to let you in and out without undue stooping or crouching. And the bigger, more capacious trunk has ample room for all your luggage — and your passengers', too!

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

- It's best in its class for styling, for performance, for comfort and for operating economies — yet it costs far less than any comparable car. That's why Chevrolet is first in value!

Let the record speak for itself! In a recent impartial survey conducted among thousands of motorists, Chevrolet proved to be in greater popular demand than any other car.

No wonder Canadians buy more Chevrolets than any other make of car. They know that Chevrolet, built and proved in Canada for Canadians, is unequalled at its price for comfort, safety, lasting beauty and all-round dependability.

HIGH REPUTATION

Here's convincing proof that throughout years, Chevrolet has earned a reputation for unwavering excellence! In a recently conducted coast-to-coast survey an overwhelming majority of motorists named Reputation as the most compelling reason for Chevrolet popularity.

MODERN STYLING

In every detail, the new Chevrolet is in the forefront of the style parade. Those flowing, graceful lines radiate quality from every angle. And don't forget — its consistently advanced styling is a reason why Chevrolet is tops for trade-in value.

GREATER SAFETY

From the blueprint stage onward, built-in safety factors are an integral component of every Chevrolet. The immensely strong box girder steel frame . . . exclusive Certi-Safe hydraulic brakes for quick, controlled stopping . . . the ample reserve of power of the valve-in-head engine — all these and many other Chevrolet features are designed for your protection.

HIGH TRADE-IN-VALUE

Records prove that used car buyers as well as car buyers consistently favor Chevrolet over other cars. That's because Chevrolet is first in the low-price field with all the qualities of much higher priced cars and also because it's renowned for dependable, year-in, year-out performance.

Recent Nuptials Held At United Church

Dandy - Boyd

The marriage of Eunice Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Boyd, of Lachute, to Mr. Allen Leslie Dandy, son of the late W. L. Dandy and of Mrs. Dandy, of Hawkesbury, Ont., took place on Saturday afternoon, September 30, at three o'clock in Lachute United Church, the Rev. W. B. Rosborough officiating. Mrs. S. S. Campbell played the wedding music and Mrs. P. Allen sang during the signing of the register. The church was suitably decorated with gladioli in autumn colors.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was in a gown of white satin, with a fitted bodice having a sweetheart neckline and sleeves ending in points over her hands, and a full skirt falling into a train. Her fingertip-length veil of tulle illusion was held by a satin headdress trimmed with pearls and she carried a full cascade bouquet of pink Delight roses.

The bride was attended by Mrs. M. M. MacLeod, sister of the groom, as matron of honor, Mrs. Ross Boyd, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Hazel Ogilvie as bridesmaids. The attendants were gowned alike in green and gold corded taffeta with matching headdresses, and they carried cascade bouquets of mums.

The bride's mother wore a dress of wine crepe with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a dress of grey lace over wine taffeta with black accessories, and a corsage of red roses.

Mr. Ross Boyd, brother of the bride, acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Mansel MacLeod, brother-in-law of the groom, and Mr. Thomas Smith, cousin of the bride.

A reception followed the ceremony at the United Church hall, which was decorated with gladioli in fall colors.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Dandy left by motor for points in the United States, and Niagara Falls, Toronto and other points in Canada, the bride travelling in a suit of wine gabardine under a grey topcoat, with grey accessories and corsage of white gladioli.

"Let God Be True"

— Romans 3: 3-4

We, according to His promise, look for a new heaven and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. — II Peter, 3: 13.

For Christ must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that he shall destroy is death. — I Corinthians, 15: 25-26.

Of what will the new earth consist? The Bible shows that the present wicked rulers and their organizations will be replaced by an organization of princes who will rule the earth in justice. These princes will include men who proved their faithfulness to God from Abel to John the Baptist. All such received a good report because of their faith, but have not as yet received their reward. (Hebrews 11; Acts 2:29, 34). Their resurrection will be to life on earth, not heaven. (Matthew 8:11, 11:11; Daniel 12:16). Among such will be fleshly ancestors of Christ Jesus whom he will make princes in all the earth. — Psalm 45:16.

Under the rule of these princes the original purpose of God in creating the earth will be realized: all the earth will become a paradise filled with righteous creatures who will exercise loving dominion over the lower animals and will serve God in spirit and truth. Peace, health and life will replace war, disease and death.
— Psalm 72; Isaiah 33:24; 9:7. I Corinthians 15:25, 26.

Find out more about God's wonderful promises for the righteous New World by starting a search of the scriptures. Send for the New World translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures; also the beautiful book, "Let God be True". $1.85 for both books. — 40 Irwin Ave., Toronto, Ont.

In company with 22 other Canadian coal merchants, Mr. Jos. Dumais, of this town, recently toured the mines of the Hudson Coal Company at Scranton, Pennsylvania. Mr. Dumais returned from the dealers' conference by plane to Montreal.

John Fisher, Reporter

felt, however, that here in John Fisher was the personification of that enthusiasm which Canada needs acutely, an ambassador of intense loyalty and of unbounded faith in her future.

Towards the conclusion of Mr. Fisher's address came references to the Eskimo in Canada's Arctic territories. He paid tribute to the Eskimo as the most brotherly of types; and with this thought of brotherliness, he returned finally to Lachute — the spirit — the vision — and the "bonne entente". . . So that one felt the visitor was truly and earnestly impressed by this factor — the harmony and understanding between French and English which we fondly cherish in these parts. It was a gratifying conclusion to his listeners.

Mrs. F. A. Brennian, president of the Lachute W.I. branch, was on the platform to welcome the assembly, calling upon Mr. R. A. Giles, a colleague of the "fourth estate", to act as chairman and to conduct the program. Mr. Fred Royal ably introduced the speaker, and Mr. W. M. Cottingham, M.L.A., cordially thanked him for his favor in giving the people of Lachute this opportunity to hear John Fisher in person.

A pleasant interlude was provided by two series of song selections by the Brownsburg male quartet, comprising Messrs. Frank Steere, Sam Rose, Wyman Hazel and Owen Todd. Mr. Giles voiced the appreciation of the audience for this very fine entertainment.

"Walk in the Advancing Light"

The light of understanding of God's Word does not stand still. God is continually causing the prophecies to come to pass, and then He reveals the meaning to His servants. Today this light is increasing at unprecedented speed. The invitation, "Come ye, and let us walk in the light of Jehovah", has therefore never presented a stronger appeal at any previous time. (Isaiah 2:5, Am. Stan. Ver.). . . .

"Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for the upright in heart." (Psalm 97:11).

The Watchtower

"The Watchtower" is a semi-monthly magazine devoted exclusively to the consideration of God's Word. It is the channel used to convey to truth-hungry people the comparisons between the events of our day and what the prophecies foretold would occur. Its pages reflect the advancing light, making it readily accessible. A year's subscription to "The Watchtower" is only $1. — Write 40 Irwin Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

Woman Obstetrician Holds Unique Post

London (CP) — When Sir William Gilliatt retired as president of the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists last year, Professor Hilda Lloyd was elected in his stead. As the first woman to hold the post, she made medical history.

But 58-year-old Professor Lloyd has long been a pioneer among women in the medical field.

She began to specialize in obstetrics during the First World War, when women doctors were rare. When only 29 she became a fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons. After 25 years of busy practice as a specialist in Birmingham, she became the first full-time professor of obstetrics and gynaecology at the city's university.

Today she combines two or three days a week at the College in London with teaching at Birmingham University.

A widow, she believes that hers is a branch of medicine in which women can, and should, excel. Immersed in her work, she has little to say about her career. She is a generous and sympathetic woman whose spontaneity has assisted women in suffering and pain almost as much as her knowledge and experience.

Leadership is not ability to get back at our critics, but to get ahead with an answer.

Delectable Desserts

The dessert on the menu is like the glamour pin or the gold braid on a costume. The costume may be of excellent material and well cut but appears very ordinary without the right trimming. A meal may be nutritious and well balanced but the addition of dessert gives it the special touch.

During the summer months the desserts most appreciated are light and cool but with cobler days the appetite appeal turns to hot puddings of the batter or pastry class.

The home economists of the Consumer Section at Ottawa suggest these tested recipes for cool weather desserts:

Brownie Pudding

1 Cup sifted all-purpose flour (or 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons sifted pastry flour), 2 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ¾ cup sugar, 3 tablespoons cocoa, ½ cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 tablespoons shortening, melted, ½ cup chopped walnuts (optional), ¾ cup brown sugar, ¼ cup cocoa, 1¾ cups hot water.

Mix and sift flour, baking powder, salt, sugar and cocoa. Add milk, vanilla and melted shortening; mix until smooth. Add nuts. Pour into greased, 8-inch square cake pan. Mix brown sugar and cocoa; sprinkle over batter. Pour hot water over entire batter. Bake in a moderate oven, 350°F., 40 to 45 minutes. Serve hot. Yield: six servings.

Winter Shortcake

2 Cups sifted all-purpose flour (or 2¼ cups sifted pastry flour), 1 tablespoon sugar, ½ tablespoon salt, 4 teaspoons baking powder, ⅓ cup shortening, 1 egg, ⅔ cup milk.

Mix and sift flour, sugar, salt and baking powder. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse bread crumbs. Beat egg, add milk and add to flour, stirring only until blended. Turn out on a slightly floured surface and knead lightly ½ minute. Divide into two halves, pat out each half to fit an 8-inch layer pan. Brush one round with butter and place round on top. Bake in a very hot oven, 425°F., for 20 minutes. Spread fruit filling between layers. Serve warm with plain or whipped cream. Yield: six servings.

Apple Cereal Pudding

2 Cups cornflakes (or 1½ cups bran or wheat flakes), 2 cups sliced, peeled apples, ½ cup brown sugar (firmly packed), 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 2 tablespoons butter.

Place a layer of cereal flakes in a well-greased casserole, then add a layer of thinly sliced apples. Sprinkle with a mixture of brown sugar and cinnamon and dot with part of the butter. Repeat, finishing with cereal flakes. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375°F., for 30 to 40 minutes. Serve warm or cold with cream. Yield: six servings.

FASHION HINT

A good find for general, street or campus wear is this cheerful little dress of clan plaid woollen. There is small standing collar, above a link-button closing. The buttons are of black plastic composition. The sleeves are easy under the arm with notched cuffs for a nice finish. The peg-top skirt has an inverted centre pleat.

Wife Preservers

A moistened, soapy finger rubbed over the eyebrows will keep them neatly in place.

"Soup's On"

Once the first frost has nipped the garden and the calendar shows us that October is here, the family will appreciate hot, satisfying soup for supper.

Soups using milk are one excellent way of adding extra milk to the diet of those adults who would not otherwise get their daily quota. If the cream soup has vegetables, this too helps in getting both children and adults to eat an extra portion of vegetables.

Thick chowder-type soups are an excellent hot supper dish for early fall days. Here are several recipes recommended by the home economists at Ottawa:

Corn Chowder

¼ Cup chopped onion, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 3 cups cubed, cooked potatoes, 2 cups canned corn, 4 cups liquid (water drained from potatoes and milk), 2 teaspoons salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, chopped parsley.

Cook onion in butter until onions are slightly browned. Blend in flour. Add potatoes, corn, milk and potato water. Season with salt and pepper. Cook 3 to 5 minutes. Sprinkle with chopped parsley before serving. Yield: six servings.

Cheese - Onion Cream Soup

2 Tablespoons butter, 1 cup thinly sliced onions, 1½ tablespoons flour, 3 cups milk, 1 teaspoon salt, dash of pepper, ¾ cup grated medium Cheddar cheese.

Melt butter, add sliced onions and cook over direct heat, stirring constantly, until clear, about 5 minutes. Place over hot water, stir in flour and blend well. Add milk gradually and continue cooking, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add salt, pepper and grated cheese, stirring until cheese is melted. Garnish with chopped parsley before serving. Yield: six servings.

Pea Chowder

2 Tablespoons fat, 1 medium onion (½ cup minced), 1½ cups boiling water, 1 20-oz. can peas, 2 cups diced raw potato, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon paprika, ¼ teaspoon celery salt, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 tablespoon melted fat, 3 cups hot milk.

Melt fat in soup kettle, add onion and cook 5 minutes without browning. Add boiling water and liquid from peas. Bring to boil and add potatoes. Add seasonings. Boil 5 minutes, add peas and cook until potatoes are tender, about 10 minutes. Mix flour with melted fat, blend in hot milk. Add to vegetables and cook 3 minutes longer or until slightly thickened. Three slices of crisp bacon, cut in pieces, or two or three cooked sausages or weiners, sliced, may be added, if desired. Yield: six servings.

with water, dunk the slices thoroughly; then drop them in deep fat and cook until thoroughly browned."

Salt Pork Is Fine — If Cooked Right

Toronto (CP) — Salt pork, often maligned in colorful language by old-time bushmen who were forced to eat it for long periods while isolated in the woods, is being "discovered" by hunters and fishermen as a handy thing to have along on an extended canoe trip.

Rangers and conservation officers of the Ontario department of lands and forests have long known about salt pork, and to residents in more isolated areas of the province it is practically indispensable. It is nourishing, light to carry and it keeps well in the bush.

"Trouble with a lot of greenhorns is that they slap it into a frying pan without any preamble", commented one crusty outdoorsman. "Then after they bite into the salt they want to drink the lake dry. That isn't so bad, but quite often the same lads get so disgusted that they toss the stuff into the water and kill all the fish."

To offset this threat to conservation he offered the following recipe:

"Slice salt pork not more than one-eighth inch thick. Boil it for a short time, changing the water often enough to remove the salt. Then place the slices in a frying pan and fry until almost cooked. With a thin batter of two parts flour and one of corn meal mixed

New Peak for Tourist Industry in This Province; Quebec Shows Highest Gain

"This Week at Quebec"

By Richard Daignault, Canadian Press Staff Writer

Quebec, Oct. 17 (CP) — Premier Duplessis has indicated the possibility of legislation during the November session of the Legislature to limit the loads of trucks travelling the highways of the province. The premier described the size of some trucks as "elephantine" and their loads as "exhorbitant".

The Legislature has been called to meet November 8 and it is possible the government will introduce legislation regulating truck loads.

"The traffic of these elephantine trucks and their exhorbitant loads is dangerous for general traffic, and the best interests of the province require cessation of these abuses", said the premier. "In the public interest the government will take appropriate measures shortly. We ask for the co-operation of truck-owners, who must have the interest that everybody has in the protection of roads and traffic on the roads". The premier added, the report to him said trucks coming to Quebec from other provinces were laden extra-heavily for their travel here.

Fresh iron ore discoveries have been made in Ungava where already a $200,000,000 project for developing rich deposits is under way.

Premier Duplessis announced at his conference that the discoveries were made about 250 miles north of the Knob Lake - Burnt Creek district where Hollinger North Shore Exploration Company plans ore production within four or five years.

The new discoveries are only 75 miles from Ungava Bay and the premier said he was informed construction of a railway from the deposits to the bay would not be as difficult as construction of the 320-mile railway from the Hollinger concessions to Sept Iles on the St. Lawrence north shore.

The premier also spoke of development in the new northwest mining region of Chibougamau. The premier said $1,000,000 will be spent there by the Campbell Chibougaman Mining Company.

While forecasting "considerable" development in the region the premier warned would-be investors to make sure they place their money in "really productive mines", instead of enterprises "based on nothing more than sales talent."

The tourist industry in Quebec province promises to reach new heights this year. Premier Duplessis said that up to August 30 there was an increase of 6.9 per cent in the tourist industry over corresponding 1949 figures. The increase was higher than in any other province in Canada, he said.

Branch Banks At Sea

The experiment by the Midland Bank (England) of operating branches on the liners Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth has been adopted by London's British Mutual Bank for ferries plying between England and France. The Mutual afloat will cash travellers' cheques, change foreign currencies, even open accounts.

To Present Colors, Morin Hts. Legion

Morin Heights — The presentation and dedication of colors to Branch 171 of the Canadian Legion, Morin Heights, on Sunday, October 22, will be a great day in the experience of this branch. Major-General C. B. Price, C.B., D.S.O., D.C.M., V.D., will be present to make the presentation, and the chaplain will be Hon. Lt.-Col. the Rev. Harold Laws.

The parade will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the place of the ceremony will be the sports field, if fine weather permits; in the event of rain, the proceedings will be held in the dining room of the Bellevue Hotel. The Boy Scout troop, which is sponsored by the Legion branch, will also be on parade with their colors. Also, through the kindness and by the permission of the Commanding Officer of the Royal Montreal Regt., it is hoped to have a detachment of that famous regiment on parade, as well as buglers.

The members of the branch will parade under command of their president, Comrade E. Kneeland; all members will assemble at Boyd's Restaurant on the Main Street, wearing their medals, and will march to the sports field for the service.

Old Business Block In Real Estate Deal

The Banford Block, one of Lachute's best situated retail stands, owned by Harold G. Banford, was sold recently to Ernest Laurin. The block comprises the Dominion Store, and apartments on the second and third floors. . . The transfer was negotiated by J. R. Charron, real estate agent, who states that Mr. Laurin has taken over the property for the purpose of an investment.

The Banford building has an interesting past, associated with Lachute's earlier business leaders. Built by Thomas Stewart in the early 90's, it was later sold to Philias Rodrigue, owner of the hotel (which later became the Desjardins Hotel and subsequently the Laurentien). Mr. W. G. Banford, who started business in the East End about 1885, bought and occupied this building 10 years later — being joined by his son in 1908 and operating under the name W. Banford & Son. . . When the Banford business vacated, the store premises were occupied by Dominion Stores.

In an office upstairs years ago Dr. Hugh McConnell had his dental surgery, which was later taken over by the late Dr. G. A. Clunie and occupied until the time of his death.

Duck Banding Stations

The Quebec Game and Fisheries Department announces that the hunting of ducks, geese and other migratory game birds is prohibited on Flat Island near Ste. Anne de Sorel and Ste. Marguerite Island near the Island of Orleans.

These areas will be used as duck banding stations with provincial and federal wildlife officers in charge. Hunting of all kinds is prohibited, to make these islands bird refuges during the summer and fall migration.

Viscount Alexander Calls Attention to Immunization Week

National Immunization Week's education effort planned to protect the lives of Canadian children, received the support of Viscount Alexander of Tunis, Governor-General of Canada, in a special message to the people of Canada.

From Government House, Ottawa, Viscount Alexander, Patron of the Health League of Canada, which is sponsoring the "Week" — October 15 to 21 — issued the following message:

"I welcome the opportunity of directing the attention of the people of Canada to National Immunization Week, which will be observed shortly. The object of this campaign is to impress upon everyone the importance of protecting children, especially against three major diseases, diphtheria, smallpox and whooping cough.

