Mail Delivery Due Sept. 23, To Be Inaugurated Locally With Appropriate Ceremony

At 10 o'clock on the morning of September 23, door-to-door mail delivery will be officially inaugurated in Greater Lachute — that is, in Lachute, Lachute Mills, Ayersville and that portion of St. Jerusalem contiguous to Lachute. Postmaster Florian Guitard confirmed the date for commencement of the new service, in discussing plans with this newspaper.

A brief but significant ceremony will mark the inauguration of postal delivery. The Minister of the Postal Department, the Hon. William Hamilton, of Montreal; the regional director, Maurice Fortin, of Montreal; the district director, Emilien Corbeil; P.-E. Choquette, Ste. Agathe regional superintendent; Philippe Valois, M.P., with municipal representatives of the areas involved, members of the clergy and officers of the Chamber of Commerce — will be on hand to give fitting observance to the occasion.

Mr. Fortin, the regional postal director, will invite the Minister, the Hon. Wm. Hamilton, to cut the traditional ribbon, and to give the inaugural address, touching on the history of the local postal service.

It is interesting to note, it was in October 1835 that one Hawley Hutchins was appointed the first postmaster in Lachute. The present postmaster has occupied the office only since October of last year.

Mail Carriers

The mail carriers, six in number will receive instruction on their job and will go over their respective routes for verification, during the week of September 16. There will be various formalities to be completed with the regional superintendent. The six uniformed couriers will be — Gérard Lauzon, Lionel Bélanger, Hubert Legault, Yvon Lemay, Gerald Dunn and John Wilson Black. G. Lauzon will serve temporarily as chief courier and L. Belanger as rotating or relief courier.

Questioned on the co-operation he has received, Postmaster Guitard stated there are 90% of homes or premises now equipped with letter boxes, but that only 30% of residents have taken the trouble to advise correspondents of their proper address with street and number. In order to ease the difficulties involved in this change, and to facilitate the work of the postal staff, it is urgent that all citizens should take this step immediately. Specially printed postcards are available free at the post-office for this purpose.

4-H Team Takes Third Place in Provincial Contest

The Lachute 4-H Calf Club judging team, Donald McOuat and Stuart Robertson, travelled by car to Sherbrooke on Sunday, August 25, together with Ross Oswald, Club leader, and Jean Pintal, local agronome, to take part in the Provincial 4-H Judging Contest held at the Sherbrooke Exhibition on Monday, August 26.

The Lachute team came third in the competition. A team from Brome came first and one from St. Hyacinthe came second.

There were very few points between the teams, and Lachute did very well considering it was the first time the boys had taken part in the provincial competition.

Monday evening the 4-H boys and girls were entertained at the grandstand show as guests of the Sherbrooke Exhibition. On Tuesday morning they were taken on a tour of the Experimental Farm at Lennoxville, and they watched the judging of dairy cattle in the afternoon. Tuesday evening a banquet was held at the Social Club in Sherbrooke in honor of the 4-H boys and girls, and prizes won were given out. On Wednesday morning the visitors left for home after having enjoyed the opportunity of meeting 4-H members from all parts of the province, and also having a thoroughly enjoyable time.

Diocesan Fund Opening Event On September 12

St. Jerome — On Thursday, September 12, at 8 p.m., His Excellency Bishop Emilien Frenette will bless the cornerstone of a new nursing school at the St. Jerome Hospital.

This function will be the opening event of the St. Jerome Diocesan Fund campaign, in which the nurses' school will be an integral beneficiary.

There will be prominent orators, including the general chairman of the campaign, Mr. Lucien G. Rolland. The committee extends an invitation to all workers, to demonstrate their loyalty to the cause by attending this function. It is expected that many thousands will attend.

Few Staff Changes Seen This Year As Local High Schools Re-convene

Four new teachers made their appearance on the 1957-58 Lachute High School teaching staff yesterday, when the school opening session was held during the morning only. The first full day in the new term was today — Principal F. H. J. Royal reporting approximately 675 students enrolled.

The new teachers include Mr. E. L. Outhouse, Grade IX-A; Mrs. E. Sinnett, Music; Miss Beverley Elvidge, Grade VII-A; and Miss Elizabeth Frank, Grade III-A.

A native of Kingsbury, Que., Miss Frank is a graduate of St. Francis High School, Richmond, and this spring was graduated with her teacher's diploma from Macdonald College.

Miss Beverley Elvidge, of St. Johns, Que., graduated this year from Mount Allison University, Sackville, N.B., with her Bachelor of Arts degree. Both Miss Frank and Miss Elvidge will be teaching for their first year following graduation.

Mrs. Ethel Sinnett, a native of Canning, N.S., and graduate of Acadia University, is taking over the Music teaching duties, having taught for a number of years in various parts of Nova Scotia.

The only addition to the male staff is Mr. E. L. Outhouse, a native of Tiverton, N.S., who holds the B.Sc. and M.A. degrees. He is a graduate of Acadia University and also attended the University of Toronto. He has had a considerable amount of teaching experience, both in the prairies and in Nova Scotia.

Newcomer at Brownsburg

Principal King Amos, of Brownsburg High School, reports that his staff will have but one change, in the person of Mrs. Gerald Izzard (the former Evelyn Laurin of Lachute) who is taking over the teaching duties in Grade VI. Mrs. Izzard is a 1954 B.A. graduate of Bishop's University, and in her final year, won first-class honors in French and History, the Lieutenant-Governor's Bronze Medal, and the Vice-President's Prize for History, the Chief Justice Greenshields Prize, and the Lieut. Rod. Lemieux Prize for French Literature. A 1951 Grade XII graduate of Lachute High School, she is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Laurin, of Lachute.

'Need Urgent', Says Blood Donor Committee

Mayor Issues Earnest Appeal for Blood Donor Volunteers

Fellow Citizens :

Again this year, the Red Cross is sponsoring a Blood Clinic, to be held in the Lachute Auditorium on September 12 and 13 for Lachute, Ayersville and vicinity.

As Mayor of the Town of Lachute, and in the name of my Council, I consider it my duty to call upon our citizens to do their share for this humanitarian call, by giving blood to save a life — possibly the life of a friend, a relative, and maybe a child.

In the past, the Lachute district has always answered generously; and this year it is most necessary, owing to the more urgent needs of the day, that everyone do his share, in order that the present call may meet with the success that it deserves.

— Léopold Carrière,
Mayor of Lachute.

Hospital Banks in Short Supply

Organization Set for Donor Canvass And Clinic Personnel, Sept, 12 - 13

Workers are active on plans for the Red Cross blood donor clinic, to be held at Lachute Auditorium on Thursday and Friday of next week, September 12-13. In view of a shortage in the blood banks of hospitals affiliated with this Red Cross service, the need for blood is urgent, and it is earnestly hoped that Lachute's contribution of previous years will be far exceeded.

In this issue appears an authoritative endorsement of the campaign from Mayor Léopold Carrière, a former chairman of the committee, who solicits the support of all citizens able to contribute as volunteer donors.

Chairman of the enterprise this year is Dr. Eric Mongeon, with Ian Gordon as co-chairman and secretary. A meeting of representative workers was held last Thursday noon at the Golf Club chalet, and details of organization discussed.

Last year's blood donations numbered 400-odd. It should be the objective of the committee this year to collect 600 bottles of blood — said Ian Gordon in outlining the purpose of this meeting. Many new suggestions and experiences of past years were discussed for the successful outcome of this campaign.

Dr. Eric Mongeon, Blood Clinic Chairman

Mrs. R. Stephens is clerk in charge of the records, Donat Saulnier is entrusted with canvassing the town storekeepers and their staffs, while key representatives of the various industries will solicit donors in this important segment of the community.

It was emphasized by Chairman Dr. Mongeon, however, that the general populace should meet this responsibility with a spirit comparable to the working class, which has always responded in highly creditable numbers.

It was mentioned that many from this area, hospitalized and in need of blood transfusions, had benefitted from this free service in the past, and that many others, in illness or emergency, would benefit in the same way. It is possible to have blood or plasma supplied to any affiliated or unaffiliated hospital within an hour, on demand of the local Red Cross authorities.

Besides those mentioned, others present at this organizational meeting were — two past-presidents of the committee, Mayor L. Carrière and Linton W. Armstrong; Roger Regimbal, representing Ayers Limited; Jacques Bedard, Dominion Prime Woods, Limited; Philippe Guenette, J. C. Wilson Ltd.; Mozart Carrière, Lachute Lumber Co. Ltd.; and Don Titman, representing The Lachute Watchman and L'Argenteuil.

All possible means of promotion are being exploited, including appeals from the church pulpits, the organizing of a "blitz" canvass for donors next Monday, a window display at Beaton's Pharmacy, and the enlisting of many individuals and organizations — both to press the appeal and to assist in the operation of the clinic. Nursing and medical staffs are being appointed, and Lions Club members will assist with transportation on the two days of the clinic.

It is hoped that the outcome will meet full satisfaction of the mobile unit staff and visiting supervisors of the Red Cross Transfusion Service.

In charge of the donor list for St. Andrews district are Mrs. F. E. Hungerbuhler and Mr. G. Rodgers. Brownsburg is operating under its own committee, with special clinic dates for that community.

Rotary Club Air Pageant Sept. 22 To Benefit New Hospital Project

Preliminary plans for the Rotary Club Air Show, to be held September 22 at the Lachute Airport have now been finalized—the executive of the Club, along with the committee concerned, having decided that the most worthwhile project at the present would be the Regional Hospital drive, to which the proceeds will be turned over Prime Minister John Diefenbaker has been invited to open the event

Rotarian Jack MacKimmie, who is spearheading the drive, reported plans to date at a committee meeting held Tuesday evening, and the full co-operation of the RCAF has been assured. An officer from St. Hubert is expected today to help co-ordinate the various flight plans as a fly-past of jets is one of the top items on the program.

In addition to the various air displays, which will include a helicopter and possible parachute jump, a large ground display is contemplated. The Lachute Artillery Battery, 37th Field Regiment, will take over ground communications.

Some 25 companies and flying clubs have been invited to take part in the show, and plans are almost completed for a former RCAF ace to put on a stunt-flying exhibition. Included in the ground show will be a Para-Rescue Squadron and Model Plane Display.

The show will get underway at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and the large area available assures free parking for all. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children of school age, younger children being admitted free of charge.

Band Concert By Royal Cdn. Artillery

A band concert will be given by the Royal Canadian Artillery Band, of Montreal, this Sunday, September 8, starting at 3 p.m. The concert will be held at the bandstand in the Memorial Park on Main Street; or in case of rain, it will be held in the Auditorium. This concert is brought to Lachute by the Lachute Battery of Artillery, No. 131.

W.O. I A. Pitt, C.D., bandmaster, with a 40-piece band, will present an hour-long program of music which will include marches, an overture, a samba, waltz and other selections for public enjoyment.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend and enjoy this music. There is no admission charge.

Statement on Receipts and Charities Feature at Lions Club Opening Session

As the Lions Club resumed its regular supper meetings, Tuesday in the Legion Hall — Ernest Snadden was new-fledged chairman Chief Fernand Trépanier in the role of tail-twister, and Dick Pearson the new bulletin editor. Another valued member in a new capacity was Lion Dr. F. W. FitzGerald, serving this year in the honored office of District Governor. Secretary Keith Clark was in his old, customary stand.

Much business was discussed during the busy program. Donations were voted for a trophy to be presented at the 4-H Field Day; for continuance of transportation costs for youngsters attending the School for Retarded Children; and grants for the scholarship of two promising district students, one commencing Medicine and the other attending fourth year of a teacher's course.

Lion Ernest Emmett, promoter of the Retarded Children's School, was eloquent in his thanks for the club's support to this enterprise.

President Ernest Snadden gave a boost to the Chamber of Commerce membership campaign — a good Lion, Miville Trickey, being current president of that group.

Another active member, Dr. Eric Mongeon, in his capacity as Blood Clinic chairman, issued an appeal for donors at the clinic here next Thursday and Friday. Lions Club collaboration was assured in the transporting of volunteers.

The bulletin editor, recognized as a key workers for the success of the club, was authorized to invest in some new equipment.

The president intimated that a special speaker would address the next meeting on a theme of local importance, the Regional Hospital project.

Financial Report

There was considerable discussion on the year's financial report which, in the department of Expenditures, lists the following items of public interest:

| | |
|---|---|
| Easter Seal Expenditures | $364. |
| Sports, Junior Baseball, etc. | $127. |
| Christmas Party | $425. |
| Assoc. for Retarded Children | $540. |
| Educational Loans | $350. |
| Public Speaking Expenses, Awards | $200. |
| Ice-making Machine Purchase | $1,132. |

| | |
|---|---|
| Bingo Receipts | $1,815. |
| Rigolade | $1,513. |
| Car Drawing | $1,610. |
| Easter Seals | $497. |

Weekly Editors And Publishers Meeting in Banff

Banff, Alberta — An army of weekly newspaper editors and publishers, wives and families, will descend on Banff next Sunday as the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association opens its 38th annual convention.

The three-day meeting will centre around discussions of the problems facing the industry and the study of improvement in printing and publishing standards. Round table discussions on more than a dozen industry subjects will be held with representatives of the Association of Canadian Advertising Agencies and the Audit Bureau of Circulation taking part.

One of the major topics of discussion, both formal and informal, will concern the increasing problems faced by weekly publishers who face the demand for bigger and better newspapers coupled with constantly rising costs of labor, equipment and materials.

According to William Telfer managing director of the CWNA the weeklies are fighting hard to hold advertising and subscription rates at their present levels. Because of rising costs, net profits are dangerously low in many cases.

Despite these difficulties, the weekly newspaper is growing in importance, according to Mr. Telfer. Combined circulation of Canadian weeklies has passed the 11-million mark.

Among guests at the convention are 20 British newspaper publishers who are touring Canada — four of whom visited The Watchman last week. This group will attend the convention as representatives of the Newspaper Society of Britain.

Aimé Gagné, of Arvida, Que., president of the French-language Weekly Newspapers Association, and other Association officers will also be present at the convention.

Canadian and U.S. Foresters to Visit District Woodlots

During the second week of September a cavalcade of cars will visit numerous woodlots including the Harrington Forest Farm in the Argenteuil area. The Canadian Pulp and Paper Association have called a meeting of foresters from all over Canada, and they will study various wodlots in this area and also spend a day at Harrington inspecting equipment demonstrations and the forest research work which is being done there. It is anticipated there will be somewhere between 40 and 70 foresters. They will represent governments and private industry throughout all of Canada and U.S.A.

Pilgrims On All-Night March to Shrine

A pilgrimage of 200 young people of the working community in St. Jerome Diocese was organized at the Notre Dame de Lourdes Shrine on the Brownsburg Road recently — the group marching the distance from St. Jerome to Lachute, an all-night trek, to participate in a morning mass at 8.30 a.m. En route the pilgrims, accompanied by two clergy, stopped for Confession at the St. Canut parish church; they were served coffee by Mrs. Alphonse Marchand, a summer resident, and were joined by about 200 young ladies for the remainder of the journey. Following the religious rites, breakfast was served at the restaurant in connection with the shrine. The above photograph shows only a portion of the group.

Conserve Beauties Of Laurentian Area Theme of Meeting

The second salvo in the campaign to "Keep the Laurentians Beautiful" was fired in Ste. Agathe des Monts City Hall yesterday, when a public meeting was addressed by Charles Campeau, president of the Planning Association of Canada who spoke of future planning required for the Laurentian area.

Mr. J. L. Blanchard, M.L.A. for Terrebonne, and Hervé Bastien secretary-treasurer for Ste. Adele along with Toré E. Bjornstad, chairman of the Laurentian Planning Commission also addressed the group.

Mr. Campeau has been studying the general area of the Laurentians for many years and has developed plans in principle which extend from the termination of the new $40-million toll road above St. Jerome right through to St. Jovite.

Mr. Bastien reported on activities in the Ste. Adele area, while Mr. Bjornstad reviewed progress to date on the establishing of regulations for zoning, building, anti-pollution traffic and accident control, highway improvement, and development of park, church and school areas.

Among those invited to attend were the Hon. Paul Dozois, Minister of Municipal Affairs, the Hon. Wm. Cottingham, Minister of Mines; Ernest Gohier, chief engineer of the Dept. of Highways, presidents and directors of the Chambers of Commerce, hotel associations of the area, mayors and secretary-treasurers of all Laurentian municipalities, and leaders in the religious, business and other activities of the entire Laurentian region.

Germany now has three million more women than men as a result of World War II casualties, reports Richard C. Hottelet, Columbia Broadcasting System correspondent, in the September Reader's Digest. Today's German woman is a different person from the one of Hitler's time. She has been pushed out into the world. She knows more about politics and business than ever before. Lipstick, rouge, nail polish and perfume, once regarded as daring, are now common.

Winners of Contest on Leaf Identification

Two Face Charges Of Impaired Driving

Elie deChatellas, 46, of Charlemagne, Que., was arrested Monday afternoon by Lachute Town Police and later turned over to the Provincial authorities, who charged him with driving while his ability was impaired.

Arrested on a similar charge was Ronald Cross, 18, of Morin Heights. Both will appear in St. Jerome September 10.

Young Breeder Wins at Ste. Scholastique

A Column for the Sportsman

— by —

BOB ATCHISON

This column is for all outdoorsmen, so any questions you may have, pass them on and maybe they can be answered. Any information that you can pass on to me would also help to keep the sportsmen and women informed on what's going on locally in the sporting world. . . Give me a call at 1117-R.

For the present, the fishing is on a small scale. A few of the better spots are listed for you. . .

Lake Louisa: The Grey Trout are taking minnows, fished deep (40-50 feet).

Lake Barron: A few Reds have been taken on dry flies, though not many.

Nearly all of the creeks give up a few Brookies, with either dry or wet flies. If you try creeks, take your time. Fish every spot, no matter how small. It will pay off. You won't get a big catch, but sure a lot of fun!

• • •

The citizens of Lachute don't think a lot of their North River. To me it's one of the greatest I've ever had the pleasure of fishing. Bass, Doré, Musky, Great Northerns, Perch and the lowly "Cats". You never know what you can tie into. Maybe one of these days they will realize they have a million dollar investment next to their door. I hope to see that!

A few tips for the fishermen. . . In flies, large streamers fished deep and slow. The same for the plug and spinner men.

• • •

It has been suggested that the local game wardens look into the Lost River district where at least one domesticated dog has returned from the bush with two legs of a recently-killed deer. Could be dogs on the loose, wolves, or even humans. High-powered rifle shots have also been reported in the Lakefield area; a little early for the hunting season in my opinion.

• • •

Just heard that George Deacon, Jr., accompanied by two brothers-in-law, Tom Stewart and Ron Jones, both Montreal residents well-known in these parts, returned home Saturday from a visit to Algonquin Park, where the latter hooked a Ling, believed to be the only species of pre-historic fish remaining in existence.

The "fish" weighed over two pounds and was about one-third head, the remainder of its body being similar to that of an eel. The only fins in evidence were guiding fins on the top and belly of the fish.

These fish are not too common in these parts, but your writer saw one years ago that had been caught in Lake Erie. It was about four pounds in weight. You have all seen the Cod fish; this Ling has a head somewhat like it, but a body very similar to an eel. Being told they would eat or kill anything at anytime — boy, I sure welcome that. Let's hope they never get around our parts!

• • •

There's a meeting of the Argenteuil Fish and Game Protective Association coming up in September. Hope to see you all there. The only way for us to have good sport in our county, is to support our club in every way we can. Even if we don't agree on everything, at least come out and we can argue it out.

Good fishing!

Colford's Defeats Commercial Teams In Double-Header

Labor Day was a "swell one", as far as the Colford Lodge ball team were concerned. In the second game of a double-header, with Mair's Clutch & Brake, Colford's boys possibly played their best and most exciting game in the past few years. Jean-Guy Larocque outpitched Ace Holden all the way, striking out 12 to Holden's 7. Larocque was never in trouble, allowing only two of the Mair's players to reach second base. Colford's held the big hitters — Pete Constable, the most valuable player in the Snowdon Fastball League this past season, and Ace Holden — without a hit.

It was extremely hard to pick the stars of the Lodge team, as the boys played a terrific ball game. Charlie Mosely, a constant hitter all year, hit three for three, and Jacques Leveillé laid down two beautiful bunts to assist in Colford's scoring the first two big guns. The final score was Colford's 5, Mair's 0.

In the first game, Colford's defeated Dominion Engineering Works of Montreal, 10-5. Mel Stewart slugged his sixth home-run of the season, with two men on in the second inning, and before the visitors could put out the fire, the Lodge boys added three more runs to pretty much sew up the game. D.E.W. threatened in the fourth with three runs, but Larocque settled down to strike out the side.

Colford's now have the amazing record of 22 wins without a defeat, the best year they have ever enjoyed.

Next Sunday, Colford's have another toughie, when they play host to Northern Electric of Montreal; game time, 2 p.m.

Political Definitions

(Revived)

Socialism: You have 2 cows and you give one to your neighbor.

Communism: You have 2 cows. The government takes both and gives you the milk.

Fascism: You have 2 cows, the government takes both and sells you the milk.

Nazism: You have 2 cows. The government takes both and shoots you.

New Dealism: You have 2 cows. The government takes both, shoots one, milks the other and throws the milk away.

Canadiens' Hockey Games Away From Home Broadcast This Season

Molson's Brewery and the Canadian Arena Company announced jointly that Molson's would sponsor the broadcasts of all 20 Canadiens Sunday games on the road in the 1957-58 hockey season. For the first time in the history of local hockey broadcasting, the Stanley Cup Champions' away games will be broadcast live to 16 stations in the Province of Quebec, bringing to the thousands of enthusiastic "Bleu, Blanc, Rouge" fans across the province the excitement of their Club's games at Detroit, New York, Boston and Chicago.

On Sunday, October 13, at 9 p.m., Canadiens' first game at Detroit will be broadcast. Throughout the season hockey fans in all corners of the province will be able to follow the fortunes of their favorites until the last game, on March 23, when the season finishes in the Automobile City. During the season six games will come from Detroit, six from New York, three from Boston and five from Chicago.

Effect of Proposed Phone Rate Hoist In This District

Increases of 25 cents per month for two-party residence telephone service in Lachute and Brownsburg, and of 50 cents for one-party residence lines, are proposed in Bell Telephone's application for revised rates filed in Ottawa with the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada — according to R. R. Pearson, the company's manager here.

The proposed increase for one-party flat rate business service is 90 cents monthly, and for two-party business service it is 50 cents monthly.

| | Present | Proposed | Increase |
|---|---|---|---|
| Residence: | | | |
| 1-Party line | 3.65 | 4.05 | .40 |

Duck Hunting Opens Sept. 14, Deer Sept. 28

It is just nine days until the first shot will be fired opening the 1957 season for hunters in this area — the duck and geese hunters as usual being the first to get into action. Argenteuil and all adjoining counties are in the Central district, which covers the greater part of the populated area of the province, and it is in this section of the province that the season opens a week Saturday, September 14, and closes November 22.

Daily limit for ducks is eight birds, in the aggregate of which not more than one is a wood duck. Possession limit is 16. The season on geese, other than Brant, is identical to the duck season, the daily limit being five in the aggregate and possession limit 20, in the aggregate of which not more than half are of species other than the Greater Snow Goose.

Limits on Brant are uniform with other geese varieties; however, the season lasts only from October 12 to November 12.

The deer and partridge seasons, both open September 28 and close November 24. The legal limit for deer is one animal per season; male, female and young are all legal kills in this district, a part of Zone C. Moose are protected the year round in Zones A and B and the County of Argenteuil. In the remainder of Zone C, and in Zones D and E, the season is open from October 18-28.

The Birch and Spruce partridge daily limit is five and final possession date is January 6, 1958. The pheasant season opens October 15-31; daily limit is three and season limit nine; and Hungarian partridge are in season from September 15 to October 10.

Local game wardens will be in possession of all hunting regulations within a short time, as will sporting stores, and enthusiasts will be able to obtain all information desired from these sources.

Miss Poland of 1957 Will Visit Canada

For the first time since World War II a "Miss Poland" beauty contest was held Aug. 3, with 25 entrants from as many provincial elections. The winner "Miss Polonia 1957" was Miss Alicja Bobrowska, 21, a student of the higher dramatic school in Krakow. She will soon leave for a tour of Canada and the United States with the Polish satirical theatre "Wagabunda."

Sheriff's Sale

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned LANDS and TENEMENTS have been seized, and will be sold at the respective times and places mentioned below.

Terrebonne

Canada
Province of Quebec
District of Terrebonne
Exchequer Court
No. 134319

HER MAJESTY, THE QUEEN, (Income Tax), plaintiff, vs JEAN-JIERRE DESMARAIS, of Pont Viau, Province of Quebec, defendant.

A plot of land situated on the St François Hill, in the Parish of Ste. Thérèse de Blainville, composed of:

1. Lots numbers four hundred and twenty-two and four hundred and twenty-three (Nos. 422 and 423) on the official cadaster of the Parish of Ste. Thérèse.

2. Part of lot number four hundred and twenty-four (Pt. 424) of the same cadaster, bounded as follows: in front, on the south, by the road of St. François Hill, in rear, on the north, by the farms of the Concession of St. Louis Hill, on one side of the east, by the remainder of the said lot No. 424, belonging to the said Jean-Pierre Desmarais, and on the other side on the west, by the said lots Nos. 422 and 423 hereinabove described.

3. Part of lot number four hundred and twenty-one (Pt. 421) of the same cadaster, bounded as follows: in front, on the south by the road of St. François Hill, in rear, on the north, by the farms of the Concession of St. Louis Hill; on one side on the east, by the said lots Nos. 422 and 423, hereinabove described, and on the other side, on the west, by the remainder of the said lot No. 421 belonging to John Wiggins or representatives.

A farm situated in the second concession of St. Louis Hill, in the Parish of Ste. Thérèse de Blainville, composed:

a) Of the northeast part of lot known and designated under number four hundred and twenty-four (Pt. 424) on the official cadaster of the Parish of Ste. Thérèse de Blainville, measuring fifty feet in width, English measure, by the whole depth of the said lot, and bounded as follows: in front by the road of the St. François Hill, in rear, by the farms of the concession of St. Louis Hill, on the southwest, by the residue of the said lot No. 424, belonging to Moïse Lachapelle, and on the northeast by lot No. 425 of the same cadaster.

b) By lot known and designated under number four hundred and twenty-five (425) of the official cadaster of the Parish of Ste. Thérèse de Blainville.

c) Lot known and designated under number four hundred and twenty-six (426) of the official cadaster of the said Parish of Ste. Thérèse de Blainville, measuring one hundred and eighty-seven feet in width, English measure, the whole measuring three hundred and thirty-three feet, English measure. With all the buildings thereon erected.

By registered deed under No. 180175, it would appear that it was by error that lot No. 426 was designated as having been entirely sold, whereas it should have been designated as follows:

Lot known and designated under number four hundred and twenty-six on the official cadaster of the Parish of Ste. Thérèse de Blainville, to withdraw, however, a strip of land sold by said José Marie Suarez to Gordon Green, by deed of sale before Me J. M. Vermette, notary, on April 4, 1949, and registered at the Registry Office of the County of Terrebonne under No. 163579, the said strip of land measuring six feet in width by seventy-five feet in depth, English measure, more or less, and bounded as follows: in front, on the south, by range "du Cordon" or St. Franiois Hill; in rear, on the north, and on one side, on the west, by parts of the said lot No. 426 belonging to vendor (presently Jean-Pierre Desmarais) and on the other side, on the east, by part of lot No. 427 of the same cadaster, belonging to Gordon Green.

To be sold at the church door of the Church of the "Coeur Immaculée de Marie", Parish of Ste. Thérèse de Blainville, on TUESDAY, the SEVENTEENTH day of SEPTEMBER, 1957, at TEN o'clock in the forenoon.

Playing A Venerable Role

TO LOOK BACK in The Watchman pages and note the birth of a new enterprise 25 or 50 years ago, makes us, in a sense, synonymous with our community. It gives us the feeling of godparents to Lachute's industrial and commercial offspring, as through the years we encourage and foster their growth, extol their products, and publicize their services.

This week, however, from our file of 75 years ago we quote a somewhat rarer item, announcing the 50th anniversary of the firm of C. T. Wales & Co., St. Andrews East. And again, our file of 25 years ago records the 100th anniversary of this same store, then under the name of C. T. Wales & Son. We only regret that, to complete the continuity, we cannot record the 125th milestone of the old firm at this time — the name has since passed, but the old establishment on the main street, little changed from is original front, is still clear in the memory of local residents. Only in the past decade or so has it carried the name of a new proprietor.

In the same issue 75 years ago in which we recorded this store's 50th birthday, there appeared a note as follows: "With last week's issue The Watchman commenced Volume VI or its publication."

Many are the revealing items gleaned from the musty pages of the past. We believe that the paragraphs culled each week in our "Over the Years" column are read with avid interest by older residents. Indeed, The Watchman is proud to be dated back with the era of the pioneer spirit — proud to be inseparably linked with the growth of Lachute, from a rural settlement to a progressive town — and we are happy, too, to quote these gems from the local narrative which tell of strenuous times and undaunted characters among our predecessors.

Weekly Newspapermen Meet

ON SEPTEMBER 9-10-11, the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association will hold its 38th annual convention in Banff, Alberta.

Representatives of member newspapers from Newfoundland to Vancouver Island will meet to discuss the salient problems facing the industry, and to greet old friends, and make new ones, in this unique fraternity of weekly newspaper publishers and editors. As has always been the case, many of the wives and children will also be present, for they are a part of "Canada's Biggest Family Party", as the CWNA convention has come to be known, just as in so many instances they are active workers in the family newspaper.

There are serious problems facing the weekly newspaper industry today. High wage levels, constantly rising cost of materials and equipment, and a shortage of experienced workers are placing a very heavy demand on the productive and management skills of publishers, who seek to hold down costs as the alternative to increasing advertising and subscription rates. Their problem becomes even more acute when, because of rapid growth of the communities they serve, they must enlarge their plant and equipment, placing a great strain on limited reserves.

Such are the problems with which the CWNA conventions and the meetings of the provincial divisions of the association must deal. In forums and general meetings, delegates will attempt to find solutions and reach decisions which it is hoped will work for the good of the entire industry. CWNA members and non-members alike.

Certainly there are the pleasures of the social side of conventions, and the CWNA convention is rated high in this respect. But there is much serious discussion, too, because the member newspapers of the association are constantly seeking to improve themselves, not only on the inside, but in the public interest as well. It is never forgotten that the faithful subscriber is, in the final analysis, the keystone of a newspaper's being.

A Musical Stimulant

MUSIC in the garden may be more than a soothing accompaniment for the lover of flowers — it might actually stimulate the growth of flowers and vegetables.

At any rate, a United States magazine reports that experiments at Annamalai University in India have shown that plants can double their growth to the tune of scientifically-timed serenades.

In charge of he experiments is Prof. C. T. N. Singh, head of the university's department of botany, assisted by Stella Ponniah, the university's musicologist.

Chester Duncan, music expert at the University of Manitoba, sagely regarded the matter and said: "Now I know how I'll get that garden of mine to grow." He had not heard of such experiments.

Professor L. H. Shebeski, chairman of the plant science department at the University of Manitoba, said that since the information did not come through scientific channels, as such discoveries normally would, he is inclined to doubt the report.

However, there is a wide variety of stimuli to plant growth, he said, and this growth could result from anything.

The University of Alberta has been experimenting with sonic and super-sonic vibration on plants and has found vigorous plant growth results. Since music is composed of vibrations, there may be a connection between the two projects.

Before-and-after photographs showed plants in a bedraggled state before music treatment, and full and healthy afterwards. The music, transmitted through an electrical tuning fork for periods of 15 to 30 minutes, was played on a veena (an Indian guitar-like instrument), a violin or a flute. Even vocal music was used. Growth acceleration was shown in all cases.

Not only this, but structural changes wrought by music are inherited by a plant's progeny, according to this report.

Days Shorter — Driving Hazardous

EACH YEAR, night-time driving results in scores of accidental deaths across Canada. Most frequent causes are fatigue and poor visibility.

With days growing shorter, many motorists are compelled to travel after dark, and it is timely to emphasize these precautions for safer night driving:

(1) Always dim your headlights when approaching oncoming vehicles or when following close behind another automobile.

(2) Allow extra space for stopping between your own car and the one ahead.

(3) Signal all turns, preferably with flashing or illuminated signals.

(4) Take frequent coffee breaks to combat drowsiness.

(5) Stop for a nap if you are overtired.

(6) Carry flares for use in case of mechanical breakdown.

(7) If you must walk along a highway for any purpose, use the left shoulder of the road, facing traffic.

(8) Keep within the legal speed limits and obey caution and warning signs.

(9) Take special precautions at dusk when some cars are using headlights while others may not be.

Inflation Threat

INFLATION is still a big issue, in the opinion of The Financial Post. "It is a serious matter, when our costs rise more than American costs, and the unhappy story of import competition against Canadian manufacturers carries a dreadful warning. How long will it take labor and business to realize this?" says The Post.

"An increase in the money supply appeals to some Canadians as a relief from immediate troubles. But at a time when wages, production costs and prices are all heading obstinately upward, the longer-term effect would be to worsen the whole competitive position of the Canadian economy.

"Canada's economic troubles don't stem from monetary policy, and monetary policy alone can't cure them. But monetary restraints remind us in concrete fashion that stability is of greater worth than the illusion of prosperity which comes from pocketing more and more dollars worth less and less."

Interesting Origin Of Everyday Terms

Commonplace Sayings Handed Down from Nautical Usage

"The devil to pay" is a familiar and often used term ashore and few people realize that it is one of many nautical phrases that have crept into civilian use from the navy and the sea.

The original expression was "The devil to pay and only half a bucket of pitch" and it becomes understandable when it is explained that the "devil" was the longest and most difficult seam in the ship to fill with pitch or "to pay".

Many other terms and phrases of naval origin are now used almost exclusively by civilians. "Point blank" once meant "aim at the bull's eye" for the word blank meant the bull's-eye or aiming mark of archery targets.

"Room (or no room) to swing a cat" has no reference to the animal but meant a low cabin with no enough headroom to swing the cat o'-nine tails.

Naval and seagoing terms can often be traced back for hundreds of years to words that no longer exist in their original meaning. For instance "bollard" is a deck fitting around which the lines are secured and it comes from an Anglo-Saxon word meaning tree. The word "captain" is from Saxon "caput", which was a title of honor first conferred by King Athelstan. "Ensign" is from old Norman "enseigne" and Anglo-Saxon "segne", each meaning a flag. From the same root is the word "signal", which was borrowed from the army in the 16th century.