"National Immunization Week, an annual event sponsored by the Health League of Canada in co-operation with official departments of health, to be successful, demands the co-operation particularly of parents.

"As Patron of the Health League of Canada I commend this educational effort planned to protect the lives of our Canadian children and urge that all citizens unite with physicians and departments of health to achieve this end."

Plow-Meet Prizes To Be Awarded

DANCE ARRANGED FOR NOVEMBER 1st

Prize-winners in this year's competition held by the Argenteuil Plowmen's Association will be presented with their awards at a dance in the Legion Hall, arranged for Wednesday, November 1, to which all are cordially invited.

In as many cases as possible, the donors themselves will be on hand to present their respective prizes on this occasion. It may be mentioned that one or two donations have been received by the committee since publication of the list last week. The Association is able to award the cash prizes far in advance of last year, due to prompt action on the part of the local deputy, W. M. Cottingham, M.L.A., who was instrumental in hastening through the government grant.

The Rotary Club at Brownsburg will again play host to the first-prize winners in all classes at the plowing match — having invited them to attend the club dinner Thursday, November 2, at 6.30 p.m., when the Rotary and the Lions Club trophies will also be presented.

Recent School Fair Held At Grenville

Grenville — A very successful School Fair was held recently at the Grenville Consolidated School. The show consisted of vegetables, flowers, home-cooking, woodcraft and a special section for pets. There were 122 entries, and 89 prizes were awarded to the winning exhibitors. The cash prizes ranged from the highest of $4.35 to 10 cents. Ranked in order, the five highest prize-winners were — Eunice McMichael, Eric Beauchamp, Verna Beauchamp, Robin Andrews and Hannah Keatley.

Mr. A. Bothwell, Agronomist, was unable to be in attendance, but nevertheless his services in the preliminary arrangements for the Fair were sincerely appreciated.

The success of this venture is due to a large extent to the local organizations and individuals who so generously donated to the prize fund. The following are duly acknowledged:

Grenville, L.O.B.A., Corporation of Village of Calumet, Grenville United Church Ladies' Aid, Calumet United Church Ladies' Aid, Grenville Ladies' Guild, Co-operative Grain Cleaner (per T. D. McMichael), St. Matthew's Church W.A., Grenville L.O.L. 58, Avoca L.O.B.A., Mr. Robert Whinfield, Mr. Thomas Farrara, Mr. Fraser Watson, Mr. Corl Gauley, Mrs. Alfred Farrara, Mr. A. J. McGerrigle, and Grenville & Augmentation Council.

The organization of this Fair was due to the committee of the local Community Club, which consisted of Mr. A. J. McGerrigle, Mr. H. H. MacKrith, Mr. Ulysse Beauchamp and other members who so generously assisted in the preparation and final exhibition.

To add to the funds a dance was sponsored in the evening, and the thanks of the Club are due to Mrs. Fred Cousins and Mrs. T. D. McMichael for their untiring efforts in this particular venture. Thanks are also due to the judges for their judging of the Fair exhibits.

Named Officer in I.O.O.F. Sovereign Grand Lodge

Walker K. McArthur

At the Sovereign Grand Lodge meeting of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, held in Philadelphia in September, Walker K. McArthur was appointed and installed as Sovereign Grand Messenger.

Mr. McArthur is the only Canadian this year to hold an office in the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which governs over one million five hundred thousand members.

This is the first time in 25 years that a member of the jurisdiction of Quebec has held an office in this governing body.

KEEP THE SABBATH

One farmer on Saturday night said "it will be a sore temptation to go ahead with harvest operations tomorrow, but six days' work has always been enough to get our harvesting done." Such was the spirit of the pioneers. They worked hard through the week and attended the church of their faith on the Sabbath.

Quebec Fish Goes To Italian Market

Quebec — A cargo of 429,700 pounds of Gaspé fish products bearing the trade name "Gaspé Cured" left this port for Naples, Italy, on the S.S. Cape Arma. This is the second shipment of cod direct from Gaspé to Italy this year and a third cargo will leave before navigation closes. Italian importers have written advising the department that they are well satisfied with the quality of Quebec fish products — according to trade sources.

Hon. C. E. Pouliot, M.D., Minister of Game and Fisheries for Quebec, told representatives of the press that his department provided facilities to assist the commercial fishing industry to maintain the high quality of its products, with the result that they were finding substantial markets overseas.

Announce Ceremony for Official Opening, New High School Building

The opening of the new High School building in Lachute — too notable an event to pass without due ceremony—will be officially observed on Friday evening, November 3 — according to announcement by the Protestant School Commission. The Director of Protestant Education for Quebec, Dr. W. P. Percival, will be present to officiate in the fine new auditorium of the school, where the proceedings will commence at 8.15 p.m.

Following this ceremony the building will be open for public inspection, and it is expected that members of the teaching staff will be on hand to welcome and escort the visitors. A cordial invitation is extended by the Commissioners to all parents and ratepayers.

M.L.A. Presents Title of Land

W. M. Cottingham, M.L.A., is here seen presenting to Colin W. Webster, president of the Old Brewery Mission Inc., a document covering Letters Patent to 80 acres of land around Kelly Lake, in this county, which will provide protection for the water supply of the Mission Camp at Lake Chapleau for underprivileged mothers and children. About 1,500 persons attend this camp every summer, for a two-week period. . . Other officials seen in the above group are J. P. Copland and C. K. Calhoun, directors, and W. H. White, superintendent.

The Old Brewery Mission has been taking care of Montreal's underprivileged children at Lake Chapleau since 1906, when the camp was first opened. During that time the Mission has leased the 80 acres of land to protect the camp's water supply. Just recently Mr. Cottingham, M.L.A. for Argenteuil County, representing the Quebec Department of Lands and Forests, presented the Letters Patent, being an outright title to this land. In making the presentation, he pointed out the consideration given by the Duplessis Government to minority groups in the province, and congratulated the officers of the Old Brewery Mission on the good work they are doing, and hoped that they would continue this work in his county for many years to come.

New Shop Adds to Long-Time Record Of Storekeeping Under Name "McFaul"

Last Friday a bright new store opened in the main shopping centre of Lachute — that section which is undergoing a continuous transformation (to the extent that, a week or two absent from the bright lights, and one feels a sense of strangeness in one's hometown). The new business carries the name of "Chas. McFaul & Son"; but for all its modern front and interior it represents, to many passers-by, a link of sentiment with the early merchants of this town — with the days of the oil lamp and the cracker barrel. . . For the name of McFaul is long established in this community.

Chas. McFaul formerly conducted a country store in Chute à Blondeau; he retired some years ago, and is now back again in business — business with all the modern embellishments. He is one of four brothers who have kept store in this town during more than half a century. . .

Across the street from this stand, John McFaul & Son (with three generations now active) have developed an extensive and up-to-date business in hardware and men's outfitting — from beginnings dating back 32 years, then replete with harness-making and farm machinery.

At that time, however, John McFaul (senior member of this firm) was not new to the store business — for in that year he branched out from a partnership with his brother, the late "Jim" McFaul, on Main Street West. James and John had started there 60 years ago; the west-end store still does a thriving business, its name "McFaul Bros." recalling the original partnership. In charge is Cecil, son of the late Jas. McFaul, with a cousin, Milton McFaul, managing a meat department along modern lines.

Gone but not forgotten is the store owned and operated by the fourth brother, Bob, whose spacious establishment in dry goods, yard goods and groceries (in the McFaul Block, lately sold to R. A. Beamish Stores) is well remembered by older residents. Robt. McFaul started there soon after the turn of the century, in 1902, and gave up 14 years ago. But storekeeping is still in his veins, and he may be frequently seen behind the counter "clerking" for one of his brothers.

Thus entwined in the roots of local retailing, is the name McFaul. . . But there is another yet — in the old established general store at Brownsburg. Here (Cousin) G. Ira McFaul, with his brother Vincent, now deceased, bought out a branch of the McFaul Bros. in that village in 1903; it was across the street from his present location, to which he moved a year later. And it is interesting to note, Robert (Bob) McFaul crops up in the picture at that early date — for he was then operating the business at Brownsburg for his brothers John and James, before Ira and Vincent took over.

Some doctors now dispute the old belief that sugar causes tooth decay. Cone-chewing natives in the sugar plantations have fine teeth.

Quebec Provincial Game Protection

Quebec — Highlight of provincial affairs this week, from the standpoint of lasting benefit to the province, was information contained in an address by Dr. C. E. Pouliot, Minister of Game and Fisheries.

At this season of the year vast hunting and fishing opportunities are presented in the Province of Quebec. Unfortunately, it is also well known that in past years there have been serious oversights in the matter of game law enforcement; there was a general slaughter of our most prized provincial game, with the result that the creatures were decimated and in some cases almost wiped out.

However, under a new legislation, the co-operation of interested associations and societies, diligence on the part of wardens, and special emphasis by such publicists as Isaac Hunter of The Montreal Gazette, or Isaac Lechasseur (as he is known) in the French-language papers, has all resulted in a completely new lease of life for the game of Quebec, and an assurance that if they continue in the way of conservation, there will always be a wealth of game in the province, provided they are protected at the right time and the intelligent, well thought-out hunting and fishing regulations obeyed in spirit and in letter.

The department is operated at some expense, it is admitted by Dr. Pouliot, but, as he said in his address, it is an expense that will be repaid one hundredfold or more, if the co-operation of the hunter and fisherman is forthcoming. Statistics show that it is.

BAD PARKING

Cars park every way imaginable, and owners have no concern for the other fellow. Cars are parked just far enough apart so that another cannot possibly get in; and in one place recently checked, 10 cars were taking up the space that 19 could get into safely. Let's make our parking uniform!

The new Legion Hall looks pretty good now. With a little more effort the building will be complete and ready for occupation. Every great and commanding movement in the annals of the world is the triumph of enthusiasm. Other Sidneys profited from this advice.

The Skating Rink

Some people are hoping the new skating rink will be in operation this season, with even an unfinished shelter. There is one sure way to accomplish this end, and that is to keep the subscriptions rolling in. With Lachute lacking a rink this season, it becomes more necessary to provide some local outlet for our national pastime.

Carillon Museum Scene of 16th Annual Meeting Argenteuil Historical Society

Business, Entertainment and Social Reunion— Afternoon Gathering at Barracks Museum

Attendance at the 16th annual meeting of the Argenteuil Historical Society, last Saturday, showed steady interest by a representative cross-section of Lachute and Ottawa Valley residents — financial support sufficient for the healthy, if not lavish, progress of the Society — and in brief, after 16 years, an exemplary fulfilment of the aims formulated by the Society's founders.

The meeting was held as usual in the old Carillon Museum, where the proceedings were conducted by Mrs. G. F. W. Kuhring, vice-president, in place of J. S. Giles, president (who was absent due to a stormy voyage and delayed arrival from England last week-end) . . . Mrs. Kuhring spoke with gratitude of the legacy, approximating $19,000, left by the late Miss Priscilla McMartin, a life-member of the Society who died last December. The chairman made reference also to favorable comment from the authorities at Ottawa, on the museum exhibits and the excellent manner in which they were kept. Miss Beatrice Robertson presented the secretarial report, and Miss Edith Simpson gave the financial statement.

Mr. Philippe Valois, M.P., again voiced his good wishes to the Society, and offered whatever assistance he might give. He had been able to collaborate with the president in the matter of plants and shrubs for embellishment of the grounds next spring, and hoped to be of further service in promoting the Society's interests.

Mr. F. W. Whitehead recounted impressions from the conference of museum officials which he had attended recently in Montreal. He stressed the desirability of increasing the Society's membership, which had remained stationary for several years past, and of suitably publicizing the museum. There had been 535 visitors to the museum in September, Mr. Whitehead reported, and 298 to date during October.

Mrs. W. J. Pitcairn presented the report of the nominating committee, and unanimous approval was given to re-election of the present officers — J. S. Giles, president; Mrs. G. F. W. Kuhring, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Geo. McGibbon, 2nd vice-president; Miss B. Robertson, secretary; Miss E. Simpson, treasurer — also to the re-election of three directors whose terms had expired, Mrs. A. Graham, Mrs. C. Armstrong and Mrs. W. Windsor.

A museum committee was also appointed, for the purpose of dealing with interim accounts; to confer with the museum official as required; and to arrange and catalogue the exhibits. This committee includes—Mr. Benj. Howell, Mrs. Geo. McGibbon, Dr. Grace Wales, Mac Walker, Mrs. S. Forbes and Miss B. Robertson.

The program of entertainment was given by Mrs. Phoebe Erskine McKellar, a talented elocutionist, who recited poems from Canadian fact and legend. Mrs. McKellar appeared in costume — her dramatic art interpreting the scene, character and period with a gripping realism. Her recital was entitled "Precious Heritage", portraying Indian legends on the Gaspé shores and the Miramachi; crisp Eskimo philosophy; a historic narrative on the early settlement of Ville Marie; and all the joy and pathos of Drummond, who has hewn in immortal verse the lovable figure of the Quebec habitant. Altogether it was a varied and colorful recital, in which the artist excelled. . . She was cordially thanked for her program by Mrs. Geo. McGibbon, on behalf of the audience.

A social hour was spent at the tea tables, where the W.M.S. of the Margaret Rodger Memorial Church, Lachute, served excellent refreshments.

LOCAL DELEGATION HEARS INTERNAT'L PRESIDENT

A score of local Lions attended a rousing meeting of the Montreal Lions Club last evening in the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, where the International president, Herb Petry, Jr., paid his official visit.

The District Governor and Deputy District Governor were also in attendance, and another notable was the Immediate Past-President of International, Walter Fisher — the first Canadian to have occupied this high office.

The Lachute delegation were honored inasmuch as their president, Lion Horace Lamarche, was called upon to present a token to the International president on behalf of the clubs in Quebec. Mr. Lamarche spoke creditably in both French and English, expressing the cordial sentiment and the loyal enthusiasm of Lionism in this province.

The local members were also privileged to present their song, "Lions of the North" (music and lyric produced in Lachute), which they sang with gusto. The song was well received, and International President Herb Petry gave assurance he would present it at the next International convention, with a view to its adoption as an official theme song for Lions Clubs north of the 49th parallel.

Altogether the clubmen from this town reported a pleasant and profitable visit.

Gatineau LINES

Moving Electricity

When articles are manufactured in a factory, they must be shipped to many points for sale. The shipping is done by railway, by truck or by ship. Usually, the product is shipped in large quantities to distribution points, and then is broken down into smaller packages to be distributed through the area surrounding each point.

Electricity passes through exactly the same stage on its journey to the consumer. The only difference is that instead of travelling by railway or by highway, it travels via transmission wires. Instead of turning the product over to somebody else to move it, the electrical company must own its own wires in order to move the electrical power from one point to another after it has been manufactured.

Gatineau Power operates thousands of miles of electrical lines in order to get its product to its 60,000 customers in widely-separated parts of Quebec. As in the case of any other product, the size of the line depends on the amount of the product required in any one place. When a manufacturer has to ship large quantities of his product to any one point, he may use an entire freight-train, or a fleet of huge trucks. When he is moving only a small quantity of material he uses only one corner of a train, ship or truck.

The power company does almost the same thing with its transmission lines. When it must move large quantities of electricity, it erects high-voltage lines to distribution centres. When it is moving smaller amounts in many different directions, it uses smaller and less expensive lines. Gatineau Power, for instance, uses lines strong enough to handle electricity at 110,000 and 220,000 volts on the lines leaving big power plants such as Paugan, Chelsea, Farmers and Bryson. It uses 110,000-volt lines on its main lines to deliver power to areas where large amounts of power are required. From there on, lines graduate right down to the 115 - 230-volt circuits that go into private homes.

Thus, whether large quantities or small quantities are required, Gatineau Power "ships" its products just as any other manufacturer does—using transmission lines instead of railways or trucks.

There is, however, a difference. A railway or trucking company can shift vehicles from one route to another as the demand varies in different directions, but a power company's "vehicles and routes" are combined into one unit — the transmission lines. They must be large to carry the full load at all times — right from the power house to the consumer's premises.

Quebec Keeps Control Of Margarine

London (CP) — The Privy Council has sustained a judgment by the Supreme Court of Canada which declared the sale of margarine in Canada is a matter of provincial jurisdiction.

The decision, handed down by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, came as a climax to a long hard-fought battle over whether the manufacture, sale and distribution of margarine should be made legal in Canada.

The decision apparently leaves the margarine question where it was when the Canadian court delivered its opinion in 1949. The effect of the Ottawa decision was to hand jurisdiction over margarine to the provinces, leaving them individually to enact legislation on the manufacture and sale of the butter substitute within their own boundaries.

Plan Luxury Barns For Prairie Cows

Saskatoon (CP) — The cows may soon have cafeterias, lounges and parlors — and save Saskatchewan dairy farmers money.

University of Saskatchewan officials are considering construction of a new kind of barn to give animals all the comforts of home.

Dean V. E. Graham of the agriculture department at the college says a test building may soon be put on the campus for experiments aimed at better efficiency in the dairy industry. Requiring no concrete foundation, the barn would comprise large posts set in the ground, with roof on top and siding nailed on.

Hay would be fed "cafeteria" style into the hay storage and much hand labor in feeding will be avoided.

The barn itself would be of the "lounging" type, the cows being free to roam about as they please between milkings instead of being held in stanchions.

The milking "parlor" would be a raised platform with milking machines.

Dr. Graham said barns of this type have been used successfully in the United States and, to a limited extent, in Canada. They permit greater mechanization and lower dairying costs.

Plans call for joint financing of the 52-by-78-foot barn by the Saskatchewan Co-operative Creamery Association, the Dairy Pool, the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture and the University.

Farmer's Note Book

A new farmer's notebook, in Eastern and Prairie editions, has just been published by the agricultural chemicals division of Canadian Industries Limited and will soon be available to farmers through C-I-L dealers and divisional sales offices. In addition to many facts on scientific farming, it contains a table of weights and measures, a planter's guide, silo capacities and other reference material a farmer finds useful. A 1951-52 calendar is also included.

SHOOTS 23 LIONS

Capetown (CP)—One of Europe's biggest big game hunters, Lucien Edmond Quinarena-Cassayet, has arrived here from central Africa after a seven-month hunting trip. He bagged 23 lions, 34 elephants, 160 leopards, 400 buffalo and 2,000 buck.

Mr. Cassayet, a champagne dealer from Rheims, runs his own private zoo, which includes about 3,000 varieties of snakes. He has turned down an American offer for the zoo of about $560,000.

Juvenile Winners at Intern'l Plowing Meet

On a field swept by winds of almost gale force and intermittent sheets of rain, two Victoria County boys won first prize in the Salada Tea Inter-County Horse Plowing competition, major event last Thursday at the International Plowing Matches held near Alliston, Ont. The weather made the light loamy soil of 600-acre Nottawasaga Valley Farms just about perfect for plowing. Thirteen year old Ivan Bell of Kirkfield had the highest number of points, though the other member of the Victoria team, his cousin, Gerald Bell, of Woodville, was not far behind. The Wentworth County team consisting of George Markle, Alberton, and Tom Braithwaite, Ancaster, won second place. These four boys, with a trip manager to be appointed by the Ontario Plowmen's Association, will make a tour of agricultural and conservation projects in the eastern United States next spring as guests of the Salada Tea Company.

Early Immunization Urged by Health Minister

Children can be saved from the menace of diphtheria, whooping cough and smallpox through early immunization, states Hon. Paul Martin, Minister of National Health and Welfare, in a special National Immunization Week message to Canadian parents.

National Immunization Week, October 15th to 21st, sponsored by the Health League of Canada, has "the wholehearted support" of his department and provincial health departments, Mr. Martin said. Its purpose is to remind parents and guardians about the necessity for a simple, safe and effective step that will protect their children — immunization.

The federal health minister said there is nothing to lose by immunization, "but everything to gain — your child's health, possibly his very life. Medical science has done a truly wonderful job in developing and improving immunization. It's up to each and every parent to see that his child receives its benefits."

The best time to have a child immunized was in his very first year, Mr. Martin advocated. "Don't put it off", he said. "Don't gamble with the life of your little one. Take him to your doctor or health clinic now."

These preventable diseases annually take a needless toll of misery and tragedy.

Handwriting

A speaker at a recent convention of handwriting experts issued a warning to business executives. "As businessmen climb the ladder and become executives, their penmanship degenerates", he said. "This makes the forger's job just that much easier. The most detailed methods of handwriting comparison and analysis are needed when the scrawl has become so bad that it can be described: "Sure, that's his signature. You never could read it anyway!" Another speaker advised: "If you are going to sign an important document, don't use a ball point pen. This deprives a signature of many characteristics that will help in identification later." — Marketing

Death Toll from Preventable Diseases

EITHER neglect or ignorance of the facts is to blame for Canada's 281 deaths from diphtheria and whooping cough in 1949 — it is charged by the Health League of Canada, which this week is sponsoring the nation's eighth annual observance of National Immunization Week.

The Health League points out that diphtheria and whooping cough are preventable — through diphtheria toxoid and whooping cough vaccine, respectively. Public health officers and family doctors throughout the nation are able and willing to provide protection against these two diseases, yet both continue to take annual toll among Canada's children.

It is emphasized further that they will continue to take toll until all parents and guardians of unprotected children realize the facts and consult their medical officer of health or their own physician in regard to the various immunization procedures. Immunization against these two killer diseases, as well as against smallpox, is provided by most health departments free of charge. (There also is a tetanus toxoid which prevents tetanus, commonly known as lockjaw. This often is given in combined injections with diphtheria toxoid and whooping cough vaccine.)

Last year there were 202 whooping cough deaths from 7,942 cases, and 79 diphtheria deaths from 798 cases — a needless waste of life, according to the Health League.

Medical science has provided the means to wipe out these diseases — it is up to the general public to take full advantage of the preventives and the facilities provided for their use.

Builders of 1950

FOR THOSE who say young Canadians have lost the spark and resourcefulness of their fathers, here is a thought or two.

What about the thousands of young men who are building their own homes? Where can you find a settlement in Canada — from the fishing hamlets of Newfoundland to the metropolitan areas of Central and Western Canada — where amateur builders are not toiling today to erect homes for their families?

And in many cases they are doing it largely on their own initiative Whole new villages, often reaching town proportions, are springing up throughout the land.

Sparked by the returned war veterans, whose home-building efforts are aided by government experts, young Johnny Canuck has developed a new interest. Many start by building scale models of their dwellings. Then they begin the actual work. Most, of course, must enlist the aid of a carpenter, but others are erecting the whole house by themselves. Although the majority of the young builders are assisted financially, there is no denying they have initiative. When a man is willing to do his day's work, then turn around and work — often until midnight — on a home of his own, he is showing something of the spirit of the early settlers. For the pioneers it was a crude log cabin or shanty under the trees. For Johnny Canuck of 1950, it is a well-designed cottage surrounded by a lawn or garden, very often built with his own hands.

Color in Our Lives

FEW CANADIANS are surrounded more by color than the farmer. Bright blue skies, fleecy white clouds, breathtaking sunsets are frequently the setting for his daily activity. He sees the emerald green crops sprouting from the dark brown earth. Fruit trees dress up in their multi-colored finery like debutantes for their first dance. Then, in late summer and fall, the fruit and vegetables appear: rosy-cheeked apples, rich maroon cherries, deep orange pumpkins, bright yellow marrows and waves of golden grain. The farmer would live a drab life indeed but for color.

As a people, Canadians are at last learning to look at gay colors without fear or shame — according to the distinguished Canadian author, Hugh MacLennan. He says that the day may even come when a cabinet minister need not dress like an undertaker or when a banker will appear at his office wearing a yellow jacket and green tie.

Mr. MacLennan, writing in the October issue of C-I-L Oval, quoted an American reference to Canada as "that good, grey country" and explained that to be grey in Canada was synonymous with being safe. (Echoes of a recent speech in Lachute by that wide-awake observer, John Fisher!)

This issue of the magazine is devoted entirely to the subject of color, its history and application in home, industry, school and the fine arts. Thus it demonstrates a growing appreciation of color and how it can contribute to better living.

For example, one article discusses the psychological effect of color on humans. Tensions can be heightened or relaxed through a change in color harmonies which react on the individual as a stimulant or a mild hypnotic. Color is used in the modern hospital as an aid to recovery. For patients suffering from melancholy or depression, red tones can stimulate hope, desire and action. Blue and mauve shades are effective with patients who must be calm and quiet.

An article on dyes recalls that early dyes were made from vegetables and insects. Today, synthetic dyes — mostly from coal tar — have almost entirely replaced the earlier, laboriously produced and less reliable natural dyes.

SCHOOL teachers are blaming parents, and parents, teachers. Employers are concerned at the apparent failure of both. We do not know who is at fault, but certainly the spoken and written word of our rising generation is being marred far too frequently by a slovenly disregard of elementary rules of grammar and spelling.

EDITOR'S Heaven: a place where no one says with a knowing leer each time we approach: "Be careful now if you don't want to appear in print".

Sees Southern Fringe of Laurentian Foothills An "Over-Hunted" Area

TO THE EDITOR

Another season rolls around, and the boys are at it again. . . Good boys, most of them, ranging in age from 16 to 60. They come from near and far, from local rural sections, towns and villages strewn throughout the Ottawa Valley and elsewhere, including Greater Montreal — thus swelling the already over-crowded ranks of deer hunters who enter the southern section of the Laurentian foothills each season. Armed to the teeth in quest of the Virginia White-Tail deer — incidentally the most beautiful big-game animal that roams this continent.

As we all know, the take of deer each fall in this area is very heavy, to which must be added the unknown numbers that are wounded and never brought to bag — a condition which repeats itself each open season at an ever-increasing tempo, thus leaving fewer deer at the close of each season for the propagation of the species.

There is no denying the fact that the slaughter of our deer has increased many fold in the past 25 years, and if permitted to continue will bring about regrettable results. Therefore, with these facts in mind, it is well that we as sportsmen (who consider ourselves worthy of the name), take stock of ourselves and begin to realize that it is time to stand up on our hind legs and declare to the world that we are solidly behind any program that has for its objective Wild-Life Conservation.

It has been stated that individuals are much alike—which is questionable, to say the least, since some are satisfied with their just portion and others take more than rightfully belongs to them. However, in one respect we are much alike because we are prone to undervalue that which costs us little or nothing — which surely applies to a great extent in regard to the value of our wild-life.

Seton, the great student of the Creatures of the Wild, indicates that a White-Tail buck deer is in his prime at 7 or 8 years of age, with a possible life span of 15 years.

When a hunter bags a mature buck, the value of his prize is seldom realized. A thrill of achievement predominates, which of course is common to us all; yet let us reflect — how much would we ask in dollars and cents to feed and care for this animal over a seven-year period? There is no answer, since creatures of the wild take care of all this themselves. We never even knew of this magnificent buck's existence until it fell prey to the high-power rifle in the hunter's hands. However, there is real value represented in the buck that lies before us; a thrill value that money cannot buy — and tender venison steaks and tasty stews that will be ours which the butcher shop cannot supply.

Returning to the Laurentian foothills and its over-hunted southern fringe, as already mentioned (with which the writer is fairly well acquainted) — let it be known beyond misunderstanding, that if conditions remain as they are in this area, as surely as night follows day, we as sportsmen will have much to regret.

In order to correct this very objectionable condition, there is only one answer, namely, a closing of this area to hunters for a given period, ranging from two to five years, which in all truth will not impose much hardship on hunters, as many good roads lead into the woodlands north of this 10 to 15-mile depth. Therefore the deer hunter will not be denied his sport during the time required to restock the over-hunted southern fringe of these foothills.

With the foregoing in mind, let us as sportsmen do what we can to foster Wild-Life Conservation. Let us faithfully abide by and help enforcement of our game laws. Let each and every one of us begin to realize the responsibility that is ours, and let it be known that we dislike the individual who disregards established law enacted for game conservation.

Laxity in Licenses Blamed for High Car Accident Rate

Did you know that five of the ten provinces in Canada will issue you driving permits, just by writing for them? "Maclean's" found this out in investigating the scandal of our license system by receiving licenses by mail from Albert, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Quebec and Prince Edward Island.

Writing in the current issue of "Maclean's", Fred Bodsworth lays much of the blame for our rising car-accident death toll to the careless issuance of driving permits. He writes:

"Car accidents are bringing death to Canadians at almost the same rate as the RCAF lost men, killed and missing, in World War II".

"Police and safety experts say the main reason for our accident toll is that Canada, in an age of 100-horsepower, 80-mile-per-hour cars, still issues licenses to drive, as casually as it hands out dog tags. In some provinces the licensing system is a hypocritical form of taxation in which little effort is made to keep the unskilled and physically handicapped off the highway".

Writes Bodsworth: "Alberta, Saskatchewan, Quebec and New Brunswick are the black sheep. The reckless manner in which they toss out driving permits is a menace not only to those provinces themselves but to all of Canada and the U.S. for the permits entitle their holders to drive as tourists for 60 days in any province or state they choose".

Bodsworth quotes a high traffic authority: "We'll never improve the accident rate until we improve driver standards (and enforce them by careful licensing). With many drivers, their permit is more than a license to drive — it is a license to murder."

Lacquer once was solely a natural product, the sap of an Oriental tree. Now, made synthetically, it comes in many more colors than nature produced.

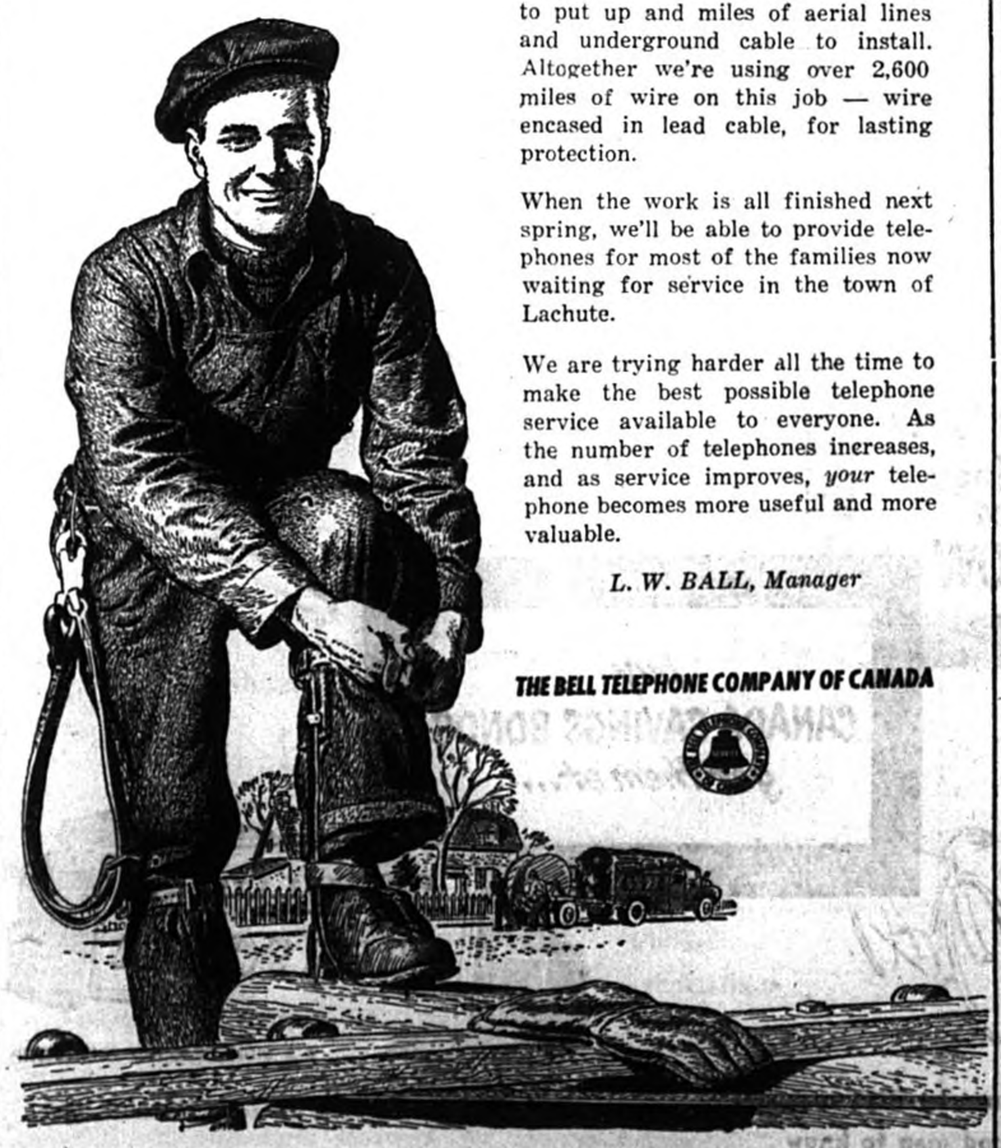
We're doing the outside work right now!



We have nearly 100 telephone poles to put up and miles of aerial lines and underground cable to install. Altogether we're using over 2,600 miles of wire on this job — wire encased in lead cable, for lasting protection.

When the work is all finished next spring, we'll be able to provide telephones for most of the families now waiting for service in the town of Lachute.

We are trying harder all the time to make the best possible telephone service available to everyone. As the number of telephones increases, and as service improves, your telephone becomes more useful and more valuable.

Orange Grand Mistress Visits Grenville Lodge

(Our District Correspondent)

Grenville — Last Friday evening the members of 'No Surrender' Lodge, No. 210, held their annual meeting in the Grenville Consolidated School, with a large attendance from Montreal, Lachute, Harrington and Cassburn, Ont.

Miss Burald Dumoulin, Worshipful Mistress, presided, with all officers present. Miss Doria Dumoulin, acting Deputy Mistress, escorted the Grand Lodge officers into the room and they were accorded Grand Lodge honors. R.W. Mrs. Sadie Price, of Montreal, on this occasion was making her official visit to 'No Surrender' Lodge in her capacity as Grand Mistress for Quebec, with other Grand Lodge officers from Montreal, Mrs. E. Erskine, Mrs. W. Roberts, Miss N. Helm and Miss G. Hoyle; also Mrs. L. McVicar, of Harrington, and Mrs. M. Ball, of Brownsburg.

When the first degree business had been conducted by members of the home lodge, a Holy Bible was dedicated by the Grand Lodge officers, in memory of the late Ethel Densmore, a gift from Mr. J. Densmore and Mrs. E. Noble to the L.O.B.A. members.

The Lachute degree team took charge for the Scarlet degree, and five members of Grenville lodge were exalted in this degree.

Mrs. Price gave an inspiring address on the work of the Order; other addresses were given by members—Mrs. Erskine especially stressing the urgent need for the Orange and Protestant Children's Home and soliciting help in any manner possible.

After the singing of "God Save the King", refreshments were served by the ladies of 'No Surrender' Lodge, which brought a very profitable and enjoyable evening to a close.

A Weekly Feature of Helpful Hints for Child Training, etc.

Picture Books

— By NANCY CLEAVER —

The child who loves picture books has a magic doorway through which he can pass to other lands and other times. If he learns to enjoy picture books he has a source of pleasure which will last him all his life. Pictures stimulate the imagination and help the child pretend that he is in different and novel situations.

Likes the Pictures

Mothers discover that a child can point with glee to the pictures he likes in a book or magazine when he is still quite young. The gay colors attract his attention and most children show a decided preference for certain shades such as red. A little boy or girl enjoys pointing to pictures of familiar objects and naming them — "baby", "dog", "house", etc.

There are a number of attractive picture books for little children. Some are made of durable linen or linette cloth. But it is easy to construct a simple cloth book for a very small child with factory cotton and a sewing machine. Paste in it pretty cutouts of simple, colored pictures which will interest a small youngster.

An older child will derive a lot of satisfaction from his very own picture book made by pasting colored pictures into a large paged scrap book. With just a little guidance and help from parents, a picture scrap book can fill many empty moments. On rainy, cold days when a child is confined indoors or if he is convelescing and must be quiet part of the day, a scrap book hobby has great value.

Add to Its Charm

The illustrations in a book add so much to its charm. There are some cheap children's books which are too cheap for good taste in pictures. But there are many medium priced books and ones costing a little more with very beautiful pictures by artists who know children and who know good art. The librarian in the children's section of any public library will be glad to point out some of these excellent picture books. They include such books as Beatrice Potter's — "The Tale of Peter Rabbit"; Lois Lenski's — "The Little Auto" — "The Little Airplane", "The Little Sail Boat"; Marjorie Flack's — "Angus and the Ducks"; Walter Crane's — "Fairy Tale Picture Book"; Brunhoff's — "The Story of Barbar".