Naval terms, as may be expected, show the sailors' contact through the years with many nationalities. Latin "mensa" and Spanish "mesa", both meaning table, gave the word "mess"; Dutch "schipper", meaning captain, gives the slang term "skipper"; from the French "davier", to lift, comes "davit", a small crane for hoist. The word "sailor" is from old English saylor.

Old army terms are also common since in early times sailors merely brought the ship from place to place and soldiers were carried onboard to do the actual fighting. Indeed when ships began to be converted from merchant to fighting ships their upper works, both fore and aft, were designed like castles and forts ashore. From this design came the logical terms associated with each part of ship: "forecastle" or focs'le for the forepart, and, although it was never used, "aftercastle" for what is now the quarterdeck.

75 YEARS AGO

Sept. 8, 1882 —

Six cars of a lumber train crossing the C.P.R. bridge at Ste. Rose went down into the river, when the first pier of the bridge collapsed last Wednesday.

Messrs. Campbell, Campbell and McKenzie will send a gang of men up to their limits on the North River next week.

The Fall Show of the County Agricultural Society will be held in St. Philippe (Muddy Branch) on September 27.

Miss Rodger, lately returned from the Indore Mission in Central India, will hold a meeting of ladies in the Victoria Hall, Lachute.

Mr. Joseph Palliser, blacksmith of St. Andrews, died suddenly on Tuesday.

The contract for building the St. Andrews Branch R.R. has passed from Mr. Seneeal into the hands of C. N. Armstrong. Mr. Chisholm is expected to superintend the work, and we shall soon be hearing, "All aboard for St. Andrews!"

50 YEARS AGO

September 13, 1907 —

Mr. Wm. Howard has resigned from his position as superintendent of J. C. Wilson Co.

Miss Nettie Giles has returned to Stanstead College.

Mrs. Charles King left recently for Port Arthur to join her husband, where they intend making their home in the future.

A serious situation has been created in B.C., following violent encounters between members of the Asiatic Exclusion League and Chinese residents in Vancouver.

At the Town Council meeting it was agreed to lower the hill on Foundry Street by two or three feet. A quotation on a steel-cage cell for the proposed jail was read and considered.

25 YEARS AGO

September 8, 1932 —

It is interesting to note in The Watchman file of 50 years ago, Messrs. C. T. Wales & Co. of St. Andrews were celebrating their 50th anniversary in business — which implies that this same firm, now operating under the name of C. T. Wales & Son, completes this month a century of successful operation as a general store. As one old county enterprise to another, The Watchman extends hearty congratulations to this venerable and long-established concern in St. Andrews.

Mr. Russell Rodgers is the proud possessor of a tomato plant which has produced 60 tomatoes from the one stalk. These are all well shaped and are in clusters similar to grapes. This, we believe, is a record.

Alert of intellect and still vitally interested in the affairs of the day, Mr. Robt. Jones, 93, of St. Andrews East, appeared in town this week, paying a friendly call on Mr. H. Slater.

ALL ABOARD
With G. E. Mortimore

Autumn seems to put me in a bad temper. My summer foliage of goodwill and tolerance begins to curl at the edges and turn yellow about the last week of August.

I find more things to get angry about than I did in mid-summer. Fatuous themes and redundant people seem to have taken over a large share of the newspapers and radio news bulletins.

For instance, I don't care when or whether the Princess of Monaco has another child. Not only am I indifferent to this topic, which a number of editors consider so important, but any mentfon of its stirs me to actual hostility.

The name "Grace" is a rasping breeze that sends the sap of human kindness (if any) running down to my toes, where it stays all winter.

I'm tired of Asiatic 'flu. I never thought the disease an endearing subject in the first place, but now I hate it. President Eisenhower was inoculated against 'flu the other day, the papers and newscasters announced. So what? Thousands of people get needles every day. No doubt the president has already been inoculated against everything from whooping cough to cholera. Do they call a press conference every time?

A mad Frenchman wants to marry Princess Margaret. There is nothing unusual about the idea. All kinds of other men would like to marry Princess Margaret, but our wives and the Princess are against it. Do we get in the news? No, and we don't want to. There is no reason why the Frenchman should grab a million dollars worth of free publicity.

I'm dead sour on any story about Princess Margaret's marriage prospects, or Queen Elizabeth's speaking voice, her advisors or her domestic problems as viewed thirdhand by lordlets and by yokels who don't know a queen from a jack.

In fact, I'm sour on so many news stories that I know there's something wrong with me. It isn't only the autumn. I must be growing old, along with the year.

I'm so eccentric that I would like to see a lot more time and space devoted to what is actually going on in the world, outside the corridors of the palace and the bedrooms of the movie stars. The men in white coats will be calling for me any time now.

WHAT WILL WE FEED THIS WINTER?

Now that most of you have finished threshing and have a nice bin of good quality grain, you will be figuring on what mixture you will use with it.

Your hay crop in general was below average, both in quality and quantity, so you will need to feed a little heavier on grain to make up for the lower-quality hay.

While oats are a splendid feed, they are only one source of protein, and you need several other grain sources, along with some animal proteins, to get the most value out of your oats.

Far too many are using Brewer's Grains for a big part of their proteins. Brewer's Grains do have a considerable amount of protein, but the protein is much the same as oats, and as it comes from barley, the carrier of the protein is mostly hull, and it is that hard for the animal to digest that its protein value is questionable.

The Purina Company used Brewer's Grains up until 1937, but by that time their research had shown it in its true light, so they discontinued it and haven't used it since. WHY NOT TAKE A HINT!

Purina has a feed for every condition, and all have many sources of protein. If you don't have grain, feed MILK CHOW or PROTENA DAIRY FEED, both 16%. For those with a fair amount of grain, they have COW CHOW SUPPLEMENT, which is 24%; you mix it one-to-one for 18%, or two of grain to one of Supplement for 16%. When they have a COW CHOW CONCENTRATE, which is 34%, and which you can mix one to 4 or 5 of your oats, which still gives you a 16%. This fits the man with lots of grain.

In this way you don't have a half-dozen piles of feed to mix or crawl around, and you do have a mixture that has everything needed to make you the most money. . . Won't you give us your order today?

"Will the mail be delivered soon?"

This is a daily question. . . We, too, ask ourselves some questions: Why are there a hundred homes still without a mail receptacle? Why do we still receive 70% of the mail improperly addressed? Here is a typical example:

Mr. and Mrs. John Doe,
Lachute.

How could we deliver a letter addressed like that?

All your correspondents must therefore be advised promptly of your civic number and the name of your street. This is most urgent.

Most of the postal boxes will be closed by the end of the week — so your box number is obsolete, and furthermore, it will be confusing for mail sorters.

I am convinced that, as usual, you will show good will and co-operation. It is YOUR SERVICE. Get the very best out of it!

On Memorizing Poetry

Sunday I like to take grandma and the kids for a car ride, and this last Sunday grandma got me started on a wonderful new hobby.

Something in the country scene made her remember a verse from an old Grade 4 text book, and she recited it verse by verse, all the way through. When she'd completed her recitation, I began, "I read the phrase, or heard it said; the stalwart phrase, with meaning rife . . " and I found myself able to recite the entire poem by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, although I'm sure I haven't seen it since I was a lad.

We batted it back and forth, lines of poetry and remembered prose, as we drove through the Manitoba landscape. We enjoyed it, and so did the youngsters.

At home, that evening, we started again. We both have a pretty good memory, and we spun out quite a few ancient poems.

My son, Bill, said, "Gee . . . we get enough memorizing at school. What's the use of learning all that stuff by heart when you can read it any time you like?"

Grandma and I both had a go at explaining why it is worthwhile to learn a lot of poetry and prose by rote. We both admitted that we'd fought against it while at school, but that we're both glad now that teachers in those days persisted in grinding the stuff into us.

"Oh, yeah?" said Bill, with the sharpness of youth, "how many poems have you memorized since you left school? How many?"

Both grandma and I had to admit that we'd scarcely memorized a line. In my wallet I had two or three modern poems, clipped from Atlantic Monthly, but I hadn't taken the trouble to memorize them. I'd thought that perhaps I was getting on a bit in years for that sort of thing.

But just for fun, the next evening, I slipped away to my den for an hour, and I memorized a poem. I was surprised at how agile my memory still is, when I put my mind to it. And now, I have another little gem of beauty ready on call whenever the right occasion or some passing thought evokes it. It is about Winter in the City, so it is likely to come to mind often.

Grandma was impressed with my effort, and now she's busy, too, putting a few more gems in her jewel-box of memory.

Maybe you ought to try it, too. Might start a new hobby around your home . . . a better hobby, I'm inclined to think, than staring at television every night.

Sudden Death of Wilson Mill... Employee

The Late Wm. Frank Hazel

Suddenly on August 29, at his late residence in Lachute Mills, William Frank Hazel passed away at the age of 43 years. He had been in comparatively good health, and his sudden passing came as a severe shock to his wife, relatives and friends.

A son of the late James H. Hazel, the deceased was born in Brownsburg, where he spent his earlier years in the employ of C-I-L. Later moving to Lachute, he had worked with the firm of J. C. Wilson Ltd. for the past 12 years.

The late Mr. Hazel is survived by his wife, the former Mae Doucette; his mother, Mrs. James H. Hazel; three sisters, Mrs. D. Beers (Irene), Lachute, Mrs. H. Smith (Eva), Dalesville, Mrs. K. Watson (Myrtle), Cornwall; and three brothers James E., Wyman and Herbert, all of Brownsburg.

The funeral was held at 11.30 a.m. on Saturday from the Lachute United Church, the Rev. Wilson Bridge conducting the service.

Calumet Lady Was Long-time Resident And Church Worker

Late Mrs. T. G. Foreman

One of Calumet's oldest residents, Mrs. T. G. Foreman, passed away suddenly on August 23 at the residence of her eldest son on Slavery Lake, at the age of 75 years.

She was the former Emily Margaret Brigden, of Calumet, daughter of the late Alfred Brigden and his wife Elizabeth, who were among Calumet's earliest settlers.

Mrs. Foreman will be sorely missed by the people of the village, with whom she was a popular figure. She was one of the original founders of Holy Trinity Woman's Auxiliary in Calumet, and was president for many years. She was president of the Bible Society, and to the time of her death was a regular participant in all church functions.

The late Mrs. Foreman was predeceased by her husband in 1940.

Left to mourn her loss are five daughters—Mrs. R. D. Mott (Vida), of Montreal; Mrs. G. B. Murphy (Molly), Mrs. M. R. Robinson (Edna), Mrs. H. Druce (Ellen), and Mrs. R. White (Anne), all of Calumet; three sons, Banks and Thomas, of Calumet, and Laddie, of Sherbrooke, Que.; also 20 grandchildren; a brother Albert, of Grenville, and many nieces and nephews.

Services were held in Holy Trinity Church, Calumet, the Rev. P. R. Stote and the Rev. A. E. Hawes (of Valois) officiating. Interment was made in St. Matthew's Cemetery, Grenville. The pall-bearers were her five sons-in-law and a grandson.

Births, Marriages, Deaths, etc.

Births, Marriages, Deaths, and In Memoriam, etc., $1.00; 5 cents per type line extra for verses, with In Memoriam (estimate 8 words per type line).

BIRTHS

COULSON — At the Hotel Dieu Hospital in Levis, Que., on Sept. 1, 1957, to Sgt. and Mrs. Ray Coulson (née Janet Fountain) of the RCAF Station, St. Sylvestre, Que. — a son, Peter Ford (7 lbs. 10 ozs.) Both well.

DEATH

HAZEL — Suddenly, at Lachute, Que., Aug. 29, 1957, William Frank Hazel, beloved husband of Mae Doucette in his 44th year. Funeral held from Lachute United Church on Saturday. Interment at Lachute Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

CHAMPAGNE — In loving memory of my dear husband, Felix, who passed away Sept. 11, 1949. — Ever remembered by his wife, Dolly.

"It's been a lonely life without you,
Thoughts of you are ever near;
And when the evening shadows fall
That's when I miss you most of all!"

CHAMPAGNE — Wonderful memories of our dear Dad and Grandfather, Felix Champagne, whom God took home to rest eight years ago today, Sept. 11. — Always loved by all the family.

"Sleep on, dear Dad, your work is done,
Your toil is o'er, your crown is won.
How sweet to sleep on that blessed shore
Where pain and sorrow are no more."

EVANS — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Ernest, who passed away Sept. 6, 1954. — Always remembered by his wife, Margaret, and daughters, Greta, Ada and Lillian.

"Deep in our hearts the memory is kept

Death – A Door to What?

What do the Sriptures say about Survival after Death ?

Is the belief that departed spirits hold intercourse with human mortals by means of physical phenomena based on a reality? Can mediums communicate with the dead? Does spiritualism hold the key to unlock death's door and peer into the realm of a hereafter? Is spiritualism's use of the Bible authentic, or is it just a lure, a disguise? Do the Scriptures uphold the teaching of human immortality, or do they strike at the very foundation underlying the spiritualist movement? Why are world leaders turning to spiritism? What do the Scriptures say about "survival after death?" Do you know? You can! Read this power-packed 96-page booklet by sending 10 cents today for your copy, to — 150 Bridgeland Avenue, Toronto 10, Ont.

QUESTION:

Did John the Baptist, also King David, go to Heaven at the time of their death? Find the answer in your own Bible, at Matthew 11, verse 11, and Acts 2, verse 29, 34.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

Farewell and Presentation To Southern Visitor, Lachute Pastor Returns

The Rev. and Mrs. Wilson Bridge and son arrived home safely after a pleasant stay in North Carolina, where they received a most cordial welcome.

A large congregation greeted the Rev. Mr. Bridge at the morning service in Lachute United Church last Sunday, and a brief outline was given of the month's activities during the interchange of pulpits and pastorates.

The Rev. Dr. Raphael Michael gave his farewell sermon to a well-filled church the previous Sunday, when he took as his theme, "Excuses". He pointed out how ready people seemed to be in making excuses, but he emphasized that there was no excuse whatever for a person not being a Christian, accepting Christ as their personal Saviour, and supporting the church of their choice. Mrs. Michael assisted in the service with a vocal solo, Mr. Wayne Riddell officiating at the organ.

On the Thursday evening prior to their departure, a reception was held for the Michael family in the church basement. Mr. Stuart Armstrong acted as chairman, and with Rev. Ralph Watson made reference to the happy exchange which had taken place. Mr. Chas. Duncan also spoke of the many new friendships that had been made, and how the visitors had endeared themselves to the congregation. A presentation of two beautiful Ayers blankets was made to the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Michael, while their two daughters received attractive brooches from their teen-age friends.

Dr. Michael, in accepting the gifts, said that this had been a wonderful experience for him and his family, and he referred frequently to the kindnesses that had been extended them and the hospitality which had been theirs to enjoy.

Refreshments were served by the ladies of the congregation and a social hour was spent in visitation.

Ministerial Association

The Argenteuil Protestant Ministerial Association are resuming their monthly meetings. The group will meet September 9 at the United Church, Ste. Adele en Haut, at 10 a.m. The president, the Rev. H. G. Baugh, will be the speaker. All Protestant ministers in the county are invited to attend.

Harvest Festival Celebrated at Lakefield

Lakefield — The annual "Harvest Home" festival was held Wednesday, August 28, at Lakefield — the service starting at 11 a.m. Canon C. W. P. Baugh, assisted by his son, the Rev. H. G. Baugh, conducted the devotions. Guest speaker was the Rev. R. M. Turpin, M.A., of Buckingham, Que. His theme was "Thanksgiving". Mrs. C. W. P. Baugh, at the organ, played harvest hymns.

Luncheon was served afterwards in the Gibb Hall, by the W.A. members.

Mrs. Baugh wishes to thank all members and friends who helped to make this annual function a success.

Minister Wed Recently

The Rev. Richard Earl Unger, pastor of the Brownsburg Pentecostal Assembly, and his bride, the former Margaret Agnes White, of Winnipeg, who were married August 10 in the latter city.

Unger - White

Calvary Temple, Winnipeg, was the scene of a pretty wedding recently, when Margaret Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman White, and the Rev. Richard Earl Unger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter R. Unger, were united in holy matrimony. The Rev. H. H. Barber officiated. Miss Marilyn Gillies presided at the organ and Mr. Robert Brown was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length gown of embossed nylon over taffeta with a bouffant skirt. The bodice, featuring an empire waistline, had puffed sleeves trimmed with rhinestones and white velvet bows. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a bandeau headpiece studded with iridescent sequins and trimmed with two cloverleaves. She carried gardenias, deep blue cornflowers and baby's breath.

Attending the groom was Mr. Howard Unger as best man, while Raymond Unger and Bruce Brand ushered the guests.

Following a reception held at the Business and Professional Women's Club, the couple returned to Brownsburg to make their residence — the Rev. Unger being pastor of the Brownsburg Pentecostal Assembly.

The bride is a graduate of the Winnipeg General Hospital, 1953. The groom is a graduate of the Eastern Pentecostal Bible College, 1955.

Local Couple Wed Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Robert Harland, whose marriage was solemnized in Lachute United Church on August 31. The bride is the former Eileen Elizabeth Janet Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Noble, of Thomas' Gore, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harland, of East Settlement. The couple will reside in Lachute.

Canadian Television Is Five Years Old

Network Televison has grown more rapidly in Canada than in any other country and soon the microwave connections will stretch from sea to sea, forming the longest such network in the world. At present the connected network spans the country from Quebec City to Saskatoon.

Across Canada 42 stations are in operation, and three new ones are expected to go on the air within the next few weeks.

Montreal produces more French-language TV programs than any other centre in the world. Toronto ranks next to New York and Hollywood in English-language TV production.

Talent employed in network productions last year — radio and television — cost about 11 million dollars. Of this sum, seven-and-a-half millions were for television talent.

The impact of Canadian TV is starting to be felt in other countries. The BBC has already purchased about three dozen Canadian TV drama productions in film-recorded form; Australia has asked for 12. Enquiries have come from Germany, Sweden, Finland, Japan, and South American countries. Negotiations are expected to start soon with France, Luxembourg and Belgium for the sale of French-language programs produced by the CBC in Montreal.

The first Canadian TV station was CBC's Montreal transmitter and production centre — CBFT, which began operations on September 6, 1952. The first independent TV station to open was CKSO-TV, October 20, 1953, in Sudbury.

Back To School

This is the time of the year when school kids start another ten months of trudging off to school every morning. Tony Conley is probably more anxious than most youngsters, because he is starting school for the first time and won't even give his mother, CBC actress Corinne Conley, a chance to finish coffee before setting out.

LANDMARK GOES

Fort MacLeod, Alta. (CP) — The original American Hotel, built around 1890, has been razed to make way for a new hotel. The old landmark had a real stand-up bar in the early days.

CBC Symphony Orchestra Invited Overseas

Ottawa — The CBC is considering invitations from three European capitals for concert engagements next summer by the CBC Symphony Orchestra.

In making the announcement, Charles Jennings, CBC controller of broadcasting, said acceptance of the invitations would result in engagements at the Edinburgh International Festival, the London Promenade Concert series, and the Brussels Universal and International Exposition. It would mark the first overseas appearance by a Canadian symphony orchestra. The CBC Symphony has just completed engagements at the Stratford Shakespearean Festival in Canada.

If these engagements can be undertaken by the orchestra it is planned to include concerts in several other European countries to round out a two-week concert tour. Such a tour would start on the Continent in the latter part of August, 1958, and finish in London early in September. The London engagement would mark the first appearance by an orchestra from outside the United Kingdom at the London Promenade Concert series.

A decision will be made within the next few weeks concerning the Orchestra's 1958 plans and an announcement will be made at that time.

"Radisson" Series Sold for U.S. Television

Gunnar Rugheimer, director of sales for the Commercial Division of CBC-TV, announces that an agreement has been completed for distribution of the adventure series "Radission" to the Lakeside Television Co., Inc., of New York City.

The agreement gives Lakeside world distribution rights to the CBC-produced series, with the exception of Canada.

Beginning September 22, the series will have its first run in the United States on WPIX-TV, New York. For export purposes, it has been re-named "Tomahawk — the Adventures of Pierre Radisson."

In this first package, 26 episodes are included, with an option to take more at the end of the season.

Where Does Santa Claus Live in the Summer Time?

- by Ethel Kettyle -

We usually connect the life of Santa Claus with snow, ice, cold winds and — perhaps stormy weather. We have always imagined his home to be in a cold, remote region. We have pictured him journeying through huge snowdrifts in December, bringing gifts to all who have been good during the year. But have ever thought of how he spends the summer months? Or did you know that you can visit him in his very own home, in his own village?

Not far from this community, nestling high in the Laurentians, is a green valley surrounded by hills and mountains, and here we find Santa's domain. Even though he may be on a summer holiday, he seems to want people to know where he is. For high on the hillside is a wooden replica of him. Somehow, it gives one a thrill to see him standing there, looking as bright and jolly as ever. Even though it is in the heat of summer, he apparently intends to stick to his traditional costume of red flannel and white fur. Yes, there he is. Standing like a king of all he surveys, but with the jolly twinkle still in his eyes.

Let us pause and find out all about it. Why, it actually is the village of Santa Claus (or Père Noel)! The green valley where he lives is surrounded by a high fence, painted in colors of blue, red, white, yellow and green. As one enters the village, it may well remind one of Disneyland; for here in the valley is green grass, tranquil pools, shade trees and walks made of white pebbles. First, one comes to a pond of water where ducks swim gracefully on its blue surface. Close by are baby bears sleeping snugly in their small houses, and in a fenced-in pasture a pony canters gaily around. All about the premises are small white kids, goats and lambs, while bunnies hop all around. A stately doe walks gracefully about with her little ones, who peer timidly at each stranger.

People loiter in the Gift Shop; in the Game House and in the Amusement Building, where children ride the Rocket, try to stay on the bucking bronco and take trips in the speedboat, Miss America.

On we go to the Post Office, where picture post-cards of Santa and his village may be procured and mailed to friends. From there we proceed to the miniature chapel, where the traditional Manger Scene reposes in a rustic setting. One is here told to "Close the eyes; make a wish; ring the chapel bell" — and the wish will come true.

As one continues along the walk, a huge "bear pit" comes into view, and there sits Mama Bear, looking rather ferocious, in the shadow of a great rock.

However, the most important visit while touring the village, is to the home of Santa Claus or Père Noel. As one climbs the steps and enters the rustic building set among clusters of green trees, one can imagine the emotions of a young child about to meet the great benefactor of all children. Even an adult may be curious to find out what kind of an old fellow he actually is in his own home. Will he be fat or thin? Friendly or glum? Talkative or quiet?

At last — here he is! Tranquilly sitting in an old-fashioned rocking chair — and he must be rather tired, for he does not have too much to say. Oh, yes — he has that jolly twinkle in his eyes and his hair and beard are as white as ever. He still wears the traditional Christmas costume — but he does seem tired. No wonder he is tired — for it is a warm day, and beside the old rocker, is a huge red sleigh filled with packages of every color, kind and size. Santa really has been working. But where is Mrs. Santa Claus? We do not see her around. Perhaps she is taking a nap! But in her place is a pretty French-Canadian girl, who chats with us in a friendly manner.

I remark on what an interesting story "Santa Claus Village" would make and she invites us to meet the manager, for even though she is the owner's daughter, the manager could give more detail on "Old Father Christmas" for naturally, Santa, like every other business man, needs helpers.

Soon we were in the manager's office, where he courteously ordered coffee. While we drank the coffee, he told the story of how this idea of a Santa Claus Village in Quebec Province came to Mr. J. Mercher and his friend, Monsieur Réal Rousseau, of Montreal. The spot in the Laurentians was chosen for his home, and Monsieur Gelinas was selected as manager. The owner's daughter at times worked in Santa's home, assisting him in many ways. She even takes pictures of the visitors, upon request. What a pleasant job Miss Denyse Rousseau must have — one which might be envied by many young people. Just sitting in Santa's abode day after day, and knowing all about the gifts each little boy and girl is going to receive at Christmas.

Nor must we forget the restaurant which is located in Santa Claus Village. It specializes in delicious steak dinners, rather than turkey. Perhaps in the summer time a steak dinner lends variety rather than the traditional old menu.

We are told that Santa has another home called the "North Pole", which, strangely enough, is situated near the popular Lake Placid in U.S.A. — and why not? For don't many real-life people own two homes, even if one is only a summer home?

On this summer's day, while one enjoys the unusual sights, high among the green trees are loudspeakers; and all day long come the melodies of old Christmas hymns and songs wafted through the hills —"Silent Night"; "Oh, Come All Ye Faithful"; "Little Town of Bethlehem", and songs such as "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town."

LABOR OF LOVE

Surrounded by files and figures, Sgt. Bernie A. Brennan of Aylmer, Ont., and Bathurst, N.B., copes with a problem that for him and all members of the Canadian army is a labor of love. The recent pay raise for the army has created many hours of work for the pay corps. Every soldier's paybook and pay documents must be altered to reflect the increase. The pay staffs across Canada are spending long hours preparing for the forthcoming big pay-day.

Optometrist Offers Advice to TV Fans

Following are hints for televiewers, furnished by a local optometrist in the best interests of sight conservation:

Turn or place antenna for the best possible reception.

Avoid too brilliant projection on TV screen.

Do not wear sunglasses. Better to reduce light on the screen.

Avoid long periods of watching TV image.

Sit with a distance of at least 10 feet between your eyes and the screen.

In case of visual discomforts, consult your optometrist or eyesight specialist.

Your sight must last a lifetime; preserve it as your most precious asset!

Shower Held for Bride-Elect

Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Melbourne Young, Mrs. Earl MacLeod, grandmother and aunts of the bride-elect, Miss Rubena Young, of Montebello — gave a shower in her honor Saturday evening. About 100 guests were present, and the gifts were beautiful as well as useful. Miss Young's marriage takes place September 28 to Mr. Alvin McVicar, who is serving in the Air Force.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ball and daughter, Maureen, spent the holiday at their cottage.

Mrs. Leslie Bates, of Lachute, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Farrara and daughter, of Montreal, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. E. Provencal on Sunday.

Mr. J. M. Doherty, of Montreal, spent Sunday at his home here — leaving Tuesday for a trip to New York.

Visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Tomachevsky's on Sunday were — Mrs. S. Truhine and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Truhine, Mrs. Winnick and son, Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Tardiff and family, Mr. A. Tardiff, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Arthurs and family, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Mahon, of Vankleek Hill.

Miss Barbara Andrews, of the Civic Hospital, Ottawa, was the guest of her parents over the week-end.

St. Andrews East

Miss Irene McLure, of Westmount, spent a few days with the Misses Wales last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Parker have returned home after visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Parker, at Brockville, Ont. They also spent a few days in Montreal.

The many friends of Mrs. Rejall wish to express sympathy to her in the loss of her sister, Mrs. Parsons, last week.

Mrs. J. J. MacIntyre is visiting her niece, Mrs. W. R. Jeffrey, for a few days.

Mr. P. Hall returned last week from an enjoyable motor trip through the Maritime Provinces.

Miss Elizabeth Wales, Mrs. David Shugar and Miss Barbara Shugar, were week-end guests of the Misses Wales. On September 10, Mrs. Shugar and her daughter expect to fly to Paris to join Dr. Shugar, who will be attending the UNESCO Conference in that city.

The many friends of Mrs. Chas. Hyde were sorry to learn of her serious and painful accident last week.

Mr. Felix Hungerbuhler, of Blind River, Ont., and son, Tony, of Camp Borden, Ont., spent the holiday at their home here. Tony will be attending Sir George Williams College in Montreal this year.

Mrs. Wm. Neeland and children, Carol and George, returned to Thornhill, Ont., after visiting Mrs. Jas. Simpson.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Eaton were Mrs. M. Gosselin and Mr. Wm. Donohue, of Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Hamilton and daughters, Gail and Heather, of Rosemere, and Mrs. Robert Taylor and children, Wendy and Billy, of Montreal, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb on Sunday.

JOHN AT THE CIRCUS—MRS. JOHN SHOPPING

At the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto, Prime Minister Diefenbaker became part of the circus act when clown Jim Nelson perched on his knee. Mr. Diefenbaker admitted he had a chronic weakness for circuses. While he was watching the performers, Mrs. Diefenbaker had a more practical day—she went shopping for items for her new home in Ottawa.

Westward Ho!

By Lewis Milligan

"What do they know of England, who only England know?" wrote Rudyard Kipling. And what do they know of Canada, who only Eastern Canada know? Having just returned from a trip to the West Coast — my third in thirty years — I still contend that you are not a whole Canadian unless you have crossed the Prairies, threaded your way through the Rockies and gazed on the Pacific Ocean from the Uplands of Victoria.

Geologically, climatically and socially, Canada is three different regions, and it should be the aim of every Canadian to see the whole of it. Moving westward in the CPR train through the Precambrian hills of Northern Ontario and emerging from the wild bush and lakelands into the open Prairies is in itself a surprising experience of scenic transformation. The flat landscape, with its large farms, wheeled around the speeding train like a moving panorama illuminated by the level rays of the setting sun, which smote the farmhouse windows to gold, casting long shadows from the barns and silos. It was Holland on an immense scale. The only items missing to complete the Dutch picture were the dikes and windmills.

Travelling for endless miles over the vast plain of Saskatchewan (on the return C.N.R. line), I was suddenly awakened from a doze to find myself in the midst of the busy little modern city of Saskatoon. I felt as though I had alighted from an Arabian Nights' magic-carpet into an oasis. But Saskatchewan is no desert; it is a land of golden grain, and the only complaint I heard was that the farmers had too much of it in storage and could not transmute it into golden cash.

Crossing the border-line on the outward trip into Alberta, we came to a halt in the real western city of Medicine Hat. The scene on the wide end of the platform was a lively and colorful one, with Red Indians in full feather and cowboys and cowgirls on horseback in the rear. We were entertained with an old time barn dance to the droning strains of an accordion, accompanied by the staccato voice of an old cowboy calling-off to the dancers. At the close of the brief interlude the veteran cowpuncher addressed a few words of greeting to the passengers, assuring them of a warm welcome at any time by the people of Medicine Hat. "We're plain, open-hearted folk," he said. "We're Western!"

The transition from Saskatchewan into Alberta is noted by a gradual heaving of the plains into rolling country, rising into the foothills and the Rocky Mountains beyond. Calgary is famous for its annual wild west rodeo, but it was all over by the time I got there, and the city was anything but wild in appearance. Ideally situated in a wide valley, it is skirted on the West by a long highland, below which runs the broad Bow River, whose fast-flowing and ice-cold waters come down from the glaciers of the distant Rockies. Calgary is a thriving modern city and, so far from being wild, its citizens are said to be the most peaceful and law-abiding people in Canada. A young man from Toronto told me there was "no crime in Calgary." He said they only had one robbery last year. "What, no murders, and such?" I said. "Then what do the newspapers use for front-page headlines?"

My next stop was Vancouver. If Toronto is the fastest-growing city in the world, Vancouver is the next, for it has grown enormously in the past decade. Situated at the bases of high mountains, its environs have spread in a semi-circle around the bay. The setting is spectacular, and all that Vancouver needs to match Edinburgh is a castle on one of the hills and broad Princess Street, studded with historic monuments. But Vancouver is not musing on the past, its face is turned seaward and eyes and mind are fixed on the future.

The trip on the gallant little C.P.R. Princess liner from Vancouver to Victoria is at once a pleasure and a voyage of discovery. It is a delight to watch the white gulls following all the way, weaving, diving and mewing over the foaming wake of the ship, like flying shuttles on a sunlit loom of memories. After the long journey over the plains and through the mountains, the voyage into the open sea is a refreshing and inspiring experience.

Standing on the Uplands of Victoria, I was reminded of those vivid lines of Keats' sonnet, "On First Looking Into Chapman's Homer" —

"Or like stout Cortez when with eagle eyes
He stared at the Pacific — and all his men
Silent upon a peak in Darien."

Until Louis XIV lured some of the craftsmen to France in 1666, the making of plate glass was a tight Venetian monopoly, reports J. D. Ratcliff in the September Reader's Digest. Men who knew the secrets of glass making were confined on an island near Venice. If one escaped, his family was imprisoned. If he was caught, he was put to death. A small mirror at the time was a suitable gift for a king

Both have a bank account - and a purpose for saving

The difference between reaching a goal and missing it can be the savings you put by, now, in a bank account.
Such savings don't just happen. They involve some sacrifice, definite planning. But as your dollars mount up you feel a sense of accomplishment, of getting somewhere, that makes the effort more than worth while.
Your bank account provides ready cash that can help take care of any emergency that may arise, or open the way to bargains or other opportunities. Whatever objective you may have in mind, and whatever use your savings may ultimately serve, you'll always be glad you saved.

Teatime Topics

Written Specially for The Lachute Watchman
By Mary Burke,
Canadian Press Staff Writer

It's a woman's world — at least the Canadian housewife in the not-too-distant future will have more time to make it so.

A miracle push-button kitchen shown at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto does everything electronically. It operates by remote control from a multi-dialed master control panel.

All you have to do is sit in a chair in front of the panel and decide whether you want to wash or scrub.

Push a button and a flying saucer-like apparatus scoots out from under a cupboard and scrubs the floor for you.

Time for dinner? Touch a button and all china is taken automatically from a cabinet, transferred to a self-propelled serving cart and taken to the dinner table.

Gone also are the back-bending days. Press another button and the refrigerator is lowered to the level you want it.

One feature that's the answer to every mother's prayer is a screen like a television set. Switch is on and you can see what the youngsters are doing in another room, or who's knocking at the front door, before deciding to switch on the electronic door-opener.

If this sounds not too startling, how about the automatic memory box? You dictate a thought or a message to a recorder, set the timer, and at the right moment the message comes back on a loud-speaker.

Planning meals is easier, too. With a swish of a dial, a menu appears on the screen, depending on the occasion you choose.

This whole operation has been a crowd-gatherer at the CNE. Some of the gadgets are already on the market, while others are still in the drawing-board stage.

Spending Wisely

With youngsters returning to school, now is the opportunity for parents to give their children lessons and practice in handling money.

A regular allowance is one of the best ways to start this important educational process, according to the Money Management Institute.

They advise parents to teach children about money matters by holding a family council to give youngsters a chance to discuss their money problems.

Also adjust their allowance according to their current needs, as when birthday or new school year expenses crop up. However, don't supervise them too closely, or you may take away the fun of having an allowance.

The Institute says that parents who give their children the opportunity of learning the value of spending money wisely are preparing them for a happier, self-reliant adulthood where money is a tool for achieving from income the things personally important to them.

New Flavor

To vary the flavor of vegetables, some economists advise adding herbs or spices.