Recently a small leaflet "Pictures and Stories" — to Read, Tell and Show to little children has been published by Boys and Girls House, Toronto Public Libraries. This can be obtained on request and it is an excellent guide to a parent in the choice of books for her child. The nine divisions of different kinds of picture books are interesting. They also suggest that even a little child should have variety in his "reading". The classifications are as follows — Mother Goose Rhymes and Verses, Bible Picture Books, Picture Books of Far Places, Magic Adventure Books, Fairy Tale Picture Books, Droll Animals, Picture Stories of Animal Life, Adventure With Sails, Wheels and Wings, and Songs We Sing.

Citizens' Radio Forum Opens Eighth Season

"Are We Afraid to Discipline Our Children?" is the topic for the opening Citizens' Forum broadcast of the 1950-51 series, to be held this evening, October 19, at 7.45 E.S.T., over the CBC.

The program will originate in Toronto. Those taking part are — Dr. W. E. Blatz, head of the Institute of Child Study, University of Toronto; Mrs. James Gibson, of Ottawa; and Mrs. Ralph Blackmore, Assistant Financial Editor of the Globe and Mail.

Citizens' Forum, now entering upon its eighth season, is a joint project of the CBC and the Canadian Association for Adult Education. On each weekly broadcast, speakers exchange views on controversial issues. Listening groups across Canada use these broadcasts and study material prepared by the C.A.A.E. as a basis for their own discussions of these problems.

This year's programs on community, national, and international problems cover a wide range, including the role of the Church, communion in Canada, and the future of Germany.

VISIT EMPRESS: More than 300 travel agents and Canadian Pacific representatives from all parts of Canada and the United States visited the Empress of Scotland at Quebec City recently to obtain a preview of the facilities which will be available on the ship during her winter cruise program. Seven cruises will be made by the vessel from New York to the West Indies. Among those attending were (left to right): J. E. Parker, general agent, Canadian Pacific Steamships, Montreal; H. B. Beaumont, steamship passenger traffic manager, Montreal; J. A. Metivier, agent, Sherbrooke, Que.; and G. T. Frayne, steamship general passenger agent, Montreal.

Let's Stop Needless Childhood Deaths

Ask anyone what is childhood's most serious disease and the odds are that the answer will be "polio", "diphtheria", "measles" or "scarlet fever".

"But all of these would be wrong", says John C. Scott of the Health League of Canada, in an article in October issue of National Home Monthly. "The few who guess 'whooping cough' would be correct", writes Mr. Scott. "Yes, where infectious diseases are considered today, whooping cough is said by medical authorities to present the chief problem in the reduction of juvenile deaths, despite the fact that science has provided a vaccine which is an effective whooping cough check.

"Federal government statistics show that whooping cough causes more deaths each year in Canada than diphtheria, measles, scarlet fever or polio, and medical men point out that whooping cough mortality is higher among children under two years of age than in the other four diseases combined.

"It seems paradoxical that a disease considered preventable should be one of childhood's most serious. Nevertheless, it is true, because last year in Canada 202 children died from preventable whooping cough — more than from all other "dread" diseases named above. In the seven-year period from 1943 to 1949, there were 77,682 cases of whooping cough with 2,021 deaths — more than diphtheria and polio combined. There were 14,582 diphtheria cases with 1,041 deaths, while polio, which has been so dramatically publicized as a child killer and crippler, showed only 9,845 cases for that period, with only 602 deaths.

"It is true that many whooping cough sufferers recovered, but of those who did not die, many were permanently injured by complications which sometimes left the victims mentally handicapped for life, or with some type of chronic pulmonary condition. There is little need to mention that the dead and injured had not been adequately immunized against this childhood plague.

"Take the case of an unimmunized 10-months-old boy from a Canadian suburb. In this instance failure to immunize, failure to call a doctor for two weeks, failure of the infant patient to react favorably to all known treatment and drugs, resulted in his death — death from convulsions which probably would have left the child mentally impaired for the rest of his life if he hadn't died.

"Yes, preventive measures — arranged for at the proper time by the child's parents — would have prevented this family tragedy. In an effort to impress on parents that the child death-rate can be lowered greatly through immunization, the Health League of Canada, the nation's great voluntary health education association, has designated the week of October 15th as National Immunization Week — a time devoted to public emphasis on the fact than many dangerous childhood diseases can be prevented by immunization."

Port Arthur, Ont. (CP) — Lovers' lane, a winding trail along McVicar's Creek from Algoma street to Court street, may become a modern road. City council thinks it may be the best place to build a through-traffic artery.

OBITUARY

Former Townsman Died in Montreal

The Late Isaac Fulton

The funeral of the late Isaac Fulton, a former resident of this town, was held last Thursday from the MacKimmie Funeral Home, followed by interment at Lachute Cemetery.

The late Mr. Fulton came here from Scotland in 1912. He and his wife, the former Agnes Dougall, resided in Lachute most of the 35 years before going latterly to live with their daughter in Montreal, where Mr. Fulton died October 10 at the age of 64; he had been in poor health for some time past.

Isaac Fulton was employed here for many years by the late J. R. Parris; he later worked on the farm of Robt. Todd, then for the Quebec Roads Department.

He is survived by his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Murray Morrison, Hudson Heights, Mrs. Jean Roberts and Mrs. Agnes Izzi, Montreal; and three sons, Robert and Andrew, of Montreal, and James, of South Mountain, Ont.

The Rev. W. B. Rosborough conducted the funeral rites. Pallbearers were the three sons of the deceased, with Murray Morrison, Colin Webster and Herbert Graves.

Protection for Lawns

Use of straw manure and dry leaves as protective winter coating for lawns is highly undesirable, according to scientists of C-I-L's agricultural chemicals division. They say that fresh manure often contains a wide variety of weed seeds which will sprout in the spring, while leaves tend to smother the grass.

In regions where the winter is severe, it is suggested that snow be used for lawn protection. Use of brush piles or snow fences to catch and retain the snow is recommended.

While leaves should all be raked off the lawn in the fall they should not be burned. Leaves, properly piled, will make excellent compost which may be used to advantage as a fertilizer on lawns or gardens next year.

The helicopter is becoming increasingly popular for crop dusting operations.

Woods - MacIntyre

In a double-ring ceremony at St. Matthew's Church, Grenville, on Saturday afternoon, September 30, at two o'clock, Miss Beryl Jean MacIntyre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl MacIntyre, of Grenville, became the bride of Mr. William Bennett Woods, son of Mrs. Woods and of the late Mr. W. J. W. Woods, of Metcalfe, Ont.

The Rev. P. R. Stote officiated, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. R. Owens. The church was decorated with gladioli, asters, chrysanthemums and autumn leaves.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy MacIntyre, as bridesmaid. Mr. Gordon McVicar, of Kilmar, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Donald MacIntyre, of Grenville, and Mr. Wesley Robinson, of Ottawa.

For her wedding the bride wore a Midnight blue suit and matching hat with brown accessories. She carried a white prayer book covered with red roses.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, and later Mr. and Mrs. Woods left on a wedding trip to Algonquin Park and North Bay. . . They will take up residence in Ottawa.

Out of town guests included Mr. Jack Allatt, Miss Greta Lundy, Toronto; Miss P. Brabant, Alexandria; Mr. G. Mullins, South Gloucester; Miss Muriel McDonald, Mr. Donald Woods, Metcalfe; Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. W. Robinson, Ottawa; and Mr. Fred MacIntyre, Port Colborne.

Canada Savings Bonds Spell Sound Security

Buy Them on B of M Easy-payment Plan — Down-Payment only Five Per Cent — $2.50 for $50-Bond, $5 for $100-Bond — Balance in Easy Monthly Instalments Over Year

When you buy a Canada Savings Bond, you acquire a source of future strength for yourself and your family, and you invest your money in a way helpful to your country. Canada Savings Bonds pay 2¾ per cent interest, every year, and they are always worth their full face value.

There is no simpler investment, and a temporary shortage of cash need not stop you buying a bond. Just decide how much you can afford over the coming twelve months, up to a maximum of $1,000. Then pay a call on Donald Hay, manager of the Bank of Montreal at Lachute. He will be pleased to arrange the purchase of your bond on the bank's monthly instalment plan.

Here is how it works: you make a deposit of five per cent as a down-payment. That's $2.50 for a $50-bond — $5 for a $100 bond. You pay the balance in easy monthly instalments over a year. It's a prize plan for steady saving.

The B of M also has full facilities for keeping your bonds safe, clipping the coupons and crediting your account with the interest. And, should you ever find yourself in need of cash for an emergency or sudden opportunity, remember there is no need to sell your bonds. With them, you can readily obtain a low-cost B of M personal loan.

Now is the time to buy your Canada Savings Bond. Guaranteed by the good name of this country, there is no sounder investment.

Lake Hughes Association Held Thanksgiving Dinner

The newly formed Lake Hughes Community Association held their first Thanksgiving Dinner at Kerr's Farm, Lakefield, on Saturday night, October 7; 130 members and friends enjoyed an excellent surkey supper with all the trimmings, amid colorful decorations of autumn leaves.

President Carl Jones presided over the general meeting which followed. Reports were received of successful target matches, a regatta, bingo and drawing which were held during the first summer of operation, resulting in a carry-over of more than $200 to start next year's activities. There is also the possibility of a mid-winter get-together in some suitable Montreal location early in 1951. . . The merchants of Lachute and St. Jerome who gave prizes for the regatta and other events were sincerely thanked for their generosity.

Six door prizes were won by those present and the drawing resulted as follows — Mr. S. Smith won the radio, Mr. W. Sowerby won the toaster, and Mr. T. Colby won the electric iron.

After adjournment of the meeting a singsong was enjoyed, to the accompaniment of Mr. Cooley's guitar and pianists Messrs. Syd Blackwell and Tom Sowerby. Miss Wharrie also rendered a number of solos, as did Mr. Cooley on his guitar. Many also enjoyed dancing in the newly built hall at Kerr's Farm, and the singing of Auld Lang Syne and O Canada brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

Permits for Travel Funds

Ottawa — The Minister of Finance announces that Form H Permits for travel funds may now be approved by banks and other agents of the Foreign Exchange Control Board for amounts up to $500 per trip for bona fide business travel, and up to a total of $500 per person during the calendar year for travel for other purposes.

Applications for larger amounts may be referred to the Board and will normally be approved for genuine travel expenditures when the duration of the proposed journeys appear to justify them.

The Form H travel permit must still be obtained and surrendered to customs at the time of leaving Canada if a traveller is taking out of Canada more than $50 in U.S. funds or more than a total of $100 in both U.S. and Canadian funds. The Form H is considered a necessary protection against the export of capital sums in the form of currency where such exports would not be permitted through other channels.

Individuals may obtain up to $50 in any month for travel in the United States where the applicant will not be taking out of Canada more than $50 U.S. or more than a total of $100 in U.S. and Canadian funds combined.

Banks and other agents of the Foreign Exchange Control Board will approve applications up to the equivalent of $2,000 Canadian per year for attendance during a full academic year at a university, college or boarding school in the United States.

Banks or other agents of the Board may also approve permits for expenditures of Canadian dollars or Sterling up to the equivalent of $1,000 for each one-month stay in Sterling area countries for a maximum period of six months. Applications for larger amounts may be referred to the Board. A resident may not use U.S. dollars to meet travel or personal expenditures in Sterling area countries.

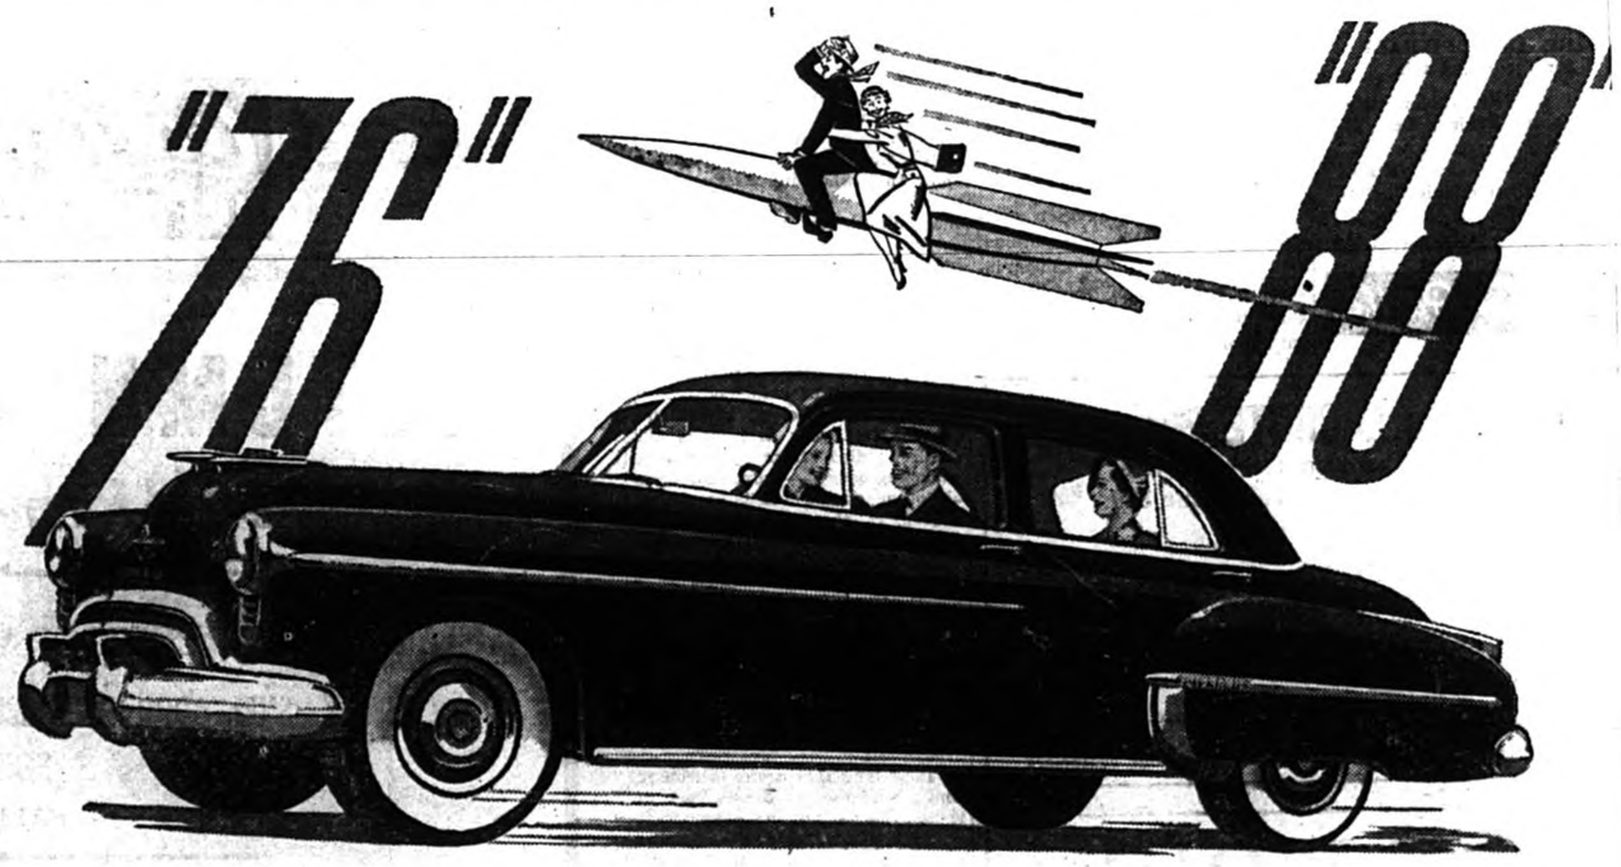
YOU'LL BE YEARS AHEAD WHEN YOU ROCKET AHEAD IN AN OLDSMOBILE



JUST NATURALLY, the car that started first, is the car that's ahead right now in the march of motoring progress! Yes, Oldsmobile brings you the benefits of its extra experience in such revolutionary advancements as Hydra-Matic Drive*—the pioneer no-shift drive that's finest because it was first in the field, and has been proved and improved through actual billions of miles of driving in the past ten years!

The great new Oldsmobile "Rocket" Engine is another first from the continent's most experienced car maker. Pioneered two years ago, it has already started a major automotive trend toward valve-in-head engines of much higher compression—but the "Rocket" is by far the greatest because it's first, it's backed by many more years of research, development and perfecting!

And all through every model of the 1950 Oldsmobile "88" and the "76", powered by its improved "Big Six" Engine, there's example after example of Oldsmobile quality leadership . . . advantages that come to Oldsmobile owners because Oldsmobile, the car that was first in the field of all cars made on this continent today, has the good habit of keeping the lead!

So, go ahead—go years ahead—with an Oldsmobile!

Midnapore, Alta. (CP)—The odd-shaped little Anglican church here, looking as though it was built for a congragation of thin men, was constructed in 1884 on land donated by John Glen. Midnapore's first postmaster, he could neither read nor write.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

B'burg United Church Anniversary Services

Brownsburg — At the anniversary services of the Brownsburg United Church last Sunday, large attendances showed appreciation of the preparation and high spiritual tone which characterized the gatherings, both morning and evening. The Rev. J. W. Patterson, B.D., of Lachine, was guest preacher at the 11 a.m. service, and Mrs. B. C. Godfrey, also of Lachine, was soloist. It was a dual exchange, inasmuch as Mr. F. Steere accompanied the Rev. S. J. Pike to Lachine to participate in the service there. Mr. and Mrs. F. Kettyle assisted the minister here at the evening service, rendering several gospel choral numbers, which were well received.

As a further feature of the service, Mr. Pike gave a brief historical sketch of the first services in Brownsburg, the first building and the present place of worship, with the names of the building committee and all the ministers who served this part, first coming from St. Andrews East, then from Lachute, and finally those resident in Brownsburg.

The supper to be held on Thursday evening of this week in the church hall, is under auspices of the Junior Woman's Association, in co-operation with members of the Senior group and the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary.

Avoid the common cup and the common towel — both are dangerous and can transmit disease.

Married Quietly in Lachute United Church

Jamieson - Clunie

The marriage of Miss Margaret Elizabeth (Betty) Clunie, daughter of Mrs. Clunie and the late Dr. George H. Clunie, of Lachute, to Mr. Lloyd D. Jamieson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. John Jamieson, of La Tuque, Que., was solemnized last Saturday afternoon at three o'clock in Lachute United Church, the Rev. W. B. Rosborough officiating. Mrs. Kenneth McOuat played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Arthur A. McOuat, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. W. E. Cummings, of Gardiner, Me., as matron of honor.