Try rosemary, with potatoes, peas and turnips; savoury with green beans; thyme with beets, carrots and onions; mint with spinach; basil with tomatoes and tarragon with mushrooms.

Sandwich Makin's for Teen-Age Party

Essentials for a Dagwood Spread!

Something for the boys — and something for the girls, too! That's what teen-agers want when their thoughts turn to food and refreshments at an autumn get-together. When it's your turn to be hostess, you'll find that a Dagwood party provides good fun and good eating with almost no effort. Besides, it's easy on the budget.

Plenty of sandwich "makings", something tall, icy and delicious to drink — that's all you need for a bang-up Dagwood party. For the sandwiches, you'll need several kinds of sliced breads, soft butter, mayonnaise and a generous platter of assorted cold cuts and cheese. Several bowls of spreads — tuna spread, for example, and cheese spread — are sure to make a delicious addition to any sandwich. Then add a plate of sliced tomatoes and crisp lettuce, a bowl of olives of pickles, and let everyone make his own sandwich creation.

Here's a wonderful idea for that tall, frosty drink. To make it, you will need a pitcher a pre-cooled coffee, bottled cola and a pitcher of cream. When the gang gathers, this is what you do: Into tall, ice-filled glasses, pour about two tablespoons of cream. Now pour in coffee up to the halfway mark. Last, fill the glasses to the brim with cola and stir gently. That's all — your thirsty guests will do the rest.

In case you'd like to check up on the proper way to make iced coffee by the pre-cooled method, here it is:

Make coffee regular strength — one Standard Coffee Measure (or its equivalent, two level measuring tablespoons) of coffee to each three-quarters of a measuring cup of freshly drawn water. Cool in a non-metallic container for not more than three hours, or, if the container is tightly covered, chill in refrigerator. For regular iced coffee, serve in tall glasses with ice, adding simple syrup or sugar and cream to taste.

Let's Eat

BY IDA BAILEY ALLEN

TOMORROW'S DINNER
Cooked Vegetable Saladettes
Chili-Corn-Pepper Bake
Corn Muffins
Fruit Souffle Omelet
Hot or Iced Coffee or Tea Milk

All measurements are level; recipes proportioned to serve 4 to 6

Chili-Corn-Pepper Bake: Rub a low 3-pt. baking dish that can go to table with butter or margarine.

In it, arrange a layer of 1 (1 lb.) can chili con carne. Cover with half a (12 oz.) can of drained corn kernels, then with a layer of ¼ c. each grated sharp Cheddar cheese and minced green pepper.

Repeat with the same quantities until the dish is filled. Make the top layer cheese.

Top with 4 drained halved pimientos. Cover with aluminum foil.

Slow-bake 35 min., or until very hot, in a moderate oven, 375 degrees F. Uncover to brown lightly.

Fruit Souffle Omelet (Good dessert after a light main course): Mix 2 tbsp. powdered sugar, ½ tsp. salt, ½ tbsp. flour, ½ tsp. lemon juice and ½ c. orange juice.

Beat the egg whites stiff and dry. Fold into the first mixture.

Melt 2 tbsp. butter in a warm omelet pan. Turn in the omelet mixture. Cook over moderate heat. Lift the edges occasionally to allow the omelet to cook fully.

When done, slip under the broiler 2 min. to firm the top.

Canadian Women's Inst. Top Contributors to Indian Rural Betterment

Canada topped the list of contributors of UNESCO Gift Coupon for model centres to help the Lanka Mahila Samiti (Women's Institutes) with its work for the rural villages of Ceylon.

This item appears in the Federated News, publication of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, in its recent issue on the Triennial Conference of the Associated Country Women of the World, held this summer in Ceylon. It is quoted from a report prepared by Miss Rose Ducie, women's editor of the Western Producer, Saskatoon, one of the Canadian delegates to the Conference.

Miss Ducie goes on to say that Canadian Women's Institutes had given $14,575. Total contributions from all constituent societies of the ACWW amounted to $44,040.

While in Ceylon, delegates had an opportunity to see some of these model centres. Splendid work is being done and the L.M.S. is deeply grateful for the assistance Canada has given.

Questions Asked About Meat

By the Consumer Section,
Canada Department of Agriculture

Question: Can you freeze liver?

Answer: Yes, you may freeze any of the variety meats — liver, kidney, heart, tongue, sweetbreads, brains and tripe. Like all other foods to be frozen liver should be wrapped in moisture-vapour-resistant materials or packaged in special freezer containers. It may be frozen before or after packaging. If liver is sliced it is sometimes more convenient to freeze the slices flat on waxed paper on a cookie sheet, then wrap the meat and put it back in the freezer. It is not necessary to thaw liver before cooking, but if a coating of flour or crumbs is to be applied it will stick better if the meat has been at least partially thawed.

• • •

Question: How do you broil frozen steaks?

Answer: If steaks are thawed, cook the same as fresh steaks but allow about a minute longer on each side for good browning. Place steaks on cold rack of broiler pan so that top of meat is 7 inches from heating unit. Heat steak in this position until thawed allowing 7 to 8 minutes each side for 1-inch steaks. Then raise broiler pan so that steak is 3 inches from heating unit and broil on both sides, allowing the following times for 1-inch steaks:

Rare — 5 to 7 minutes.
Medium — 7 to 9 minutes.
Well done — 9 to 11 minutes.

A lot of time in the kitchen can be saved by keeping bread crumbs on hand for coating fish, poultry or croquettes for frying. To season combine 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs with 1 teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon peper. Blend thoroughly and store in a small jar.

Enjoy Pears At Their Best

When buying pears, look for fruit that is well shaped and without bruises or blemishes. If you're not going to use the pears right away, select some that are rather hard and allow them to ripen at room temperature. Pears are ripe and ready to eat when they are slightly soft at the stem end.

Be sure to take advantage of the texture and flavor of this fruit in a variety of dishes. Try sliced pears over your morning cereal or combine pears with raisins, chopped nuts or cream cheese in a refreshing salad. Consider too, the numerous dessert possibilities such as tasty fruit cup, pear upside-down cake, or pears baked the same way as apples. Betwen meals, young and old will find a pear an exceptionally satisfying snack.

You would be wise not to limit this fine fruit to fresh eating. Canned pears are delicious and will be a welcome addition to any meal as an appetizer, a garnish, a salad or a dessert. For Consumer Section directions for canning pears, write to the Information Service, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, Ontario, and ask for a free copy of "Home Canning of Fruits and Vegetables."

Pear Marmalade

10 Cups sliced pears, 6 cups sugar, 2 lemons, grated rind and juice, 1 cup preserved or candied ginger.

Place pears in preserving kettle in alternate layers with sugar, lemon rind and juice. Let stand 2 to 3 hours. Add ginger, bring to boil and boil uncovered, stirring frequently, until thick and clear, about 45 minutes. Pour into hot sterilized jars. Cool slightly and seal. Yield: about 6 cups.

Fashions

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Sooner or later most drivers get lost and have to ask directions. Here are some tips on asking questions so as to get the most helpful answers — and on listening so you'll remember them.

When you stop to ask directions, get out of the car and go over to the person you're addressing. After all, he's doing you a favor. Sitting in the car and yelling "Hey, you" is one way of not getting help.

Tell him where you want to go, giving as many details as you know. Mention names of roads, nearby towns, etc.

In listening to directions, concentrate on what the other person is saying — not on the next question you want to ask. Try to get visual symbols: "turn right at the big red barn just past the bridge" is much better than "It's the fifth road after the second red light." Don't accept milage figures alone: "turn left when you get to the service station — about two miles ahead' is better than "turn left about two miles from here. . . " Try to get specific road numbers. Ask if turn-offs are well indicated, and, if so, how. Ask names of towns you'll pass through so you'll be sure you're going right.

Repeat the directions to the person; then repeat them to your passengers.

And don't worry. You can always stop and ask again.

Schooling Is For Workers

(Copyright) — By NANCY CLEAVER —

"It is only the lazy students who fail to try, who are asked to withdraw from school. The school board has never yet asked a student to leave because he was having a tough time with his studies and receiving low grades. If a scholar is making an honest effort, he does not need to fear expulsion," Robert Warren, Calgary school superintendent, explained recently.

The spotlight is on the experiment being carried on for the past three years in this Western city. This plan originated when a report of school principals pointed out that there were students attending school who had no apparent intention of doing serious work. The school superintendent described these pupils as those who "occupied a seat, did no homework and handed in no assignments." These laggards, filling scarce classroom space, pulled down the morale of other students, and were a real problem to the teachers. Because of this unwillingness to work, the ratepayers' investment in their education seemed a very poor one.

Those watching the body of older students observed that many boys and girls with no interest in higher education, dropped out of school before the end of February. This was set as the expulsion deadline. During the past three years, almost eighty pupils in the sixteen and seventeen year age range who have remained at school and loafed consistently, have been given a "walking ticket."

How does this scheme work and what are the safeguards against unfair discrimination or hasty judgment? There are three basic stages. During the first two months in the autumn, the teachers are quietly observing the work habits of the scholars and listing those who are un-cooperative. Around the end of October certain parents receive a serious warning letter that their child is showing complete indifference to his school work. Mothers and fathers are requested to confer with the child's teacher, with the principal or with a counsellor. This first letter stimulates an improved attitude towards school work on the part of many pupils.

At Christmas, parents of children who have continued to be lazy scholars, receive another communication from the school authorities which has "teeth in it." There is a specific threat of dismissal by mid-February unless the boy or girl has a right-about-face. In the final move thirty-one students received "walking tickets" from Calgary upper grades in 1957. School officials were convinced that this plan produced better classroom morale and higher marks. They pointed out that some students doubled their average examination percentage. One pupil raised his average from 39 to 70.

What significance has this experiment for Canadians? In our country, is there a single teacher who is not plagued with laggards? This is one of the reasons we have a teacher shortage. What school board is unaware of adolescent scholars exposed to education who neither value it nor have any will to work at it? What parent is not concerned by the poison to a school atmosphere of those pupils who scoff at learning? Where can we find collegiate scholars who do not see that those who "fool around" month after month, pull down the effectiveness of their own education?

By the blue print for education laid down at Confederation nine decades ago, each province has the main responsibility for education. This allows for a variety of ideas and plans. Within each provincial area school officials test different schemes. The three-year trial of action, not just threats for lazy students, has convinced Calgary authorities that this is of real benefit to their scholars. Do you think this plan would benefit the boys and girls in your upper grades? Do the pupils in your schools realize that school is for workers?

Here's the new DIAL telephone

. . . you'll be using in LACHUTE next spring

Our men will start on their rounds next week to put in new telephones. They'll be glad to answer any questions and show you how to dial. Conforming to a continent-wide numbering system, all Lachute numbers will consist of an exchange prefix — "LOrraine 2" — plus four numerals. To call "LOrraine 2-4499", for example, you would dial "L-O-2-4-4-9-9".

The new extension to your telephone building has been completed, and installation of the complex dial equipment is proceeding on schedule.

Providing dial service in Lachute is part of our program to give you better service and greater telephone value.

National Agency 'With Personal Touch' Continues Work on International Scale

Unitarian Service Committee, Unique Canadian Organization, Now 12 Years Old

This is a very special week for a unique Canadian organization for on August 29, the Unitarian Service Committee was 12 years old. No cake, no candles, no speeches ushered in the 12th anniversary of this voluntary relief agency, for the day was no different from any other in its busy task of creating a better tomorrow. For the past one dozen years, the Unitarian Service Committee, from its Headquarters at 78 Sparks Street, Ottawa, has been quietly dispensing aid on behalf of Canada, to countless thousands in Europe and Asia, without regard to creed or nationality.

After 12 years of devoted service, the "agency with the personal touch" might justly pause to reflect on its accomplishments. Perhaps it is best remembered for its mass feeding campaigns which resulted in bread for Greece, milk, barley and codfish for Korea, keeping literally thousands alive during famine and the coldest winter months. . .

But those who remember most, and with deep gratitude, are the young and the old in the darkest corners of the globe, who have received Canadian assistance through the USC, and who can today look ahead with confidence.

On September 10, the USC will launch its 12th annual campaign for funds. To fulfil its ever-growing commitments; an overall objective of $175,000 must be reached by Christmas Day.

bulances will continue to bring vital

With this Canadian aid, jeep ammedical care into some of India's most remote villages, where many of the inhabitants have never seen a doctor.

In Korea, indigent beggar children, whose days now are spent in a struggle to keep alive, will have the opportunity to go to school, a precious privilege for a boy or girl with no family, no home.

In Greece, two northern villages will be completely rebuilt from the heap of rubble that remained following World War II and the bitter siege of guerilla fighting.

In Austria, 250 children look on Canada almost as a second home, for each day they come to the Canadian Children's Club in Vienna, for education, recreation and a hot meal.

In France, Austria, Italy, Greece, India and Korea, children of all ages and nationalities, but with common backgrounds of tragedy, now live normal, happy lives in 13 USC-sponsored orphanages and enjoy the loving affection of a Canadian foster parent.

Through the USC "Foster Parent" scheme, over 4,000 children have been cared for and given training for an independent future. It costs only $60 to "adopt" a Korean or Indian child for a whole year, with complete information about the boy or girl sent to the foster parent to make this long-distance relationship as real and personal as possible. Correspondence and small gifts are warmly encouraged.

Even the smallest contribution goes a long way to help this national agency to operate on a growing international scale, as it carries concrete assistance and new hope to those struggling against poverty, misery and disease.

Have You A Question on UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE OR EMPLOYMENT?

In this column we publish questions about unemployment insurance and employment, together with answers received from the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

If you are uncertain about any point do not hesitate to send us your question. We will obtain an answer and publish it in this column.

Following are some questions with answers which may be of interest to you:

Q. I paid into unemployment insurance for nine years and have been receiving benefit for eight months. I would like to know how long it will be before my unemployment insurance credit is exhausted.

A. The maximum period for which benefit is payable under the new Act is 36 weeks. However, if the amount of benefit that your contributions at 1st October, 1955 would have entitled you, had you been unemployed at that date, is greater than the amount you will receive in 36 weeks under the new Act, that 36-week period may be extended by the amount of the difference to a maximum of 51 weeks in all.

• • •

Q. Can a person who drives a school bus file a claim during the summer holidays and receive insurance benefits for that period?

A. Yes, provided he is ready, able and willing to work during the holiday period and he is not being paid holiday pay.

• • •

Q. I have not worked since my marriage three months ago. What conditions must I fulfill to receive unemployment insurance benefit?

A. Generally, you must work in insurable employment for at least 10 weeks following marriage. However, there are several circumstances under which it is not necessary to fulfill this requirement, and you should enquire at your local office giving full particulars.

OUT ON A LIMB

By Stumpy McCulloch

Fellow up the way a bit is real handy fixin' gadgets and gimmicks and things. Used to be popular, too. But he isn't anymore. Just a little thing, too. He fixed up his lawn mower with a coin device so that it takes a quarter to run it.

If you're thinking about retiring some of your land to permanent forest, one of your first problems will be how to select the land; leastways if you're like most of the fellows I know.

Well, sir, there are a few simple rules to follow which will kind'a make the decisions for you. First off, if the land is so steep as to make it difficult to till and encourages washing away of the top soil, plant trees. Forest will protect the soil.

If your soil is rocky, sandy or has heavy clay content, it probably won't even make good crop land or pasture. Retire such land to forest. Even if the soil will support crops or pasture, but at too high a cost, it makes more sense to plant trees.

Had myself a good chuckle the other day. I got a letter from this fellow down South who has a good-sized woodlot on his farm. Seems he uses his chain saw with the brush cutting attachment to cut brush for his goats.

Well, sir, the goats have gotten so used to the sound of the saw that every time they hear it the come a'runnin'. This kind'a tickled the fellow and he talked it up around the neighborhood.

Next things you know the chain saw distributor gets a letter from a magazine called the "Sheep and Gost Raiser," asking for an advertisement 'cause no goat and sheep farmer ought to be without one of them chain saws.

That's what I call being alert.

• • •

Talk about being alert and all that. I read where a real sharp logging company up in Boise, Idaho, put in a brand new idea: a mobile logging camp on wheels.

Seems they bought six big trailers consisting of bunkhouses, shower houses, cookhouse and shops. Each bunkhouse has five bunks; each unit is 28 feet long. Thirty men can be housed in the camp.

Sure makes me proud of forestry—it turns out some mighty fine products and some mighty fine thinkin'.

Highland Games In Canada

Old Scotland lived again at St. Anne's, Cape Breton, when Canadian pipers, dancers, and athletes of Scottish birth gathered August 4-11 for the Gaelic Mod.

In an article on Highland Games, the new Encyclopedia Canadiana lists the Mod, conducted since 1939 by the Cape Breton Gaelic Foundation, among several Caledonian games and festivals held regularly in several parts of Canada.

Another well-attended celebration is the Antigonish Highland gathering, which dates from 1861 and still is held each July at Antigonish. Gaelic singing is an additional feature of the occasion and a Scottish concert is held in the evening.

Among the earliest records of Highland games in Canada are those of the Caledonian Club of Prince Edward Island, established in 1838. Piping and dancing still are featured at an annual P.E.I. Highland gathering in August at the Charlottetown race track.

The Caledonian Society of Montreal, organized in 1856 and incorporated in 1870, holds annual Caledonian games on the CNR recreation grounds at Lachine. They include piping, dancing and amateur track and field events.

In Ontario, the games still are held annually by the Zorra Caledonian Society at Embro; the West Elgin Society of Dutton, and the Ontario Pipers' Society at Oshawa. There are also the Glengarry Highland gathering at Maxville, the Kinlock Highland gathering alternating between Port Arthur and Fort William, and a gathering at Sault Ste. Marie.

In the Prairie Provinces, Highland games date from 1906 at Winnipeg. They are an annual event on July 1, under the auspices of the Scottish Athletic Society of Manitoba.

The Saskatoon Highland games are held jointly in May by the Saskatoon Soccer Association and the Highland Dancing Association. At Moose Jaw, the St. Andrew's Society holds the annual games in July.

In Vancouver, Caledonian games have been held annually since 1886. They are organized by the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society and held August 1st in Stanley Park. On Vancouver Island, Highland games are held in conjunction with agricultural fairs at Duncan, Port Alberni, Saanich and Victoria.

Swimming Coach Aids Handicapped Children

Gus Ryder (left), world famous swimming coach is seen chatting with Douglas Phelps, a young victim of muscular dystrophy, and Dr. David Green, Toronto physician, who is first vice president of The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada, at the time of the organization's annual meeting. Mr. Ryder has just announced that he will again act as honorary chairman of the Association's 1957 campaign for funds.

During the past two years, with Mr. Ryder at the helm, and the assistance of hundreds of Canadian fire departments and other service organizations, nearly $500,000.00, has been raised by voluntary donations to begin an intensive research effort to try to find the cause, and it is hoped, a cure for this presently fatal disease. Already there are sixteen projects underway at various universities and medical institutions across Canada, and additional projects are scheduled to begin soon. Stepping up the program could save thousands of lives.

Gus Ryder's work with handicapped children and adults is well known and since The Muscular Dystrophy Association was formed three years ago, he has given freely of his time and effort to further its object. The bulk of the money raised is devoted to research at present, since there is no known cause or cure. However, three clinics are now operating to find the victims of muscular dystrophy and help them as much as possible.

QUEER FIND

RADAR, HELICOPTERS SHELVE SMALL CRAFT

Port La Tour, N.S. (CP) — Before the dawn of radar and helicopter rescues, shipwrecked sailors depended a great deal on small rescue craft operated out of tiny coastal villages for their safety.

One of these small craft, long since retired from active duty, is about 50 years old. Its shape and size are similar to a whaling craft. For many years the hardy, oar-driven craft operating at one of the most treacherous points on the Nova Scotia coastline — Negro Point — was a welcome sight, in many rescues.

As scientists perfected new means of protection it became evident that the village lifeboat was on its way out.

Edward C. Crowell, not wanting to see the valiant little boat forgotten altogether, bought it from the Department of Transport and had it transported to his home where it stands as a tribute to a bygone era.

Of the ten provinces, Newfoundland has the most miles of sea coast, and Quebec ranks second. Only Alberta and Saskatchewan do not border on salt water.

Satisfactory Note on Security Information

Ottawa (CP) —

Prime Minister Diefenbaker is satisfied that United States government agencies will not misuse security information about Canadians supplied by his government.

He told reporters that he accepts a United States note on the subject as an undertaking that such information will not be used in a manner unacceptable to Canada.

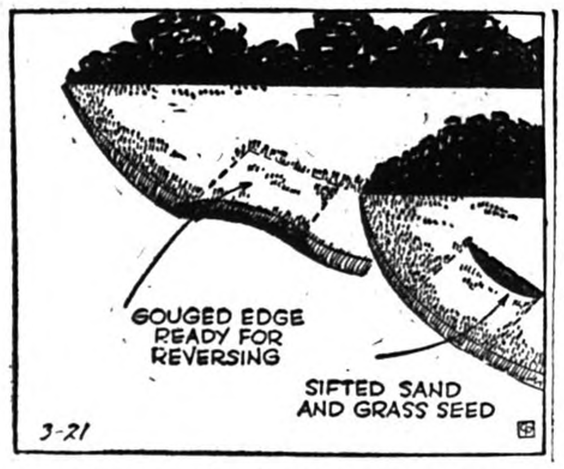

The U.S. note made public last week was the culmination of Canadian inquiries as to how information in a document concerning Henry Norman, former Canadian ambassador to Egypt, came to be made public by a U.S. senate internal security sub-committee. Mr. Norman committed suicide in Cairo last April following allegations that he once had been a Communist.

The note contained an implicit promise that information on Canadians furnished the executive branch of the U.S. government would not be distributed to agencies over which the executive has no control, without the consent of Canada. A senate sub-committee would be such an agency.

Mr. Diefenbaker said while the United States note is not explicit "it seems evident that the directive given United States agencies concerning their procedures in handling security information is consistent in substance with the assurance Canada has sought."

Garden-Graphs

By DEAN HALLIDAY

Turf makes an attractive edging for walks or driveways, but when melting snow reveals that over winter the grass edges have become gouged by being backed into by automobiles or delivery trucks or ripped by a snow plow, do not despair. A little spring tailoring will soon make the damaged edges as good as new.

The damaged section, indicated by arrow, should be filled in with sifted sand and generously reseeded with good grass seed, after which nature will quickly mend the patch.

Even if you are suffering from a severe case of spring-fever, don't make the mistake of rolling your lawn too early in your desire to smooth out the rough places.

It is a mistake to do any lawn rolling until all danger of freezing and thawing is past and until the ground is no longer soggy. If wet soil is compacted too much, the turf will be badly injured.

Rolling is recommended when the soil is moderately moist, for then many surface irregularities can be ironed out.

Plans Announced For Queen's Visit

Ottawa, Aug. 29 (CP) — Details of the visit of Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip to Ottawa October 12-16 were announced, and within a few hours there was a controversy.

Traditionally, the Governor General's Foot Guard, in peacetime a reserve army unit, provide the guard of honor for the Governor General at the opening of Parliament. They have been doing this for 50 or 60 years.

But when the Queen opens Parliament October 14, the guard of honor will be provided by the Regiment of Canadian Guards, a regular army unit.

The Foot Guards are indignant about not being able to provide the guard of honor at the opening of Parliament by the Queen, the first time in history that this will be done by a reigning monarch.

'Tossed Aside'

"They don't think we're good enough," said a senior militia officer. "For decades, in the snow and rain and sleet, we provide the guard of honor. When the plum comes along, we're tossed aside."

The honorary Lieutenant-Colonel of the Foot Guards is Hon. Brooke Claxton, former Liberal defence minister. He and other senior militia officers are understood to have made official protest to Defence Minister G. R. Pearkes and Lt.-Gen. Howard D. Graham, Chief of the General Staff.

The Queen, the itinerary shows, will make a national TV and radio address Sunday, October 13, at 9 p.m. EDT. On the following day the Queen will open Parliament, and her reading of the Throne Speech from the Senate chamber will be broadcast nationally by television and radio. The ceremony will start at 3 p.m. EDT.

Prince Philip will deliver a radio address but the time has not yet been set.

Queen Elizabeth will arrive at Uplands airport, outside Ottawa, at 4.30 p.m. Saturday, October 12. During the visit the Queen and Prince Philip will stay at Government House, official residence of Governor-General Massey.

Regional Workshop For Farm Forums

The third Regional Farm Forum Workshop will be held at Pine Lodge, Bristol, Que., on September 15-20 — as announced by Floyd Griesbach, National Secretary of Farm Radio Forum.

Each Farm Forum District in Quebec, except Pontiac, has plans made to send at least three officials for the entire workshop.

"How to adapt Farm Radio Forum to serve the modern community" and "A study of the skills necessary for the successful operation of Farm Forums" are the main features of the program.

Representatives of the Farm Forums in the Pontiac district are planning to participate in a special session Wednesday evening, September 18. The local representatives will experiment with the proposals developed by the workshop

School Year at Starting Post, Annual Opening Ceremonies

The High School opening ceremonies and prize distribution, last Friday evening in the school auditorium, ran true to traditional form. Parents who perennially attend this function must, consciously or subconsciously, hand a bouquet to the "old reliables" who pilot this institution and its protégés through year after year of exemplary progress. . .

Many of the old faithfuls were on the platform, in person or otherwise represented — School Board Chairman Jas. W. McGibbon; the Hon. W. M. Cottingham, who has done stupendous things for schooling in these parts; Principal Fred Royal, who with parental concern follows each brood of embryo citizens from Grade I to graduation.

Then there were the local clergy, representatives of the St. Andrews School Commission, well-known ladies and gentlemen representing the prize donors (notably the Women's Institute, the Legion, the Farm Forums, and individual donors), and lastly, one or two of the school commissioners including at least one of long and devoted service. Also on the platform, on this occasion, was a junior spokesman, Gail Dwyer, who voiced the thanks of her fellow pupils to the prize donors.

Chairman Jas. McGibbon, in welcoming the gathering, urged upon the parents a closer contact with their school board and with the teachers. He extended an invitation to taxpayers to attend the regular school board meetings and to express their views. Mr. McGibbon also made special reference to a bequest of the late Thomas Millar, revenues from which were assigned to the education of any child in stringent circumstances.

A newcomer to the school board, Commissioner Lorne Duncan, spoke on behalf of that body, pledging the best devotion of his fellow commissioners to the interests of the school and schoolchildren.

The Hon. Mr. Cottingham, in a reminiscent mood, recalled school opening ceremonies he had attended in the past half-century — previously held in church basements. He paid tribute to the long service of many of the school commissioners, past and present, and bespoke the hospitality and co-operation of the public towards this year's school teachers, both old and new.

Principal F. H. J. Royal made a significant remark in opening his annual report. "We should be thankful," he said, "that our school is not ringed by the National Guard, as it is today in Little Rock Arkansas." . . .

In the past seven years, the principal stated, Lachute High School has increased its complement of pupils from 570 to 670, without having taken in new districts, and also having cut back the age limit for entrance to Grade I not due to accommodation problems, so much as to a general recognition of increased receptivity in the child of slightly older age. At this rate of growth, the principal forecast that within two years, possibly three, it would be necessary to open classrooms in the school basement.

The teaching faculty this year numbers 28, of whom four are newcomers. Mr. Royal named the new teachers, their qualifications, and their functions in the school.

Last year's Grade X and XI results in L.H.S. were equal to the provincial average. "We do have and hope to have, better results than this," said Principal Royal.

The speaker commended the interest of certain residents planning to form a Home and School Association. "If the aims of this movement are followed, it will prove a great benefit here — to the school board, the teachers, and ultimately the children themselves. I personally pledge my support, and expect the school staff to do likewise."

The prize distribution occupied the major part of the program; and if meditative onlookers were impressed with the stalwarts who keep this educational machine in motion they would take note also of familiar names synonymous with many of the prizes and scholarships. Besides the annual contempararies who donate to the rewarding of worthy endeavor, the prizes in memory of old-timers recall many citizens devoted to the welfare of this school in the past — the late Messrs. G. F. Calder, Peter Thompson, W. M. Scott, E. H. Wilson, Walker, Ayers, Meikle and McBurney.

An innovation in this year's prize distribution was the presentation of three School Fair awards — the Lions Club trophy and an Ayers travelling mug to Grace Donaldson for the high aggregate winner, and a blanket to Edward Nicholls, second. Stuart Armstrong, as representative of the Farm Forum Council, made these presentations.

The Rev. C. R. Lang opened the proceedings with prayer, and the national anthem was sung in conclusion.

New County Warden

Mayor Léopold Charlebois, of St. Andrews East, who has been elected Warden of the County succeeding Gilbert E. Arnold. Mr. Charlebois was named unanimously to the office at the quarterly meeting of County Council, September 11.

Hon. Cottingham Inspects Roads Now Undergoing Repairs in County

The Hon. W. M. Cottingham, in company with Donald G. MacRae and roads engineers concerned, made an inspection tour Saturday over sections of highway which have been undergoing improvement.

The visit included a stretch of Route 31 near Lost River, the Louisa road, a stretch on the Lakefield highway (30), surfacing operations in Vide Sac, East Settlement, and near the McCall and Drennan properties on the north side of the river from Upper Lachute.

Insofar as the Dalesville-Louisa link was concerned, the extensive widening and filling operations were found satisfactory. With more funds made available through the Hon. Mr. Cottingham and the provincial department, the work-crews will be commissioned to continue this job to Cleary's Corner. The department will finance the gravelling of this widened highway to Johnson's Lake (the municipal line), and the Township of Wentworth, it is reported, will gravel the remaining two miles within the township limits. All this is in preparation for ultimate surfacing with asphalt.

Something of an experiment is under way in the Vide Sac surfacing — a cheaper operation which has been applied successfully in the United States. This method saves the setting up of an asphalt plant, and if observations prove it satisfactory, the same process will be used on the local stretches readied for surfacing.

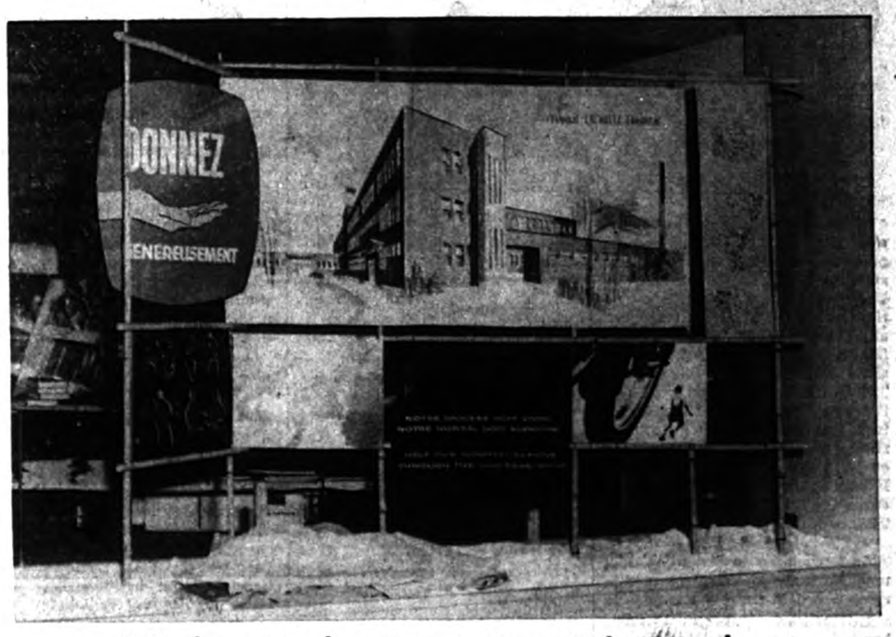

Both the Hon. Mr. Cottingham and Mr. MacRae considered the progress in all instances well worthwhile.

Two Cases Heard In Police Court; Disturbing Peace

Two cases of "disturbing the peace" were last Thursday brought before the Justice of the Peace, Georges Brunelle, when local Police Court was held in Lachute Police headquarters.

Jean Lalonde, 31, of Lachute, pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace in Chevrier's Hotel last month and was sentenced to a fine of $10 and costs or 15 days in St. Jerome jail for his first offence; he was also severely warned by Justice of the Peace Brunelle to avoid patronizing public places if he canot conduct himself properly. At first hearing the accused offered to restore the personal damage he had caused, by having a pair of eyeglasses repaired.

The second case involved Albert Normand, 37, also of Lachute, who reversed his plea of "not guilty" (August 27) and was sentenced to $10 plus costs for disorderly conduct on Fish's Bridge. At this time he had been found by a constable directing traffic and causing a general disturbance while intoxicated.

Window Display Boosts Hospital Appeal

Collaborating with the Diocesan Appeal in this area (Region 4) a Main Street business man Donat Saulnier, has given an entire show-window at Beaton's Pharmacy for this striking display. The layout depicts the future Lachute Regional Hospital and typical accident cases brought to such an institution for treatment. The new hospital is a prime objective in the canvass, through this particular section of the St. Jerome Diocese, and residents are urged to give generously to the cause.

RECORD SET AT BLOOD CLINIC IN FINE CO-OPERATIVE EFFORT

Response from Industrial Employees And General Public Proves Gratifying

"A big thank-you" is the comment of Dr. Eric Mongeon, this year's Blood Donor Clinic chairman, on the outcome of the appeal here last week. The two clinic days, Thursday and Friday, produced a net total of 544 blood donations from Lachute and district — and the response is the highest yet on record since Lachute became a separate district for the purpose of this appeal.

Last year, total donations reached 479, while the highest previous year was 1953, under chairmanship of Horace Lamarche, when 519 bottles of blood were collected.

The record of 544 donations in two days is creditable, insofar as the Red Cross Mobile Unit is equipped to handle only a maximum of 300 donors a day. It is gratifying also in view of a policy this year which rejects any donors who have suffered from jaundice. And to this curtailment one must add the fact that, of all days in the week, Friday is not rated as the most promising for a public response of this kind. Altogether, Dr. Mongeon's "big thank-you" roundly echoes the sentiment of André Gaulin, who has charge of the Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service, and who figuratively has his finger on the pulse of Lachute and the various communities visited by the Mobile Unit.

According to Dr. Mongeon and his right-hand counterpart, Ian K. Gordon (joint chairman and secretary) all aspects of the clinic organization ran smoothly, and warm acknowledgment is due to the many helpers — the medical and nursing attendants, clerical and canteen staffs, automobile drivers, and the many who donated supplies.

Mrs. R. Stephens, statistician and keeper of the records, enumerates a few of the firms contributing most creditably in donors. These include — Ayers Limited, J. C. Wilson Ltd., Dom. Prime Wood Products, Lachute Lumber Co., Lachute Flooring Reg., C-I-L, Gatineau Power Co., C.P.R., Farmers' Supply Co., Desrosiers Automobiles, Arc Supply Ltd., Bell Telephone, Lowe Bros. Dairy, Lachute Creamery Ltd., Long Sault Woodcraft (St. Andrews), besides most of the local banks, garages, hotels and stores.

In addition to these collective sources of supply, local housewives also responded well, according to Mrs. Stephens' records. Other appreciated contributors were a number of University students who were home or had not yet returned to their courses. The list shows 190 new names not previously on the donor records.

World Postal Union Delegates From 94 Countries Visit Here

A colorful and unusual sight was witnessed here Saturday, when delegates to the World Postal Union conference, presently sitting in Ottawa, stopped over en route from the Capital to Mount Tremblant.

Over 300 members of the party, travelling in nine Colonial Coach Lines buses, arrived around 11 a.m. and spent about 1-hour in town. The visit was directed by the Hon. Wm. Hamilton, Minister of the Postal Department, and W. J. Turnbull, deputy minister.

The delegates, representing 94 different countries, include many nationalities, religious sects, different hues of skin, different costumes and tongues. Most of them, however, have a certain facility in the French language, which is the official medium of the congress. The editor of L'Argenteuil, also representing this newspaper, was able to converse with many of the visitors, notably members from Portugal, India, New Zealand and Afghanistan.

For most of the visitors, this is their first acquaintance with Canada; they remark on the wonders and the vastness of this country. From August 23 to 27 they visited Toronto and the Canadian National Exhibition. From September 28 to October 2 they will visit Quebec and Montreal. Last week-end, as part of their acquaintance tour they enjoyed a visit to the Laurentians. This 14th quinquennial congress of the World Postal Union, with sessions in the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa, commenced on August 14 last.

As guests of the Catholic School Commission in Lachute, the party were received at l'Ecole Supérieure by Fernand Legault, Q.C., chairman of the board; Dr. R. Lavigne, Gerard Lefebvre, Albert Legault and Gaetan Leclair, commissioners; Réal Urbain, secretary; also members of the clerical school authority and teaching staffs. During this informal reception the visitors signed the civic Golden Book, and each received a maple leaf souvenir of their visit to Lachute.

Brownsburg School Crossings Patrolled By Junior Squad

Since the opening of school this fall Brownsburg Police Chief Wm. Lepine has taken steps for the protection of scholars attending classes, by the placing of young brigadiers at dangerous corners and intersections. A speed limit of 20 miles per hour is law in school zones and the youngsters on duty will be responsible for the control of traffic in their district. They have police authority and their judgment must be respected by law.

Further it is requested by Mayor Lepine that parents see to it that their children do not play in the streets and that they adhere to the 9 p.m. curfew. Children found disregarding the curfew will be taken to the police station where their parents will have to come for them.

Through the efficient work of the brigadiers last year, there were no serious accidents, and this was recognized by the presentation to Brownsburg of a certificate by the Safety League of the Province of Quebec.

It is to be hoped that a similar honor will be conferred next year but this cannot be without the help and co-operation of motorists, parents and the children themselves.

Shopper Appreciates Honesty of Teen-agers

A shopper lost her wallet Friday night on Main Street. Mrs. Coney, Sr., of Monalea, reports that the wallet contained an appreciable sum. It was dropped outside the Dominion Store, but thanks to the honesty of the finders, it was recovered by Mrs. Coney within 10 minutes.

It happened that a citizen, Thos. Stewart, overheard some teen-agers discussing their find, and uncertain what to do. He suggested that they report the matter to the police — which they promptly did. Mrs. Coney recovered her lost wallet from the authorities. She left a reward — but wishes it to be known, through this medium, that she warmly appreciates the honesty of the teen-agers, whose identity she did not discover.

Many Convicted as Prov'l Police Present Cases

The trial of Paul Emile Allard 25, of Carillon, who has been charged with breaking and entering with theft got underway on Tuesday of this week, being postponed to next Tuesday, September 24. Allard was charged in connection with the recent robbery at Cadieux Jewelry Shop.

Ronald Cross, 18, of Montreal was sentenced to a fine of $200 plus costs, his driving permit being cancelled for six months, when he pleaded guilty to driving while his ability was impaired. He was recently arrested in the Morin Heights area by local Provincial officers.

Aurel Latour, of Hawkesbury, was on Friday sentenced to time spent in jail (20 days) when found guilty of a charge of indecent exposure. A similar sentence was rendered in the case of Albert Normand, of Lachute, who was charged with stealing a watch in a local hotel. Both men were ordered to post bonds of $100 to keep the peace for a one-year period.

Montrealer Reni Saucier was fined $50 plus costs when found guilty of reckless driving charge and a local youth charged similarly had to pay the court costs, also being forbidden to drive a motor vehicle for a three-year period.

Stunt Flying, 50-Piece RCAF Band, Attractions at Sunday Air Show

A stunt-flying exhibition and 50-piece R.C.A.F. band are assured in the program of the Rotary Air Show being held this Sunday in an effort to raise funds for the Lachute Regional Hospital Drive. In attendance at the show will be Air Vice Marshall L. Wray, Officer in Charge of Air Defence Command and Air Vice Marshall (Ret.) Frank McGill, along with local dignitaries.

An ex-R.A.F. Fleet Air Arm pilot and former chief instructor at the Ottawa and Montreal Flying Clubs has offered his services in an exhibition of stunt flying for the show. The stunt-man has more than 6,000 hours flying time to his credit as well as some 25 years experience.

Committeeman Jack MacKimmie reports word has been received from Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, expressing his regrets at being unable to attend.

During the past two weeks, Flying Officer Labreche, of the Montreal R.C.A.F. Recruiting Centre, and Flight Lieuts. Bill Schramm and Ron Guden, of the St. Hubert Air Base, have assisted the local committee with plans regarding the ground display and the fly-past.

A cutaway Jet motor, offered by the Rolls Royce Company of Montreal, also Model Planes, and Para-Rescue equipment will be included among items on view in the Ground Display. The Air Show will include a helicopter and a possible parachute jump, as well as the R.C.A.F. jet fly-past.

Ground communications will be handled by the Lachute Artillery Battery, 37th Field Regiment.

Admission to the show, which opens at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children of school age, younger children being admitted free of charge. Free parking will be available to all.

This Carrot Grew The Hard Way

Rare things turn up as gardeners harvest their crops each year. Here is a carrot produced by Burns Kingsbury last week, from the vegetable patch at his home on Burroughs Street. This carrot sprouted its root through the screw-hole of an old hinge lying in the soil. It grew that way, apparently suffering little from the restriction around its middle.

Postmasters Receive 25-Year Awards

Mr. Urbane Tomalty, of Dalesville (left) and Mr. J. E. H. Guilbault, of St. Philippe (right) have been presented this week with 25-year medals for long and faithful service as postmasters. The recognition is given by the Postal Department.

Mr. Guilbault has seen many changes in the St. Philippe district since his establishment in business there. . . At Dalesville, Urbane Tomalty took over the store of the late R. S. ("Bob") McArthur, also becoming postmaster of the office operated in conjunction with the store. He has carried on this function ever since.

Postal Delivery Service Inauguration Monday

Postal delivery in the Greater Lachute area will be inaugurated Monday at 10 o'clock when Mayor Léopold Carrière will cut the traditional ribbon, starting the six newly appointed mailmen on the rounds. The service has been obtained through the efforts of Philippe Valois, Federal Member for Argenteuil-Deux Montagnes.

Mayor Carrière will be the first citizen to receive a letter under the new delivery system, after which the six carriers will start on their rounds. At 11 o'clock a reception will be held at the Town Hall for invited guests.

The six postmen have been busy all this week familiarizing themselves with the general routine of their jobs and it is hoped that every assistance and co-operation will be given them in bringing to our homes this new service.

The six uniformed couriers are Gérard Lauzon, Lionel Bélanger, Yvon Lemay, Gerald Dunne and John Wilson Black. G. Lauzon will serve temporarily as chief courier, and L. Belanger as rotating or relief courier.

Questioned on the co-operation he has received, Postmaster Guitard stated there are 90% of homes or premises now equipped with letter boxes, but that only a small percentage of residents have taken the trouble to advise correspondents of their proper address with street and number. In order to ease the difficulties involved in this change, and to facilitate the work of the postal staff, it is urgent that all citizens should take this step immediately. Specially printed postcards are available free at the post-office for this purpose.

Expected to be present for the opening of this service are the Hon. Wm. Hamilton, Post Master General, Philippe Valois, M.P., Léopold Carrière, Mayor of the Town of Lachute, Florian Guitard, local post master Mgr. Charles-William Lacourse, P.D., curé of the parish of Ste-Anastasie, the Rev. C. R. Lang, rector of St. Simeon's Anglican Church and Maurice Fortin, of Montreal, the director of ceremonies.

Brownsburg Scouts Plan Paper Drive

A salvage paper collection will be made in Brownsburg, Saturday afternoon, September 28, by the Boy Scouts Association, Brownsburg Group.

This collection will provide an opportunity for householders to clear out paper and magazines, in advance of Fire Prevention Week, and will also help the Boy Scout funds.

Argenteuil Outdoors

— By BOB ATCHISON —

Well, the fishing is just about over, for Trout, etc. But as I've said many times before, it's really just starting in the North River. The Perch will be getting better all the time now. Bass fishing is very good, along with Doré. Some very nice fish are being caught. A few fair-sized Northerns have been taken. The Muskies have been very slow this year. I'm no expert, but the oil that was being dumped into the river around St. Jerome sure played hang with the fish. Col. Emmett, Health Inspector, finally got it cleaned up, after a lot of hard work. Thanks to him!

As I promised in last week's column, here are my ideas on staying alive if lost in the bush. . .

This list of equipment to carry has all been tried and tested:

(1) A compass — a must in the bush. No one is that good in the bush that they don't need one.

(2) Waterproof match-box. You can make one yourself if you can get some 12-gauge shot-shells, used. Fill them with matches, cover with paraffin wax, and break them out as you need them.

(3) A good knife. Not a Fancy Dan type, but one you can cut nails with, not over a 5" blade.

(4) 15 Rounds of ammunition, no less.

(5) Good boots.

(6) Good clothing, to suit the weather.

(7) A canteen of water.

(8) Two chocolate bars, and raisins.

(9) A couple of fish hooks, and about 25 feet of line.

(10) Insect repellant.

(11) Spare socks.

(12) About 10 feet of light rope.

Now this may seem like a lot of junk to take. It only weighs about three pounds, so if you can't carry this with you, stay out of the bush!

Now, if you are lost, stay put when you find out! Light a fire and make it smoke plenty. If the fire rangers don't spot you, someone will. Don't wander all over the bush.

Fire three shots close together every hour. Don't use this attention-getter at night, as any search will be called off at night.

Build yourself a lean-to; and here's where the rope comes in. Cut a couple of forked sticks. String the rope into the V. Lace cedar limbs over the rope, and you have a snug little shelter. Put lots of cedar branches on the ground, and you have a nice snug bed.

For your food, there's lots of it in the bush. Rabbits, partridge, squirrels, woodchucks, and porcupines. O.K., you haven't got any pans to cook them, but they can be cooked on a spit very easily, or packed in sand, then roasted in hot coals. If you are near streams or lakes, there are clams, crawfish, frogs. These can be cooked in the coals also.

If you want vegetables too, there's plenty of them. Acorns are good, either as is, or made into a paste and roasted on the coals.

Pine seeds are good, Pond Scum — the green alega on the surface of water, is very filling and good tasting, either dry or cooked.

The young leaves off dandelions, clover, raspberry, etc. These are all good and there's no danger eating them. Cattails, bullrushes; use the roots and they taste just like potatoes. So take it easy, you won't starve!

• • •

Our old friend Clem, of the Sport Centre, is going up into the Gatineau for some fishing. So I guess we'll be hearing about it. I'd like to be going with him.

Before we get into the hunting season, please use your "Brains in the Bush".

Fish and Game Protective Ass'n Opening Meeting Attendance Low

The opening meeting of the Argenteuil Fish and Game Protective Association was held Monday evening in the Brownsburg Legion Hall with but 14 of the close to 300 members in attendance. Guest speaker at the session was Duncan Breese, Outdoors and Sports Editor with the St. Maurice Valley Chronicle.

In the absence of secretary Keith Graham, Harry White read the minutes of the June meeting, after which President Syd Drew read a letter of resignation from Secretary Graham. Mr. White was then appointed acting secretary of the association.

It was reported that the proposed purchase of property on Farmer Lake had fallen through and a list was compiled of public waters which the association is requesting be stocked by the government.

The opening of the hunting season brought out the fact that in order to keep property owners cooperating with hunters, it was a matter of courtesy to ask for permission to hunt and to be careful not to damage property when the permission was granted.

President Drew then introduced Mr. Breese who addressed the gathering on Light Camping, illustrating his talk with various items of his personal camping equipment.

The speaker went into considerable detail on canoe camping, giving valuable information on planning the trip; lists of camping and other items needed and the necessity of cutting down on foods, by using dehydrated foods and living off the country.

He stated that in his opinion, too much emphasis was being put on trout fishing and stated that no matter where he travelled during his many outings, he had never been refused fishing in private waters when he had first requested permission.

"Through my numerous trips into the bush exploring the country for interesting articles, I have become a bird watcher and while I am not a fanatic, I find it an interesting hobby," he stated, adding that on many of his trips he is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

In closing, Mr. Brese spoke on Indian traditions and religious customs; the value of fire prevention in the bush and touched on other subjects of interest to those in attendance.

A door prize was won by Mr. Atchison, Sr., and in closing, President Drew reminded members that the next meeting would be held in the Lachute Legion Hall on Monday, October 21, getting underway at 8 o'clock.

Brownsburg Rink Opens for Skating Saturday, Oct. 5

Brownsburg — At last week's meeting of the Community Rink Association, plans were made for the fast-approaching winter season.

The rink will open for skating on Saturday, October 5. The season tickets this year are slightly higher so that the Amusement Tax can be included. This year's schedule of prices is:

| | |
|---|---|
| Children | $6.00 |
| Adults | $9.00 |
| Children in family | $13.00 |
| Family and parents | $17.00 |

One-shot skating is the same as in recent years, at 25 cents for children, 50 cents for adults.

Mr. H. Jules Lemay will operate the rink canteen this year on a 50-50 basis.

Several members were charged with the responsibility of having specific repairs and improvements done to the rink property.

Colford's Continue Winning Streak

Last Wednesday, Colford's Lodge defeated the Montebello All-Stars 5-3 on their home diamond when Jean-Guy Larocque struck out eighteen of the twenty-four batters that faced him. Colford's struck for one run in the second inning and with the bases loaded in the fourth, Mel Stewart hit a grand slam home run to put Colford's in a safe lead. Montebello struck for three runs in the last inning, but were too late to start hitting.

Friday last Colford's edged Dominion Engineering Works in Lachine by the score of 8-5. Colford's were loosing by one run till the last inning when Charlie Mosely stole home to tie the game. The teams played two scoreless innings of overtime and then the locals erupted for three runs to sew up the game. Jacques Leveillé drove in André Pilon with the winning run. Mel Stewart hit another home run in the second inning with nobody aboard. His ninth of the year.

Next Sunday, Colford's play host to Seagram's All-Stars of Montreal. Game time 2 p.m.

Sportsmen's Associations Assure Wildlife Supply

Canadian sportsmen across the nation help assure their hunting and fishing resources and facilities through membership in fish and game associations.

According to the new Encyclopedia Canadiana, such associations operate on a province-wide basis everywhere except in Newfoundland.

In every province the sportsmen's organizations have achieved successes, especially in establishing mutually helpful co-operation between sportsmen and government conservation agencies and in bringing sportsmen's views before the public.

Associations of Canadian sportsmen interested in improving hunting and fishing began as early as the 1850's. Their membership has increased greatly in the past 25 years.

Although attempts to unite the provincial and other organizations in a national sportsmen's federation have failed, two regional organizations have appeared. The Western Canada - Yukon Fish and Game Council, formed in 1944, is maintained by the sportsmen's associations of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia and Yukon Territory. The Maritime Wildlife Federation, formed in 1951, links the sportsmen's associations of Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick.

The largest provincial body is the Quebec Federation of Fish and Game Associations, which includes 320 organizations with a membership exceeding 35,000.

Newfoundland had a sportsmen's association for the entire island in 1946-49, but now only four local associations are reported to be active there.

"In some provinces they have played an essential part in increasing the number of uniformed game officers and in establishing sanctuaries, such as Tobeatic Big Game Sanctuary in Nova Scotia.

Motorcycle Racing Sunday at Rigaud

Another motorcycle program, sponsored by V.M.R.C., will be presented at Rigaud Park on Sunday, September 22, at 2 p.m.

These events are rated as top entertainment. The crowds witnessed at Rigaud Park prove their growing popularity. Canadian and U.S. riders compete; competition is so close that often as many as four are in the lead and the winner wins his title by as little as a length or even a half-wheel. There are 6 and 8-mile races, and the average speed is 70 m.p.h.

Something has been added for the coming program. In an obstacle race (6 laps or 3 miles) the riders must stop at every lap to accomplish an amusing feat — such as, wrestling into an overall suit, passing under a tarpaulin pinned down at different points, or through an automobile tire, and other feats. As second attraction, something a little more serious — a cyclist from St. Elzear, Que., will crash through a flaming wall.

At Rigaud Park there is a spacious parking lot and restaurants. Children accompanied by parents will be admitted free of charge.

In case of rain, the above program will be set forward to October 13.

New Editor for Forum Guide

Muriel MacLeod, the new editor of Farm Forum Guide, is now busy with the research for the Forum season which opens November 4. A graduate in Agriculture from the University of Alberta, she comes from High River, Alberta. During the summer months she has taken an active part in the management of the family ranch.

November 4 is the kickoff date for the 18th National Farm Radio Forum season. "National Farm Policy" will be the topic under discussion. Of vital interest to the farmer, farm organization and the new government, this subject is likely to spark lively discussions in the Farm Forums.

Four national organizations share in the management of National Farm Radio Forum along with Provincial Farm Forum Councils. These are the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, the Canadian Association for Adult Education, the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, and the Co-operative Union of Canada. The sponsors take an active interest through the editorial board in the choice of topics and their treatment in the Guide. Designed to aid the individual Farm Forum discussions the Guide supplies additional factual information concerning the topic.

Preview on Topics For Farm Forums

"National Farm Policy" has been selected as the topic to open the 18th season of National Farm Radio Forum on November 4, according to the secretary, Floyd Griesbach. "With a new Federal Government, the Forum opinions on this topic will take on a new significance. Farm organizations will also be concerned with the conclusions reached," he stated.

Should farm machinery be more versatile? This is the type of question to be asked when the topic, "A New Look in Farm Machinery", comes up for discussion later by some 15,000 rural people meeting in neighborhood groups across the country each Monday evening. A special feature, "Modern Marketing," during January will be a series of three discussions dealing with present-day production, pricing and selling problems. These will be dealt with under the headings of "Production Restrictions", "Price and Income Supports", and "Producer Marketing." Two dates have been left open for a discussion of current issues in the farm field.

Other topics during the winter are "Farm Credit, Import Controls — Are They Necessary?", "Let's Make it Legal", "The Low Income Farmer", and "Canada's Role in World Affairs".

Broadcasts will be carried over the Trans-Canada network of the CBC from 8.30 to 9 p.m. in all provinces (except Newfoundland) every Monday night from November through March. Newfoundland broadcasts will be heard from 9 to 9.30 p.m.

County Plowmen Set October Date For Annual Match

The annual meeting of the Argenteuil Plowmen's Association was held in the local Agronome's office on Wednesday, September 11.

The Board of Directors for the coming year remained the same as last year with the following holding the role of office: President, Watson Berry; vice-president, Norman MacGeorge; and secretary-treasurer, William Brass. The other directors elected were: Allan Hammond, Lloyd Hume, Stuart Armstrong, Keith Gordon, Carson Tomalty and Chas. Maisonneuve.

The farm of Regent Lamarche, situated between Lachute and St. Philippe on Route 8, was chosen as the site for this year's match. The match will be held Wednesday, October 2.

The directors, who picked this field, feel that it is a suitable site, and hope that the match this year will be bigger and better than in the past.

Funds to pay the universal old age pension are obtained from a two percent sales tax, a two percent personal income tax, plus a two percent corporation income tax. Cost is now about $9 million a week.

NHL Season Opens Oct. 8 at Chicago

Montreal — The 1957-58 National Hockey League season will open officially on Tuesday, October 8, at Chicago, when the revitalized Black Hawks take on the youthful Toronto Maple Leafs.

The 41st season of the National Hockey League will open on two other fronts — on Thursday, October 10, when Montreal Canadiens, the Stanley Cup champions, play hosts to the Chicago Black Hawks, and the N.H.L. champions of last season, Detroit Red Wings, entertain the New York Rangers.

Toronto and Boston play their opening home games of the new season on Saturday, October 12. The Leafs unveil their new club to the home folks playing against Detroit, while the Stanley Cup finalists of last season, Boston Bruins, tangle with Chicago.

New York Rangers play their first game at Madison Square Garden this campaign on Wednesday, October 16. Boston supply the opposition.

The 1957-58 season closes on Sunday, March 23. Each team plays 70 games and the total number of games played in the League is 210.

N.H.L. games this season will be played on every night of the week except Mondays, although only nine games are scheduled for Tuesdays, and only two for Fridays. Twenty-one games will be played on Saturday afternoons. These will be telecast nationally in the United States.

The two Canadian teams, Montreal and Toronto, play all their home games on two nights of the week. Montreal plays 13 games on Thursday and 22 on Saturday. The Maple Leafs are at home for 24 Saturdays and 11 Wednesdays.

Assets — Human and Material

LACHUTE has been favored within the past week by visits from the representatives of two large international conferences. Indeed, through the years this town has taken no back seat in public recognition, and it is fitting to turn an appreciative view to the factors which attract this attention.

We have no zoo, like Granby; we have no immense Seaway project, or houses on the move, like Cornwall, Morrisburg and neighboring Ontario towns. . . But we do have the reputation of a stable, steadily progressive centre — the reputation of hospitality, and of solid, dependable citizens.

The stability, of course, lies in the variety of our industries. Paper, lumber, textiles and dairy products, for instance, are not subject to severe fluctuations of demand. And as these manufacturers have steadily modernized and steadily reached out for new markets, so Lachute has grown — not by leaps and bounds, but at a sober pace. . .

In conversation the other day, an observer expressed surprise that building construction in Lachute was not in far greater evidence. We remarked on the healthy development on all sides, and added that we'd rather see things that way, than witness the doubtful benefits of a major boom. So we would!

Linked with the stability of our industries is the character of our industrialists — which, without undue flattery, is also an asset to this community. From every sizeable plant and factory in town, from every firm and profession, one finds executives engaged in the less material pursuits of public service. They speak on our platforms, they work on committees and clubs, they canvass and campaign for worthy causes — yes, and they extend the glad hand to visitors, giving practical demonstration of our hospitality.

Incidental to this outlook are certain public facilities promoted by our civic-minded men. And returning to the impression we make among visitors from distant centres and around the world, those facilities are important. We may cite our Golf Club and our Airport as prime examples; our civic park and auditorium, and our several fine halls and schools, affording spots in which to receive dignitaries from every sphere, and plain folks from all walks of life — these are undisputed assets.

In truth, Lachute may count itself fortunate in terms of property and person — fortunate in the spirit which maintains our steady progress and which makes us still attractive to outsiders, despite the more spectacular and exciting places they visit in their travels.

Our Paper and Yours

FOR ANY jolt which may occur to our readers' sensibilities these days, through the shuffling of pages from their customary places — The Watchman tenders apologies.

The overcrowding of our Sports section, which is shared by Classified Ads and one or two regular advertisers, has embarrassed us for several winters past. With the surfeit of news on curling, hockey, bowling and school athletics, we needed added space. We have now transposed this department to page two, which should in future provide more elastic accommodation. . . At this time we would also introduce outdoor-lovers to our sportsman-columnist Bob Atchison, a fly-fishing expert and all round authority on fishing and hunting. Mr. Atchison lives in these parts, and therefore writes authoritatively on local conditions.

Meanwhile, the promotion of our Homemakers' Page to a more prominent position in Section II, seems justified by the growing appeal of this department to women readers. We hope to keep this feature interesting, by discriminate choice of material.

While these designations are not final, we trust the experiment will prove practical, and that our followers will accept such changes in the spirit of progress which has instigated many other changes through the years.

Seasonal Precautions

FIRES CAUSED by faulty heating systems cause at least $10-million in damage every year and are responsible for more than 15 percent of all residential outbreaks.

With winter approaching, care should be taken to insure that your home is not needlessly destroyed during the cold months to come.

(1) Choose only recognized and approved home-heating equipment.

(2) Have qualified workmen install the equipment.

(3) Keep stoves and furnaces clean and in good repair.

(4) Fireplaces, stoves and furnaces should be insulated to prevent combustion of surrounding walls.

(5) Install metal flashing at points where pipes and chimneys pass through walls or partitions.

(6) Use only clean, first-quality fuel.

(7) Store spare kerosene and similar fuels in a safe place, preferably away from your home.

(8) Use fireplace screens to prevent sparks.

(9) Do not block exits or stairways with portable heaters.

(10) If you doubt the safety of your heating equipment, ask your local fire department for advice regarding inspection.

Heating system fires are almost 100% preventable. They are due either to ignorance or carelessness. Take chimney fires, for instance. Most of these are caused through an accumulation of coal soot in the chimney itself. Allowed to remain, it will eventually burst into flame, sending up a shower of sparks and burning embers each of which is a potential fire-bug as it drops on neighboring roofs, rubbish piles or other inflammable material.

Other fires are caused through the insulation between chimneys and the structure of the building itself being allowed to crack or wear away. This exposes combustible materials, of which the building itself is constructed, to become overheated and eventually burn. These are the fires which usually gain headway unnoticed, only to burst suddenly into fury, giving the occupants of the house no warning, and frequently resulting in tragedy.

Accumulation of combustible rubbish in the area of the heating plant is another big contributor to the high fire rate. Much of this often finds its way to the basement during the summer, and should be cleared away before the first winter fires are lit.

Pat on the Back — for You and You

WHEN KINDLY invited to weave an editorial from a letter we received last week — be it said that we modestly declined. Lest The Watchman should garner undue credit, we preferred to publish the letter in its entirety (as it appears on this page). Not that anyone seeks credit. The writer herself — wife of a newcomer to the local teaching staff — is anxious only to give acknowledgment where she feels it is due. And The Watchman is doubly enthusiastic in publishing her reactions, to hand to the folks around the sentiment of warmth and hospitality experienced by this couple.

If our Lachute readers overlook this letter, we shall be sorry. Bouquets are tossed too rarely to fall unheeded in the daily bustle.

Newcomer's Impression Rings Heartening Note

Finds Lachute A Community of Real Down-to-Earth People

Lachute, Sept. 13, 1957

Editor, Lachute Watchman,

Dear Sir:

If I write you, will you be able to convey to your readers a tribute I should like to pay to the town of Lachute? From what I hear, the grand, warm-hearted welcome extended to us is typical of the reception experienced by any stranger in your midst. So on behalf of all visitors to your community, herewith are some impressions of Lachute at first glance.

The most outstanding characteristic, one that first strikes a newcomer and impresses him increasingly with the passing of each day is the uninhibited warmth of the welcome extended by Lachutites. One does not seem to be subject to an "inspection period" during which, in many communities, he would stand uncertainly viewing his new surroundings until he proved acceptable to local society.

The train pulls in. It is just about time for the noon or evening meal. The traveller heads for a restaurant. A pleasant, motherly waitress welcomes him. She immediately takes a personal interest in his plans. By the time she has cast about for a suitable home for him, the stranger already feels almost acquainted with a number of townsfolk. This is just a sample of the prevailing spirit of kindly interest with which one is greeted. It is no time at all before the natives have the new citizen settled in comfortable living quarters.

In the meantime, he discovers that, at least, one of Lachute's eating places serves food cooked in a manner rarely equalled from coast to coast. Of the other restaurants, I am sorry not to be able, yet, to express an opinion, having had no urge to try another.

It is soon apparent that this flare for cooking is general amongst Lachute women, as one home after another reaches out to draw the stranger into its affectionate, happy-hearted family circle.

He attends church service Sunday morning, and at its close, is surrounded with the outstretched hands of friendly people, chatting telling him about themselves, until he feels he knows them familiarly and they discover common acquaintances that, with a more reserved reception, might not come to light for months, if ever. Coming to Lachute, one may, in casual conversation with one person, express a wish for something. Later, someone else comes along, introduces himself, and proposes a means to gratify that wish. Such friendliness cannot help but warm the cockles of one's heart.

Of course, to anyone coming from outside Quebec Province, another early impression is the use of two languages, wherever he turns. Just how quickly can one learn enough French to be understood conversationally? That, I aim to find out.

The bilingual water faucets present a certain hazard. A preliminary investigation, not unaccompanied by surprises, would seem to indicate that: (a) Hot or cold water may come from either the left or right-hand tap. (b) A careful scrutiny of the inscriptions on the handles, does not eliminate the risk. Sometimes "C" stands for "chaud" but often it means "cold". Out of a tap marked "F" one may draw "froid" water, or on the other hand the water might come out at "Frying temperature". You might think you could be sure that "H" stood for "hot" — not always. Sometimes it means "hot as H", and then again it many mean "cold as H". However I like to think I am the sort of person who can appreciate a joke, no matter if it is on myself.

Other favorable impressions include the splendid, modernly equipped school; the inspiration of the 4-H exhibits at the School Fair; the attractive, well-stocked stores; the tax on purchases, which keeps one's pockets jingling with pennies; the wide main street with middle-of-the-road free parking; the shady residential streets; AND the absence of rowdyism in the streets, which these days worries so many town fathers elsewhere.

Altogether, Lachute impresses me as a community of real down-to-earth, hearty people, not lacking in ambition tempered with high ideals who are well represented in their tidy weekly paper, The Lachute Watchman.

Can the delightful geographic setting of Lachute have something to do with the spirit of the people? A view of its natural surroundings brings to mind passages from the Psalms. There are the beautiful hills to look unto for strength; the green pastures, and the security represented by the rich farmlands; the North River flowing around the town may not actually be "still water", but it seems so to Maritimers accustomed to the restless sea; and such tables as have been "prepared before me"! Newcomers must surely feel that goodness and mercy is following them wherever they turn in Lachute.

— Yours truly,

"Pleasantly Impressed"

Ed. Note: On behalf of our Watchman readers — thank you for these "few kind words".

Love — the Greatest Gift

I've never met Leon Ackerman, 910 Seventeenth Street, N.W., Washington 6, D.C., but I intend to write him a letter one of these days to thank him. I'll tell you why.

Yesterday I was thumbing through a big Financial paper trying to keep posted on the world of business. My thoughts, I assure you, were 100% materialistic. Then, staring up from the paper at me was a full-page advertisement, which must have cost Mr. Ackerman a pretty penny. Here's what the advertisement said:

"Love . . . the greatest gift. He who understands love understands God for God IS Love.

"Ye have heard that it hath been said. Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you.

"If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

"And this commandment have we from Him, That he who loveth God loves his brother also.

"Perfect Love casteth out Fear."

And the advertisement then ended with a layman's prayer:

"Father, may we be ever mindful that it is in loving our fellow men that we truly love Thee."

As I say, I don't know Mr. Ackerman and haven't the slightest notion what his purpose might have been in spending all that money to quote Scripture in a financial paper. Whatever his purpose, he succeeded in shifting the thoughts of one reader from materialistic things. Christ was extremely practical and did not hesitate to put His mind to materialistic matters. Charity requires that someone pay a great deal of attention to producing the wherewithal upon which charity often depends. I've no liking for the dreamy do-gooders who preach charity but fail to buckle down and do the work that has to be done before there's anything around to give. And I detest the socialist who wants to share the fruits of everybody else's labor, but gets quite cagey when it is suggested that he share what he possesses.

Nevertheless, it was a thrilling experience to leap from concentrated attention on material things into the more important spiritual level of thought, and read again, in the bold type of an advertisement, about the Divine Paradox. So I owe Leon Ackerman, whoever he may be, a vote of thanks.

THE LACHUTE WATCHMAN

75 YEARS AGO

September 22, 1882 —

A grand opening concert of the new hall at Shrewsbury will be held on October 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Ireland celebrated their china wedding anniversary on the 16th.

The rails for the St. Andrews Railroad have been ordered from England and are expected to be here in a month.

A new organ has been placed in Mackie's Church. It is very powerful and rich in tone, contains four sets of reeds, with coupler and all most recent improvements.

Geneva — Out of a flock of 11 ducks, Tom Burwash, of La Baie, killed seven with one shot before breakfast one morning last week.

Calumet — Through the Rouge booms, there passed this summer 73,665 pieces of logs and timber.

There is talk of connecting Calumet with Grenville Village by railway, as Carillon is being connected with Lachute, via St. Andrews.

50 YEARS AGO

September 27, 1907 —

Mr. Alex McAllister is giving up his business at Brownsburg.

The annual Ploughing Match will be held on Mr. Jno. Cruise's farm on October 16.

The Carillon and Grenville trains made their last trip for the season on Wednesday.

Cushing — We regret to record the death of Mrs. Robert Sittlington, who passed away recently at the advanced age of 78 years.

Marriage — At the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. E. Thomas, September 28, Russell Carpenter, of Lachute, to Margaret Leith Joss, daughter of the late George Joss.

Grenville — The Rev. Mr. Baugh, newly appointed rector of the English Church, is expected to preach in Grenville this week.

25 YEARS AGO

September 22, 1932 —

The week-end fixture at Calumet brought a victory of 3-2 for the newly organized Lachute team, in an interesting lacrosse game with Calumet boys. Many enthusiasts from this town attended, also appreciable numbers from Grenville, Hawkesbury and district.

Messrs. Will Reilly and Ken McOuat narrowly escaped injury when the truck which they were driving crashed through a bridge on Tuesday morning. The scene of the mishap was near Hammond's Mill, across the North River.

Allan G. Hannah, son of Mrs. Hannah, Barkmere, is suffering from a rifle shot in the ankle, sustained at Dalesville when he and a number of friends were target-practising on Labor Day. The young man is reported doing well, under treatment at the Royal Victoria Hospital.

While Mons. Racine's residence at Calumet was in flames, which consumed and entirely destroyed the dwelling, two other fires are reported to have been in progress Sunday night last — one in Hawkesbury and another in Grenville. In the latter place a minor outbreak burned a shed on Mr. Pilon's property near the Dansereau sawmill. Grenville fire department sent hose and a pump to the assistance of the Calumet firemen, but it is understood the Racine property and contents suffered heavy damage from the fire.