Mr. Wesley Beattie, of East Angus, Que., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and the ushers were Dr. W. E. Cummings and Mr. Lyman Learmonth.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. Arthur McOuat, on Grace Street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson left for the Laurentians on their honeymoon. They will make their home in Sherbrooke, Que.

Out-of-town guests were present from Montreal, Sherbrooke and La Tuque.

Progress — of A Sort

(Vancouver Sun)

Professor A. M. Low, of London, who predicted some years ago that man would split the atom and travel at the speed of sound, is at it again.

Today in a new book called "It's Bound to Happen", Prof. Low sees rockets landing on the moon in another 20 years, though it may be longer than that before the first man sets foot on the satellite. He also expects that in another generation there will be robot factories operating, and such astonishing progress in surgery that people will be able to buy "spare parts" — new eyes and ears, and so on.

But why laugh? More marvels have been crowded into the past 50 years than in the previous 5,000. And the past ten years have seen such an acceleration in the pace of invention and discovery that it might not be absurd to say that more marvels have been crowded into that one decade than appeared in the preceding four.

Yet there is a melancholy side to this progress. Man continues to display increasing brilliance in material accomplishment and there seem few limits in sight to his mastery of his material environment. The pity is that in mastery of himself, in mastery of the means of living with his fellows on this planet, he has a very long way to go. Man hasn't yet devoted one-tenth the effort to understanding his own soul, and the souls of his fellows, as he has to the means of destroying other men's bodies.

ELUSIVE ZEBRA DEFY HORSEMEN

Cradock, South Africa (CP) — Eleven mountain zebra defied the efforts of a small army of horsemen and ground forces consisting of men and boys to drive them to Mountain Reserve at Cradock.

The zebra, a rare species, had been given to the National Parks Board by a farmer, M. H. K. Lombard.

They were to be driven down a four-mile corridor to the reserve, where the parks board was ready to receive them. A mounted and foot posse was organized to deliver them.

AGE IS HAPPIEST, SAYS MOVIE STAR

"I don't believe young people really know how to be happy", the 62-year-old character player declared. "It took me a long time to get the proper perspective on life and put problems in their proper place.

"Little things which upset me as a girl don't bother me now. I think people who look back fondly on their youth forget all the insecurity and heartaches that go with the springtime of life.

"I've never been happier than now. Yet I don't look young and I don't want to. I'm sure one of the greatest sources of unhappiness for women is the constant struggle to look younger. My idea of staying young is to remain young in heart. I've learned there are as many good things in store at 60 as 16".

NFLD. FISHERMEN READY FOR WINTER

You see, they don't have to worry about fuel costs. They can keep the pot boiling with wood cut almost in their back yards.

Right now, they are on their way into the woods to cut boat loads of birch junks and other woods to keep the fires going throughout the winter. And they get it all just for the effort of cutting, while in St. John's and in other cities birch junks cost $25 per thousand and up.

Later, when the snow comes, the fishermen will beach their boats and go into the woods with their dogteams, and cut enough wood to carry them over the rest of the year until next winter.

Mrs. H. McNeill and Mrs. M. Blair, of Lakeshore, Que., spent a few days renewing old friendships in Lachute. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Charron.

Kerrobert, Sask. (CP) — Forty years ago this prairie town got its start when 200 pioneers bought chunks of the townsite sod for as much as $2,000 a lot. The Watchtower and Its Purpose

"They will all be taught by Jehovah". — John 6: 45 NW; Isaiah 54: 13

Literal towers in Bible times were elevated vantage points from which watchmen could observe happenings, warn of danger, or announce good news. Our magazine figuratively occupies such a vantage point, for it is founded on the very pinnacle of wisdom, God's Word. That elevates it above racial, national and political propagandas and prejudices, frees it from selfish bias. It is not bound by any traditional creed, but its message advances as the light on God's purposes and works increases.
— Habakkuk 2: 1-3

It sees things Scripturally. When it observes this generation afflicted with greed, delinquency, hypocrisy, atheism, war, famine, pestilence, perplexity and fear, and persecution of unpopular minorities, it does not parrot the old fable about history repeating itself. Informed by Bible prophecy, it sees in these things the sign of the world's time of the end. But with bright hope it also sees opening up for us just beyond these woes the portals of a new world.

Thus viewed, "The Watchtower" stands as a watchman atop a tower, alert to what is going on, awake to note signs of danger, faithful to point out the way of escape. It announces Jehovah's kingdom established by Christ's enthronement in heaven, feeds his kingdom joint-heirs with spiritual food, cheers men of good will with glorious prospects of eternal life in a paradise earth, comforts us with the resurrection promise for the dead.

It is not dogmatic, but has a confident ring in its voice, because it is based on God's Word. It does not privately interpret prophecy, but calls attention to physical facts, sets them alongside prophecy, and you see for yourself how well the two match, how accurately Jehovah interprets his own prophecy. In the interests of our salvation, it keeps sharp and faithful focus on Bible truth, and views religious news generally.

"Be watchful in these perilous times", God admonishes. So keep on the watch by regularly reading "The Watchtower".

THERE'S A BIG DIFFERENCE IN TRUCKS

No other truck comes close to these 12 features you get in a GMC

Before you buy a new truck, study the chart above. It lists twelve important facts about the trucks offered by GMC and other makers in Canada. You'll find yourself drawing two main conclusions from it:

1. No matter what you want in a truck, GMC offers it . . . there's no need to look beyond GMC, for GMC and GMC alone offers every style, every capacity, every feature you can require.

2. You can't afford to buy any other make, if real truck value is what you're after! For time after time as you go through the list you'll find a feature you want—important to your profits or comfort or safety—that's offered by none of the other makers listed! Frost Is on the Pumpkin

There are many varieties of edible gourds. The most famous of all is the pumpkin, although squashes and cucumbers are very popular in some areas. Pumpkins were cultivated in the fields of maize, by the Indians, before the coming of Columbus. Now, five centuries later, we still grow pumpkins between the rows of corn.

Probably it was because of a plentiful crop of pumpkin that the first Jack O'Lantern was carved, from a big pumpkin to frighten the ghosts on Hallowe'en. For from a big pumpkin, to frighten pie was made from this fruit as a special dessert to be served at the feast of Thanksgiving for the bountiful harvest.

At one time there was great competition among pumpkin growers as to who could produce the largest pumpkin. Huge 200 pounders were often exhibited at fall fairs. These mammoth pumpkins are fine for cattle but many varieties of smaller size and finer texture have been devoloped for home use.

Pumpkins will keep for months if the storage place is dry and cool and they do not touch each other. Occasional wiping with a dry cloth aids in keeping them longer. Some homemakers prefer to can the pumpkin in the fall and then it is ready for use when needed.

French people like to add pumpkin to stews and also make it into a delicious potage. A delicious jam also had its origin in France.

There are Canadian versions of these delicacies. They have been tested by the home economists of the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture.

Canned Pumpkin

Cut pumpkin, remove seeds and stringy fibre. Cut into pieces. Steam, bake or boil in a small amount of water until tender. Scrape the pulp from the skins and press through a sieve or mash until very smooth. Put the pulp in a preserving kettle and bring to boiling. Add a little water if necessary to prevent scorching. Pack hot, leaving ½-inch headspace. Seal tin cans or vacuum-type sealers. Partially seal screw or spring top sealers. Process small (pint) sealers or 20 ounce cans at 10 pounds pressure for 70 minutes. Medium (quart) sealers require 80 minutes at 10 pounds pressure. If the boiling water bath is used for processing, allow three hours steady boiling.

C-enamel cans with a dull gold lining should be used for pumpkin to prevent discoloration. This type of can comes in 20 ounce size only.

Pumpkin Soup

1 Small onion (thinly sliced), 2 tablespoons melted fat, 3 cups diced pumpkin, 1½ cups canned tomatoes, 1 teaspoon sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, 2 cups cold water, 1½ cups milk, 1 egg yolk.

Cook onion slowly in 1 tablespoon fat. Add pumpkin, tomatoes, sugar, salt and 1 cup water. Cook until pumpkin is tender, then rub through a sieve. Heat milk, and add to the puree. Mix remainder of melted fat with beaten egg yolk and remaining water. Add to the soup, reheat. Serve with croutons. Yield: six servings.

Pumpkin Jam

1 Pint boiling water, ⅛ teaspoon salt, 2 quarts diced pumpkin (¾ inch cubes), 3 cups sugar, 2 sticks cinnamon, 2 inches long (or 1 lemon, thinly sliced).

Cook pumpkin cubes in boiling salted water until tender, about 15 minutes. Drain and reserve the water. Reheat water, add sugar and cinnamon or lemon. Boil 2 minutes. Add pumpkin and cook slowly until pumpkin is transparent and syrup thick, about 20 minutes. Remove cinnamon if used. Pour jam into hot sterilized jars. Cool and seal. Yield: about 6 cups.

Wife Preservers

Frozen chops or steaks may be breaded, but should be defrosted before they are breaded.

Just as the butcher was about to serve a customer, another woman rushed up and said: "Give me a pound of cat-meat, quick!" Then turning to the first woman, she said, "You don't mind my being served first, do you?"

Women's Institute

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the auditorium of the school on Wednesday evening, October 10.

The president, Mrs. Davis, was chairman for the business meeting. The convener of Agriculture, Mrs. McGrandel, had charge of the program — introducing Mr. A. Bothwell, Agronomist, who spoke of School Fair work and how it could be improved. His talk was enjoyed by all present and much good advice was given, which will be of great help in planning future school fairs in this community. . . Mrs. Alvin Graham thanked the speaker of the evening.

After the meeting Mr. and Mrs. Bothwell were entertained at the home of the president prior to leaving for Lachute.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Drouin, who (according to report just received) has suffered bereavement in the loss of her mother, Mrs. Charles Marion, of Rouge Valley.

United Nations Day

A call has gone out to the 3,000 members of the Women's Institutes of this province to make a special observance in their branches this year of United Nations Day, on October 24. Rural women have been urged by Mrs. E. S. Reed, of Gaspé, provincial Citizenship convener, to use the day to get up-to-date on the work of the United Nations. During the past few months, mothers have asked themselves pointed questions as to whether the Korean war would spread into a world conflagration and how soon it would be before their husbands or sons would be called again to serve in the armed forces. The success of U.N. intervention in Korea, says the Citizenship convener, points to what can be accomplished in their efforts to make the U.N. Charter work, if the free peoples of the world get solidly behind their representatives.

The W.I., through its members in hundreds of communities, seeks to encourage boys and girls to study the aims and operations of the U.N., and Mrs. Reed concludes her message by saying, "The Quebec Women's Institutes believe that women have a special part to play in enlisting the intelligent interest and support of their fellow-citizens in the United Nations as an instrument for peace".

"Hello Hockey Fans"

FOSTER HEWITT, earlier this month, began his twentieth season of network broadcast commentaries on the National Hockey League games. Again this year, every Saturday night at 8.05, his famous voice goes out over the CBC Trans-Canada network introducing another of the play-by-play broadcasts which have become a tradition. Now in his middle forties, he has few equals anywhere in sports broadcasting. With his estimated five million listeners he shares a wealth of knowledge; for it was he who handled Canada's first hockey broadcast back in 1922, and he has been at it almost without a break ever since. As in past seasons, Foster Hewitt also presents a report on the Canadian sports scene every Friday at 7.45 p.m.

Goderich, Ont. (CP) — Trainer Babe Arbour wanted to make a harness horse out of Annie, and hitched her to a sulky. But Annie objected, dumped Arbour, fled into town, smashed the sulky between a telephone pole and a guy wire, scattered pedestrians and took refuge in a lumber yard. Official Opening Of New Addition To Grenv'l School

NOTABLES ATTENDED RECENT CEREMONY

Of signal interest was a ceremony held last Friday at the Grenville Protestant School, where Dr. W. P. Percival, Director of Protestant Education, and Mr. W. M. Cottingham, Argenteuil M.L.A., were principal speakers at the inauguration of the new school extension.

The addition, which was made possible by a $37,000 provincial grant, contains four classes, a kitchen, two playrooms and a medical room. The school serves the district of Calumet, Avoca, Rawcliffe and Grenville, and most of its pupils travel by bus from points as far distant as 15 miles.

In addressing the gathering, Mr. Cottingham emphasized that Premier Maurice Duplessis and his colleagues were keenly interested in the welfare of the English-speaking group, as was evidenced by the substantial grant which enabled the Grenville Consolidated School Commission to complete the extension to the school and at the same time, keep taxes down.

Mr. Cottingham said that better educational facilities are provided by more competent teachers. "However", he added, "teachers must get higher salaries if we want them to teach our children. We must pay them adequate salaries; otherwise, they will go elsewhere."

Education has made great strides in the province in recent years but particularly so in Argenteuil, he added.

"In a few years from now", he stated, "we will be back here to inaugurate additional classes to meet with the growing demands. Furthermore, we may hope to have higher grades."

Dr. Percival told the audience that the children of the district were getting away from the one class-room system. The result was that instead of getting 50 minutes of teaching each day, pupils were now given more than two and a half hours.

He compared present teaching methods with those of a few decades ago. While pupils formerly took several years to learn to read, present-day pupils could read within a few months.

Mr. L. J. King, regional inspector, said there were only a few one-class schools in the district, with the result that pupils got better teaching. Salaries have increased in the region. In 1935, eleven teachers were paid from $350 to $500 per year. At the present time, the lowest paid teacher gets $1,500 per year.

Other speakers and guests were: Andrew McGerrigle, school principal; the Rev. P. R. Stote, rector of the Grenville Anglican Church; Linton W. Armstrong, secretary-treasurer of the Argenteuil - Two Mountains Central School Board; Corl Gauley, chairman, Ralph Robinson, C. Bigelow, Gerald Beauchamp and Leslie Cowan, commissioners, and Robert Whinfield, secretary-treasurer, all of the Grenville Consolidated School, and Miss D. McCabe, assistant English supervisor of the Department of Education.

Legion Auxiliary Stages Fashion Show

With the new High School auditorium as a setting, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, Branch 70, Lachute, sponsored the second of their annual fashion displays.

The show, held last evening, was a fine success. The models, young and old, clad in the latest modes showed a large variety of ladies' wear as they walked with professional poise down the platform "runway" specially built for this show.

With John Assad as commentator for the children's wear, the show began with juvenile models sedately parading to exhibit the latest fashions and footwear for little folk.

The ladies' styles (for which John Assad proved equally adept as the commentator), brought forth the latest in matrons' and young ladies' wear, with a running description of material and design in the many suits and dresses, outdoor wear and footwear.

The cosmetics were featured exclusively by Beaton's Pharmacy, with Mlle Paradis, of T. Eaton Company, Montreal, demonstrating the Dorothy Gray products. A sample lipstick was given to each lady attending the show.

The success of this demonstration was due in large measure to the local storekeepers who gave their co-operation in displaying the latest in wearables.

A specialty of the evening was a showing of fashions in the "gay old days" of bustles and laces; these were modeled by two local Legionnaires.

Hunting Fatality, Youth 17 Dies of Shotgun Wound

ACCIDENTAL DEATH VERDICT, ST. ANDREWS EAST

Lucien Landry, 17, of St-Eustache, lost his life while duck hunting at St. Andrews last week-end. Early Sunday morning, Landry and his friend, Joseph Giraldeau, left a relative's farm to go duck-hunting on the North River. Having shot a duck, the pair set out by boat to retrieve the bird, but about 10 feet from the shore, they sighted two more ducks flying overhead. In his haste to pick up his gun, the trigger of Landry's weapon caught in the seat of the boat and discharged into the young man's body, about five inches below the heart. Landry died three hours after his admission to the Lachute Providence Hospital — Dr. Jules Lafleur, of Lachute, and Dr. J. Castagner, of Brownsburg, having tried in vain to save the boy's life.

The case was investigated by the Provincial Police. An inquest was held Wednesday night in St. Andrews, and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

Blue Cross Makes Survey on 40,000 Hospital Cases

APPENDICITIS HIGHEST IN ADULT AILMENTS

Breach of Safety Rules Sends Greatest Number to Hospitals

The Blue Cross hospital-aid plan, which helps pay the hospital-surgical-medical bills for Quebec residents at a rate of 600 per day, has made a study of 40,000 hospital cases recorded during the first six months of 1950, and for which benefits have been paid.

The study covered 286 diseases and 34 types of accidents suffered by Quebec residents. It reveals that appendicitis was the most frequent of adult diseases common to both sexes, as 6% of the 40,000 patients hospitalized during the period received care for that disease.

The Blue Cross study also shows that lack of proper safety on the part of Quebeckers was the greatest single factor in hospital admissions, as 14% of the 40,000 patients hospitalized in the first part of 1950 received care for broken limbs, bruises, sprains, poisoning and other mishaps. Sprains, dislocations of the clavicle were most frequent, followed by fractures of the ankle, wrists, bones and hands and feet, spinal column and ribs, shoulder, jaw and other parts of the head, skull, pelvis and thorax. Accidents suffered in the home were also quite frequent and included wounds, lacerations, bruises and abrasions. Other accidents also recorded were — plant poisoning, burns and scalds, asphyxia, concussion, loss of teeth, swallowed objects, and injuries by venomous animals or insects.

MALE MAJORITY NOW

Vancouver (CP) — There are a dozen more men than women in the first year social work class at the University of British Columbia, the first time that women have been in the minority. Department officials attribute the switch to expansion of social work into a profession comparable to law and medicine.

"Players of the Air" Score Fine Success

A capacity crowd of over 600 people greeted a bus-load of radio starlets, CJAD's "Little Players of the Air", in an entertainment at the Auditorium here last Saturday evening. A varied program showed remarkable talent, grace and composure in these young artists, ranging in age from four or five years to the 'teens; and the audience, which included a large proportion of children, were intrigued with the quality of their performance.

Miss Moira Sheehy, director and pianist for the group, deserves high commendation on their training. Special mention should also be made of the young announcer, Douglas Richardson, who, although only in his first year at the microphone, shows great promise as a master of ceremonies and entertainer.

The entertainment was sponsored by the Young Women's Auxiliary of Lachute United Church.

Clocks Go Back at Midnight Saturday

The prevailing uncertainty on the "time of day" will end definitely hereabouts, with the return of Standard Time this Saturday at midnight. . .

Those who were misled on the hour of Sunday church services in September, should again watch their step. New rail schedules also come into effect on the local line on Sunday. And those with heavy heads this week-end may have an extra hour on Saturday night to "sleep it off".

Police Chief Asks Orderly Hallowe'en

Looking back on a gratifying record over the past few years, Police Chief D. Villeneuve solicits the co-operation of all young townsfolk for an orderly celebration of Hallowe'en next Tuesday.

Merry-makers can enjoy themselves without vandalism, or without harm to property or person. Besides running the danger of criminal action, miscreants in the exercise of thoughtless pranks may cause shock or grave consequences to older citizens. This brand of conduct is uncalled for.

It is requested by the Police Chief that all street masquerading should cease at 11 p.m., and that the good name of the town be safeguarded on this occasion.

Six Schools in Inter-Scholastic Sports Meet

The Inter-scholastic Track Meet which was postponed from October 14, was held last Saturday at the Lachute High School grounds. Outside of the weather, which was cold and thus prevented the contestants from doing their best, the event was a success. There were close to 200 entries from six of the schools in the county — Lachute, Brownsburg, Grenville, Kilmar, Arundel and Morin Heights.

Lachute won the meet on total points, with 102; Brownsburg 80; Grenville 57; Morin Heights 15; Kilmar 11; Arundel 9. The trophies were divided between Lachute and Brownsburg — Lachute winning the Senior Girls', Senior Boys', Intermediate Girls' and Junior Girls' divisions, and Brownsburg winning the Intermediate Boys', Junior Boys', Midget Girls' and Midget Boys' divisions. The high point-winners of the day were Donald Martin, Brownsburg, with 15; Barbara Bradford, Lachute, with 14; and Rogers Bradford, Lachute, with 12½; David Bennett, Grenville, with 10; Melvin Tomalty, Brownsburg, with 10; Grace Gillingham, Morin Heights, with 9½. (These results do not include the relay race.)

Mr. W. M. Cottingham, M.L.A., was present and awarded the cups to the winning teams in the Lachute High School gymnasium at the end of the meet.

Mr. L. Armstrong announced the classes and the results of the events from a public-address car loaned for the day by Mr. G. Hammond.

Lachute's Fire Loss Below Quebec Average

According to Fire Loss statistics for Quebec, just published, Lachute shows a figure of $4.44 per capita in 1949, compared with the average of $6.16 throughout Quebec Province.

Lachute's per capita loss for the 10-year period is given as $3.43, compared with $4.37 for the entire province.

These figures were quoted by Fire Chief Geo. Y. Deacon at the Lions Club meeting here Tuesday evening. Mr. Deacon emphasized again, that fire brigade efficiency, although imperative, might be considered a lesser factor in curbing loss. The prime responsibility rests with the property-holder, in checking fire hazards at their source.

Local Appeal for Salvation Army

Many thousands of men and women never go to church, and are never reached by organized religion. Many people, through misfortune, poverty or disgrace, feel out of step with the other people in their community, and outside all ordinary concern for their welfare.

To these, and to scores of others without a church, the Salvation Army goes, bringing the only religious teaching they know. With this spiritual help goes material aid, and a very real concern for their well-being. . The Salvation Army ranks high in the hearts of people today just because of this concern for their spiritual and physical welfare.

Today, the Salvation Army is making an appeal in this community for financial help, in order to carry on its useful work for all mankind. Citizens should give generously, to show their appreciation of its many services to humanity. Contributions may be handed, or mailed, to the chairman of the local appeal, Mr. Donald Hay, manager of the Bank of Montreal in Lachute.

From 1939 to 1949 Canada's net federal public debt per capita increased from $279.80 to $869.41.

Addressed W.I. of Papineau County, At Semi-Annual

MRS. GEO. McGIBBON IS GUEST SPEAKER AT CONVENTION

Mrs. George McGibbon, of Lachute, was guest speaker at the Papineau County Women's Institute semi-annual meeting, held last Friday in Papineauville. Her topic was "The Road that Leads Ahead".

Mrs. McGibbon observed that many of us think that, in this bewildering 20th Century, we are passing through an experience and are in the midst of conditions never before encountered by man. But, she said, listen to Aeschines of Greece, who some 2,300 years ago said: "What is there in the list of strange and unexpected events that has not occurred in our time? We were born to serve as a theme of incredible tales to posterity". The speaker observed that we knew the scale and scope of such conditions had broadened and intensified, and that there are insecurities in our day unknown in the times of our fathers' fathers, but that the opportunities of yesterday have not disappeared by any means. . .

Freedom of opportunity abounds here as it does nowhere on earth at the present time. It does not exist (the speaker went on to explain) under Communism, Socialism or any other "ism" contrary to our Canadian way of life. If we fail to solve this complex civilization, she said, it will be because we have abandoned or lessened our reliance upon eternal truths.

Colors Dedicated, Morin Hts. Legion

Morin Heights — Favored with fine weather, the Canadian Legion Branch 171, of Morin Heights, were able to proceed with the ceremony of the dedication and presentation of the Branch colors, at a very impressive occasion last Sunday at three o'clock.

The parade was in command of the branch president, Comrade E. W. Kneeland, and the Boy Scout Troop, which is sponsored by the branch, were also on parade.

The Troop colors were carried by Troop Leader John Goodfellow (the King's Color), and the Scout Color by Troop Leader John Gillingham.

The color party for the Branch were Comrade Edwin Holgate (King's Color), Comrade Wesley Morrow (Branch Color) and the color guard were Past President Albert Basler, Comrade Vice-President John Watchorn, and Comrade W. Barrett.

The parade assembled at Boyd's Restaurant and, marching to the sports field for the ceremony, were received by the inspecting officer, Major General C. B. Price, C.B., D.S.O., D.C.M., V.D., and the service and the dedication were conducted by Hon. Lieut.-Col. Harold Laws.

General Price, in his address, stressed the importance of these traditional services, representing as they do the rededication of ourselves in peacetime to the preserving of law and order and government "for the people by the people"; and our duty to those of our comrades who died fighting, that we who returned should not forget that solemn pledge of carrying out our duty to our fellow citizens.

At the close of the proceedings, the Branch marched past the reviewing stand and were dismissed, bringing to a close another auspicious event in the history of Morin Heights.

Among those present were Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. J. E. Seale, Col. Leslie Hooker, of Lachute, Councillor and Mrs. Willis Seale, Mrs. Baldwin (wearing her son's medals and the Mother's Star), and other prominent citizens of this municipality.

Argenteuil County Women's Institutes Hold Semi-Annual Meet; 10 Branches Represented

There are 20,000,000 books in Canada's public libraries, and each book is loaned on the average of three times a year.

Members from the 10 branches of Argenteuil County Women's Institutes met in the new music room of the Lachute High School on Saturday for their fall semi-annual assembly, with the county president, Mrs. C. W. P. Baugh, presiding.

The meeting opened with the Ode and Collect. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted. Mrs. Baugh asked for untiring support of the members, both for the W.I. organization, and in contributing to other worthy causes individually as well as in group effort — the aim and motto of the Institute being "For Home and Country". Mrs. Baugh suggested that an Education Fund should be started in the county.

Two minutes' silence was observed for members who had passed on.

It was decided that the next annual convention would be held in Brownsburg. It was also approved that a wreath be placed at the Cenotaph as usual on Remembrance Day.

Mrs. Mason Crosby favored with two solos, "There's a Rose in My Heart" and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling", accompanied at the piano by Mrs. S. S. Campbell.

The highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of a book prize and certificate from the convention of the Associated Country Women of the World, at Copenhagen, in recognition of the honors won by Mrs. A. Graham's essay entitled "A Country Woman's Day". The presentation was made by Mrs. Grant LeBaron, of North Hatley, 1st vice-president of Quebec Women's Institutes, in the absence of Mrs. Thompson, president. Mrs. Baugh also presented a book, "Birds of America", to Mrs. Graham on behalf of the County organization, and Mrs. Graham expressed appropriate thanks.

Mrs. LeBaron addressed the meeting, giving encouragement to the Education Fund idea, and urging support of the W.I. in all organized effort.

Mrs. J. G. Lamontagne, convener of Home Economics, read the list of Fair Work to be prepared for 1951 (as published elsewhere in this issue).

The singing of the National Anthem concluded this interesting session. The members were then conducted on a tour of the school building, and refreshments were served in the new cafeteria.

Award in International Essay Contest

Mrs. A. Graham, of Cushing, received a prize and certificate of merit for her essay, "A Country Woman's Day", awarded by the Associated Country Women of the World at the Copenhagen conference this past summer. The presentation, at the County W.I. semi-annual meeting here last Saturday, was made by Mrs. Grant LeBaron, of North Hatley, 1st vice-president of Quebec Women's Institutes (left, rear of picture). . . Above, the county president, Mrs. C. W. P. Baugh, is seen handing Mrs. Graham a book prize as a token of recognition on behalf of the county Institute branches. At right, rear of picture, Mrs. A. G. Leggett, past-president of the Argenteuil W.I., looks on with approval.

Watchman Readers Grow Big Produce

W. Thompson, who is caretaker of the Barron residence on Main Street, garnered a prize exhibit among his root crops this fall — a carrot weighing 1 lb. 13 ozs., 7½ inches long and 11 inches in circumference.

Another reader in Hammond, Ont., Harold Birch (who noticed a recent Watchman item concerning a 47-lb. pumpkin out West) writes to state he has grown a pumpkin this season 5' 2" in circumference, 19½" high and weighing 70 lbs.

Hunter Dies in Bush Near Weir

CORONER PRONOUNCES NATURAL DEATH

Benoit Longtin, of Verdun, Que., with his son, Henri, and his brother-in-law, Hubert Chevalier, left Montreal at an early hour Saturday morning on a hunting expedition. They arrived at Weir and immediately set out for the bush. Around 8 o'clock a.m., the senior Longtin became hungry, and ate a pork sandwich from his lunch package. Half an hour after, he was found in the bush by his brother-in-law; the man was in a critical condition, apparently near death.

Dr. Caron was summoned from Huberdeau, but on his arrival he declared Benoit Longtin dead. The Provincial Police were called to investigate, and a verdict of natural death was rendered by Dr. Jules Lafleur, coroner of the district.

Celebrate Their Golden Wedding

A former Lachute couple, Mr. and Mrs. Israel St. Jacques, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last Sunday at their home, 1599-C Plessis Street, Montreal, and a reception was held in their honor by numerous friends and relatives.

Married here in Lachute, Mr. and Mrs. St. Jacques were well known residents until a few years ago, when Mr. St. Jacques retired after 54 years' service with Dominion Shuttle Company. The couple had 18 children, of whom nine are still living. Next summer Mr. and Mrs. St. Jacques intend to visit France.

Regular Session Of Lions Club

An enthusiastic meeting of the Lions Club at Joly's Hotel on Tuesday evening was attended by over 40 members and guests, under chairmanship of President Horace Lamarche.

Echoes of the Montreal Lions meeting, attended recently by a delegation of 21 from Lachute, were heard in a report by Lion Bertrand L'Heureux. The observance of United Nations Day was fittingly marked with a brief talk from Lion J. S. Giles; while Lion Ian Gordon reported progress in the Attendance Competition, and also outlined plans for four "repeater" bingos, with novel features, to be held this season in support of the club's community funds.

Lion Ralph FitzGerald took charge as chairman of the program committee, and the guest speaker of the evening, Mr. F. C. Magnusson, of Turgeon Chemicals Ltd., Montreal, gave an illuminating address on "The Traveller's Viewpoint" — being impressions from his own experience as a salesman. Mr. Magnusson combined, in his brief talk, a spice of crisp humor together with a serious criticism on the public apathy today — in labor, in business, in the home, and in politics. . . The speaker was introduced by Lion André Lefebvre and thanked by Lion Donald Hay.

During the evening, E. Kilgour Wilson was honored as "Lion of the Day". Tribute to his generous support to club projects over the years, together with a sketch of his interests, hobbies and achievements, was given by Lion Phil Roy.

MacTavish Hurt in Race-Track Spill

Yonkers, N.Y. (AP) — Four horses piled up in a spectacular spill at the Yonkers Raceway harness track Tuesday night, sending two drivers to hospital.

Delbert MacTavish, 38, veteran driver from Lachute, suffered a possible fracture of his right shoulder and cuts around the head. He remained in hospital for X-rays on Wednesday.

The accident occurred at the head of the stretch in the featured $2,000 Sunnyside Pace.

"Mr. Scott", second horse on the rail, took a misstep and his driver, Paul Vineyard, couldn't hold him. "Lew's Pride", with Dancer at the reins, was right behind and fell to the track, tossing Dancer from the sulky.

Then "Direct Vie", with Billy Haughton driving, and "Fanny B.", with MacTavish at the reins, tumbled to the turf, too.

"Vineyard" suffered bruises and cuts on his back and was treated at the track. Haughton was unhurt.

Brutal Assault At St. Philippe

Wilfrid Lepine, of Lachute Mills, latterly employed here as a watchman for the Gest Co'y, contractors, was attacked and robbed of $17 by Roland Malette, of Lachute, late Saturday night at St. Philippe.

After visiting a couple of hotels with Malette, Lepine hired a taxi to St. Philippe, where they called at another hotel, deciding to enter through the back door. In the yard, Malette savagely attacked Lepine, fracturing his jaw in two places. Then, hearing a noise, the attacker left his victim, half dead, but not without taking with him $17 cash, which Lepine had in his wallet.

The Provincial Police investigated the case and Malette was taken to St. Jerome, where he appeared before Justice H. Barette on Tuesday. He pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery with violence, and will receive sentence next Friday.

Small Blaze, Rear of Main St. Restaurant

The fire brigade answered a summons to the Bedard block on Main Street, at 2.20 o'clock Saturday afternoon, where an outbreak of fire at the rear of "The Two B's" snack-bar caused considerable smoke but little damage. Flames on the ground floor and in a wall were quickly extinguished by a hose laid from the booster tank of the fire truck.

It was reported that an article of clothing, which had fallen over a hot-air register, caught fire and ignited the wood floor.

"The Salvation Army is not merely an institution for the relief of material want and suffering — although it stands high among the agencies which carry on this splendid work. It is an organization founded to give men and women a chance to be good Christians. In the true spirit of the Founder of Christianity it seeks to help others to help themselves." — Mr. George McCullagh, president and publisher of the Toronto Globe and Mail.

Gatineau LINES

"Packaging" Electricity

In recent columns we have been talking about the manufacture and distribution of electricity, pointing out that in many ways this is very similar to the process through which any manufactured article goes before it reaches the consumer. This week we would like to talk a bit about the sub-stations and transformer banks which are the "wholesalers" and "retailers" of the electricity business.

The wholesaler in any line of business takes the product of the factory in large quantities, and distributes it in smaller quantities to all the retailers in his area who want it. The retailer, in turn, takes a certain quantity and then distributes it in still smaller quantities to his customers, who are the ultimate consumers.

So it is in the electrical business. The 'wholesalers' are the big sub-stations, which take power at 110,000 volts — or possibly at a lower voltage — and redistribute it onto smaller lines which fan out in every direction. These smaller lines may carry power at 26,000 volts, or 13,000 volts, or some lower figure. But such voltages, while perfect for moving the power from one place to another, are still much too high for the use of most customers.

That is where the "retailers" of the electrical business come in. They are the secondary sub-stations, which cut the voltage down to, say, 4,600 volts — and the pole transformers which break it up into the still smaller packages, 115 or 230 volts, used in our homes.

And so, as we have seen, the electrical business operates in much the same way as any producing business. It gathers the raw materials — water — converts it into something useful in its factories — the power plants — distributes its product by transmission lines instead of by rail, and then breaks that product down into a suitable package for the consumer. The difference is that the power company takes care of every step itself, so that the product reaches the consumer at the lowest possible price.

Big Campaign Plans For Dairy Products

Farmers and Manufacturers to Promote Sales In Canada

Toronto (CP) — Bossy the cow is going to become an even better known character to the Canadian public.

Starting December 1 Canadian dairy farmers will spend $200,000 in advertising their products in Canada, and another $100,000 is to be spent on advice to housewives.

The fund started last June when the Dairy Farmers of Canada, an organization representing most large Canadian owners of dairy herds, decided to contribute one cent for each pound of butter fat sold that month. The fund was collected by the manufacturers and processors who bought the milk.

A meeting has just been held here to complete all details of the plea to the Canadian public to use more milk products. The Dairy Co-ordinating Advisory Committee was established, representing the Dairy Farmers of Canada, the National Dairy Council and the Associated Health Foundation, itself an organization of both producers and processors.

Under the plan, advertising emphasis will be placed on butter in December; on fluid milk in January; on ice cream in February and cheese in March, the Lenten month.

OBITUARY

Respected Citizen Mourned by Friends

Late Oswald G. Thompson

The people of this community were shocked to hear of the death of Oswald Thompson, at his home here on October 19.

Born in East Settlement 46 years ago, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson. He farmed in East Settlement until late years, when his health failed him and he retired to lighter duties.

The late Mr. Thompson had been confined to his home for the past two months. During this time he suffered many severe heart attacks. On Thursday evening he suffered another seizure and passed peacefully away.

He leaves to mourn his loss a loving wife (the former Ellen Brown), one brother, Jas. Thompson, of Lakefield, one sister, Mrs. Lester Thompson, of Lachute, also a large number of nieces and nephews.

The funeral service was held in the United Church on Sunday afternoon, followed by interment in the Lachute Cemetery. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, and the largely attended funeral showed the loving friendship of the community.

The pall-bearers were — Messrs. Wm. Boa, Wm. Wilson, Harry Todd, Erskine Rodgers, Stewart Walker and Leonard Boa.

Yellowknife, N.W.T. (CP) — A history of the Canadian North is being written by James Murray McMeekin, veteran prospector who once published the weekly Yellowknife Blade. The author, who first visited Yellowknife in 1935 on an exploration and mapping trip, says "there is no one who has been here longer than I have".

PLAN FISH FESTIVAL

Flin Flon, Man. (CP) — This mining centre is planning to start next year an annual summer trout festival to encourage more tourists.

New Publication On Poultry

Ottawa — Keep the best and sell the rest, is the keynote to a new publication on culling the poultry flock, just published by the federal Department of Agriculture. And a new approach has been adopted in explaining what to sell and what to keep. With the aid of color photographs and a minimum of text the leaflet shows exactly what to look for in normal healthy birds — the birds to retain for egg production.

In addition to color photographs illustrating the good and the poor White Leghorn, Plymouth Rock and New Hampshire, additional photographs show other characteristics of the good and the poor layer.

The leaflet may be obtained free on request to Information Service, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. Ask for Publication 842, Guide to Culling Hens.

Many Jobs for Woods-Workers

Jobs in the woods are now available for large numbers of woodsworkers in most parts of Canada, Hon. Milton F. Gregg, Minister of Labor, states. The demand across Canada now exceeds the number registered for woods work at National Employment Service offices by more than 14 to one.