ALL ABOARD

With G. E. Mortimore

People often praise the hamlet where they live as the finest place in the world, and swear that they never want to go away from it.

We need citizens like that. If everybody had the wanderlust, who would stay at home and watch television, manage little league baseball and staff the atomic bomb factories?

How would the front lawns of the doll's-house suburbs get manicured, the fences, flower-beds and steps and herbaceous borders trimmed and painted and cultivated, so that each house and yard looked exactly like the one next door?

If all the people in the world decided to pack a kerchief with a few belongings and hit the trail, who would produce the smog and pollute the rivers with industrial wastes and strip the hillsides of their forests, grass and earth?

Somebody must stay home and attend to these tasks, and other tasks as important.

However, the stay-at-homes — including the people who swear they are denizens of an earthly paradise, and wouldn't leave — sometimes wish they were elsewhere.

The stubborn hometown boosters would never confess it, but in truth they feel a twinge of curiosity, romance and discontent at the sound of a strange geographical name with syllables that ring like bells and harp-strings.

"Chimborazo, Cotopaxi
Had stolen my wits away."

So the poet said, remembering a schoolboy's fascination with those magic names.

Even people who have penetrated to remote places and come home in a sour and grumpy mood, are bewitched now and then by distant thoughts.

Some names are such powerful magic that they overcome reality. With one part of the mind, a man knows the place for a fraud. That glorious name only covers a stinking tropical slum, or a desolate hill populated by nothing but lizards and scorpions, or a stretch of dust-choked prairie.

But the fascination of the name lingers on, as though the word had a life of its own, quite independent of the place it describes.

Romance is a subjective thing, anyway. If it is to be found anywhere, you would expect to find it in a place with a rich, plaintive, musical name.

I ask you to rise, therefore, and join me in a toast to Cheyenne Baghdad, Coromandel, Kandy, Malabar, Cocanada, Shenandoah, Singapore Valparaiso and Steamboat Springs.

Tallashassee, Natchez, Bangalore Shaibah, Tell-el-Kebir and Tonga; Shiloh, Hispaniola and Rangoon; Port-au-Prince and Barcelona; Timbuktu, Zanzibar and the Straits of Bab el Mandeb.

More on the Subject of — CLEAN-UP TIME

Now that you have cleaned and disinfected, do a little renovating. . . Your roosts should be level from back to front, so all the hens won't try to roost on the top pole; and they shouldn't be too high off the floor, if you don't want blood-spots in your eggs.

You should throw out those antiquated feeders and waterers; they are losing you money every day you use them, because the hens most likely are tramping through them and scratching out the feed on the floor. Also, they don't relish the feed after tramping over it, and feed doesn't do YOU any good until it gets into the animal or the bird! A pail holds water but doesn't have a large enough area, and is too deep. Purina feeders and waterers are made to make feed and water convenient for the birds, and still keep it clean and keep the birds out of them.

Another point is never to have less than two feeders and two waterers for any flock, no matter how small, and more for larger flocks — because in every flock there are bosses. The bosses enforce their rule, and the timid ones just don't get feed and water when they need it, and YOU don't get the eggs.

Worms are a feed waster also. Your birds should be wormed about a week before putting them in their winter quarters. PURINA CHEK-R-TON will do a 90-95% job on worms. . . So won't you pick up, or we will deliver, your supply of this item today!

BIRTH

KENNEDY — To Mr. and Mrs. Grant Kennedy (née Gertrude Wilson) on September 9, 1957, at the Providence Hospital, a son, Kenneth Graham, a brother for Ronald and Donald.

DEATH

WILLIAMS — At the R.V. Hospital, Montreal, on Aug. 28, 1957, after a lengthy illness, Tom Williams, in his 72nd year. Burial at Rockway Valley, Que. One sister, Mrs. Maggie French, of Stanstead, Que., and one brother, George, of Rockway Valley, also three nieces and two nephews, remain to mourn his passing.

IN MEMORIAM

ARNOLD — In memory of Mother Mrs. Annie Arnold, formerly of Rivington, Que., who died Sept. 19, 1954. — Emma and Harry Warren,

"While she lies in peaceful sleep

1st Corinthians, 15: 20: 22: —

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep in death. For since death is through a Man, Resurrection of the dead is also through a Man. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

John, 11: 25: 26: —

Jesus said, "I am the Resurrection and the Life. He that exercises faith in Me, even though he dies, will come to life, and everyone that is living and exercises faith in Me, will never die at all."

DEWAR — In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Kenneth, who passed away a year ago today, Sept. 21, 1956. — Sadly missed by his wife, Lily, and family.

"There is a corner in our hearts,
That is set aside for you,
As long as life and memory last
We will always remember you."

ROBERTS — In loving memory of a dear husband, who passed away Sept. 19, 1956. — Lovingly remembered by his wife, Jennie.

"God knows the way, He holds the key,
He guides us with unerring hand.
Sometime with tearless eyes we'll see,
Yes, there, up there, we'll understand."

Burg Blood Clinic Planned for Mon., September 30

At a meeting on Monday night president Dubois announced that Brownsburg and district is holding its annual Blood Donor Clinic on Monday, September 30, in the Brownsburg Legion Hall with Omer Carrière as chairman and Jean Rompré as his assistant.

The secretary read David McKay's report on last summer's swimming classes, which were remarkably successful, and stated he felt that there is an urgent need for this project and that more effort should be made to maintain it. It was started with the intention of giving Safety Badges for advanced swimmers, but the boys found themselves faced with young tots who simply wanted to learn how to swim, consequently Dave and his crew were rather handicapped because of the limited size of the Rotary Pool, the number of applicants and the time at their disposal. Sincere thanks was expressed to these young men for the gratifying work they did. Dave has resigned from his duties and has left Brownsburg for further studies. His departure is regretted by the committee who wish him the best.

Mrs. Barker announced that the Women's Work Section is now opened and she will welcome volunteers every Friday from 2 to 4 p.m.

NO STAMPS?

Montreal (CP) — A postman called police after he opened a letter box and found a revolver inside. Detectives said it was a toy gun, probably popped through the slot by a child.

Tight Finances Curb B'burg Expenditures

Brownsburg — There were two sessions of the Municipal Council in September. Finance is becoming tighter and more time is being spent on discussing even small expenditures. The snow-blower is up for sale at $12,000, and if this bargain is snapped up the way it should be, the exchequer would be back in shape. At present the cash receivable just barely covers salaries till December.

At the first meeting, Mr. Birch was told that his low level would not allow him to connect with the new sewerage system and that he would have to continue to use the septic tank. On the same problem Mr. Cowley was told that the town could not connect his property with the water and sewerage, a distance of about 60 feet, until the number of tenants warranted it.

Mr. George Gagné, on behalf of several property owners on Maple Avenue South, asked if the Council could do anything about the dust coming across from the Safety Fuse Road. The councillors instructed the secretary-treasurer to write to C-I-L requesting that they asphalt all or part of this road.

Fire Chief A. Robbins reported the serious fire at the property of Kenneth Watchorn on August 8 from 11.30 p.m. to 2 a.m. He attributed the cause to welding in the garage, and estimated the damage at $7,000. He requested that the charge for out of town fires should be hiked from $40 to $60 per hour. The Chief also requested permission to buy 200 feet of rope for the chimney-cleaning schedule, which starts this week. Last year's total for which the firemen divide a pool of 75 cents per chimney, was 1,057

Chief Robbins made an earnest appeal that something constructive be done about the dump. It is a serious bush-fire threat in dry weather, and the location makes it a bad spot for firefighting. Several suggestions were aired — a fire-break and a fence; a plastic pipe to the dump; a 10,000 gallon reservoir — but it became apparent that the only real answer is a sanitary landfill.

Police Chief W. Lepine reported collecting $21 for dog licenses and $28 for bicycles. For traffic offences he collected $20 from a speeder, $2 from a motorist who ignored a stop-sign, and $6 for traffic light violations. There were three accidents in town, with the damages amounting to $300.

Secretary-treasurer V. Charbonneau reported that Mr. Nat Cohen has asked for 84,000 tax tickets marked "Crown Theatre". Since the municipality must bear the expense of buying these tickets, and run the risk of an ownership change before they have been purchased 1,000 at a time by Mr. Cohen, the councillors instructed Mr. Charbonneau to purchase 10,000 regular tickets, which can be used by either theatre and any owner.

Resolutions were carried to change the town employees' pay from half-monthly to every second Friday, and to buy a ton of salt for winter roads for $250 from Farmers' Supply Co.

The only correspondence other than tenders was a notice from Bell Telephone Company, giving details of a November meeting to discuss the proposed boost in phone rates.

The tenders received were for the disposal of garbage, the laying of new sidewalks, and the removal of two trees from Maple Avenue South.

Mr. DeBellefeuille of Lachute, offered a 3-year contract to remove all the garbage once a week, with a Mack load crusher, for $3,500. Mr. Cabana, of Brownsburg, offered to remove all the garbage, with the stores twice weekly, for $6,800.

Mr. DeBellefeuille's offer was reconsidered at the second segment of the meeting, and Council has promised to settle the matter at the first meeting in October.

Four tenders for the two dead elms were received. Mr. B. McCulloch and Mr. A. Keatley bid $250, with the responsibility. Mr. P. Desjardins bid $325 with the responsibility, and Mr. R. Laurin, of Lachute, asked for $35, no responsibility, or $75 with responsibility. Mr. Laurin was contracted for the job, at $75.

Mr. F. Brisson's was the only tender received for sidewalks. He stipulated 2-3 inches of ready-mixed concrete at $2 per running foot. Council promised to have the '58 budget allow for 3,000 feet of sidewalk.

Mr. Cowley asked again that some action be taken on speeding in town. The Council promised to have a drive on speeders this month, to make motorists aware that we do have speeding laws in Brownsburg.

At the second meeting, Police Chief Lepine asked for permission to buy speeding and school zone signs. He asked also for one-hour parking signs, for Park Street from the Amico Café to the town hall, on both sides. Mr. Molloy asked Council to write to the Provincial Government about signs marking the "S" bend at the river on Maple Avenue South. Motions were passed approving all the signs, although Councillor Therrien counter-moved on the parking issue, that parking in the commercial district should be settled at the next meeting, and that this issue should wait till then.

Mr. Omer Giroux asked about the possibility of having water and sewerage at the northernmost end of Maple Avenue. Pro-mayor S. Harris explained the difficulty of borrowing for waterworks unless the revenue was guaranteed. Mr. Giroux stated that he would not object to being taxed for all his lots. Pro-mayor Harris admitted that this might put a different complexion on the matter. He asked Mr. Giroux to bring up the matter again after the Council has full details from the Department of the Municipal Affairs as to the financing of waterworks.

Secretary Charbonneau asked the pro-mayor to appoint a committee for the destruction of obsolete papers. Councillors Lafleur and Raymond were charged with this responsibility. The secretary also asked for a renewal of the motion to charge interest on tax arrears. Councillors Raymond and R. Ouellette obliged.

On the serious financial position, it was decided to cut the town work squad by two men as soon as possible. For the waterworks account, legal advice is being sought on the proposed doubling of C-I-L's water tax, to $2,000.

Pro-mayor S. Harris urged that a "town planning committee" be appointed as soon as possible, as a prelude to establishing a building code.

Former Argenteuil Lady Died in Potsdam, N.Y.

Late Mrs. G. G. Goodenough

Mr. Hugh B. Mitchell, of St. Philippe, returned Saturday from New York State, where he attended the funeral of his daughter, the late Mrs. G. G. Goodenough, on August 31.

The former Myrtle A. Mitchell daughter of Hugh B. and the late Jessie Mitchell, the deceased lady was born a short distance from Lachute on the Bethany Road, November 17, 1904. In her 53rd year she had been a resident of Potsdam, N.Y. for the past 12 years, having moved to the village from the Potsdam-Madrid Road, where the couple had lived since their marriage in 1928.

Mrs. Goodenough died suddenly of a heart attack August 27 while on a vacation trip. Many friends and relatives from the district attended the funeral, which was conducted from Clark & Foote funeral home. Burial took place at the Southville Cemetery, six miles from Potsdam.

"Jerry" Collins, Pine Hill Citizen, Dies Suddenly

Jeremiah (Jerry) Collins, 47, of Pine Hill, in this county, died suddenly last Friday while visiting his sister, Mrs. Stanley De Wolfe, in Peterborough, Ont.

Mr. Collins was born in Peterborough, son of the late James F. Collins and Elizabeth Farrell. He was educated there and enlisted with the Prince of Wales Rangers in 1942. His service during the Second World War was cut short by ill health and he was honorably discharged in 1943.

He left Peterborough 15 years ago to live here at Pine Hill. He was a councillor in Chatham Township and he was a musician and had his own orchestra.

A member of St. Michel Church, Mr. Collins was a Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus and a Grand Knight of Council No. 3120, Brownsburg, in 1956 and 1957.

He leaves his widow, Laurette Gagné; a sister, Mrs. Stanley de Wolfe (Alice), of Peterborough, and three brothers, Joseph, of Fort William, and Mark Collins and Clarence (Toots) Collins, of Peterborough.

The funeral was held in Peterborough last Monday, with solemn requiem mass at St. John the Baptist Roman Catholic Church. Burial was in St. Peter's Cemetery.

Argenteuil Native Passes Suddenly In Western Canada

The Late Dawson Lindley Kerr

The death occurred Wednesday, August 21, 1957, of Dawson Lindley Kerr, in his 71st year.

A pioneer settler of the White Bear district, Mr. Kerr was born at Dunany, Que., May 10, 1886. He came west to La Rivier, Manitoba, moving to Saskatchewan to take up a homestead in the White Bear district in 1910. Of a quiet disposition, Mr. Kerr took a keen interest in his farm operations. During the past few winters he had made his residence at Kelowna, B.C. He is survived by two sisters, Emma, of Lakefield, Que., and Lizzie (Mrs. T. E. Parker), of Kelowna, B.C. also two brothers, Ernest and Edmund, of White Bear, Sask.

Funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Stokes in the White Bear United Church on Friday afternoon, August 23.

Honorary pall-bearers were G. M. Driscoll, F. Handley, W. McKay, D. Gillanders, W. Davies, and E. Figley.

Active pall-bearers were — I. Skatrud, Jim Irvine, Ted Johnstone, H. Pratt, E. Gauthier and K. Lytle.

Interment was made in White Bear Cemetery.

While attending a banquet, a clumsy waiter dropped a bowl of hot soup into the lap of a bishop. The clergyman glanced around with a look of agony, finally exclaiming: "Will some layman please say something appropriate."

Inspiring Film in Two Presentations At Un. Church Hall

For some little time the United Church of Canada has been producing films in connection with its work in Canada and overseas. The most recent film is one describing the work of the United Church on the border between Quebec and Labrador, in the centre of the tremendous new iron-ore development. The specific location is at Knob Lake, 350 miles north of Seven Islands.

The central figure in the story — the pit foreman — is a professional actor. Other characters in the story are actual church people, connected with this portion of church history which the film portrays.

The title of the film is "On This Rock"; it is in color, with an excellent sound track, and runs for 30 minutes.

There will be two showings of the film, in the hall of the Lachute United Church, on Thursday evening, September 26. For children the time will be 7 p.m. and for adults 8 p.m. An offering will be taken at both showings. All interested friends are invited to see this very fine film.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tomalty, Brownsburg Feted on 50th Wedding Anniversary

On Wednesday evening, September 4, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson, of R.R. 3, Lachute, arranged a delightful party in the Brownsburg Legion Hall, to celebrate the golden anniversary of the latter's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Tomalty, of Brownsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Tomalty were married 50 years ago in the manse at Mille Isles by the Rev. Koffend, and are the proud parents of five sons and one daughter, and of 13 grandchildren — Bazil and Earl of Arundel, Pearl (Mrs. Charles Davis), of Arundel Leonard, of St. Catharines, Ont., Charles, of Brownsburg, and James, of Belleville, Ont.

Mrs. Tomalty is the former Lillian Burns, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Burns, while Mr. Tomalty is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tomalty. Until eight years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Tomalty operated a farm and tourist home on Beaven Lake. At present they reside on their 200-acre farm at Brownsburg.

Approximately 200 guests assembled to pay tribute to the honored couple and to reminisce over the passing years. Among the guests present was their bridesmaid, Miss Catherine Burns.

During the evening dancing was enjoyed, with music supplied by Edgar Jackson and his Silver String Trio.

At 11 o'clock, a buffet luncheon was served to the guests, by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Brownsburg Legion. The guests of honor and their family were seated at a daintily appointed table, centred by a beautifully decorated three-storey wedding cake, made by Mrs. Watson and decorated by Mrs. Owens, of Grenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Tomalty received gifts, and a well filled purse of money.

Mr. Leonard Tomalty expressed thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Watson and to everyone who had helped make the day such a memorable and happy occasion for his parents.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

Memorial Feature At Shawbridge Service

Shawbridge — On Sunday afternoon the third annual "John Redpath Dougall" Memorial Service was held in the Percival Molson Memorial Chapel, Shawbridge, conducted by the Rev. Horace G. Baugh, with the Rev. C. Westhaver giving the address.

By the will of the late Frederick E. Dougall, a number of scholarships were provided, in memory of his father. Four of these scholarships were awarded at this service, the winners being James Cotton, Wayne Robinson, Michael DeRapp and Ricardo Grant. The competition is open to all boys at the Boys' Farm and Training School and involves the memorizing of Scripture verses.

Evangelistic Services At Avoca Next Week

The Rev. Ian Hind, of First Baptist Church, Brockville, will conduct a four-day evangelistic mission in the Avoca Baptist Church beginning Monday, September 23, and concluding Thursday, September 26. The services each evening will commence at 8. Special music for the meetings will include a male quartet, duets and solos. All who desire to attend will be welcome.

Lachute Couple Wed Recently In United Church

Harland - Noble

The marriage of Eileen Elizabeth Janet, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Erwin Noble, of Thomas' Gore, to Mr. Robert Leslie Harland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Harland, of East Settlement took place at four o'clock on Saturday, August 31, in the Lachute United Church, the Rev. Wilson Bridge officiating.

The organist was Mr. Wayne Riddell, of Montreal. Pink and white gladioli and candles were used to decorate.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of imported Chantilly lace over tulle and satin. The gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice and a Sabrina neckline, and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The bouffant skirt with side scallops extended over tiers of scalloped lace and pleated nylon tulle. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held by a matching lace headdress encrusted with iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Miss Heather Graham as maid of honor, and Mrs. Stanley Harland as bridal attendant, wore ballerina-length frocks of Romance blue crystalette over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodices and sheared bateau necklines, with bouffant skirts. They wore feathered bandeaux in deeper tones of blue, and carried colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Miss Janice Noble and Miss Jo-Ann Noble were flower-girls for their aunt, wearing Romance blue crystallette over taffeta, with boat necklines, and their dresses were in Princess style. They wore matching hats and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations in the basket effect.

Mr. Stanley Harland, brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. Ronald Noble, brother of the bride, and Mr. Gordon Harland, brother of the bridegroom, ushered.

Mrs. Noble, mother of the bride, wore a street-length dress of navy blue sheer over taffeta, with a white feathered hat and accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Harland, the groom's mother, wore a street-length dress of pale blue nylon with a navy duster, navy and white hat and accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Harland left by motor for the New England States, the bride travelling in a pale blue wool suit, with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The couple will reside in Lachute.

Tip for Canada: The American Automobile Association, representing United States motorists, has called for higher taxes on heavy commercial trucks to reduce the portion of highway costs borne by motorists.

Orange Lodge Opens Card Party Season

Ladies of the Orange Lodge held their first military whist on Wednesday last in the Legion Hall.

Novelty Prize — Mr. W. Dewar.

A basket of gladioli were also drawn for and won by Mrs. S. Sutton.

Lachute W. Inst. September Session

The Lachute Branch of the Women's Institute held their monthly meeting at the Legion Hall on September 10.

Two minutes' silence was observed in memory of the late Mrs. T. Milnes, who was a member of this branch for many years.

Mrs. E. B. Jost gave a report of the 34th Annual Convention, held in Macdonald College. Mrs. E. Gow, who also attended this convention, gave an account of the Dominion Textiles fashion show, describing the fabrics, colors, styles and creations, which proved most interesting.

The question of raising funds towards the cost of the erection of a Federal Women's Institute Office in Ottawa was discussed, the proposed donation being $1 per member.

Mrs. F. W. FitzGerald, convener of Citizenship, announced that the next meeting would be held Tuesday, October 1, at 8 p.m. in the Legion Hall, when W.I. members and the Lions Club would take part in a debate. Details of this will be published later.

Ballet Enrolment Starts Today As Seasonal Plans Finalized

Enrolment of the Lachute Ballet Society commences today (Thursday), at the Knights of Columbus Hall, when the teacher and pianist of the Elizabeth Preese Ballet School of Westmount will be in attendance, at the following times: Children up to six, 3.30 to 4.30 p.m. Children 7 to 10, 4.45 to 5.45 p.m. Children 11 and over, 6 to 7 p.m. The shoe-fitter will also be present, and parents will be able to purchase dancing shoes for their children, if they so desire.

The executive of the local ballet group met on Tuesday evening to discuss and finalize plans for the season. Considerable time was spent weighing the pros and cons of the fee policy, as many suggestions and opinions were brought forth.

As this was a new undertaking locally, with a required budget of approximately $1,000, it was unanimously agreed that it was impossible to operate on a week-to-week or month-to-month basis. Concession was made, however, to families who may wish to enrol more than one child.

It was decided that with the present registration, a fee of $25 per season of 32-weeks would be adequate, a little less than $1 a week, but it was necessary for the fees to be paid in advance, November 1 being the deadline. Parents enroling two or more children, may pay in two installments of $12.50 each, before November 1 and January 1.

Enrolment will be continued the following week at the hall, or interested parents may contact secretary-treasurer Ernest Gow or Mrs. Philippe Valois, representative of the French-speaking members.

Member Addresses Local Red Cross

The local Red Cross held their first meeting of the season last Wednesday in the United Church hall with the president, Mrs. Linton Armstrong in the chair.

Reports were heard from the various committees and Mrs. Fraser Morrison reported two quilts ready to be quilted for which workers are invited every Wednesday afternoon. The ladies are reminded that work may be taken out and finished at home.

Mrs. Fraser Morrison addressed the meeting and described her recent trip to Europe. She was thanked by Mrs. Armstrong.

Legion Auxiliary Reopens Activities

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Legion Branch 70, Lachute, held their first meeting of the fall and winter season last week in the Legion Hall.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. G. Tabrett, with 13 members answering the roll-call.

A discussion was held on means of helping the School for Retarded Children, again this year. Plans were made to hold a military whist this month; also to invite the Brownsburg group to join at the next meeting.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Gladys Bradshaw and Mrs. Lena Bradshaw.

Successful Church

Many people regard a crowded church as a successful one though the crowds come merely because of the eloquence of the preacher, the beauty of the building, the quality of the music, or other sensuous satisfaction, or because they feel that thus they discharge their responsibilities to God for the week. But a crowded church is not a successful church unless the people come truly to worship and desiring to hear God's word "for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness" — and unless they earnestly strive through the days that follow, to apply what they have heard.

Teatime Topics

By Mary Burke, Canadian Press Staff Writer

A. M. Warner, of Winnipeg, was one of five Canadian decorators chosen by a Canadian magazine to create rooms Canadians would like to live in.

According to Mr. Warner "beauty with comfort" is the hallmark of Winnipeg homes. On the prairies he stated, Canadians insist that a home must be good to live in as well as good to look at.

He designed an all-purpose family room, intended to stand all the hard wear a young family can give it. In today's smaller dining room he avoided overcrowding by using slim contemporary furniture, trim, vertical-slat Venetian blinds and a space-saving folding door leading to the kitchen.

In the bedrooms, where he believes comfort should blend into luxury, he used wallpaper textured to look like grass cloth, a beige quilted-taffeta spread and a small upholstered armchair.

On the other hand Dennis May, a Vancouver decorator, said rooms and furnishings on the coast should never detract from the view. The rooms he designed demonstrated Vancouver's preference for uncluttered furniture and dramatic color.

His guest room or second sitting room featured translucent net draperies to let in the breath-taking views of the city and bay. He set a dramatic tone to the room by using gold carpeting.

James Howes of Saint John, N.B., another of the decorators chosen, said "Maritimers have long loved traditional styles." For the rooms he designed he chose handicrafts from New Brunswick, provincial furnishings and modern pieces with a traditional air.

His contemporary rooms gave the "warmth and mellowness" that Maritime homes are noted for.

Storing Away

As summer ends now is the time for housewives to do their household tasks of cleaning and storing.

All summer clothing should be laundered and dried completely before being put away.

While shifting summer clothing to make way for fall and winter garments, everything should be taken out of your closet. Wash the closet down with warm suds. Rinse and let dry.

To save yourself work for next summer it's a good idea to scrape and wash the barbecue pit or grill. Porch and garden furniture will withstand winter dampness better if it is repainted or shellacked before being stored.

* * *

Tasty Salads

For good tasting salads use tart dressings with bland foods, mild dressings with full-flavored foods and make salad dressings at home for individuality that contributes much to salad making. With French dressing, mayonnaise and cooked salad dressing in the refrigerator you can make any salad a success.

Grapes Now In Season

When buying grapes look for plump, firm fruit and make sure they don't drop off the stem at the slightest touch. Avoid mouldy or wet grapes and any that have soft flesh. Besides using grapes in jellies and jams, and keeping the fruit bowl well filled — don't forget to serve grapes often for dessert with cheese and crackers as well as in fruit cup and puddings.

Sugared grapes look nice either on a salad plate or when used as a garnish for meat. To make them dip small clusters of grapes first in egg white then in white sugar and allow to dry a few minutes.

USE POPCORN POPPER FOR WIENERS

Having a wiener roast? Then don't forget to take along your old-fashioned popcorn popper with the long handle. It's ideal for roasting wieners because you can do several at a time and they don't fall into the fire, as they do sometimes when sticks are used. Put the wieners in the popper and hold it over the fire, shaking occasionally until the wieners are hot and golden brown.

Cereals Good In Many Ways

Of all the foods you could name there is probably none more versatile than cereals. They appear at breakfast in the form of quick or instant porridges, shreds, puffs, biscuits and kernels. For dinner or supper they are used as toppings or casseroles, coatings on croquettes and extenders in meat loaves and patties. They are also put to very good use in cookies, muffins and baked desserts.

The crunchy texture and nutty flavor of cereals shows up in this favorite cookie suggested by the home economists of the Consumer Section. It is simple to make, and best of all, it is as appropriate for a child's lunch box as it is for a tea table.

Butterscotch Oat Squares

2 Cups quick cooking rolled oats, 1 teaspoon baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 cup brown sugar (packed), ½ cup butter (melted), ½ teaspoon vanilla.

Combine oats, baking powder and salt. Add brown sugar and mix thoroughly. Add melted butter and vanilla, blending thoroughly. Spread thinly in two 8" x 8" ungreased cake pans. Press down evenly with back of spoon. Bake in a moderately slow oven (300°F.) until golden brown, about 20 minutes. Let stand 5 minutes. Cut into 2" squares or 1" x 2" bars. Allow to cool thoroughly before removing from pans. Makes 32 squares or 64 bars.

LUNCH BOX TIP

Instead of frosting the tops of cupcakes for lunch box or picnic, split them in half and put the frosting in the middle, sandwich-style. That way it won't stick to the wrapping.

"CRAB FANCY" GOES TO A PARTY

By Anne Marshall

It's party time . . . yes a summer luncheon party. What to serve? Why not cool refreshing Crab Fancy? Sure to please all hot-weather wilted appetites.

It's easy to prepare and something that can be done long before your guests arrive. Crab Fancy is canned condensed consomme, well chilled in the can, just broken up with a fork into which you fold chunks of canned crabmeat. A combination so delicious.

Add extra attraction to this simple delicacy. Lemon slices with crisp watercress bouquets give that final touch. Vary the recipe from party to party, all summer long. Substitute lobster or shrimp for the crab, next time.

For a nice accompaniment, pass a tray of fancy sandwiches. Fresh peach shortcake topped with whipped cream and tall glasses of iced coffee complete this party luncheon. You'll be delighted with the compliments you receive.

You will be that charming hostess if you try this recipe:

CRAB FANCY (CONSOMME)

2 cans (10 ounces each) condensed consomme
1 cup flaked cooked crab (6½ ounce can)
Watercress

Chill consomme until set (about 4 hours in refrigerator). Put through ricer or break up with fork. Fold in crab. Makes 4 to 5 servings. Serve with lemon slices and watercress.

SOUP SCOOPS

CHILL THIS ASPARAGUS-CHICKEN SOUP

Suit this soup to summer by chilling it. Try this combination of condensed soups for chilling: 1 can condensed cream of asparagus soup with 2 cans cream of chicken soup and 3 soup cans milk. Blend well. Chill 4 hours. Serve in icy bowls. 8 servings.

National Fish Week — Sept. 18-28

To remind us of the contribution the fishing industry has made to the nation's economy September 18 to 28 has been designated as National Fish Week. Fishing was Canada's very first industry. Today our total annual catch of fresh water, salt water and shellfish amounts to around two billion pounds and has an estimated market value in the neighborhood of $200-million. This in turn means the investment of millions of dollars in boats, equipment and processing plants, as well as the employment of thousands of men and women.

We can all be proud of this great industry. And what better time to spotlight it than in September when prices are low after the abundant summer catch, much of which has been frozen or canned for our year 'round enjoyment.

Quebec's Voting Delegates For National Conference Of Federated W. Inst.

Plans for the first National Convention of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada are taking shape. The president, Mrs. J. W. Adams, of Ethelton, Sask., who headed the Canadian delegation to the Ceylon Conference, reached home the middle of last month, with the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. L. Clark, of Conquest, Sask., just arriving last week. With their return, arrangements are now in full swing. The dates are October 28-31, in Ottawa. All meetings are taking place in the Chateau Laurier.

Mrs. Adams states encouraging reports have been received from the provinces. Most of them are sending their full quota of voting delegates, with many members planning to attend as visiting delegates.

Quebec's quota of voting delegates is ten. This has been filled, with names as follows: President, Mrs. G. D. Harvey, Stanbridge East; past-president, Mrs. G. E. LeBaron, North Hatley (Mrs. LeBaron is national convener for International Relations and Exchange Programs); vice-presidents, Mrs. H. Ellard, Ottawa, and Mrs. J. Ossington, Granby. From the Provincial Board — Mrs. M. Wilson, Grenville; Mrs. R. E. Joyce, East Angus; Mrs. F. Robinson, Windsor Mills; Miss E. Smith, Lennoxville. The other two are Miss Norma Holmes, Stanstead, vice-president, of Stanstead County W.I. and Mrs. Wm. Rayson, Abbotsford, past-president of Rouville County W.I.

Let's Eat

BY IDA BAILEY ALLEN

TOMORROW'S DINNER

Mixed Vegetable Rice Soup
Jellied Salmon Loaf
Cucumber Cream Sauce
Potato Chips Parmesan
Corn on Cob
Compote of Fresh Fruits
Hot or Iced Coffee or Tea
Milk

All measurements are level; recipes proportioned to serve 4 to 6

Jellied Salmon Loaf: In a saucepan, mix together 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1 tbsp. sugar, 1 (1-in.) stick cinnamon and ¾ tsp. salt. Stir in ¼ c. each cold water and vinegar.

Add 2 c. flaked canned salmon and 1 c. small-diced celery. Fold in ½ c. whipped icy cold evaporated milk.

Rub a 4 c. mold with salad oil. Spoon in the salmon loaf mixture. Refrigerate 4 hrs., or until firm.

Serve combined with ½ c. icy cold whipped evaporated milk or ½ c. dairy sour cream.

Then add 3 sliced peeled good-size peaches, and 4 not-peeled red plums, halved and pits removed. Simmer-cook about 8 min. longer or until the fruit is fork-tender. Chill.

Suggestion of the Chef

Layer potato chips in a large pan. Dust with grated Parmesan cheese and paprika mixed with a few grains cayenne pepper. Heat 4 min., or until the cheese melts, in a moderate oven, 375 deg. F. Serve warm.

Bulbs for Beauty

(Copyright) — By NANCY CLEAVER —

Bulbs for beauty! Is there any other small investment in money, time and care which yields such satisfying color and fragrance than bulb planting in the autumn?

It is important to buy bulbs of good quality either from a store or florist or order them from a seed firm. To avoid delay in planting, they should be purchased early and planted as soon as possible. Store in a dry, cool place until they are put in the ground.

October is usually the favorite month for bulb planting, although some varieties can be planted earlier and some bulbs can be put in as late as November, if the weather continues to be mild. It is important to get bulbs in before the frost hardens the ground. Do allow some time for root growth.

Bulbs do well in sandy loam, but grow in any well drained soil. Bonemeal is a good bulb fertilizer and so are rotted leaves. Care must be taken with manure and some commercial fertilizers so that they are mixed with the soil and do not come in direct contact with the bulbs at full strength. Sand mixed in with heavy soil helps the drainage and prevents the bulbs from decaying.

In an area where the soil freezes hard, it should be well covered during the winter months with leaves anchored down with evergreen boughs or straw. This mulch is removed when spring arrives and the soil around the bulbs kept weeded.

The rules for the best depth for bulbs varies in different areas, according to the severity of the frost in the winter. An approximate rule for planting bulbs is to place them in the soil at least twice as deep as their diameter and allow sufficient room for the mature plant to have plenty of sunshine. Daffodils and hyacinths are both planted six inches apart and six inches deep. Darwin and parrot tulips are placed five or six inches apart and the same depth in the ground.

For indoor bulb planting, choose the hardier varieties, which are grown most easily. Paper-white narcissi are exceedingly easy to grow either in water, with pebbles or fibre compost. Hyacinths can be grown in water, too. Tulips, daffodils and the smaller bulbs do best in flower pots. But however they are grown, bulbs need sufficient time in a dark, cool spot in the cellar to grow sturdy roots.

Clean, uncracked pots worthy of good bulbs should be used. Good drainage in pots is essential. It is guaranteed by placing some pebbles or broken pieces of pot over the drainage hole. Plan to have the bulb growing tip protruding slightly. Fill the pot then with light porous soil to the depth at which the bulbs should rest. Place the bulb in the pot and fill up around it with soil to within one-half inch of the rim. Pat the soil down firmly and water well.

Good root growth takes time and it is best to set the pots away in a cool place for 10 weeks to three months, watering regularly. Do not keep the soil soggy nor let it dry out completely.

The first few days after they have been brought up from the cellar, the bulbs should be slightly shaded and kept at a temperature around 65 degrees. After that a sunny window is the best location for the bulbs. Once they have bloomed, the flowers will last longer if they are removed from the direct rays of the sun.

When the flower fades on a bulb in a pot indoors or outside in the garden, it should be cut off near the top of the stem. The leaves should be allowed to remain. Place the bulb pots in a cool, dry spot in the cellar and water sparingly until the foliage dies down. In the early autumn, remove the bulbs from their pots and keep in a dry, airy room until planted outdoors.

Discover for yourself that planting bulbs both outdoors and indoors can be a very happy co-operative parent-child venture. Do try it this season!

'Last of the Mohicans' In TV Serial Film

Like all great classics, James Fenimore Cooper's Leatherstocking novels have had to take a good deal of satiric abuse from other writers, who know a good laugh when they see one. Cooper was long on color and action, short on probability, a lack which prompted Mark Twain's famous sally: "Every time a Cooper person is in peril and absolute silence is worth $4.00 a minute, he is sure to step on a dry twig. There may be a hundred handier things, but that wouldn't satisfy Cooper. If he can't find a dry twig, he must go and borrow one!"

But such humorous railings don't seem to have diminished the popularity of Cooper's books, either as children's classics or as adventure stories. In fact, it is the durability of the Leathestocking saga and the epic stature of its hero, Hawkeye, the Scout, that probably account for its appeal for moviemakers like Normandie Productions Ltd., whose television serial, "The Last of the Mohicans", will be seen for the first time on the CBC-TV network at 8 p.m. on September 27. (The series was made last year by Normandie in association with the CBC and Television Programs of America, who will distribute the series outside Canada.)

Perhaps wary of Cooper's unwieldy prose, the writers of this series have taken little from the book beyond the chief characters and the setting, and have supplied much of the adventures for the 39 half-hour episodes from their own imaginations. The locale of the story is the territory which is now northern New York and southern Ontario, two areas occupied and fought over by the British and the French in the Seven Years' War of 1756-63, the period of the story. The various episodes of frontier adventure are set against a general background of the British-French struggle and the intrigues of the principal Indian nations with the whites, and among themselves.

The two personalities who dominate all episodes are Hawkeye, the frontier woodsman — alert, swift courageous righter of wrong in this lawless, unsettled period; and the last of the Mohicans, Chingachgook, the great Mohican chief — proud, cunning, relentless and yet magnanimous, torn between love for his dwindling people and a desire that there should be peace between whites and Indians.

Middleweight Title Bout To Be Radio Broadcast

The September 23rd middleweight championship boxing bout between Sugar Ray Robinson and Carmen Basilio will be broadcast exclusively in Canada on the CBC Dominion network; the fight will not be telecast. The 15-round title fight at Yankee Stadium in New York City will mark Robinson's first defence of the middle-weight crown he won from Gene Fullmer on May 1. Robinson has held the middleweight title on four separate occasions, while Basilio, the current welterheight champion, will be making his first title attempt in the middleweight division. His own crown will not be at stake. The broadcast will begin at 10.30 p.m. and will run to the conclusion of the fight. In the event of a postponement because of bad weather, the broadcast will be advanced to the next day.

233 Orchestral Works By Canadian Composers

Musical composition in Canada has finally come of age after struggling through an adolescent period of about 15 years. Prior to that time, very little was written in the orchestral music field, but after 1945 there was a definite increase. As recently as 10 years ago, composers were lamenting the fact that no one would perform their works; except for the occasional commission from the CBC and the National Film Board, there was no great call for Canadian music. Now, however, the picture has changed — not completely, but enough to encourage more symphonic composition. Canadian music is being heard all over the world — on the radio, in the concert hall and in motion picture scores. People are listening to Canada's music and, for the most part, seem to like what they hear.

Perhaps this change is being brought about by the emergence of "Canadian" Canadian composers — that is, men and women who were born and raised in this country. The revival of our folklore, the growing national consciousness and faith in the future of the land have encouraged these people to break away from traditional influences and develop something new and fresh — and Canadian.

The majority of the country's recognized composers belong to the 39-member Canadian League of Composers which was organized in 1951 to encourage Canadian musical composition. This summer, the League published a 56-page Catalogue of Orchestral Music in which 233 works for orchestra by 35 members are listed. Compiled by Helmut Kallmann, CBC music librarian and historian, the book gives a detailed description for each entry, with reference to length of performance, instrumentation and availability of scores.

Of the 35 contributing members (their average age is 40), 14 live in Montreal, 12 in Toronto and four in Vancouver.

LITTLE CHOICE

When an American sub-committee starts poking into communism, its sincerity is invariably colored by a desire for publicity. Be that as it may, the Canadian government has little choice. For our own good we must exchange security information on communist activity with the United States.

LABOR SEES THE RED LIGHT

By Lewis Milligan

Labor union leaders, at long last, are beginning to realize that perennial demands for higher wage-rates, bigger fringe benefits and restrictive working regulations have had something to do with the perpetual rise in prices and currency inflation.

Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, has virtually admitted all that by inviting the automobile industry's Big Three to join in an anti-inflation program by cutting prices of their 1958 models by an average of $100 a car. In support of this, Mr. Reuther said his union was drafting new contract demands and "would in any event avoid making recommendations that would necessitate price increases."

It is something new for a labor leader even to suggest that a wage increase might have the effect of increasing the production cost and the market price of the product. To make sure what he meant, Mr. Reuther added that "the interests of the U.S. people as a whole in a stable price level are paramount to the illusory, short-run gains obtained through inflation."

It is rather late, but better late than never, for so prominent a labor leader to admit that the short-run gains obtained by inflating wages have been long-run losses for both the organized worker and the people as a whole. It should have been quite obvious in the first place that when production costs are increased, the selling price must rise accordingly. And that when the price gets out of reach of the would-be purchaser, the sales decline and there are less jobs for the workers.

The only thing that has so far held off a precipitate slump in sales and employment is the extraordinary increase in credit buying. That has saved the situation for the time being; but credit is debt, and debts incurred in an inflating currency and recurring credit are never paid.

"The time has come," said Mr. Reuther, —"and is long overdue — for a dramatic and electrifying step to prove to all concerned that democracy is capable of mobilizing on a voluntary basis the resources of wisdom and responsibility in management and labor needed to solve its economic problems."

That sounds reasonable enough, and if Mr. Reuther is sincerely anxious to halt and overtake runaway inflation, it may not be too late to check the process. But it is not enough to promise not to demand further wage increases next year on condition that the manufacturers reduce prices in advance. If productivity had kept pace with wage increases in the last seven years there would have been no inflation.

According to official statistics, the index of weekly wages in industry, betwen 1949 and 1956, rose more than 50 percent; while the annual increase of output per man-hour for the same period was only about 20 percent. These facts were pointed out in The Monetary Times by Mr. Erwin G. Dentay, president of Fine Chemicals of Canada. "Looking at it from the market angle," said Mr. Dentay, "the added purchasing power of the workers raised the demand while supply was not increased to the same extent. It was the natural outcome of this upset balance that prices went up."

The logical anti-inflation thing, therefore, for Mr. Reuther to do is either to reduce union wage-rates in advance, or to increase productivity by eliminating anything in the nature of slowdowns or featherbedding in union working regulations. Inflation is merely the effect and not the cause of the imbalance between labor costs and production.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

You played on your summer vacation, but the chances are your car worked hard. Now's the time to give it a post-vacation checkup to ensure its continued efficient operation.

You've probably driven it harder and longer than usual. Have it lubricated and the oil drained and replaced. (This is especially important if you've been forced to use several different brands of oil in your motoring).

Have the air cleaner checked. Driving near the sandy shore or on dusty roads can clog it up.

If you've been at the shore, chances are salt has covered the car's finish. Have it thoroughly washed, then given a complete re-waxing job.

Have the radiator checked. Insects picked up during summer driving can clog air passages around the radiator, force it to boil over.

Have the car's generator and entire electrical system tested, too. A minor adjustment now can save trouble later on.

You've probably put a lot of mileage on the car. The tires may need to be switched. First, have them all checked for cuts, bruises. If you have tubeless tires, see that the sealing fluid is still in good condition. Then have the wheels aligned.

If you've used the car's emergency flashlight very often, throw out the old batteries, and get new ones. I hope you never have to use it, but it's best to be prepared.

SHIP MODEL RECALLS DRAMATIC SEA STORY

Halifax (CP) — The Nova Scotia Museum of Science is to receive a model of a ship which achieved notice in the Second World War. The Canadolite, built in Germany in 1926 for the Imperial Oil Company in Canada, was captured by the Germans in 1941 while sailing to Venezuela.

The late Captain T. V. Ferns, of nearby Dartmouth, one of a number of Nova Scotians on the ill-fated craft, wrote of the capture made by the German raider Kormoran:

"The Kormoran turned and made for us very rapidly. She flew no ensign. We were suspicious, but she looked like a merchantman . . . at point blank range, she fired across our bow and broke out the Swastika . . ."

The captain's story explained how he jettisoned documents and instruments. He gave orders to abandon ship, but the Germans had other ideas. They put a crew aboard and took the Canadians prisoners.

The Germans, thinking they would find secret papers aboard the ship, ordered Captain Ferns to open the ship's safe. As the captain approached the safe, smiles flickered over the German faces filled with anticipation of the secrets held in the iron box. Its door was flung open and the Germans stood open-mouthed.

The safe was empty.

C.W.N.A. Trio in Informal Pose

Parent's Attitudes Have Effect On Child's Illness Reports 'Health'

"Every child has to learn how to adapt to an illness. How successful he will be depends to a large extent on his parents' reaction to his being ill, and such reacation is a reflection of the attitudes they themselves have towards it," says Dr. Robert Johnson in "Health", official publication of the Health League of Canada.

Dr. Johnson points out that the child is usually unprepared for illness when it strikes, because of its unpredictability, and he goes to his parents for help in coping with the situation. All he is looking for is help in returning to a state of good health and reassurance.

If the parents adopt an attitude of calamity, they may transmit to him a lifelong fear of illness in a matter of minutes, in addition to giving no help at all. The guilt attitude, in which the parents blame themselves for the illness, and review all the things that they did or neglected to do, leading up to the illness, fails to give the child help in coping with his illness, and may give him an antagonistic attitude towards them.

The selfish attitude in which the parent will blame the child for getting sick on purpose in order to thwart them of a trip or a party, leaves the child with his illness and the added feeling that he is rejected by his parents, and no direction as to how to deal with his illness. Then, there is the attitude in which the parents claim that the child is bluffing, and that no one in their family is ever ill. This adds the loneliness of being unable to communicate and share his feelings with his parents, to the discomfort of the illness.

Over-solicitousness must be avoided as well, which can easily lead to the child becoming an unreasonable dictator in the home, willing to use illness as a psychological weapon against the parents.

A combination of all these attitudes may occur. In each instance, the basic problem of illness and recovery is complicated by fear, guilt, or over-solicitousness. The child is confused by irrelevancies, is often baffled, and the road to recovery is prolonged.

Dr. Johnson says that first the illness must be assessed, asking the doctor's help where necessary. This is not the time for placing blame . . . the child is interested not in how he became sick, but in how he should go about getting well.

"Even minor illnesses require attention to five basic considerations: rest, diet, elimination, treatment, and investigation. The parent can assist the child in considering each of these in turn, and in evolving a regimen of treatment," writes Dr. Johnson.

"The day's routine activities are restored to normal on the basis of the child's improving health, and not on the basis of the child's or the parent's whims. The household and family activities do not stop because the child is ill, but are modified to compensate for the limitations set by the actual illness," he concludes.

Morin Heights

(Intended for last issue)

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCone with their daughter Irene Margaret spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. J. Seale.

A meeting of the Home and School Association was held, with Miss Paige Pinneo, former Arts Teacher at Verdun High School, as guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Graeme Bell and Mr. W. R. Bell spent the week-end here.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin McCullough were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. McCullough.

PICTURES HELP

Montreal (CP) — Montreal doctors say they are depending more and more on pictures to help tell their patients what ails them. Patients sometimes were too "jittery" to comprehend verbal explanations, they said.

Recent Marriage At Morin Heights

Goodman - Lacken

Morin Heights United Church was the scene of a wedding on Saturday, September 7, when the Rev C. G. Westhaver officiated at the marriage of Mary Bernice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lacken, of Morin Heights, and Alexander William Goodman, son of Mrs. W Goodman, of Montreal. The church was decorated with summer flowers, and the guest pews were marked with white ribbons. Mrs. George Watchorn played the wedding music and Mrs. Marcus Sims was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white lace and tulle over satin, with a matching lace bolero. Her cap and shoulder-length veil were of fine tulle. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Colin Cameron, sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of sapphire blue tulle and nylon tricot over taffeta, with shirred bodice and full skirt. She wore a matching feather hat, and carried a nosegay of white and pink carnations.

Mr. John Arthur, brother-in-law of the groom, acted as best man. The ushers were Mr. E. Kneeland and Mr. C. Cameron.

KNOW YOUR Canada

Prepared by the Research Staff of ENCYCLOPEDIA CANADIANA

Who were the first white men to discover the Atlantic seaboard of North America?

Norsmen from Greenland are known to have visited the shores of northeastern America about 1000 A.D., but their exact landing place is a matter of controversy. Their visits produced no tangible results, for in the 14th century the Norse colony in Greenland was wiped out and the very memory of the Norse discovery of America died. For practical purposes, the discoverer of the mainland of North America was John Cabot, who, in an attempt to reach Asia by the western route, probably reached Cape Breton Island in 1497, and coasted down the Atlantic seaboard from Labrador to Chesapeake Bay in 1498. Jacques Cartier first demonstrated the insular character of Newfoundland and the existence of the great waterway known as the St. Lawrence River.

What tragic event helped bring about the charting of the Arctic Coast of Canada?

A northern tragedy occurred in 1845 when Sir John Franklin and all his men lost their lives on King William Island when hemmed in by the ice. Numerous expeditions were sent out to search for the famous explorer and his men, and in the course of these expeditions the whole of the Arctic coast of Canada was charted. Ships sailing west from the Atlantic met ships sailing east from the Pacific; thus the existence of the long sought Northwest Passage was at last demonstrated.

What newspaper has the largest circulation in Canada?

The Toronto Star was a feeble publication, seven years old, with a circulation of 7,000 in 1899, when Joseph E. Atkinson, newspaperman born near Newcastle, Ontario, accepted the management on the stipulation that he be paid partly in stock. By the time of his death in 1948 he had built up a daily circulation of 345,000 — the largest in Canada — and the Star Weekly, founded in 1910, had passed the 900,000 mark. His father died when he was two months old and at 15 he went to work in a woollen mill, but he was able to attend high school for a time. He began his lifelong newspaper career as Newcastle correspondent of the Port Hope Times, and went on to distinguished writing for other newspapers. His will left the newspaper properties in perpetuity to the Atkinson Charitable Foundation and instructed the trustees to devote the profits to religious, charitable and educational undertakings in Ontario.

Home and School

The Home and School meeting was held at the Morin Heights Intermediate School on Monday last. The guest of honor was Miss G. Paige Pinneo, of Carillon and Montreal. Miss Pinneo showed films on the works of famous artists, and commented on their life and biography. Also, plans were made to hold a dance in the school auditorium on September 27, with the "Happy Wanderers" of Ottawa to supply the music. Please plan to keep this date open and support the Home and School Association.

War Veteran Mourned, Old Resident Here

Sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Roy Campbell, who passed away at the Royal Victoria Hospital on Friday, September 13. Mr. Campbell, a former resident of this community, had lived for a number of years in Montreal, but had returned here following his retirement to live. He is survived by his wife, the former Ruby Campbell, a son, Mason, of Morin Heights, and a daughter, Dawn (Mrs. G. Nesbitt) of Montreal.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Robert Blair, B.A., B.D., at the William Wray Chapel, University Street, and interment was in Morin Heights United Church Cemetery. Many beautiful flowers bore tribute of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. A number of fellow comrades of Legion Branch 171, Morin Heights, paid last respects to their fellow comrade at a Legion Service held in the cemetery.

Interesting Speaker At Women's Institute

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute took place last Wednesday evening in the school. The president occupied the chair.

Routine business was dealt with, and the question was brought up as to whether it was going to be worth while continuing the School Fair, as it was found that the scholars did not take full advantage of the distribution of seeds and quite a few were not used, thus diminishing the number of exhibits. It was decided to table this question for a month, when it will be fully decided.

At conclusion of the business session, the meeting was turned over to the convener for the evening, Mrs. H. Johnson, who introduced as speaker Miss Gertrude Morrison (S.Ph.), who has recently returned from Entry Island of the Magdalen group. The speaker not only gave an exceedingly interesting lecture, but showed some excellent slides, and the topic was much enjoyed by all present.

At the conclusion of the lecture, Mrs. Gibbons thanked the speaker, in the name of the Institute. Refreshments brought the evening to a close.

Pre-Nuptial Shower

A pleasant social event took place at the Arundel Golf Club when a surprise party and miscellaneous shower was tendered to Miss Dianne Barrie, whose marriage takes place this month. The hostesses were Mrs. Douglas Cooke and Mrs. Rathwell Morrison. The clubhouse was decorated with white streamers, bells and flowers. There were about 40 guests present. The bride-to-be was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Refreshments brought a charming evening to a close.

Residents of Arundel were saddened this week by news of the sudden death of Mr. T. Parker, of The Glen. Mr. Parker was well known in Arundel, and the sympathy of this community is extended to the bereaved family.

At the end of World War II the average weekly wage in Canadian manufacturing plants was $30 per week; it is now $65 per week.

NEW dials for OLD...

BROWNSBURG

next spring

We are mailing a card to all our telephone customers in Brownsburg, asking them to return it if their telephones bear the old dial plate with figures only.

If your telephone dial does not show letters as well as figures will you please drop your card in the mailbox as soon as possible?

The new dial must be on your telephone by next spring. At that time, all Brownsburg telephone numbers will change to include "LEcture 3" and four numerals.

The four numerals will be the same as your present number. The introduction of the "two-letter five-figure" numbers in Brownsburg is another step toward direct dialing of out-of-town numbers — soon by Long Distance operators and eventually by you yourself.

Field Meeting of Woods Experts From Pulp and Paper Association

Grenville, Que. — The 1957 field meeting of the private land management committee of the Woodlands Section of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association was held last week in the Hawkesbury-Grenville-Lachute area under the sponsorship of Canadian International Paper Company. The meeting was under the chairmanship of M. R. Wilson, Manager of the Grenville Woods Division of C.I.P.

Some 80 people representing Canadian and U.S. forest industries and associations in the provinces of Quebec, Ontario and New Brunswick, and the States of Michigan and Maine, participated in the meeting.

A highlight of the meeting was the presentation of a Canadian Forestry Association Tree Farm Certificate to the C.I.P. Harrington Forest Farm by Norman Somers of the Brownsburg-Lachute Rotary Club. W. B. Salkeld, Executive Assistant to the Woodlands Manager of C.I.P. accepted the award on behalf of the company. This was the 100th such certificate awarded in the locality, by far the most highly concentrated area of properly managed farm woodlots in Canada.

The program for the first day of the three-day meeting consisted of an inspection tour of the Harrington Forest Farm and its recently established tree nursery, which C.I.P. Co. hopes will provide one million seedlings annually for reforestation purposes in the region.

Following dinner at the Harrington Farm a panel discussion was held with speakers representing organizations in the area which have sponsored the tree farm movements of the Canadian Forestry Association in that area. M. D. Somers spoke on behalf of the Brownsburg-Lachute Rotary Club. Denis Austin on behalf of the Rawdon Chamber of Commerce and L. Chapman for the Hudson Farm Forum.

G. D. Morrison, extension forester with Canadian International Paper Company presented a report on the progress and activities of the Harrington Farm in experimental work and its extension and educational work with neighboring woodlot owners. Lloyd Van Camp, president of the Canadian Forestry Association, closed the meeting with a review of the forest farm movement in Canada and its promises for the future.

The second day of the private land management meeting was taken up with visits to outstanding private woodlots in the area, including those owned and operated by G. Alan Johnson, Canadian Industries Limited and Canadian Refractories Limited.

The meeting was brought to a close on the third day by an inspection tour of the Morgan Arboretum and Woodlands, at Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, under the guidance of Professor A. R. C. Jones, Head of the Department of Woodlot Management.

Have You A Question on UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE OR EMPLOYMENT?

In this column we publish questions about unemployment insurance and employment, together with answers received from the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

If you are uncertain about any point do not hesitate to send us your question. We will obtain an answer and publish it in this column.

Following are some questions with answers which may be of interest to you:

Q. I have been working for 14 months and am now expecting to become unemployed if I cannot find a suitable job. Will I be able to qualify for benefit? How many weeks are required to qualify?

A. To qualify for benefit you must have 30 weekly contributions in the last 104 weeks and eight of these contributions must be in the last 52 weeks or since your last claim began, whichever is shorter. Moreover, if you are making a new claim less than 104 weeks after your last claim began, 24 of the 30 weekly contributions must be in the 52 weeks prior to your new claim or since the commencement of your last claim, whichever is the longer period. A determination as to whether or not you fulfill these qualifying conditions can only be made after you make your application.

* * *

Q. I have been working for the Civil Service for the last eight years. A couple of years ago I stopped paying unemployment insurance. Now I have transferred to another government department and deductions are made from my cheque for unemployment insurance. Why is this?

A. A civil servant is required to pay contributions for unemployment insurance until such time as the employing department considers the work he is doing is permanent in nature; Until the department issues a certificate to the Unemployment Insurance Commission to this effect, contributions must be continued.

OLD FIGHTER PLANE NOW IS PLAYHOUSE

Omemee, Ont. (CP) — A manufacturing chemist's interest in engines has provided children in this Victoria County village with an exciting and unusual playhouse — an old Hurricane fighter plane.

Charles G. Shaw, who years ago developed an interest in well-built motors, bought nine Hurricanes from a war surplus pool at St. Johns, Que., after the Second World War.

He salvaged the engines and stored them away, but in order to learn the wiring patterns he purchased a complete machine. After he learned the wiring system's intricacies the plane's usefulness to him was ended.

Now the old fighter is a giant toy, a continual source of delight and removable souvenirs for youngsters. The tires are punctured, the wing tips broken and the fabric shows rips, but the "flying model" makes a good playhouse.

Ceremony Marks 'Finis' to 'Going-for-the-Mail' Era

Inauguration of the house-to-house mail delivery for Greater Lachute was attended by a colorful ceremony here Monday morning, when Mayor Léopold Carrière cut the traditional white ribbon at the central post-office, and also had the pleasure of receiving the first letter thus delivered, from the hands of the courier serving that route which includes the City Hall.

The letter was from the Postmaster-General, the Hon. William Hamilton. In it the minister sent greetings to the populace of Lachute, Ayersville and St. Jerusalem, and gave notice that the town is now in line with the 143 Canadian centres served by individual postal delivery. The latter recalled that, in the postal history of this community, the first postmaster was one Hawley Hutchins appointed in 1835; it traced local developments in the service, up to the present postmaster, Florian Guitard. The minister also solicited the co-operation of the public in the work of the Postal Department.

Speakers Voice Pleasure

Mayor Carrière, after reading this communication, requested the postal representatives present to convey good wishes to the writer, from this community which "steadily assumes the stature of an important and progressive town." He congratulated Philippe Valois, M.P., on his fruitful effort to procure this service, and voiced appreciation to Postmaster Guitard, his staff and his mail couriers.

Two members of the local clergy also expressed gratification in this new facility — the Rev. Wm. Lacourse, parish priest, and the Rev. C. R. Lang, rector of St. Simeon's.

Mr. Philippe Valois expressed pleasure that efforts instituted in 1950 had, after persistent following up, reached this happy culmination. He, also, thanked the present postmaster for his valuable aid in promoting the new service, while paying tribute to the late Mossman Gall who was postmaster for 40 years, and to his immediate successor, the late Eric Stephens. He assured the gathering of the devoted service of the Department, and of its employees at the local office.

Representatives of Government

Besides those previously mentioned, others noted at this function were — Maurice Fortin, regional director and personal representative of the Hon. Wm. Hamilton, who was m.c. for the proceedings; Emilien Corbeil, director of the Montreal postal district; Paul-Emile Choquet, superintendent of Ste. Agathe region; J.-Henri Lefebvre, superintendent of promotion, Montreal; Jules Chicoine, exterior relations, Montreal; N. Blais, Dept. of Public Works; Mayor E. Smith, of St. Jerusalem; Mayor Réal Morrissette, of Ayersville; Notary J. Octave Latour, of St. Benoit; members of the clergy; Miville Trickey, Donat Saulnier and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce; Fernand Legault, Q.C., and representatives of the Catholic School Commission, and others.

After the proceedings, an informal reception was held at the City Hall.

Legion Discusses Armistice Plans, Remembrance Day

Among main items on the agenda was the annual Armistice Supper, the Armistice services in Lachute, the Polio campaign and the Poppy campaign.

The Armistice Supper will be held Saturday, November 9, under chairmanship of Vice-president R. O. (Dick) MacLean. The supper will be followed by a get-together and dance. It is hoped to secure the the services of the Canadian Artillery Band on Monday, November 11, when annual services will be held in the Memorial Park.

The annual Poppy Day was discussed at length, and Comrade H. Simpson accepted the chairmanship of this campaign, to be held in Lachute and district. This campaign is sponsored by the Legion to aid veterans and their families who may be in need or distress.

A report on the Teen-age Dance was given by Comrade Doug Ogilvie. The dances show the youngsters themselves are interested. Legion members act as supervisors and an invitation is extended to all parents who may have suggestions on these dances to contact the Legion and present their views.

LAW PUTS CURB ON JUVENILES IN GRILLS

Removes Doubt on Enforcement, Responsibility of Town Police Force

By-law 206 — amending previous by-law 190 to regulate grills and dance halls within the town limits — was adopted by Lachute Town Council at its last meeting, under presidency of Mayor Léopold Carrière.

The principal amendments stipulate:

(1) Hours of operation on Sundays and religious holidays, from 8 a.m. to midnight.

(2) Dancing forbidden, also orchestra music, shows and singing acts, on Sundays and religious holidays.

(3) Youths or girls under 20 years of age not admitted to grills.

(4) Violations of this regulation are the exclusive jurisdiction of the Municipal Police Department.

Commenting on the above by-law, Mayor Carrière stated that 99 percent of the population are "with us" for rigid enforcement of this control, and he was confident the police force would see that it is respected.

Mayor Carrière also read a letter from the Grand Knight of K. of C. Council 2752, Notary Richard Valois, promising the members' support and commending the councillors on this action.

Ch. of Commerce Committee Submits New Street Names

On request of Mayor Carrière at the last Council meeting, the Civic Improvements committee of the Chamber of Commerce has drawn up recommendations for street names to designate certain thoroughfares still unnamed. Following are their suggestions:

"Sir George" — in memory of the late Sir George Perley, M.P. for Argenteuil for many years and minister without portfolio in the Bennett cabinet.

"Ste. Croix" — in recognition of services rendered to the Catholic community by the sisters of this Order for more than half a century.

"William Henry" — in memory of the late Mr. "Harry" Ayers, Knight of St. Sepulchre, former president of Ayers Limited and a recognized philanthropist.

"Valois" — in tribute to the late Notary J. E. Valois, former mayor and alderman, ex-officio community servant, worker for parish, schools and the first community band. . . Also in memory of Notary Gaetan Valois, Knight of St. Sepulchre, alderman, chairman of the school commission, poet, writer, member of the Committee of Catholic Education and vice-president of the Chamber of Notaries. . . Further in recognition of Philippe Valois, Advocate, third-term deputy for Argenteuil-Two Mountains in the House of Commons.

"St. Viateur" — in recognition of services rendered to the Catholic community by the brothers of this Order in the past 30 years.

"Giles" — to hold in esteem one of Lachute's leading citizens, J. S. Giles, founder of Giles Publishing House, ex-Mayor of Lachute, International Councillor of the Lions Clubs and a public-spirited townsman.

"Lacourse" — in tribute to the devoted pastor and priest, Rev. Wm. Lacourse, Domestic Prelate and Canon of the Catholic Church.

"Providence" — in honor of the Sisters of Providence in charge of the local hospital since its inception.

"Lafleur" — in recognition of the civic service of Dr. Jules Lafleur, ex-alderman and mayor.

"Carrière" — in recognition of the late Léo Carrière, founder of Lachute Lumber Company, and of his son, Léopold Carrière, three times Mayor of Lachute and noted for his civic zeal.

"St. Francois" — in respect to the Franciscan Fathers, custodians of the Notre Dame de Lourdes shrine on Brownsburg Road.

"Bernadette" — in respectful memory of the late Bernadette Carrière, wife of the late Harry Ayers, instigator of the Notre Dame and the Ste. Bernadette sanctuaries.

"Williamson" — in tribute to the famous geologist, Dr. John Williamson, native of these parts, who discovered the world's most productive diamond deposits in South Africa.

Members of the Town Council will be asked to study these recommendations at an assembly in the near future, and to select four names for immediate adoption. The others, if approved, will be retained for future use as the need arises.

2 Yrs. Penitentiary For Robbery Culprit At Jewelry Store

Various District Cases Heard at St. Jerome

Paul Emile Allard, 25, of Carillon, was sentenced Tuesday to two years in St. Vincent de Paul following a plea of "guilty" to the charge of breaking and entering with theft, in connection with the recent theft at Cadieux Jewelry Shop, Main Street.

Allard was arrested by Lachute police 23 hours after the incident, and has been held in jail since that time. He appeared before Judge Omer Coté in St. Jerome.

Trial of Wm. Campbell, 26, of 16 Island Lake, was postponed until October 22, when he appeared in St. Jerome court Tuesday. Campbell has been charged with "hit and run" following an accident at Huberdeau September 14. He has been released on $950 property bail.

Doris Dupont, of Ripon, Que., pleaded guilty to a charge of hit-and-run and was fined $150 plus costs at his appearance Tuesday in court. The charge was laid following an accident July 28 on Route 8.

Sentence of Elie Deschatelets, 46, of Charlemagne, was postponed to October 4 by Judge Coté Tuesday. The accused was found guilty of driving "under the influence". He was arrested September 2 by the Lachute Police.

Sentenced for Theft

Guy Dufor, 26, of St. Jerome, was sentenced to six months to run concurrently when he pleaded guilty to charges of breaking and entering with theft at the Crown Theatre and Hebert Restaurant in Brownsburg.

Receiving Life Membership

Honorary life membership in the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association was presented to Robert A. Giles, managing director and publisher of The Lachute Watchman, at the Association's convention at Banff recently. The presentation was made by retiring President W. Draayer, of Wetaskiwin, Alberta.

Hold Air Show This Sunday

The Rotary-sponsored Air Show, planned for last Sunday, was postponed due to unfavorable weather. This event will be staged next Sunday, September 29, at the Lachute Airport, commencing at 2 p.m. All the previously planned attractions will be presented, and an interesting program is assured.

Councillors Occupied With Overflow Agenda

Among business at a special meeting of Town Council, was information given by Mayor Léopold Carrière that the municipality had received a cheque for $1,232.14 from the Minister of Public Works, through the instigation of the Hon. W. M. Cottingham, M.P.P. The secretary was requested to acknowledge this grant, and to extend thanks of the Council to the two provincial ministers concerned. (The grant was earmarked for Fire Department costs.)

The meeting, held last Wednesday, was under chairmanship of the Mayor. Councillors absent were Messrs. Ross Muir and Romain Desjardins.

Permits were granted to Gatineau Power, for construction at its Grace Street substation, including a 10-truck garage; to Cecil Leishman for erection of a private garage on Court Street; and to François Charlebois, for a residence on Bedard Blvd.

A letter was received from Gilbert E. Ayers, chairman of the Lachute Hospital building fund, asking for a donation to this project. Mr. Ayers explained that for many years his company has been canvassed, and has given to, various organizations and causes to the far corners of the province and the country, and he now felt quite justified in soliciting a donation on behalf of the new local hospital.

Mayor Carrière, earnestly considering this appeal, felt it would be unwise to make a decision without taking time to debate the subject and scrutinize the budget. The Mayor took the imediate opportunity to congratulate Mr. Ayers, however, on the fine work he is doing in this matter; he then recommended that the request be tabled for study. Ald. Mozart Carrière moved that the secretary acknowledge Mr. Ayers' letter and also assure him that the municipility would give a donation.

Historical Society Annual Conclave Oct. 5 at Carillon

The 23rd annual meeting of the Historical Society is being held in the Museum at Carillon on Saturday, October 5, to elect officers for the coming year, to receive annual reports, etc. The proceedings will commence at 2.30 p.m.

Two prominent speakers will each give a short address on this occasion — Dr. C. P. Martin, former Professor of Anatomy at McGill University, and Dr. J. D. McColl, President of the Archaeological Association of Quebec. The latter is very much interested in the excavations being carried on at the St. Andrews East Golf and Country Club, and county residents will have added interest in the light of these developments.

This annual event is anticipated with pleasure by members and friends of the Society, who, while supporting their directorate in administering the affairs of this organization, also enjoy the sociability of the occasion in mellow surroundings of the autumn setting.

Damage by Fire, 2-Tenement House In Lachute Mills

Two Calls Answered By Brigade This Week

The fire was reported at 1.45, and for the next two hours, the brigade poured thousands of gallons of water on the blaze, which was burning throughout the walls and attic. Some 1,200 feet of hose were laid in three lines, two being connected to the fire-pump in a successful effort to increase the water pressure and douse the flames.

Romeo Chartrand and Nelson Champagne, occupants of the house, managed to save a considerable amount of clothing and furniture. The majority of fire damage was in the upstairs apartment occupied by the Champagnes, where the fire started in the wall near the stovepipes.

* * *

Extensive damage Sunday morning resulted from igniting grease in the home of Bernard Massicotte, optometrist, on Sydney Street. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Massicotte around 11.15 a.m. as she was returning from a neighbor's.

Flames had by this time ignited the curtains, wall and cupboards, and it was necessary to tear down a considerable section of the wall.

Independ't Grocers To Organize at Meeting Sept. 30

Grocers of this district (Lachute, Ayersville, Brownsburg, St. Philippe and St. Andrews East), both licensed and unlicensed, are holding an organizational meeting in the auditorium here next Monday at 8 p.m. — their purpose being to form a local branch of the Quebec Food Retailers Association.

To give advice and guidance on this project, two authorities on the organization will be present, namely, C. A. Majeur, provincial administrator of the Association, and J. Drapeau, of Montreal, graduate of a Chicago school in technical administration.

Aims of the Association are to group independent merchants to improve their purchasing power and conditions, and to share mutual interests and benefits.