Mr. Gregg reported that the Department of Labor, in co-operation with the woods operators, were now carrying out an extensive recruiting campaign for woods labor from one end of the country to the other. In addition to the thousands of workers which would be turned up through the general campaign, a special movement of workers from Newfoundland to Ontario was being undertaken. About 500 workers would be arriving in Ontario from Newfoundland shortly.

The Minister also reported that suitable workers for the bush were also being brought in from Displaced Persons camps in Europe, and that these would arrive in November. This movement would not be large and woods operators would be almost entirely dependend on Canadian labor.

The Minister pointed out that woods operators could do much to assist in balancing supply and demand of workers for their industry by reporting at the earliest possible moment, their needs to the nearest National Employment Service office.

It was expected that, at the peak of the season, the number of men employed in the woods would be greater than in any other post-war year. While there are jobs available for woods workers in all regions of Canada, the greatest demand at September 28 was in Ontario, particularly in the Head of the Lakes area, and in Quebec.

"With Gratitude"

"THROUGH THE understanding heart and the human touch" aptly describes and very largely explains the way The Salvation Army works and the reason for its perennial success. "The Army" does not recognize failure. It does not admit that any life can be completely wrecked and, holding to that faith, it naturally never refuses help, spiritual or material, so long as the breath of life lingers.

There must be very, very little — if indeed there is anything — that The Salvation Army cannot do for the man or woman who is down ("but never out", says The Army) in no matter what cruel circumstances. Clothes and food and shelter, hospital, medical and maternal care to meet the most desperate material needs; and hope and faith and encouragement and comfort for sick hearts and hungry souls.

It was easier for the Army, as it was for all philanthropic bodies — in the olden days when wants and needs were fewer and simpler, and so much more could be bought with the contributed dollar. And with these extended and necessary services on its hands, there is no going back for any of them. The Army is asking Lachute to support the Red Shield Drive under the chairmanship of Mr. D. M. Hay (to whom donations may be handed, or mailed, % the Bank of Montreal, Lachute).

"Give with gratitude" is the exhortation. Lachute and district will no doubt do so. There is good reason for its gratitude to The Salvation Army.

EVERY newspaper has a few "contributors" who submit personal or news items with the qualifying comment:: "please do not change in any way". It is very difficult to explain to such people that what goes into the news columns of a paper is solely the responsibility of the editor. Even an advertiser who buys newspaper space, while given greater freedom to express his own views in his own way, is also subject to editorial limitations. The simple fact is, of course, that an editor is personally and legally responsible for everything that appears in his paper and for ensuring that it appears in a way which will make it acceptable to his readership at large. To suggest that news shall be printed in this way or that is simply nobody's business except the editor's.

TODAY'S bedtime stories often begin "Once upon a time and a half" . . .

Tips from Addis Ababa

IN ETHIOPIA, the land of Selassie, the Lion of Judah, the old saying that women talk too much is a bunch of hooey. There, the men are the gabby characters.

That is the conclusion of the Addis Ababa telephone company, following a survey to gain information for instruction in telephone use and manners.

Canadians might well give some heed to these instructions — because, since this newfangled thing, the telephone, came into our lives, a lot of people who normally are polite to the extreme when face to face with you, don't seem to care about manners on the phone.

The instructions are reprinted in the "Blue Bell", house organ of the Bell Telephone Company, and they caution first against wasting linetime by picking up the receiver before you know the number you want. They warn too against jiggling the switch constantly in the hope the line tone will come sooner.

"This you usually see actors doing in the films", says the Addis Ababa company. "But the actor does no harm as his telephone is not connected. But if you imitate the film actor you delay the arrival of the tone for yourself by overloading exchange facilities."

And remember how many times you scrambled from the bath-tub to answer a phone that wouldn't stop ringing? And just as you got to it, it stopped! Well, the Ethiopian's call for some understanding of the party on the other end of the line.

"When you hear the ringing signal sent to the subscriber you have called, wait patiently from 10 to 15 seconds. If he does not answer, it means that he is either out of the room or away from home, or that he does not want to answer or talk to you because he is having a rest. Hang up.

Ethiopian telephones are geared to handle conversations of three minutes. Then everybody who has a telephone can have a whack at it. But during an inspection, says the company, "we even found subscribers taking up to three-quarters of an hour. In most cases the subscribers were found to be men — which does not at all confirm the usual old saying that ladies talk too much."

THE RASH of whodunits and thrillers in the book racks at low prices should not be allowed to obscure the fact that much of the finest work in the world's literature, both classical and modern is being offered to the public for little more than the cost of waste paper in bulk. A 20th century office boy can accumulate a library that a 14th century emperor could not afford — observes the Cochrane (Ont.) Northland Post.

It is commonly supposed that in collisions between trains and motor vehicles at railway crossings it is the train which strikes the motor car. Reports to the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada covering the 12-month period ended June 30th last, however, reveal that of the 443 accidents occurring in that period, nearly a quarter of them resulted from the motor vehicle — ranging from sleek sedans to modest farm trucks and even motorcycles — striking the side of the locomotive or train. Cases were reported in which the motor vehicle struck the train as far back as five cars behind the engine. One of the reasons for this apparent anomaly is the fact, well supported by scientific tests, that trains travel faster than the motorist, who can estimate within the few seconds allowed for him to determine whether or not he can safely make the crossing. It is safer to give the train the benefit of the doubt.

YEAR-ROUND JOB

Last year at this time we noted that "every week around the Journal is newspaper week" and let it go at that. Perhaps we should make more of Newspaper Week, but somehow we prefer to concentrate our energies on trying to make our community well, thus demonstrating by example our aim and purpose along with the several thousand conscientious newspapers of America.

Hallowe'en Fun

— By NANCY CLEAVER —

The end of October with its celebration of Hallowe'en is a time of fun and frolic, whose origin goes far back in time. The ancient Romans, early in November, had a festival in honor of Pomoma, goddess of fruit trees. The Druids in Britain had a festival in honor of the Sun God and in thanksgiving for the harvest. They believed Samon, Lord of Death, called together the witches on that night.

In the Middle Ages in Britain many people believed that the spirits of the dead were allowed to return and visit their homes on Hallowe'en. The eve of this festival came to be called "All Hallow E'en"—with hallow having the same meaning as our word "holy". The early Church fathers kept this and many other festivals, which had a pagan beginning, and gave to them a Christian significance.

In the Junior grade of public school the students have a happy time drawing illustrations of witches and black cats and pumpkins and making decorations. Mother and Dad may think these "art treasures" a bit crude — but they have been fun to make and there is always value in satisfying effort. Don't fail your youngster by not taking an interest in the drawing or hand work he brings home for you to see!

In homes where there are three, four or five year olds who are longing to "do things", an investment in an orange poster paint jar is a good idea. A three year old will likely want to paint the whole sheet orange, but an older child can draw and color pumpkins.

These little poster paint pots are more satisfactory for a small child's use than the usual paint box — and they are not much more expensive because they do last a long time.

Spread out newspapers on a table or the kitchen floor if you have no easel, give your child a large sheet of paper, and then let him go ahead and paint whatever he likes! He needs no adult directions for this activity.

A boy's or girl's interest in gardening can be linked with Hallowe'en if a child is allowed to plant pumpkin seeds in the spring. No grown-up gardener will watch the growth of the vines, flowers and pumpkins with more intense interest than a youngster who has his own garden plot. With what pride he will cut out a pumpkin's face from his own pumpkin! But even if he hasn't had a garden, whenever possible do arrange for the children in your home to carve out at least one "Jack O'Lantern". The cost is small compared to the pleasure which this will give each youngster who has a part in it.

Children love to "dress up" and Hallowe'en gives them the opportunity to plan as an original costume as their heart could desire! A "Dress-up Box" in the attic or store room with discarded dresses, hats, gloves, scarves, etc., and a "Make-up Box" can save a frantic search for costumes. On rainy days and for impromptu dramatics, this "Dress-up Box" saves the day. If you haven't one in your home, why not plan to start one at this time?

Have You Made the Most of the Harvest?

It's been a good farming year. Our district has been blessed with better-than-average crops, and prices for farm produce have remained firm. As a result, many farmers are now receiving a sizeable return on their year's work.

Speaking of this, Donald Hay, manager of the Lachute branch of the Bank of Montreal, suggested that it is a good time to give some thought to the future. "Maybe", he said, "the years to come won't prove so productive as 1950, or the prices for farm produce may slip. The wise farmer will then be glad of a reserve fund, built up in better times, to secure the well-being of his farm and family".

Why not build up your own reserve fund by depositing some of this year's income in a savings account at the Bank of Montreal? Next time you're in town, drop in and see Mr. Hay. He can be helpful to you in working out your plans and problems.

Women Recruits Again Possible

Ottawa (CP) — A plan to revive the women's forces has gone through preliminary stages and a drive may soon be opened to recruit women for the reserve branches of Canada's navy, army and air force.

Reports that Canada might revive the women's forces were first heard when recruiting began for the special United Nations brigade now in training. Later government officials said that recruiting of women and girls is under consideration. Now it is believed that a decision has been taken to go ahead with the plan. At present the only women in the armed forces are nurses.

The build-up of women's divisions would give National Defence Headquarters a pool of trained reservists on which to draw in event of an emergency.

Exile from Sunnyacres

By Margaret Cook

The end of October, and we are just in from clearing up the garden for its winter rest. The tomatoes seemed tired of living and grateful to be relieved of their task, but the hollyhocks and the asparagus resisted the cutters as if begging for a few more days. But we went ahead mercilessly and now a great pile awaits the occasion for a bonfire, the children's delight. Although I am undoubtedly the strictest mother on the street, yet it is here that the children gather, which fact should gratify any psychologist. Security, say the learned, is what children desire and need; with a severe but just person, they find security. It may be so, but I often wonder if the traditional cookie-jar, still a feature of our house, has anything to do with it.

To convince some readers that we have our sane and serious moments, we shall tell them the story of Mrs. Tammet. . . .

Mrs. Tammet, blonde and petite and one-time inhabitant of Lithuania, is by way of being a friend of ours. Her story, which is the story of many, is worth recording. Her husband was a civic lawyer in the capital city, so that Mrs. Tammet had a pleasant social life. She went to civic receptions; she attended the Lutheran church; she supervised her two maids and her little daughter, Lillian (pronounced Lill-LEE-an) in a house where music and other arts had their place. Then, in 1940, came the Germans; but they were very "correct", says Mrs. Tammet, so things went on much as before except that she did not go out as much, thus avoiding the difficulty of meeting the conquerors socially. But the Germans were followed by the Russians, and they were not so correct. In fact, it was impossible to work with them. So, Mrs. Tammet and her daughter boarded a fishing-smack for Sweden, carrying only one small valise stuffed with paper money. She wore her fur coat and all her jewellery, but everything else was left behind — her grand piano, her silver, her pictures — in order that to the casual inquirer it would appear that they had merely gone into the country for a few days. At the first opportunity the husband joined them in Sweden. Thence they went to London. . . Three years later they are painfully establishing themselves in Canada. Mr. Tammet, now in his forties, makes hand-tooled leather articles which are bought by two well-known city firms, while Mrs. Tammet sits all day long in a factory, testing lead pencils.

At least that is what I understood her to say. I omitted to explain that Mrs. Tammet speaks hesitant English and German, but no French — whereas I speak English, comprehensible French and more hesitant German. Thus our conversations are carried on in uneasy English mixed frequently with guttural Jas and Sagen-Sie! But the barrier of language is never insuperable if the will is there and we are friends, because, says Mrs. Tammet, "You are interest'!" and because, say I, "You are brave!"

All over Canada this story is being repeated — and to the benefit of Canada, this writer feels. People of the calibre of the Tammets bring with them little money, but they do bring courage, determination, initiative, a clear idea of the value of liberty, and we think such qualities more important than money.

When Mrs. Tammet left us one evening, I remonstrated with her about walking a good two miles to her home. I explained as well as I could (in a mixture of English and German) that all the men hereabout were not precisely Galahads, especially where dainty blondes were concerned. There was difficulty in getting this across, but at length a smile of comprehension lit up Mrs. Tammet's face. "You mean bad mans?" Bad mans here?" I admitted it. "In Sweden too!" she confided, as she turned away. Mrs. Tammet will always go confidently on her way, for she thoroughly understands Mr. Roosevelt's remark, "Fear is the only thing we have to fear."

Those words to the writer embody a most powerful truth. It is fear that kills many people — fear of diagnosis, fear of an operation. . Fear stifles business. "What if I expand too much and fail!" . . . Fear makes liars. . . In fact, fear is ignoble in almost every case. But it has its uses; as Sir Stafford Cripps recently pointed out in a speech, "Socialism has taken away the two incentives, Fear and Greed, and unfortunately we have put nothing in their place". It is the remark of a cynical but truthful man. One wonders if his ill-health is not partly due to his despair at the discrepancy between the ideal of Socialism and its execution.

I see this is a very political article, and therefore probably boring to many readers. But you have the last word. You can always put the paper down with a yawn.

Beaver Are Smart

Dryden, Ont. (CP) — Ole Pearson has decided beaver are smart animals.

Beaver dams near his farm caused frequent flooding. Pearson has tried many ways to rid himself of the animals. None work.

His latest brain-wave was to hang a lamp on a tree near where he had seen some beaver working. The light would scare the animals away, he reasoned.

What happened? Next morning he found a huge new dam.

"Smart animals, those beaver", said Pearson. "They'd worked all night by the light of my lamp!"

OCTOBER 1950

Don't forget to put orders in for Canada Savings Bonds for the children.

Nice thing for George or Mary for university or marriage.

"I'm just on my way to the bank"

He is just one of the hundreds who during the day will drop into the branch bank around the corner.

Savings depositors with their pay cheques . . . retail merchants with the day's cash . . . people consulting the manager about loans, others cashing cheques . . . it is all part of the daily work of the branch bank.

In ten years the number of accounts maintained by bank depositors has grown from 5,000,000 to 8,000,000.

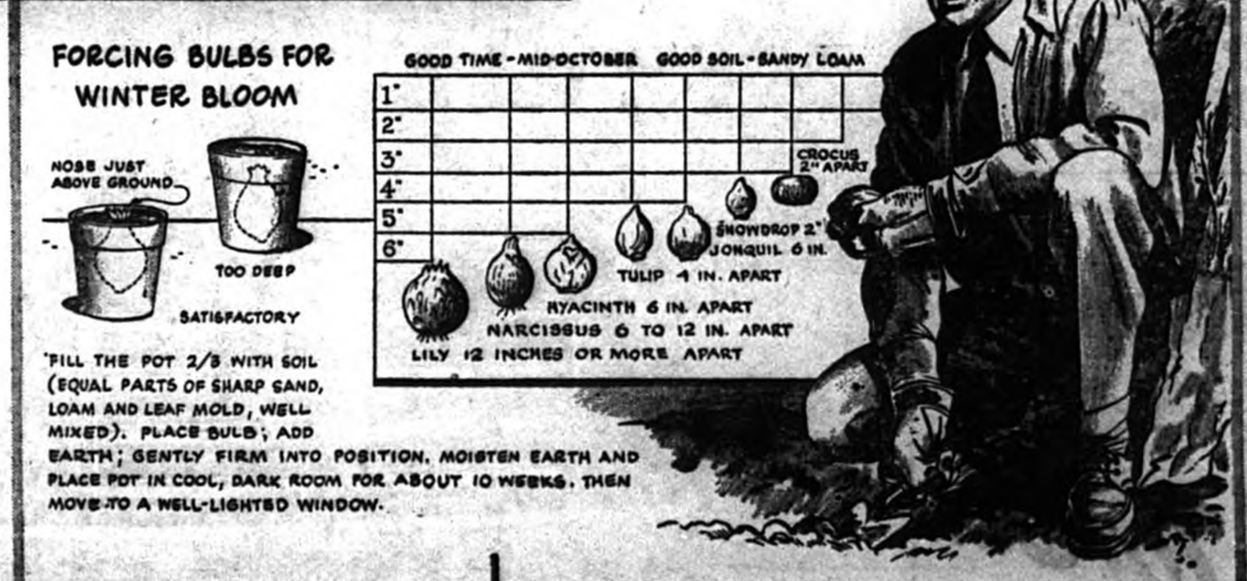
Chart for planting your FALL BULBS



Tom Gard's Note Book

One thing common to good gardeners is the ability to plan for the future. Now is the time to prepare for those harbingers of a new gardening year—spring bulbs. There is still time to plant some. If you didn't place your order early, you will likely still find some available at the stores. The planting chart and instructions given will prove helpful to the uninitiated.

Forcing Bulbs

While on the subject of bulbs, why not resolve to try your hand at forcing some for winter bloom. It isn't as difficult as it would sound and information on the subject is usually abundant at this time of year. The simple instructions given here will get you started, but check planting guides before you select your varieties—some will force better than others and rigid forcing dates should be followed.

Stovepipes

With cooler weather, we begin the annual tussle with stoves and stovepipes. I am reminded of my first ordeal—back in the days when I thought all stovepipes were the same. Instead of buying six-inch pipe, I bought some seven inches in diameter. Before it was time to use it the bill was lost and, rather than face the clerk again, I have been trying to think up uses for it ever since. Two of the best I have hit upon are illustrated. They sound rather "screwy" but they have proven satisfactory.

More About Orange Crates

My young son surprised me by walking in with a table for his bedroom—all painted and ready for use. Evidently they are teaching shop-work in lower grades than they used to, as he made it at school. Shown is a copy of his finished product.

Bringing Citizen into Local Government

The greatest obstacle to the advancement of local government and its efficient functioning is the apathy of the general public. Such apathy undoubtedly springs first from an ignorance of the legal, practical and economic aspects of proposals for civic works and improvements and, secondly, from a sense of frustration at their inability as individuals to make any impression on the public mind.

To overcome this, the City of Burnet, Texas, U.S.A., distributes periodically throughout the community questionnaires to obtain a vote of the citizens on what improvement they think the city needs most.

The survey is conducted by a Board consisting of one elected member from each civic organization in the town. Voluntary aid is received from these organizations in distributing, collecting and tabulating the questionnaires.

The project which has the support of a majority of the citizens is then proceeded with, and concentrating on one project at a time, the town gets the improvements that the citizens want most.

This method secures the active interest of the citizens and engenders a sense of individual participation and satisfaction.

The result has been some substantial civic improvements over a short period and a willingness of the citizens to stand up to the obligations involved in obtaining these improvements.