Plans Announced For Home-School Organizing Meet

The Home and School Association organization meeting is planned for October 30, at 8 p.m. in the music room of Lachute High School.

Business of this initial meeting will include:

(1) Election of executive officers.

(2) Discussion of functions and objectives of the Association. (Discussion leader, Mrs. C. E. Woolgar.)

(3) Registration of members.

A slate of nominees for the executive positions of president, of 1st vice-president and 2nd vice-president, corresponding and recording secretaries, and treasurer, has already been drawn up. However, further nominations from the floor of the meeting will be accepted.

It is important, however, that before making any nominations, it must be ascertained that the nominee will accept the position if elected.

W. Inst. Ladies and Lions Teams Meet Next Week in Debate

An interesting departure from routine at the Lions Club meeting will be a debate, next Tuesday evening, between a club team and three representatives of Lachute Women's Institute. According to President Ernest Snadden, this portion of the meeting (from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m.) will be open to the public and all friends are invited to attend. The debate will be held in the Legion Hall, following the club's regular supper meeting.

Subject of the debate will be: "Resolved, that the proper qualities of citizenship are being taught in Canada."

This will be argued in the affirmative by the Lions speakers. Messrs. Lorne Duncan, Ernest Snadden and a third member yet undecided, while the ladies' team (Mrs. Ethel McGibbon, Mrs. Sam Milnes and Mrs. Fernand Legault) will take the negative stand on this topic.

The debate will be chaired by Mrs. F. W. FitzGerald, while the panel of judges will comprise Mrs. Norman Holland, Philippe Valois, M.P., and Principal Fred Royal. Their task will be to decide merits of the arguments from three angles viz., the home; the school; and the immigrant to Canada.

Street Laying and Servicing With Ayersville Expansion

Ayersville Municipal Council decided to take over from Messrs. E. and G. Hammond a street 72 feet in width running west from Bradford street for a length of 600 feet over part of lot 649. This thoroughfare and its extension will be named Richelieu Boulevard. The mayor and secretary were authorized to sign the transfer for a nominal price of $1 and other considerations.

This motion by Coun. Maurice Champagne, seconded by Coun. Rosaire Quenneville, was passed at the regular session last week, Mayor Réal Morrissette presiding. Coun. D. G. Simon was the only member absent.

Coun. Edgar Cyr gave notice of motion that at next meeting he would present a by-law to authorize construction of a service sewer on Gauthier Street, for a length of 780 feet. This development accedes to a request presented by Jacques Beaudin on behalf of property-holders on this street.

Coun. Quenneville and Coun. Campeau moved that the municipality construct 150 feet of 6-inch service sewer and a 1-inch copper water conduit, on Richelieu Blvd., from Bradford Ave., to service certain houses to be built shortly on this section.

A committee of councillors — Messrs. Foucault, Champagne and Simon — was appointed to study the question of tariff on the water supply purchased from Lachute.

Building permits were granted for a house on Roy Avenue by Roland Cousineau, a house on Lavigueur Street by Jacques Proulx and Wm. Wilkes for property improvements on Tessier Street.

It was decided that chimney cleaning, compulsory for every dwelling, be undertaken by a town crew at a fee of 75 cents cash, or $1 if billed with taxes.

The secretary was instructed to have someone procure proprietors' signatures to the cadastral plan and official reference for lots 647, 648, and 724, at a fee of 25 cents a name.

Argenteuil Outdoors

A column for the sportsman

— By BOB ATCHISON —

Last week I had the great pleasure of listening to Duncan Breese, well known writer on outdoor life, in his talk at the Argenteuil Fish and Game Protective Association. I was very sorry that only a few members turned out, as they would have heard a man who knows what he's talking about. Maybe he will come back some other time, soon.

• • •

I received a phone call last week about a duck that had been wounded. Here's where the laugh comes in: I went up to get it out in the middle of the river, as I don't like to see cripples. After throwing rocks out to scare it up, and having it swim away, I shot and killed it. Rowing out to get it, away it went for a swim — me too. Then I got it. . . . Rubber, tied on a long string! Boy, did I feel foolish!! Of course, the fellows didn't know anything about it. Not much!

• • •

Now for some news of fishing. Very good is the word, for all the lakes and streams in the county. They have to be worked, though. Nearly all the baits are producing, with the red and white being the best.

• • •

I heard today that Paul Richer is posting his land to hunting this year. Not that I blame him. I think none of us would like to have shots drilled through our homes by a bunch of trigger-happy dopes. A thought — try asking permission for your hunting. There will be very few refusals, and don't try sighting your guns at the side of his barn. Maybe you'll get tired of all these don'ts, but be a sportsman.

• • •

Some tips for you:

Rawhide laces are soft and hard to put through the eyelets of your boots. Char the ends with a match. It will harden the tip and make lacing a lot easier.

When your boots are wet, try this to dry them. Heat some sand or sawdust and pour it into them a few times, or if you can't do this, pack paper into them, changing it often. Dress them with saddle soap before using them.

Carry your knife in the small of your back; it's more comfortable walking. And get a full sheath made for it.

Heavy aluminum foil makes good pans for your food if you are going light.

For all the fishermen: Before putting your rods away, take them out of cases; never store them in a container of any kind. Hang them up in a cupboard, out of the heat. Your lines the same, and make sure they are wrapped on wood so they don't rot.

Clean your baits up; oil the reels. In other words, fit everything now for next spring.

• • •

To A.D.: Nope, I'm sorry, I don't know of anyone with a 22 pistol for sale. You need a permit from the Police to even have one, besides a lot of other regulations. Sorry.

• • •

Our Association is really going on the rocks. We need the members' support, so come on out and give it a hand! We've got to get behind and give a push to get things done. Every member wants better sport, but you can't get it just sitting back and talking about it. There's good hunting and fishing in the county, but it needs our help to keep going.

• • •

By the amount of shots heard on the North River, there are a bunch of ducks being taken. I see George Jackson going out every night, rain or shine. I haven't seen J. Pickett around this year yet. I'd like to try his new gun out on a couple of shots. How about it, Jim!

By the amount of tracks, the deer should be very plentiful this year. If you hunters will co-operate with me, I'd like to keep a tally of all taken around Argenteuil. The same goes for all game, including the odd bear.

• • •

Now, how about you Dads taking the youngsters out and showing them how to handle a gun! It's just my idea, but the fellow that learns how to handle firearms the right way, doesn't get into trouble very often.

• • •

It's better to walk than be carried, so be careful of your gun in the bush!

1957 Regatta Was Successful Event At St. Andrews

St. Andrews East — A crowd estimated at 2,500 people is reported to have witnessed the annual regatta held at St. Andrews in conclusion of the summer activities. Georges Duhamel, president of the committee, is gratified with the enthusiasm centring around the North River and its facilities in this village. Credit is due to many who assisted at the event, including Hubert Viau, Pierre Paquette, Edgar Monette, Marcel Décary, Bert Robert, J. Schaffer and René Lavigne, who gave valuable service as organizers, lifeguards, judges, and in other capacities.

Worthwhile prizes were awarded to the winners, and the committee takes occasion, in this department, to thank Dr. Roger Dumais, J. R. Charron and René Viau.

Bishop at Dedication In Holy Trinity Church

On Sunday morning in Holy Trinity Church, the Lord Bishop of Montreal dedicated a lectern Bible in memory of the late Wm. E. and Elizabeth Brigden. He also blessed the new floor, new carpet and new sanctuary lighting. The church was decorated with autumn flowers, and a large congregation welcomed the Bishop.

Mr. Ronald Brigden, of St. Lambert, Mr. Wm. Brigden and son, Edward, of Montreal, Mr. Stephen Brigden, of Ottawa Mrs. M. Mathew, of St. Philippe, Mrs. H. Lessard, of Grenville also Miss Mildred Brigden and Mrs. E. Racine, attended this dedication service in memory of their parents.

Golf Tournament By Curling Club Is New Venture

The Lachute Curling Club held its first annual golf tournament on the local course last Monday. In addition to Lachute curlers, visitors from Montebello, Montreal, Maxville, and Kingston, Jamaica, participated in this event. Twenty-seven prizes generously donated by members of the Curling Club, were distributed at the dinner which followed the golf competition.

The Lachute Curling Club Trophy, which will be competed for annually in future, was won for the first time by Clayton Robinson, who had the lowest net score, and it will be held by him for one year. Principal winners of the other prizes were:

1st Low gross — Laurier Carrière.
2nd Low net — Leopold Carrière.
2nd Low gross — Douglas Hay.
1st Low gross, visitors — Major Hoople, Maxville.

The president of the Curling Club, Mr. N. W. Boyd, was chairman at the dinner. After cordially welcoming the visitors and thanking the donors of prizes, he stated that all present seemed to agree that the Curling Club's first golf tournament had been remarkably successful and enjoyable.

School Bus Drivers To Report Violators

Memo sheets have been issued to school bus drivers employed by the Lachute Protestant School Board, on which they are to record any information of vehicles passing stationary buses.

The slips will be turned over to the Provincial Police and action taken in cases where it is considered necessary.

EDITORIAL NOTES...

Education Prevents Disease

NATIONAL IMMUNIZATION WEEK is being lebrated in Canada this week, for the fifteenth nsecutive year. This annual event is planned to ll to the attention of the people throughout nada the importance of immunization against rtain diseases. In the past years these have cluded diphtheria, whooping-cough, tetanus and some parts of Canada tuberculosis.

This year, because of the development of the lk vaccine, poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, ll be added to the list. Immunization has already nieved remarkable results. For instance in 1944 re were over three thousand cases of diphtheria Canada; in 1956 there were only 135 cases. In 4 there were over 13,000 cases of whooping-ugh; in 1956-58, 513. Polio, a disease which even the absence of vaccine varies in incidence, nped from 387 cases in 1943 to 8,878 in 1953. wever, by the use of the Salk vaccine it is hoped that its incidence may be reduced to the vanishing point.

It is a very difficult thing to make sure that every person in every part of a vast country like Canada is informed about how these diseases might be prevented. The proof that people will be careless even in spite of widespread propaganda is found in two epidemics of diphtheria during the last year, one in Winnipeg with 46 cases, and another in Detroit with 161 cases and 5 deaths. Yet in the absence of an educational program covering the whole country through national media such as radio, television and newspapers, there is sure to be laxness in some localities and in the case of diseases such as those mentioned the price of lack of eternal vigilance is disease and perhaps death. All Canadians are urged to unite during this special week to help to carry the message to all parts of Canada that there are certain of the diseases of childhood which may be avoided.

Many Go Hungry

THE CONNECTION between low incomes and dequate diet is strikingly illustrated in a new ort by the Food and Agriculture Organization the United Nations.

One table in this comprehensive FAO report ued in Rome shows the cost of a representative t of 3,000 calories, for one person for one day, resented 4½ hours' work by an average factory rker in India.

The same one-day food supply represented 3.8 rs of work in Japan, 3.2 hours in Italy. By ntrast, the figure is 0.5 hour in Canada, 0.4 in United States. This particular table is based 1953 levels.

Three different diets were used for this comtion, the 3,000 calory one being the highest. bers had 2,500 and 2,100 calories.

"It is apparent that in the poorer countries," s the report, "the more nutritious and expene diet would be utterly beyond the means of average factory worker, unless he were a gle man without dependents.

"Even for the meager diets usually consumed these countries, the number of hours to be worked is greater than is necessary in economically developed countries for the much superior diets which they enjoy."

Even an elementary knowledge of nutrition could go far to overcome the handicap of poverty, says the report. Greater emphasis on home economics and consumer education could have important effects on health.

Where average incomes are too low for a fully balanced diet for everyone, there is much to be said for channelling a larger share of the "protective foods" to the most vulnerable groups, including children and mothers.

The report calls the spread of school meals and other welfare schemes for such purposes one of the most encouraging developments since the Second World War, and one of the most striking results of the growing knowledge of nutritional principles.

But, it finds, large sections of the neediest of the world's people are still untouched by these developments, and what remains to be done is much greater than has been accomplished.

Need for Civil Defence

THE PROSPECT of a nuclear war must be ed. And because it must be, Friday, October 4, been designated as Civil Defence Day nationde to remind Canadians of this necessity.

Because every Canadian community — the bigt and the smallest — has a part to play in nada's Civil Defence program, Federal authties have asked the co-operation of all levels of vernments, and of individual men and women ross Canada, to take an active part in a series demonstrations to be organized by hundreds of alities throughout the country.

In the Province of Quebec, the Hon. Paul uvé, Q.C., Minister responsible for Civil Dece, has taken steps to inform all cities, towns d municipalities of the plans laid by the Federal thorities about Civil Defence Day, inviting them stage public demonstrations on the occasion. the beginning of this month some 30 had resnded to the invitation and had made their plans own; ten of them are situated in the immediate inity of Montreal.

Canada's Civil Defence policy today is based on evacuation of our main urban centres prior to nuclear bombing attack. It may be assumed — and this has been often stressed — that in any major war involving this country, the air over Canada is likely to be the scene of vital air battles, and that numbers of enemy aircraft carrying nuclear weapons for delivery on targets in the United States or Canada may fail to reach their targets or may be shot down over Canada. In such circumstances, it seems certain the bombs carried by such enemy aircraft will either be delivered against our larger cities — as targets of second choice — or, alternatively, jettisoned and detonated almost anywhere in Canada.

The best defence is dispersal, and the only way to evacuate the large cities and industrial areas most likely to be target centres in a war is to plan it out in advance. It is because Civil Defence offers a way of making this necessary preparation in advance that Civil Defence Day is proclaimed in Canada. It is a day for Canadians to consider what they can do to save themselves, should the worst ever come.

uckleberry Finn Talking . . G. E. MORTIMORE

In the wreck of the steamboat I und a newspaper with somethin it about the way they're takin ir book out of the schools in New ork, because it has some parts i that's de-rog-a-tory to Negroes. I read this to Jim, and he looked me kind of puzzled.

"What does dat mean, Huck — ee-rug-a-tory?"

"It means they don't like the way wrote down your talk in the book nd all that about how you were run-away slave."

"What you mean, doan like it? at's de way it happen, didn't it? was a runaway slave, warn't I?"

"Yes, Jim, but all the slaves are ree since the Civil War, and they ion't want children to read about 'em."

"Ef dey's all free now, who goin be hurt when you put in a book about de slaves?"

"There's a thing called the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, who don't like to read about all that."

"No, they're all free men, Jim."

"Den why doan dey want chillen to read 'bout the slaves? Whuffo day make de chillen go to school, ef they doan' want 'em to learn what's in books?"

"Well, Jim, there's no time to read all the books in the world, because there's too many of 'em. So they just give the children the good books."

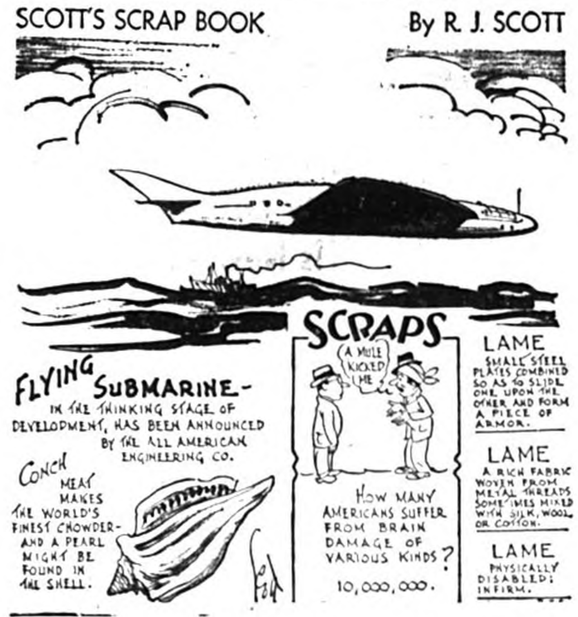

"What's wrong 'bout our book Huck?"

"It's the way you talk in the book Jim, all the time saying 'Den' and 'Dey' and 'Dish-yer' and words like that. National Association for the Advancement of Colored People — they think you ought to talk the way they do in college, Jim."

"Dad-burn it, Huck, where de sense in dat? I never been to no college. I talked de same way all my life. You speck me to learn some new way to talk when I'm an old man, more'n 150 years old?"

I was going to tell him he'd missed the point, but I see it warn't no use. You can't learn Jim to argue. He's just like them officials in the National Association of Colored People — once they get an idea in their heads, you can't get it out.

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK By R. J. SCOTT

ALL ABOARD

With G. E. Mortimore

Rich people are always recommending poverty, for others. They argue that poverty is more uplifting than wealth, and also more fun.

They seldom go so far as to try it themselves. As some people say of churchgoing, cold morning showers, or the drinking of ill-tasting medicines, rich people often plead that they had enough poverty in their youth to last them the remainder of their lives.

Their argument in favor of poverty has some merit to it, even if they don't practise what they preach. In these days of ample consumer credit, a man of small means can feel like a millionaire, until the first instalment on his yacht or sports car comes due.

But there are still some people who can't raise the down-payment or who are burdened with an old-fashioned, neurotic compulsion to pay for things as they get them. People in this group can enjoy the benefits of poverty.

Consider the matter of buying clothes, for instance. One man can order a suit as nonchalantly as he buys a package of gum. Another man has to wait until time and moths have eroded the old garment beyond help, and then he has to buy another one with the rent money. Which man is going to feel more strongly about the new suit?

The wealthy man may have better taste, and he may have his suit made to measure, but the poor man will remember the transaction longer. He's bound to remember it because he will be wearing the suit until it falls to pieces.

When a man has been shuffling about clad in a thing that looks like a potato sack with buttons, his appearance in a new suit always stirs comment among friends and co-workers. But a man who has a suit for every day of the year misses this kind of attention, I believe.

He doesn't hear people saying: "Well, C.B., I see you're wearing the blue pin-stripe today." The best he can expect by way of personal small-talk is a compliment on the handsome design of a new hotel he has just acquired.

Down in my income bracket, however, a new suit is still a conversation piece. I bought a new suit recently, and my ears are still ringing from the comments it inspired. The usual pattern of talk was this:

"Wife bullied me into buying it. Twelve dollars; bargain day; off the rack. An hour in the rain, and it should fit my little boy." (The rules demand that a man should answer compliments about a new suit by drawing attention to its cheapness, poor fit and unfortunate color.)

Everyone I met responded in exactly the same way, except my friend Jim, who took a handful of sleeve between thumb and forefinger, and observed:

Who was known as Tea King of America?

The title was earned by Peter Charles Larkin, a native of Montreal, who originated the idea of selling tea in sealed lead-foil packets. He built up the Salada Tea Company and became its president. In 1922 he became a member of the privy council and was appointed Canadian High Commissioner in London, where he died in office.

North America's first agricultural fair was held at Windsor, N.S., in 1765. Saint John, N.B., had a provincial industrial exhibition in 1851. Ontario and Quebec encouraged fairs and exhibitions and made them a vital force in the life of each province. The Niagara Agricultural Society, founded about 1792, apparently held the first fair in Upper Canada. By 1840 there were fairs at London, York, Guelph, Ottawa, Port Hope, Cobourg, Brantford Hamilton and several other places.

The most successful matchmaker of his generation was Ezra Butler Eddy who began making matches by hand at Hull, Que., in 1854. He also built and operated a sulphite mill. Despite several disastrous fires, the business prospered and in 1886 it was reorganized as the E. B. Eddy Company, with Eddy as president. He was the first man in Quebec to use trucks for commercial purpose, and he installed the first electric plant in eastern Canada. He served as mayor of Hull on six occasions and was instrumental in giving that city its waterworks and sewage system. He also served in the Quebec legislative assembly.

What is the Strait of Anian?

The Strait of Anian is a mythical waterway through the continent of America, sought in vain by many of the early marine explorers. The name appears first on Mercator's famous chart of 1569, and was probably due to a misunderstanding of Marco Polo's reference to Ania, or Anam. This was thought to be in northeastern Asia, and the waterway supposed to lead to it was called the Strait of Anian.

Teenage Nylons

My daughter is now in nylons, but only for party affairs. I decided, in a moment of parental affection, to buy her half a dozen pairs, because I know how an active youngster can provoke runs in those gossamer creations.

The young lady at the lingerie store immediately noted that I was a male, somewhat embarrassed in store that seemed all frill and lace so she brought out the most expensive and sheerest hosiery in stock.

"These," sighed the lovely blonde "are so beautiful and she'd get such a kick from them. And it's wise buying six pairs at a time, because you can pair up the ones without runs. Besides — if you buy now you'll save, because nylons just have to go up in price . . . like everything else."

"Seems to me," I said, scuffing my toes on the rug, "that they cost enough now."

The blonde raised her cute little nose. "Nylon hosiery," she said "has not increased in price anything like other things. As a matter of fact, stockings are cheaper now than they were 10 years ago, so they are absolutely certain to go up — they just have to."

Logic like this, and a pair of very attractive blue eyes looking over the counter at me, completed the transaction. I'm a pushover for logic, I guess.

But once the deal was completed and the clerk and I got chatty, she told me, with a nice little smile, that she bought heavier nylons for everyday wear and the sheer kind only for special occasions. She also told me she came from a farm near Winnipeg, and that she's finding it tough paying rent for her apartment, buying food, and bus tickets.

"Everything's up in price," she said, "and I wasn't kidding when I told you nylons will be sure to go up. All the girls in the store are stocking up but we all agree that nylons and other clothing, haven't shot up like other things."

And then, blushing a little, she admitted that she'd sold me the most expensive stockings in the shop. "With men," she said, "we do that — why not?"

Well, why not? If the worst thing I ever do is take home a parcel of stockings a little too sheer to be practical I guess I'll be all right.

Besides, that clerk — scarcely more than 19 herself — was very pretty and I liked her. She had brains and sales ability as well as beauty. I am sure that one minute after I left the store, she'd forgotten I existed. But I hadn't forgotten what she said.

When my wife's eyebrows went up at the sight of six pairs of ultra-sheer nylons, I was ready. "Got a bargain," I said. "Nylons are going up . . . you can bet on it. Thought it prudent to get these for Sally now. Boy, when you've a family you've got to watch the trends!"

Flowerpot Island National Park in Georgian Bay covers an area of only 300 acres. The name derives from a group of tiny islands, some of them 50 feet high, that the waves have eroded into the shape of flowerpots.

"My Life Insurance man did a grand job for me, Ed"

All talk over the back fence isn't about sport, or politics, or television programs. Very often it's about such vital things as looking after the family and having enough money to retire on.

Your life insurance man is well equipped to solve these problems. He is trained to analyse all the facts about a family's future requirements. He serves Canadian families by offering practical plans to meet individual needs.

Life Insurance representatives have exceptional training opportunities today. Their own companies provide them with basic courses covering a wide variety of subjects.

Through the Life Underwriters Association of Canada they have access to the experience of many able men who have helped to make Canadians the world's best-insured people. This Association has a 2-year training program for its members. And, in addition, for those who desire to pursue more advanced studies, there is a 3-year university extension course leading to the Association's designation of Chartered Life Underwriter (C.L.U.)

This thorough training plus practical experience in helping people explains why millions of Canadians have welcomed the services of the modern Life Underwriter.

75 YEARS AGO

September 29, 1882 —

New Industry — . Mr. Charles Stackhouse, L.D.S., of Smith's Falls formerly of St. Andrews, has started a factory for making teeth — he only one of its kind in the Dominion.

Laborers are wanted at Stone field, 200 at Carillon, and 500 on the St. Andrews R.R.

Most of the right of way for the St. Andrews Junction R.R. has been purchased at from $20 to $30 per acre. . . The contractors have opened an office in Lachute under the Olivet Hall.

Miss C. L. Patterson, of Lachute, took six prizes at the Montreal Exhibition, namely for embroidered sofa pillow in worsted; hearth rug; crochet bed spread; crochet hoods; down counterpane and largest and best collection of work by one person.

50 YEARS AGO

October 4, 1907 —

Deaths — Two of our respected townsfolk passed away this week in the persons of Paul Ladouceur, and Joseph Prevost, a faithful employee of the C.P.R. for the last 25 years. Mr. Prevost was also a member of the Town Council.

Circuit Court was opened at Lachute and adjourned until October 28 by order of the Hon. Judge Robidoux.

Mr. J. L. St. Jacques has formed a partnership with Gustave Lamonthe, K.C., of Montreal, the new firm to be known as Lamonthe & St. Jacques.

25 YEARS AGO

September 29, 1932 —

Neighbors of Thos. Pollock, Hill Foot, seeing his building silhouetted in a glare of fire on Saturday night, thought the barn was ablaze and turned in an alarm to Lachute. The fire-brigade was promptly on the road, ready for business, and the fire truck was followed across the river by dozens of cars from town, with occupants curious as to the location and extent of the fire.

It was learned that the glare reflected from some distance behind the barn, where Mr. Pollock was burning brush, and his buildings were in no danger whatever. The firemen turned for home, still in good humor.

The new High School extension is now occupied, four classrooms having been opened upstairs on Monday, and four downstairs on Tuesday. Scholars are well pleased with their new surroundings.

Personnel of the Bank of Nova Scotia who for the past three months, have been temporarily housed in the Argenteuil Motor Sales Building, have now moved back into their own premises, which have undergone renovation. The many improvements and changes made for the general convenience of patrons, will be greatly appreciated. The building has all been repainted, and is now adding dignity to the Main Street.

The Rev. L. J. Rodrigue sailed on the C.S. Athenia on Friday for Scotland and expects to spend the next two years in England, France, and Italy.

Lakefield Resident Dies in Hospital

The Late Ernst H. Napp

A well known personage, particularly in the Lakefield district, Mr. Ernst Napp, passed away at the Providence Hospital in Lachute last Friday following a short illness.

Mr. Napp was born in Hamburg, Germany, in 1887, came to Canada in 1912, and for several years followed his trade as a butter and cheese maker. He was married in Montreal on September 20, 1913, to Miss Olga Evers, of Ratsburg, Germany, and in 1922 purchased a farm at Lakefield which has since been their home. Mrs. Napp passed away in 1942.

A quiet, unassuming person of kindly disposition, Mr. Napp was most industrious, and enjoyed keeping busy. He was a friend to all, and will be greatly missed by those who knew him.

Pall-bearers were — Messrs. H. Kerr, H. Kyle, A. MacDonald, D. MacDonald, K. Reilly and C. Good.

Bereavement to Former Townsman

Late Mrs. L. Canning

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Canning were shocked to hear of the latter's passing following a brief illness, during which time she was in the Montreal General Hospital.

Mrs. Canning, formerly Viola Rae Spence, was born and educated in Montreal. She was well known in this district, being a frequent visitor with her husband and during her childhood had spent much time in Upper Lachute.

As a member of Stanley Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Canning was keenly interested in the work of the Sunday School and ladies' branches of service.

Births, Marriages, Deaths, etc.

Births, Marriages, Deaths, and In Memoriam, etc., $1.00; 5 cents per type line extra for verses, with In Memoriam (estimate 8 words per type line).

Thanksgiving Service Held

The Thanksgiving service of St. Mary's Church was well attended; a number of friends from England and from Montreal were present. The chancel was beautifully decorated by Mrs. Herbert Brown, with autumn leaves, flowers, vegetables and fruit, and the traditional loaf of bread and bunch of grapes were placed on the Communion table by Mrs. M. Beaufoy. . . Next service will be on Sunday afternoon, October 20, at 2.30.

(It is deeply regretted that one of the church wardens, Mr. Jos. Provencal, was unable to be present through illness.)

Visitors from Grand Lodge And District Attend Annual Orange Meeting

Friday evening the officers and members of Alexandria Lodge 119 entertained the Grand Mistress and Grand Secretary, Sisters Hoyle and Helm, both of Montreal, also the members of North Star Lodge, of Harrington and a few from Grenville, for the annual meeting.

An interesting event took place when the R.W. Grand Mistress presented four of the Lodge members with quarter-century pins. Those receiving them were — Mrs. Joe Young, the oldest member in the lodge; her daughter, Sister Dora Arthurs, Bro. Jos. Provencal, and Sister L. McPhee. Sister Dora Arthurs was also re-instated.

The members were glad to welcome Sisters Young and MacRae back as they have both been in ill health for some time.

The hall looked most cheerful due to the untiring efforts of the Worthy Mistress, Sister Muriel Smith, Sister Hilda Young, Sister Lorna Young and Sister Janet Kelly. The evening closed with delightful refreshments.

Brownsburg

Marriage

On Saturday, September 21, the Rev. G. W. Bruce performed the marriage ceremony of James Duncan McLeod, of Dalry, Scotland and Ellen Thompson Hayman, of Saltcoats, Scotland; both have recently come to Brownsburg. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mann, of Brownsburg, formerly of Scotland.

Advice to Citizens

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind wishes to advise that a man collecting in Brownsburg in the name of the blind, is not collecting funds for the C.N.I.B., and furthermore, this man, contrary to the policy of the Institute, is not a volunteer worker from Brownsburg.

This advice is essential as it is reported this solicitor states he represents the Institute. His organization may have the right to collect in the community, but they have no Advisory Committee for Argenteuil, nor are they helping blind people in Brownsburg. These people are being taking care of by the C.N.I.B., which has an excellent Advisory Board, and an office which has been operating in this area for some time.

Contributors are urged to ask this solicitor's credentials; if his receipt book does not carry the name of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind in French and in English, then you know that you will be supporting an organization that does not represent the Institute doing the work in this community.

— A. C. Zaplaski

Morin Heights

Mrs. Chester McBride, of Montreal West, spent last week-end here visiting her niece, Miss Theresa McConnell, and Mr. J. A. McConnell.

Mrs. Clive Riddell and children, Elaine and Keven, of St. Laurent, spent the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Riddell at Mille Isles.

Miss Shirley Dey, of Montreal, spent a long week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Dey.

Mrs. Geo. MacDowell, accompanied by her daughter and son, Charlene and Billy, of Montreal, spent the week-end at their cottage here.

Mrs. Thos. Archibald and son, Brian, of Montreal, spent the week-end here with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Baumel.

Guests at Surprise Party

Among out-of-town guests at a reception held for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Seale (already reported in district news) were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Moore (parents of Mrs. Seale), Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Mooney (sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Seale), Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCone, Mrs. T. Archibald, Mrs. G. MacDowell, Miss C. MacDowell, Mr. and Mrs. R. Muncey, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bennett, Mr. G. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. C. Reigle, Mr. G. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jamieson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Millard, Miss S. Millard, all fom Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. L. Maxie of New Rochelle, N.Y.; and Mrs. C. Masse, Ottawa.

Cushing West

Mr. and Mrs. J. Menendez, of Cornwall, spent a week at the home of the latter's grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Usher.

Capt. and Mrs. T. W. Weir are spending a few days in Montreal this week.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pinkerton included Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stewart, of Montreal Messrs. Grant and Murray Harcourt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harvey and Mrs. Leslie Forth, of N.D.G., and Mrs. H. Gillis and son Jimmy, of Beaurepaire.

Mrs. Wm. Usher was in Toronto last week and attended meetings of the W.C.T.U. at Willard Hall. On her return she visited her families in Belleville, Ottawa and Arnprior.

Cath. Women's League Held Meeting at B'burg

Brownsburg — The C.W.L. St. Louis-de-France Sub-division, held their first fall meeting last week. General business was discussed.

Miss Muriel Jackson was appointed by Father Clement and Father Hurtubise to teach catechism to the beginners' class, starting in October.

The resignation of President Mrs. M. Donvito was regretfully accepted and she was presented with two brass vases. Sincere wishes for happiness were extended on her departure to Rosemere.

Mrs. Laura Hall will replace Mrs. M. Donvito as president and Mrs. G. Andresen was elected as 1st vice-president.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. L. Seary's group. A nicely decorated cake adorned the table as a farewell gesture to Mrs. M. Donvito.

Mrs. Muriel Hall, social convener, wishes to express her thanks to members and non-members who donated to the food sale held last June, and for their help in making this venture a success.

St. Andrews East

'New Look' for E. Settlement Church

Last Monday a working-bee was sponsored by the male members of the East Settlement United Church. Throughout the day there was much activity around the church building as the men got busy with a bull-dozer, spades, forks, hatchets and a chain saw, in an attempt to clean up the grounds and the surrounding brushwood.

In the course of pushing back some of the mounds of soil, the foundations of the old Methodist Church came to light, and in the minds of some who were present, this aroused memories of boyhood days. A wide area surrounding the church has now been cleared, and plans are afoot to gravel this section so as to provide suitable parking space for automobiles.

To Celebrate 50th Anniversary

On Sunday, October 13, the church will celebrate 50 years of Christian witness in East Settlement. The minister, the Rev. Wilson Bridge, has been invited to preach the anniversary sermon. Old and new friends are invited to join in the service of thanksgiving.

Dedication Sunday At Mille Isles

This Sunday at 11 a.m. the new Christ Church in Mille Isles will be officially opened and blessed by the Rt. Rev. John Dixon, Bishop of Montreal. The placing of the cornerstone will be done by the Hon. William M. Cottingham, Minister of Mines and Resources. The service will be conducted by the rector, the Rev. Horace G. Baugh, assisted by the Ven. Archdeacon J. F. Morris, Rev. Canon C. W. P. Baugh, Mr. Donald MacLeod representing the Presbyterian Church, and others. Organist will be Mrs. Norman Patterson.

'Ten Commandments Are Present Necessity', Says Bishop at Anniversary

The following of the Ten Commandments is a present-day necessity, said the Lord Bishop of Montreal. "They are a necessity in holding back the flood of lawlessness and immorality, which is ever present as a rising tide." . . . The Bishop spoke at the 125th anniversary of the building of St. Matthew's Church, Grenville, on Sunday last. His subject was "The three hills of Christian character" —

Mount Calvary — the love of God.

Mount Olivet — immortal life.

St. Matthew's Church, with its spiritual warmth and natural beauty, was filled with worshippers for the service of Thanksgiving, marking its 125th year. The parish itself was founded one year earlier, in 1831.

Brownsburg United Church Organizations

Again all organizations of the Brownsburg United Church are resuming the usual work to be carried on after the summer holidays.

The annual Fall Supper took place on two evenings, September 19 and 20. Sponsored by the Senior W.A., this event proved the success it usually is. The ladies catered to over 400 persons.

At W.C.T.U. Executive Session Held in Toronto

Cushing West — Mrs. Wm. Usher, vice-president of the Canadian Women's Christian Temperance Union, recently returned from attending an executive meeting at Willard Hall, Toronto.

The program was planned for the Biennial Convention, to be held in Halifax in September, 1958. The World's Triennial will meet in Mexico in 1959.