Leadership

It is a trite saying that the occasion produces the man, and one has only to remember the events of history to know how great has been the influence of a figure who at a critical time has shown leadership and vision. At each of the three levels of statecraft, the international, the national, and the municipal, social development is proceeding with an acceleration that is somewhat bewildering. At each level there is a need for leadership, which is being supplied, often, by votaries of differing schools of political credo, out of each of which emerges one personality whose dynamic rivets attention. While perhaps the greatest dramatic appeal attaches to the commanding personalities in the global and national structures, the pressures of political influences and social forces are such that municipal institutions must fight for their place in the scheme of things. Local government too must have its ideals, its banners, and its dominating personalities. Out of these personalities there must emerge one whose qualities of leadership will fire the imagination of the community and spur the people towards livelier social consciousness.

Bells Ring On

When locomotives wear out, they go to the scrap heap, as a rule, but their bells are rescued and wind up in surroundings far removed from the top of the locomotive boiler. Canadian National Railway officials state that engine bells have been sent to churches, naval barracks, country homes, colleges and even golf clubs all over the country.

New British House of Commons

When the British House of Commons reassembled on Tuesday, October 17, members took their seats in a splendid new Chamber. The old chamber was bombed and destroyed on May 10, 1941. Clearance started exactly four years later. Demolition, and the foundation and erection of the steel frame was finished in mid-August 1946. The new building has been erected on the original concrete raft under the whole Palace of Westminster.

In April 1947 contracts were let by the Ministry of Works, who appointed Sir Giles Gilbert Scott, O.M.R.A., as architect and Dr. O. Faber consulting engineer.

The old Chamber only had 744 seats. The new one has 915 with a clear view, and four more behind the stone screens. Members have 437 seats. The new Chamber is 46 feet high — two feet more.

Interior finish, in conjunction with the grey wood panelling, is in green hide, with a green carpet. The roof is insulated and above the carved ceiling timbers air is extracted, as well as near floor level. Fresh air is admitted horizontally at the sides. Conditions aimed at are those of a fine spring day out of doors.

Furnishings have been donated from all parts of the Empire — including the table of the House, a gift from Canada.

Football Size-Up

"SPORTS CAMERA"
By Gord Pepper

A month or so ago, a Toronto sports writer was moved to suggest that meeting Toronto Argonauts, then the superdynamos of the Eastern Interprovincial Football Union, was like meeting Joe Louis.

The scribe, admittedly lacking the facilities of a crystal ball, couldn't have known what the future held for (a) — Mr. Louis, and (b) — the Argos. Their next time out, Argos were trounced 15-5 by Ottawa Rough Riders and Louis marred an otherwise magnificent boxing record by losing a decision to Ezzard Charles for the world heavy-weight crown.

To say that Canada's football league races have been wide-open affairs is gross under-statement. It's the kind of competition that makes for packed audiences, and big houses provide the money to pay for top calibre grid talent.

Earlier in the season, the experts had pegged the Grey Cup defending Montreal Alouettes as THE club of the East. The Larks won their season opener against Ottawa and proceeded to drop the next four games. Toronto Argonauts went hot after getting a losing game out of their system in their second appearance, winning the next three straight. But the Argos dropped three of the following four games.

Lew Hayman's Alouettes have been playing hurry-up ball recently, winning three with victories over each of the other clubs while losing one to Ottawa. The Montrealers may yet save face for the experts.

Winnipeg Come-Back

After a couple of seasons at the bottom of the Western Canada league, Winnipeg Blue Bombers dedicated 1950 as the year for as least a good season and that didn't necessarily mean a Grey Cup, either. That thought may have been in the back of the minds of Winnipeg's faithful but scarcely a soul would utter such a word.

It appears now that the trip east for the Grey Cup shindig isn't too remote a possibility for the Bombers; in fact it is an imminent possibility.

Winnipeg spent more on rebuilding its club this year than any other team in the West and with a fine backfield working behind a Superfort front wall, the Bombers are assured of first place.

It's cost Bombers a pretty penny to acquire that quarterback Jack Jacobs, the former Green Bay Packer flash, and fleet Tom Casey from Hamilton, but those 'Peg fans appreciate it. Manitoba is once again football crazy and the saddest sight of all is to see those living out of town, as far away as Kenora, Ont., turned down when requesting tickets to games.

Next year, maybe, there won't be additional player expenditures and Osborne Stadium could use the dough for expansion of seating facilities.

Ministerial Association

The Argenteuil Protestant Ministerial Association will meet in the Presbyterian Church hall, Lachute, on October 30 at 10 a.m. The devotional period will be conducted by the Rev. W. B. Rosborough. All clergy are invited to be present.

Holy Trinity W.A. 25th Anniversary

Lakefield — Observance of the 25th anniversary of Holy Trinity W.A. in Lakefield will include a supper and church service on Thursday, November 2. Guest speaker for the occasion will be the Rt. Rev. John Dixon, Bishop of Montreal, and the service will be conducted by the Rev. C. W. P. Baugh.

The supper, at 6 p.m., will be held in the Gibb Parish Hall, and the service will follow, at 8 o'clock.

The W.A. has played an important part in the activities of the Lakefield church, and has made considerable contribution to the missionary funds. Prior to its official organizing as a W.A., the group of ladies had been instrumental in developing the church, during its 130 years' existence in the community. The late Mrs. W. E. Richards was the first president — the Rev. A. E. Mount being incumbent at that time.

Mrs. C. W. P. Baugh, president of the W.A., will be hostess to visiting members of other Auxiliary groups.

Seek Protestant Church For St. Sauveur

Morin Heights—An enthusiastic gathering met at Nymark's Lodge in St. Sauveur last Saturday evening to discuss the possibility of erecting a Protestant church in that village.

Chairman of the group was the Rev. H. G. Baugh, rector of Morin Heights, who outlined a proposed "skiers' chapel". It was decided the name of the new mission should be the "Chapel of Saint Francis", incorporated in the Anglican Parish of Morin Heights.

The executive, composed of the rector, Capt. E. D. Rodgers and Mr. Albert Creighton, was authorized to locate a suitable building lot, and to have an architect draw up plans for the new church, which will be built to accommodate 100 persons.

A financial campaign will be held during the winter months towards the cost of the building and furnishings.

"The Salvation Army's magnificent record of the past must truly be a symbol for its future. The principle of service conscientiously rendered by The Salvation Army is an example worthy of imitation by all humanity in the world today." — Hon. Gordon Scott, Montreal.

Retreat

The retreat being conducted at the St. Louis de France Church during the present week, is attracting a large congregation of English-speaking followers. The Rev. Fr. Latour, preaching the evening services, is a splendid speaker — compelling both interest and attention, presenting the doctrines of the Church in modern dress, and drawing very largely on 13 years' preaching mission in England as well as experience during service all through the Second World War.

A number of Lachute residents are regular attendants at the retreat, and welcome this opportunity to attend the purely English-speaking service.

Pure Food

No country in the world takes such pains as Canada, to see that the food consumed is properly protected against adulteration. The Food and Drugs Act, the first law in the western world to provide for analysis of samples and punishment of offenders, was passed in 1874. Today the Food and Drugs Act and the Proprietary or Patent Medicine Act are administered through five regional laboratories with 40 inspectors in the field. A headquarters laboratory carries out research, analysis and formulation of standards — for foods, drugs, cosmetics, vitamins, liquor and narcotics. They protect Canadian consumers against adulteration and deception in the food and drugs they buy. They are second to none in the world. Headquarters are situated at 35 John Street, Ottawa.

Water Service

Work is progressing satisfactorily on the extension to the water system at St. Lawrence and St. George Streets. When this link is completed the whole municipality will be pretty well covered for service for some time to come. With the completion of the defective intake line, and a new lining to the reservoir (both of which projects are well in hand), the village should be in a sound state so far as water service is concerned.

Presentation to James Devine

After 30 years' faithful service with the Canadian Safety Fuse Company Ltd., Mr. James Devine was honored at a testimonial function at the C.S.F. recreation hall, where he was presented with a cheque from the staff and employees of the company. Mr. J. B. Chalmers, General Manager, in making the presentation referred to the many sterling qualities which "Jim" brought to the execution of his duties. Over the years there were many incidents which he could recall, making life more pleasant, and in retrospect memories more happy, which in everyday life we are prone to write off as incidental to the mundane work of making a living. The years pass all too quickly and before we realize, we are settling down to that well-earned rest which in our young days we pictured for our declining years. Time dealt kindly with Jim, and he leaves the company with the good wishes of a host of friends who hope he has very many years to enjoy the fruits of his labors in peace and happiness.

Mr. Devine was genuinely surprised at the felicitations offered him on his retirement, but was pleased at the many expressions of regret to see him leave and the hopes expressed for his future welfare. He had often thought of this day, but now that it had arrived he found the truth in the saying that "Time and tide wait for no man", and he found it hard to realize that the parting was here. He thanked his fellow-employees for their thoughtfulness in presenting him with this token of their friendship, and he hoped that many more years would be allotted to reaffirm and continue the pleasant relations which always existed in this harmonious little entity, the Canadian Safety Fuse Company.

"For he's a jolly good fellow" echoed throughout the plant as the employees dispersed.

Quietly, without red-tape, with little publicity, The Salvation Army stands mobilized 24 hours a day to extend help when this help is required, whether it be a roof to the homeless, medical aid to the suffering, food to the hungry or spiritual consolation to the sick at heart.

To those without hope or faith, to those who seemingly are society's outcasts, The Salvation Army is ever a faithful friend, seeking to return value and meaning to life, giving courage to start again, to work again.

These days are days of new beginnings for thousands who are the victims of post-war upheavals and confusion. And once again The Salvation Army is on the march, helping others "to rise on stepping-stones of their dead selves to higher things."

Serving with "heart to God and hand to man", The Salvation Army needs and merits the help of all compassionate people.

Whenever need arises, The Salvation Army does not hesitate. . . Help this organization to meet future needs by not hesitating with YOUR contribution. . Kindly address Mr. Donald Hay, Bank of Montreal, Lachute (chairman of the district appeal).

The Watchtower and Its Purpose

"They will all be taught by Jehovah". — John 6: 45 NW; Isaiah 54: 13

Literal towers in Bible times were elevated vantage points from which watchmen could observe happenings, warn of danger, or announce good news. Our magazine figuratively occupies such a vantage point, for it is founded on the very pinnacle of wisdom, God's Word. That elevates it above racial, national and political propagandas and prejudices, frees it from selfish bias. It is not bound by any traditional creed, but its message advances as the light on God's purposes and works increases. — Habakkuk 2: 1-3

It sees things Scripturally. When it observes this generation afflicted with greed, delinquency, hypocrisy, atheism, war, famine, pestilence, perplexity and fear, and persecution of unpopular minorities, it does not parrot the old fable about history repeating itself. Informed by Bible prophecy, it sees in these things the sign of the world's time of the end. But with bright hope it also sees opening up for us just beyond these woes the portals of a new world.

Thus viewed, "The Watchtower" stands as a watchman atop a tower, alert to what is going on, awake to note signs of danger, faithful to point out the way of escape. It announces Jehovah's kingdom established by Christ's enthronement in heaven, feeds his kingdom joint-heirs with spiritual food, cheers men of good will with glorious prospects of eternal life in a paradise earth, comforts us with the resurrection promise for the dead.

It is not dogmatic, but has a confident ring in its voice, because it is based on God's Word. It does not privately interpret prophecy, but calls attention to physical facts, sets them alongside prophecy, and you see for yourself how well the two match, how accurately Jehovah interprets his own prophecy. In the interests of our salvation, it keeps sharp and faithful focus on Bible truth, and views religious news generally.

"Be watchful in these perilous times", God admonishes. So keep on the watch by regularly reading "The Watchtower".

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES, ONTARIO CIRCUIT NO. 4, OTTAWA invite you to their next assembly, starting Friday evening, Oct. 27, at 7 p.m.

Life-giving knowledge has always been our greatest need; and especially so in this day of mass destruction and death. This vital knowledge is now flowing crystal-clear from the prophetic word of God, which says "And the spirit and the bride keep on saying, 'Come'! And let anyone hearing say 'Come!' And let anyone thirsting, come; let anyone that wishes take life's water free." (Revelation 22:17, New World Translation.)

It is in this spirit that we say "come" and share the timely Scriptural knowledge dispensed for three days at our next circuit assembly. This will be held at the Auditorium,

Corner of Argyle and O'Connor Streets, Ottawa.

Saturday discourses and Bible Study 1.30 p.m.

Saturday evening 7 to 9 p.m.

Sunday 9 a.m. — Discourse on Baptism, followed by the Immersion Service. At 3 p.m. comes the highlight of the assembly, the public address, "Choose Life That You May Live".

That Second Vegetable

Canada's Food Rules say that, every day, we should eat certain foods to maintain good health. Under the heading of vegetables we find, "at least one serving of potatoes; and at least two servings of other vegetables, preferably leafy, green or yellow and frequently raw".

During the summer months, when gardens are producing so abundantly, it is easy to follow the rules and have three or even four fresh vegetables every day. As the cool weather advances this problem becomes more difficult. Often the second vegetable may be served as a supper dish with eggs or cheese in it or with cheese as an accompaniment. Sometimes two or three vegetables are mixed and served together to add interest.

The home economists of the Consumer Section at Ottawa, suggest several ways by which fall and winter vegetables may be dressed up and combined to serve as a special at dinner or for the main hot dish at supper.

Harvard Carrots

8 Medium carrots, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup boiling water, 1 teaspoon cornstarch, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 teaspoons grated orange rind, 1 tablespoon butter.

Slice or dice carrots. Add to salted boiling water, cover closely and cook, 15 minutes. Blend cornstarch with vinegar, sugar and orange rind. Add slowly to carrots. Stir constantly until liquid is thickened, add butter and stir well. Yield: six servings.

Cauliflower Stalks and Leaves In Cheese Sauce

3 Tablespoons butter, 3 tablespoons flour, ¾ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon paprika, few grains cayenne or black pepper, ¾ teaspoon dry mustard, 1½ cups milk, 1 cup grated Cheddar or diced process cheese, 3 to 4 cups cauliflower stalks and leaves (cut in thin strips), ½ cup buttered bread crumbs.

Cut cauliflower stalks and leaves into thin strips about 2 inches in length. Cook, covered, in 1 cup boiling, salted water 35 minutes or in pressure cooker 15 minutes. Drain. Melt butter in top of double boiler. Blend in flour and seasonings. Add milk slowly, stirring until blended. Cook until sauce is smooth and thickened, then add cheese and stir until melted. Add cooked cauliflower. Place mixture in a greased baking dish, top with buttered bread crumbs and bake in a hot oven, 400°F., until crumbs are browned. Yield: six servings (3 cups).

Creamed Fried Onions

2 Tablespoons butter, 4 cups sliced onions (4 to 6 medium onions), 4 tablespoons flour, 2 cups hot milk, ¼ teaspoon salt, pepper.

Melt butter in a heavy frying pan. Add onions, cover and cook slowly until tender, about 15 minutes. Blend in flour and cook until it becomes frothy, about one minute. Add hot milk gradually and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Season with salt and pepper. Yield: six servings.

I.O.D.E. SUMS UP AID IN DISASTERS

Toronto (CP) — The Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire raised $185,464 for the Manitoba flood relief fund, it was announced by Mrs. John H. Chipman, national president. In addition chapters contributed clothing and bedding valued at $9,576.

An initial contribution of $1,500 from national funds had been made immediately following the flood and the I.O.D.E. organized tag days across the country. During the same period the order also made substantial contributions to the relief committees for victims of the big Quebec fires at Rimouski and Cabano.

From here the speaker took her audience "back the road" that they might have a better perspective of the road that lay ahead. She spoke of the great leaders we have been fortunate enough to have — "common" men who have become "uncommon" men by their perseverence, industry and ability to get along with people and to inspire confidence. Men born to more fortunate circumstances who have been willing to give of their time, talents and wealth to the cause of promoting freedom and democracy. She went on to say that today we are at another critical period in our history, and suggested that we think of Abraham Lincoln's words, when he said, "If we could first know where we are, and whither we are tending, we could better judge what to do and how to do it."

From here Mrs. McGibbon took her group along the road to industry and traced the great new strikes that have been made in iron, oil, titanium, uranium, and how this would affect Canada.

The people who built this country were impelled by strong ideas, full of family and community responsibility, she said. They were willing to work and save to that end. We too must be willing to sacrifice and work to this end, if we are to see the Canada we want to see. We must realize that no government will work in a land where everyone tries to "work" the government. If we take away the incentive to produce and the penalty for loafing, we will be on the slippery road to ruin.

She urged her listeners not to sit back and say "There is nothing I can do". In illustrating her point, she told of the frog who was in a deep rut in the road. He tried to jump out, but fell back again. He tried many times but each time tumbled back in. Just then a rabbit came along and asked Mr. Frog what he was doing in there; the frog told him how he had tried to get out but couldn't. Mr. Rabbit volunteered to go for a ladder, but when he returned Mr. Frog was sitting on the side of the road. He said, "I thought you couldn't get out". "I couldn't, but a farmer came down the road with his cart," said the frog, "and I had to".

The speaker reminded the W.I. members that Freedom was not from everlasting to everlasting, but that it was the obligation of each generation to insure that it be perpetually renewed and strengthened. She urged them not to be like the frog and wait "until they had to", but to continually do their part to help keep this Canada a land where freedom and peace shall dwell.

RINGS WORE OUT FOR CENTENARIAN

Winnipeg (CP) — There are no rings on the fingers of Mrs. Roxceny Merrill Burkell. Of her wedding band, she says simply: "I've worn it out". She recently celebrated her 100th birthday.

She received birthday greetings from the King and Queen and from Lt.-Gov. R. F. McWilliams of Manitoba.

Mrs. Burkell was born September 16, 1850, near Roseneath, Ont.

She recalls that at 16 she rode on a bob-sleigh with a boy. "My, did I hear about that. The teacher said it showed no respect to him, to my parents, or to myself. Fancy! Haven't the times changed?"

NEW SILVER SPOON TO BABY PRINCESS

London (CP) — Princess Elizabeth's baby daughter, Princess Anne, has received as one of her first gifts a charming silver spoon. Designed by F. J. C. Cooper of Westerham, it was recently presented to Queen Elizabeth by the Crafts Centre of Great Britain.

The spoon is rounded and perfectly shaped for a baby learning to feed herself. When she is old enough to use it, the little princess will take delight in its decoration. The stem ends in the likeness of a harvest mouse busy nibbling at an ear of wheat.