The Canadian W.C.T.U. promotes the National Temperance Study Course for juniors and teen-agers in all ten provinces and in Bermuda each year. Upwards of 13,000 pupils study these five lessons, and more than half that number write the answers to the questions set, receiving awards and prizes. Of the 26 departments of work in this organization, the above project requires more than $3,000 annually to finance it.

In this era of high wages, 44 percent of the cars being brought into British Columbia are financed by time payments. If the figure is applicable to this area, one-half the families in the area are paying for a sooper-dooper special.

Attended Ch. of Commerce Provincial Conference

Mr. Miville Trickey (president) and Mr. Bertrand L'Heureux, of the Lachute Chamber of Commerce, represented that group at the annual conference of the Province of Quebec Chambers of Commerce held last week at Chicoutimi. They report a full and instructive program, interspersed with sidelights of interest.

~

Mr. Bobby Hay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Hay, returned to Montreal this week to enter 2nd year Engineering at McGill — after an interesting experience on geological survey work in Ungava all summer.

~

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Murdoch and son returned Tuesday to Detroit after visiting his mother, Mrs. Jas. Murdoch.

Miss Ruth McMahon spent last week in Toronto, and is in Beaconsfield this week, on her vacation.

Mr. Ben Rogers arrived home after visiting his daughter and family in Breckenridge, Que. While there, he visited the Aylmer Fair and was impressed by the fine showing of handiwork, fruit and vegetables, also by the excellent horse show. Mr. Rogers met many old friends and acquaintances.

~

Mr. Campbell Stephens is attending the Science faculty of Queen's University at Kingston, Ont.

~

Mr. Scott Taylor left Tuesday for McGill to enter his 3rd year Engineering. Scott has spent the summer season on company survey work in Labrador.

Entertained for Bride-Elect

Those who entertained in honor of Miss Gloria Cruise, prior to her recent marriage, were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cruise, of Montreal, at a china shower; Miss Margaret Holt, at a crystal shower; and Mrs. W. Hunter, at a miscellaneous shower.

School Board Meeting

Interested parents and residents are advised that the next Protestant School Commission meeting will be at the High School on Tuesday, October 1, at 8 p.m. . . Chairman Jas. McGibbon, at the recent opening ceremonies, urged upon listeners to give their support to the Board by attending these meetings and offering advice as problems arise.

Tickets Available for Big East-West Football Event

Anyone requiring tickets for the East vs. West All-Star footbal game on December 7 at McGill Stadium, may contact R. Hadley Jock Maitland or Hector Steele (Brownsburg), Jack MacKimmie Cliff Cunningham or R. Cairns (Lachute). All proceeds from this game go to the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children — so it will be a sporting gesture to buy a ticket even if you can't attend.

Wed Recently at St. Simeon's

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hartland Stanley Andrews, whose marriage took place recently in St. Simeon's Anglican Church. The bride is the former Miss Isabel Margaret Hodge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hodge, of Lachute. Mr. Andrews is the son of Mrs. Ethel Andrews, of Ottawa, and the late Mr. Ralph Gilbert Andrews, of Ottawa and Montreal.

Branches Report As Women's Inst. Activities Resumed

Frontier W.I. Branch gave cotton for the Cancer Society.

Dr. F. W. FitzGerald spoke on Rheumatic Fever and the Asiatic Flu.

This branch also had a talk on Air Defence, and a film was shown on the development of aircraft, at a previous meeting.

Jesusalem - Bethany report having had their first president, Mrs. J. Boyd, with them at the September meeting, the occasion being her 87th birthday.

Five dollars was sent to the Salvation Army and an additional $10 was donated to the School Fair.

Lachute members heard the report of the provincial convention at Macdonald College, and plans to raise $1 per member towards proposed erection of the Federal Office in Ottawa.

Lakefield also heard the report of the provincial convention, and had an interesting talk on "Women's Rights in the Province of Quebec", by Mrs. J. Seymour Bell.

A very successful bazaar and an apron parade were also reported.

Mille Isles branch had Dr. Alan Ross, physician-in-chief of the Montreal Children's Hospital, as their guest speaker recently. Dr. Ross reported on an All-Union Congress of Pediatricians in Russia, from which he had just returned. Colored slides were also shown.

The report of the provincial convention was given, and articles from the Federated News and C.A.C. Bulletins were read.

At Upper Lachute - East End branch, Dr. Douglas Hamly, of Hawkesbury, showed interesting slides of the St. Lawrence Seaway, both before work had begun and after work was well underway. He also showed pictures taken at Cape Breton.

Reports were given on an apron and food sale held recently, and on catering for the School Fair.

Someone has defined success as the art of making your mistakes when nobody is looking.

*Of the balance, 6% is held in the U.S. (including 4.2% by American Telephone and Telegraph Company); 1.7% in the United Kingdom and elsewhere.

Canadians own this big share of The Bell Telephone Company

No other company has so many Canadians sharing in its ownership. Bell shareholders in Canada today total 150,000. Of these, 12,000 are our own employees and pensioners. And, of course, many, many more are Bell customers.

So Bell Telephone—owned, controlled and operated by Canadians to serve Canadians—is a distinctly Canadian enterprise.

Suburban Ceremony of Interest Here

The marriage of Beverley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, of Verdun, Que., to Mr. Alexander Liutec, son of Mr. George Liutec, of Montreal, and of Mrs. Liutec of the Ukraine, took place Saturday afternoon, August 31, at four o'clock in St. Luke's United Church, Montreal, the Rev. A. G. Moore officiating. Mr. Gordon McHaffie played the wedding music and Mr. Fred Brooks, as soloist, sang "Beloved it is Morn" and "All Joy be Thine." Pink gladioli and white shasta daisies were used to decorate the church.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a floor-length gown of nylon tulle and imported lace over taffeta fashioned with a fitted lace bodice having a sabrina neckline trimmed with seed pearls and mother of pearl sequins, and long sleeves ending in points over the hands, and a very full bouffant skirt of nylon tulle with an insert of lace. Her short veil of embroidered tulle illusion was held by an open Juliet cap fashioned of tulle and seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red Happiness roses and white shattered carnations.

Miss Marjorie Gates and Miss Mary Burak, as bridesmaids, were in waltz-length frocks of white frosted organza over colored taffeta fashioned with Queen Anne necklines and bouffant skirts having wide cumberbunds and butterfly bows in the back of matching taffeta. Miss Gates wore orchid and Miss Burak wore yellow with matching feather bandeaux and shoes and carried nosegays of white shasta daisies. Little Miss Cora Koculym, as flower girl, wore a short dress of pale blue nylon over taffeta trimmed with white lace and carried a nosegay of white shasta daisies.

Mr. George Humeniuk acted as best man for his cousin and the ushers were Mr. Carman Sutton and Mr. Russell Holmes, of Cardinal, Ont.

Mrs. Robinson, the bride's mother wore a dress of powder blue chiffon over taffeta and a dusty rose velvet and feather hat with black accessories and had a corsage of Pinocchio roses.

Mrs. Humeniuk, who represented the groom's mother, wore a navy blue taffeta dress, black straw hat and black accessories and had a corsage of white roses.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. A. W. Gates and Mr. Lorn Gates of St. Andrews East Que., Mr. W. J. Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Brown of Lachute, Que., Mrs. H. Bebee, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bebee, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Boyd of Ottawa, Ont.; Mr. Heber Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Holmes of Cardinal, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. George Gates, Master Robert Gates and Miss Brenda Gates of Brownsburg, Que.

Fall Fruits — Attractive, Delicious

One of the nicest traditions of the Thanksgiving season is that of using harvest foods for decoration. Here we see fall fruits — luscious red apples, yellow-pink crabapples and bunches of juicy, purple grapes — blended with colorful maple leaves and bittersweet to make a charming background for an October party buffet table.

'Softer Line' and Feminity Stressed in Fashion Display

Montreal — Femininity was the keynote of the fall-winter collection of the Association of Canadian Couturiers premiered in Montreal Monday. The designers said it was a "continuation of the return to the softer line" that has marked collections of the past few seasons.

The premiere was held at breakfast in the Ritz-Carlton Hotel under the joint sponsorship of the Canadian Fabrics Foundation and the Primary Textiles Institute.

Apart from the almost unanimous emphasis on femininity, the collection brought forth more ensembles than in previous years — garments designed to go together and to compliment each other.

Canadian-made fabrics, which the couturiers used exclusively, played an important part in the collection. From filmy chiffons to bulky tweeds, fabrics were used by the designers to achieve a fluid line or rounded silhouette.

With a few exceptions, the designers favored a slightly-restrained loose fit. In the lighter weight fabrics, draping was frequently used and softness was achieved with heavier fabrics by the use of a lot of fabric to create fullness or blousing for rounded contours.

Green was definitely the predominant color in the collection, particularly in subdued mossy or olive shades. Red was popular in evening wear, and black, as always, made frequent appearances in creations for all occasions.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

If you think you're an expert driver, you needn't read this. But if you're just learning — or thinking about brushing up — you may get some tips from this report. It's from a friend who just finished a driving course taught by professionals.

On the first day, there's a two-and-a-half-hour class session. Students see a movie depicting right and wrong driver attitudes, and attend an instruction period on the mechanics of driving, utilizing a scale model car. Students are then given psycho-physical tests to determine field of vision, night and glare vision, brake reaction time, and depth perception. Results of these tests are given to the instructor who accompanies the student for the rest of the course.

After this, there are ten two-hour periods of instruction in the automobile. The student spends one hour of each period driving and one hour observing from the back seat while another student drives. The observer wears a safety belt; the instructor sits next to the driver in the dual-control automobile.

(My friend was most impressed with the "observation" idea. She learned a great deal by watching the other student's mistakes — and was grateful for the safety belt more than once.)

Between the ninth and tenth lesson, the student must practice driving a minimum of ten hours at home. Naturally, she must be accompanied by a licensed driver.

The final lesson consists of a comprehensive review of all instruction and a qualifying driving test. If the student wishes, a written driving analysis will be provided by the instructor. It tells the student what her weak points are so she can concentrate on improving them prior to the official test.

Local Nurse Takes Course in Painless Childbirth Technique

Nurse Lucille Papineau, sister of Dr. Marc Papineau and a familiar figure at the latter's medical clinic on Main Street, where she has served professionally for the past 10 years, is presently taking a course of specialized obstetrics at the Trude Sekely Institute. The study concerns a technique of natural and painless childbirth which has been developed at the institution almost to a point of perfection.

The "treatment" consists of progressive instruction to expectant mothers in the role they are called upon to play, and in stressing "labor" as a natural process. The technique, simple in itself, helps to eliminate the anxiety of expectation, by removing the fear of labor pains and all the mystery surrounding childbirth. Incidental to this theoretical approach is a program of muscular and breathing exercises, and advice to the patient as to posture and movement while carrying the child.

Miss Lucille Papineau, R.N., has had active part in the pre-marital education courses conducted here in the past few years. On concluding her three-weeks study at the Trude Sekely Institute, she will be in a position to explain details of this technique to expectant mothers within her sphere of practice.

The braided rugs that were Grandmother's pride are becoming popular again and are being used with both traditional and contemporary decoration. Consumers like the rugs because they wear well, complement rather than cover polished floors, and are inexpensive to maintain. One manufacturer has just announced a whole range of new styles.

Minestrone
Roast Beef and Cheese Salad Plates
Potato Salad and Green Bean Bowl Salad
Plum Compote
Ginger Cream Drop Cookies
Coffee or Tea Milk

All measurements are level; recipes proportioned to serve four to six.

Roast Beef and Cheese Salad Plates: Arrange a tossed salad of crisp water cress and mustard leaves or chicory on six dinner plates. Alongside lay alternate slices of cold roast beef and sharp Cheddar cheese.

Add 1 fine-shredded medium mild onion. Blend ½ c. dairy sour cream with 1½ tbsp. vinegar, 1½ tsp. sugar, ¼ tsp. salt and ⅛ tsp. white pepper. Toss into the beans. Heap in a bowl.

Ginger Cream Drop Cookies: Melt 1 c. shortening. Beat in 1 c. dark brown suger, 1 c. molasses, 1 beaten egg and 1 c. dairy sour cream.

Sift 1 tsp. ground clove, ½ tsp. ground cinnamon, ½ tsp. salt and 2 tsp. baking soda with 2 c. already-sifted enriched flour. Add to the first mixture. Then stir in 2 c. additional sifted enriched flour. Cover; refrigerate 1 hr.

MUSTARD-HORSERADISH FRENCH DRESSING FROM THE CHEF

W.I. Song Group At Nat'l Convention

When the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada hold their first convention in Ottawa next month, the Harwood Singers will be a feature of the program on the opening day.

This is a choral group of women's voices, sponsored by the Harwood Women's Institute, Dorion-Vaudreuil, with nearly all of the singers belonging to the W.I. Miss Jean Straight, of Lakeside, has been its director, with Mrs. Kay Dodd, of Senneville, pianist.

The group has been heard with pleasure at the last few provincial conventions at Macdonald College and the Q.W.I. is proud that it has received this invitation to appear at the national gathering.

Appetizing Dessert From Pantry Shelf And Refrigerator

Preparing delicious meals without going near the stove is becoming increasingly easy for homemakers — thanks to the pantry shelf and refrigerator with canned meats, chilled soups, salads galore, and refrigerator-made desserts.

In the last category, we have an entry today which is bound to draw rave notices. A luscious banana torte fashioned of sweetened condensed milk, lemon juice, diced bananas and heavy cream and chilled to creamy rich perfection.

Sweetened condensed milk combines magically with the other ingredients to produce a rich, smooth filling without any cooking at all. The filling is poured into a rectangular cake pan between two layers of graham cracker crumbs.

This is an ideal dessert to make in the cool of the morning and leave chilling in the refrigerator all day. Garnished with whipped cream and sliced bananas, it looks like a real beauty when served with tall glasses of iced tea.

Magic Banana Torte

1 Cup (about 12 crackers) finely crushed graham cracker crumbs, 3 tablespoons butter (melted), 15-oz. sweetened condensed milk, ½ cup lemon juice, 2 medium-size ripe bananas (diced), 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 cup whipping cream.

Combine graham cracker crumbs and butter. Reserve 2 tablespoons of crumb mixture. Press remaining crumb mixture evenly over bottom of lightly buttered (8 x 8 x 2-inch) square baking pan. Combine condensed milk and ½ cup of the lemon juice; stir until smooth and thickened. Mix together lightly bananas, remaining lemon juice and sugar until bananas are well-coated with the juice. Fold into the condensed milk mixture. Whip heavy cream; fold into mixture. Pour into pan; spread evenly. Sprinkle reserved crumbs on top. Chill until firm, about 12 hours. Cut into 2 x 2½-inch portions.

Area rugs have gone glamorous with a vengeance. A new group of such rugs features designs worked in silver and gold metallic yarns. The yarns used in the rugs are said to be non-tarnishing and give the rugs a richly modern look. The gold tones are particularly handsome in combination with the mellow patina of well waxed floors.

Fashions

Fine tweed, in a honeycomb weave in a delightful tone of greige, is the fabric used for an ensemble of great elegance. The dress has a boat neck and has very brief cap sleeves. The hipbone-length jacket is slashed on either side of the front and flaunts a sumptuous shawl collar of chinchilla.

You will save yourself much work on your kitchen floor if you will give it a coat of self-polishing wax. First wash the floor with soap and water to make sure that all grease and dirt is removed, then go over it with clear water to remove any remaining soap film. When the floor is dry simply apply the wax with a long handled applicator. The floor will remain bright and shining with occasional moppings for many weeks.

FOR PARENTS ONLY...

A Weekly Feature of Helpful Hints on Child Training

Code of Sportsmanship

(Copyright) — By NANCY CLEAVER —

Did you ever ask your child what is his idea of sportsmanship? "A good sport" is honored in every school and in every community, large or small. Did you ever discuss with your boy or girl what are sensible rules for games of all sorts?

City high school football leagues have adopted the Red Feather Code in many areas. They are provided with a fine set of rules to follow at all times, not only in football, but in the battle of life. Read them slowly and see if you think anything essential has been left out:

1. Play the game for the game's sake.
2. Be generous in winning.
3. Be gracious in losing.
4. Be fair at all times, no matter what the cost.
5. Be obedient to the rules.
6. Work for the good of the team.
7. Accept gracefully the decision of the officials.
8. Believe in the honesty of your opponents.
9. Conduct yourself, at all times, with honor and dignity.
10. Recognize and applaud honestly and wholeheartedly the efforts of your team mates or opponents, regardless of color, creed, or race."

Long before boys and girls reach Junior High or Collegiate they have been influenced by others in their picture of a good sport. Have you ever watched the smallest children run a race at a Sunday School picnic? This is often a very amusing sight as they run from the starting point to the fininshing line. Some of the little folk certainly are in no hurry to get there! "It's fun to run on the grass, but why all the fuss about arriving at the long rope held by two of the teachers?" they seem to question.

This casual attitude towards winning unfortunately is soon lost by the majority of children in the lower grades of public school. Competition is in the air and both teachers and parents see how hard it is for them to lose. Physical education teachers do encourage students to play for their team instead of for their own glory. Emphasis is placed on co-operation of a group instead of an individual performance.

Mother and Dad can help mould the child's sportsmanship ideals. In asking about a game in which their child has played, their only question sometimes is, "Did you win?" It is worth while to take time to find out about the progress and skill shown in the game, and, better still, if possible, watch your child when his team is in a series.

There should be both indoor and outdoor leisure time equipment owned by every family. A child should have the chance to become more proficient in shooting a ball at a basketball ring, or improving in some other individual skill, as well as in playing with others. Puzzles, both cross-word and jig-saw, are enjoyed by many youngsters. Some play material can be home-made, such as blocks for younger children cut from lengths of wood.

Community playgrounds have a vital role but they do not replace, they just supplement, good times at home. In this age of spectator amusements, parents must guard against the false conclusion that once they have invested in TV their child's spare time can be adequately filled.

Every youngster craves active play with his chums. If parents are fun to do things with, he will appreciate an occasional game with them too. By their spirit in winning and losing, Mother or Dad can do a better job in teaching sportsmanship than by just talking about it. How long is it since you have bought a new game and played it with that son or daughter of yours?

Both have a bank account - and a purpose for saving

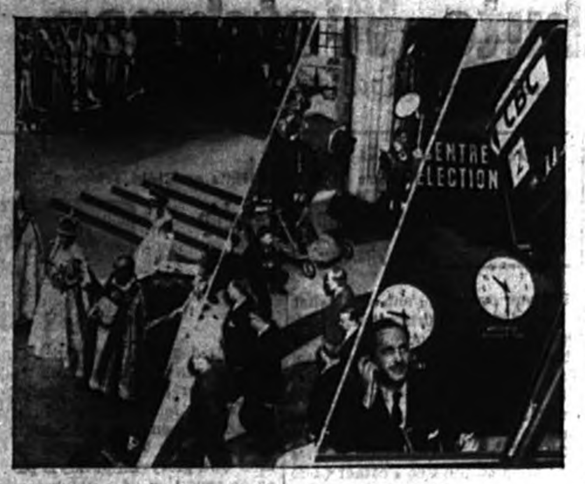

Nurse and father both agree that some things are too important to leave to chance. So, like most Canadians, each uses a chartered bank for planned saving, making regular deposits to accomplish a definite purpose.

Your own savings plan may be a short-term, modest one — maybe a vacation trip, or new drapes for the living room. Or your goal may be long-range, like providing more security, greater comfort and independence for you and your family.

Appeal for Volunteer Blood Donors At Brownsburg Clinic September 30

Brownsburg — A year has elapsed since our last Blood Clinic Campaign, and we are renewing our efforts to help maintain this very necessary portion of the Red Cross Service. We appeal to our donors who have faithfully given; we are confident that they will respond in greater numbers than they have in the past, and that we will exceed last year's number of 266 donors.

Our district covers all of Brownsburg to the outlying areas of St. Philippe, Cushing, Ogdensburg, Dalesville, Pine Hill and St. Michel.

"What Does Blood Do?"

Blood, which the heart pumps rapidly round and round the body through miles of blood vessels, does many things to keep us alive and healthy. It carries the necessities of life — oxygen, water and food — to all the cells of the body.

Blood helps the cells of the body to breathe by bringing them oxygen from the lungs and by taking carbon dioxide from the cells back to the lungs, where it is expelled.

It carries food from the intestines to the cells and carries waste products to places where they are removed from the body. It also furnishes water to the cell tissues.

It distributes heat produced by the working muscles; and because of its water content and mobility, blood serves as a temperature regulator for the body.

In addition to all these jobs, blood, by the action of its white cells, antibodies, and certain complex chemical substances, serves as a constant bodyguard against infections and other diseases.

Blood does these things for us in its normal course through our bodies. In addition, our donations of this magic fluid may help to save the lives of others.

The clinic will be held at the Brownsburg Legion Hall from 7.45 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Monday, September 30.

PIANO MARATHON GOES 134 HOURS

Saint John, N.B. (CP) — Dance band or concert musicians may look startled when they hear that Jim Montecino played the piano here to a new marathon-playing record for the British Commonwealth.

The New Zealand-born musician tickled the ivories for 134 hours and 30 minutes, to beat the old record by 50 minutes.

When he finally stopped, to the cheers of the crowd, he said "I could have played another day." After eight hours' sleep, he said he felt completely refreshed.

He played at different localities during the marathon, the piano and player being transported on a truck. While the piano itself was being hoisted up and down, he played on a miniature instrument, resuming as soon as the big piano was in place.

Midget Car Races At Rigaud Park

The promoter of Rigaud Park, on the lookout for something new to interest the public, will present this Sunday, September 29, a program of Midget Car races. These small autos measure only nine feet long and have average speeds up to 70 miles.

Presented for the first time in this region, these tiny cars are in demand all across Canada and U.S.

Also on the same bill, R. G. Labelle, the promoter, is sponsoring a Sprint Car race. These machines are a little bigger than the Midget, but reach higher speeds. Their drivers must be accurate and skilful, and often in spite of their skill, a spill or two will occur.

The program is under direction of Speed Enterprises Reg'd, of Ottawa, and in case of rain will be postponed to October 6. Rigaud Park is situated on Highway 17 at Rigaud, Que.

(Rain intervened last Sunday to prevent the motorcycle races billed for that occasion.)

Collection of Paintings Arrives for Exhibition

The largest collection of British paintings of the 18th century ever to be sent to Canada was aboard the 22,000-ton Cunard liner Saxonia, which berthed at Montreal last week. The collection will be on exhibition in Canada until February, 1958, first at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts and later at the National Gallery of Canada, and the Art Gallery of Toronto.

Organized by the British Council, the collection contains 68 paintings lent by galleries and private owners in Britain; a further 19 works are being gathered from the United States and Canada. The artists represented include Gainsborough, Reynolds, Hogarth, Raeburn, Stubs, Lawrence, Romney, Marlow Wilson, Wright, Copley and Opie.

Queen Elizabeth II, who is patron of the exhibition, has lent four paintings — three from Windsor Castle and one from Kensington Palace. They include "Princess Mary" by Hopner, "Garrick as Kitely" by Reynolds, and Ramsay's "The Duke of Kent as a Child."

There are nine portraits by Reynolds, including the famous "The Duchess of Devonshire and her daughter, Georgiana", lent by the Duke of Devonshire and the Chatsworth Trustees.

Familiar Voice

One of the most familiar voices on Canadian radio is Lamont Tilden; he is heard frequently reading the CBC National News. He's been a radio announcer since 1931 spending the last 18 years with the CBC, something of a record. His record for the longest single broadcast was last June when, as anchor man on the radio election return broadcasts, he was at the microphone for seven full hours.

Local Boy in Orphanage Repair Crew On Outskirts of Metz, French Village

Paint brushes, plaster and old work togs, in lieu of RCAF uniforms, made a big difference to quite a few youngsters recently as Air Force personnel from the RCAF NATO Air Division's No. 2 Fighter Wing, Grostenquin, France, "invaded" St. Michel's Orphanage for a general "Operation Clean-up" day. In the work-bee was Sgt. Stan Cleland, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Cleland, St. Hermas, R.R. 1.

Several dark rooms and halls looked much brighter by the end of the day, when new plaster and gay colors appeared where broken and chipped plaster had once been. Many little boys and many gracious nuns stood by as the transformation took place. There were even times when the scraping of plaster and the swish of paint brushes were accompanied by the melodic strains of the choir boys in the next room.

The small orphanage, located on a narrow, cobble-stoned side street on the outskirts of the City of Metz, is becoming a familiar sight to many Canadians now serving in the Air Division in Europe. It is not at all uncommon to see a Canadian airman pull the small bell-cord outside the gate, waiting to be admitted by one of the nuns or children. All the Canadian visitors often bring little gifts.

St. Michel's Orphanage was "adopted" by RCAF personnel some time ago, in an effort to provide better accommodation, facilities and entertainment for the youngsters there. The Women's Auxiliary of No. 2 Fighter Wing has also joined in the cause by contributing a dozen mattresses and 36 heavy blankets to the orphanage. They have also sponsored Christmas and other festive parties.

TREND FAVORS CANADA

(Mercer Limited Bulletin)

Many Canadians deplore the trend towards women working permanently and fear its effect on family life — broken homes and juvenile delinquency.

If it is any comfort to them, the trend has gone much further in Great Britain and the U.S.

So far in Canada only 11 percent of our married women are holding jobs. In Great Britain the figure is 22 percent and in the U.S. 27 percent.

"What are my chances, Doc?"

Trade-in Plan For Brownsburg Telephone Users

"New plates for old" is the latest trade-in value in Brownsburg. The bargain, offered by the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, is part of the company's plan to change this locality's telephone numbers, next spring, to include the exchange name "LEcture".

R. R. Pearson, Bell manager for this region, said this week that to be ready for the change to telephone numbers consisting of two letters and five figures, all telephones must be equipped with a dial plate marked with both letters and figures. Many dials in Brownsburg are now marked with figures only.

Telephone customers are being asked to notify the company if they still have the old-style dial plates, Mr. Pearson stated. Old plates will be replaced with the correct type immediately.

Curbing Re-growth From Stumps

For one reason or another it is frequently necessary to remove trees, either native or planted specimens, that have outlived their usefulness. In many cases it may be impractical to remove the stumps with a bulldozer. Some species, such as willow and maple, have the bad habit of producing vigorous regrowth from the stump or surrounding ground and killing the stump and root system to prevent this often presents a considerable problem.

Many different treatments have been tried at the Canada Department of Agriculture Experimental Farm, Saanichton, B.C., and one of these has proved highly successful. This involves the use of a chemical, known under various trade names, that is in common use in controlling woody growth. It consists of the two hormone-type herbicides 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T. A formulation which contains these two in equal proportions with a guaranteed total of 64 to 80 ounces of acid equivalent per Imperial gallon is suggested. This is used at the rate of one fluid ounce per gallon of diesel or stove oil, and applied over the cut surface of the stump and the trunk to the ground level in a fairly fine spray until it commences to run off. Any exposed roots should also be sprayed. If re-growth has already occurred it should first be removed, unless it can be readily wetted in the spray operation.

In nearly all cases willow and maple stumps have been killed with one application. Where weak regrowth has occurred, however, a second spray will complete the job.

Garden-Graph

By DEAN HALLIDAY

When a tree is dug in a nursery a large part of its root system is necessarily lost. When it is replanted, a part of the top growth needs to be cut back to establish a healthy balance between the roots and top.

On most newly planted trees about one-third of the branches should be pruned, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph. Trim off any branches which are bruised or broken, also any that are too low or crowded. Do not cut back the leader or central stem, as this destroys the natural shape of the tree.

Trees which have a mass of fibrous roots do not require as severe pruning as trees which have only a long tap root.

After a tree has been set in the hole do not twist it in trying to position it. This may result in twisting the roots, thus causing them to "girdle" as they develop. As result of girdling, trees sometimes strangle themselves.

Young trees planted in the fall should be staked to protect them against strong winter winds, especially if planted in an exposed position. Tape or tie the young tree to the stake as shown in the Garden-Graph. It is also important to stake old trees, if they have been transplanted.

Newly planted trees often are benefitted by wrapping them against sunburn. This is done by wrapping strips of burlap in spiral fashion about the trunk of the tree.

St. Andrews East 4-H Calf Club Holds Field Day

The St. Andrews East 4-H Calf Club annual field day was held Saturday, September 14, with a large turn-out of members participating in the competitions.

Winners in the various breeds and classes were:

Senior Holstein — Pierre Charlebois, Diane Lemay, Nicole Lemay, Michel Fournier, Jacques Labrosse, Jacques Charlebois.

Champion, Guernsey — Yolande St. Jacques.

Reserve Champion, Holstein — Pierre Charlebois.

Showmanship — Yolande St. Jacques.

Donors of special prizes including the following: Bank of Nova Scotia, St. Andrews East; Bank of Montreal, Lachute; E. Monette; Fournier & Frères, Patric Fournier & Fils, J. A. Dupré, René Viau & Fils, Coopérative Agricole, A. E. Ladouceur & Fils, Léopold Charlebois and Hormidas Legault.

Entries Close Oct. 4 For Winter Fair

The Ottawa Winter Fair has announced prize lists to last year's exhibitors are in the mails and that anyone interested in exhibiting in this Autumn's show of champions has only to telephone or write the Fair offices in the Coliseum, Lansdowne Park, to receive entry forms. Entries close on October 4.

The big Eastern Canada show, with a number of interesting and attractive new features, runs from October 28 to November 6.

OUT ON A LIMB

By Stumpy McCulloch

Ol' Zeke was never one to waste words! When he wandered into the woods one day and didn't go home for supper, his grandson went down to fetch him. The lad found Zeke standin' in a clump of bushes. "Gittin' dark, grandpap," the boy said. "Yep." "Ain't you hungry?" "Yep." "Comin' home, then?" "Nope." "Why not?" "Cain't." "Why can't you?" "Standin' in a bear trap!"

* * *

Most fellers who grow timber on their wood lots figure it's cheaper to cut it themselves than sell it to an outside operator. For one thing, you can cut wood any time you want to—such as during the slack season! Besides, most fellers are more careful if they're cutting their own trees. They'll want to get the timber out of the woods without damaging their younger trees, and that's mighty important. 'Cause good forest management depends on repeated cutting, year after year!

* * *

Here's a surprisin' fact. A fire in Northern Wisconsin in early October, 1871, killed 1200 people—but hardly anybody heard about it! Know why? 'Cause on that same night—October 8th—Mrs. O'Leary's cow knocked over the lantern and set fire to Chicago. And, although the Wisconsin fire killed four times as many people, it was overlooked in the excitement.

* * *

Fire can be mighty dangerous for a Tree Farm, too. I find it's well worth the time and trouble to build fire lanes through my woods, and to keep grass fires away!

* * *

Well, sir, I guess you've heard what happened to Ol' Lem. He stayed on the farm while his boy became a bootblack in town. So now he makes hay while the sun shines!

For centuries that hard-working animal the beaver has been a symbol representing Canada, but the animal does not appear anywhere in the Canadian coat of arms.

Awards to Promote Tree Farming

Three prizes will be awarded to the best certified tree farms in Quebec within a 50-mile radius of the Hawkesbury C.I.P. Mill.

Following are the awards: first prize $200; second prize $100; third prize $50. Judging of the woodlots will be based on the most effective work done on the woollot as follows:

(1) Improvement Work (a) selection cutting or thinning, (b) reforestation, (c) drainage, (d) road construction, etc.

(2) Forest Protection from (a) grazing, (b) insects and disease (c) fire, (d) rodents, (e) erosion.

(3) Utilization, making best use of all merchantable parts of every tree.

There will be three judges: one representing Canadian International Paper Co., and the other two will be from outside the Company but will be well qualified to carry out this work.

During the next three years tree farmers are invited to enter this contest, and during the spring and summer of 1960 the judging team will visit all entered woodlots.

The last award, which was made during the summer of 1956, proved to be so successful that C.I.P. Forestry Division is convinced it is worthwhile repeating.

In a year Canadian railways transport about thirty million passengers, but passenger traffic provides less than ten percent of the rail industry's revenue.

Second longest river in Eastern Canada, second only to the St. Lawrence, is the Ottawa, nearly 700 miles in length.

Plastic Covers For Silage

Thin plastic sheet is a relatively new material which has been used successfully for covering horizontal silos, it is reported from Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. By keeping air out of the silo and draining water off it reduces spoilage to a minimum.

Under normal conditions when no cover is placed on a horizontal silo the top layer becomes spoiled to a depth of six to ten inches. While such covers as wetted sawdust, chopped straw or felt paper can be used they are not as effective as the plastic. Sheet plastic is available in two to six mils thicknesses (a mil being a thousandth of an inch) and in widths up to seven and ten feet.

In practice the plastic strips are placed on the top of a horizontal silo after it has been filled and well packed. Adjoining sheets are carefully lapped at least six inches and the plastic overhangs the sides so as to drain off the silo and not down the sidewall. After the plastic has been laid a thin layer of wet sawdust serves to hold it in place.

Whether plastic sheet can be used for more than one year depends on local weather conditions and on the thickness of the material. In cold areas the plastic freezes to the silage and usually cannot be recovered. It is then more economical to use thin plastic 2 mills in thickness applying new material each year. In locations where the top of the silo does not freeze it may be more economical to use plastic sheet four to six mills thick, and re-use it for several years. Since rats and mice have been known to eat plastic it should be stored in a safe place.

In addition to the use of plastic sheet for covering silos it may be used as a liner on horizontal silo walls which are not air-tight. It has also been used successfully on the inside of a snow fence silo.

WHICH FEED WILL I FEED MY FLOCK?

Now that you have cleaned, disinfected, wormed and put in Purina profit-making feeders and waterers, you need LIGHTS. And by hook or crook, get some electric light to the hens. Windows are important, but not nearly as important as lights. Hens should have 12 to 14 hours of light per day and no amount of windows can let in light that long in the fall and winter months. Also windows are the source of much cold getting in. Again on dark cloudy days they should have lights all day.

Now, while you are still cleaning up, you can be wondering which feed is the cheapest. If all feeds were equal in every respect, your job would be easy — just buy the one priced the lowest. But it just doesn't work that way. Nor is it as simple as buying a pair of shoes; you go into a shoe store and look over the different kinds and values they have, but then you can see some differences of values in the shoes as well as in the prices. In Laying Mashes, the same applies, to a greater or lesser degree, but the best way to judge a feed is to feed it for 3 or 4 months and keep track of how much feed they used and how many eggs they laid.

A small job, but few do it because if more did it we would sell a lot more PURINA POULTRY CHOWS. Purina Chows are not made to sell at a price, but to produce the best possible results at the lowest cost. AND THEY DO JUST THAT. Switch your flock to Purina Laying Chows (we have a chow for every condition), and see the difference. We deliver!
